OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

TRANSPORTATION OF AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES AND PRODUCTS

RECOMMENDATION FOR INDUSTRY TRANSPORTATION PLANS

In order to conserve and providently utilize vital transportation equipment, materials and supplies; and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, the following plan concerning the transportation of agricultural commodities and products thereof by motor vehicle is promulgated and recommended to the Chairman of the War Production Board for approval under section 12, Public Law 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. L. 351).

1. Industry Transportation Committee. The producers, motor carriers, processors and dealers in agricultural commodities and products thereof within any designated area shall select a committee to be known as an Industry Transportation Committee. This Committee shall be selected in a manner so as to be equally representative of such producers, motor carriers, processors and dealers. Upon the selection of such Committee the members thereof shall elect a Chairman. The Chairman of such Committee, prior to any action thereby, shall file with the Office of Defense Transportation information concerning the type of industry, membership of the Committee, method of selection thereof and a description of the area within which such Committee will act, together with such other information as may be required by the Office of Defense Transportation. The Office of Defense Transportation will review this information and approve or disapprove the Committee as constituted, and, if approved, will reserve the right to remove at any time any person selected as a member thereof. When approved, the Committee will be recognized by the Office of Defense Transportation as authorized to act within such area in the formulation of an Industry Transportation Plan.

2. Industry Transportation Plan. The Industry Transportation Committee shall formulate an Industry Transportation Plan, which plan shall be in conformity with the terms and provisions herein prescribed.

3. Contents; parts. The Industry Transportation Plan may consist of one or two parts as follows:

One part of the plan shall consist of a relocation of routes within the designated area arranged with the advice and assistance of such Committee. The routes of the motor carriers shall be revised so as to eliminate nonessential travel and to obtain maximum utilization of the motor trucks used upon the revised routes. The routes shall be so adjusted that the products of each producer will be transported to his chosen market. The price received by the producer shall not be changed by the plan.

The plan may have a second part which shall consist of a further relocation of routes within the same area, by which the products of the producer shall generally be transported to the processor or dealer who is nearest to the farm of the producer in the point of highway miles. This arrangement shall be known as zoning of market areas. Such zoning of market areas shall be arranged so that no producer will receive a price for his product which is less than the price he received under his prior arrangement. The plan shall provide that the processor or dealer will receive approximately the same quantity of such product as under his prior arrangement. Likewise, the plan shall provide that the producer may deliver approximately the same quantity of his product as under his prior arrangement.

4. Industry Transportation Plan shall be reduced to writing. The Industry Transportation Committee shall reduce to writing the details of such Industry Transportation Plan, which writing shall be signed by all members of the Committee. If the plan has been arranged in two parts, the writing shall consist of two parts as follows:

The first part shall describe the area, the number and location of the processors and dealers, the number of producers, the number of motor carriers and location of their present routes, the proposed relocation of routes, the truck mileage savings which will be accomplished by the arrangement, the nature and extent to which the proposed operation will be affected by any regulatory law or regulation and the name and address of any motor carrier who will suspend operations.

The second part of the plan shall contain the same information as required in respect of the first part of such plan, and, in addition, shall contain detailed information concerning the proposed zoning of market areas, a statement to the effect that the price received by the producer will not be changed by the arrangement, and the name, address and objection of any producer, motor carrier, processor or dealer who declines to participate in the arrangement.

5. General Restrictions. No provision shall be contained in any Industry Transportation Plan which will deny to the producer, processor or dealer the right to deliver or procure agricultural commodities and products thereof by the use of transportation facilities other than those of the motor carriers participating in the plan; and no provision shall be contained in any such plan which will require the motor carriers participating therein to perform any transportation service which is not authorized or sanctioned by law, or to render any service beyond its transportation capacity.

6. Publication of plan. The Industry Transportation Plan shall be publicized by the Industry Transportation Committee in such manner as will give all persons affected thereby an opportunity to examine the provisions of such plan. A true copy of this Recommendation and Certificate No. 28 issued to the Attorney General in respect of such Recommendation by the Chairman of the War Production Board shall be included in such publication.[1] The publication shall provide that any producer, motor carrier, processor or dealer in agricultural commodities and products thereof within such designated area may complain or comment in respect of the proposed relocation of routes or zoning of market areas as described in the plan. The manner and form of such publication shall be described in an appropriate certificate executed by the Chairman of the Industry Transportation Committee and such certificate shall be attached to the plan.

7. Adjustment of complaints. In the event complaints are received, the Industry Transportation Committee shall consider and adjust such complaints if possible. The Committee shall, if necessary, revise the plan to accord with any adjustment made by reason of such complaints. Any complaints received by the Committee which have not been adjusted shall be attached to the plan, together with a brief statement setting forth the position of the Committee in respect of such complaint.

8. Filing. The Industry Transportation Plan, as revised, together with the attachments herein prescribed, shall be filed with the Office of Defense Transportation. The General Counsel of the Office of Defense Transportation will review the plan, together with the attachment, and prepare an analysis thereof. If, in his opinion, the adoption thereof will accomplish substantial conservation and efficient utilization of motor trucks and vital materials without undue injustice or inequity to those affected and the plan conforms to the provisions, conditions and limitations of this Recommendation and Certificate No. 28 issued by the Chairman of the War Production Board in respect of such Recommendation, he will approve the plan and direct those who have agreed, or shall hereafter agree, to participate in the plan, to put it into effect and will so certify in writing to the Chairman of the War Production Board and to the Attorney General and will transmit to each of such persons a copy of the specific plan and his analysis thereof.

9. Administrator; Industry Advisory Committee. The Office of Defense Transportation will designate one of its employees to act as administrator of the Industry Transportation Plan. Such administrator will act in such capacity with the advice and assistance of an Industry Advisory Committee. Such Committee shall be selected by the participating producers, motor carriers, processors and dealers located within the designated area and subject to the same conditions and limitations as prescribed for the selection for the Industry Transportation Committee.

10. Complaints. After the effectuation of such Industry Transportation Plan, any participating producer, motor carrier, processor or dealer may file a complaint in writing with the administrator in respect of such Industry Transportation Plan. The administrator, with the advice and assistance of the Industry Advisory Committee, will attempt to adjust such complaints. In the event no satisfactory adjustment can be made, no compulsion shall be used upon such producer, processor or dealer. Any complaint received from a participating motor carrier will be considered and decided by the administrator with the advice and assistance of the Industry Advisory Committee. If the carrier is not satisfied with the decision, he may appeal to the District Manager of the Office of Defense Transportation. If his decision is adverse, the carrier may appeal to the Director, Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C., whose decision shall be final.

11. Records; inspection. The administrator shall keep a record of his acts pertaining to the operation of the plan, which record shall be available at all reasonable times for inspection by participants in the plan and by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

12. Termination. This Recommendation shall remain in full force and effect until six months after the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation may designate, or until any certificate issued in respect of this Recommendation shall have been withdrawn by the Chairman of the War Production Board in the manner provided by section 12, Public Law 603, 77th Congress, (56 Stat. L. 351).

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of January 1943.

Director.

Regional Office, Region I.

[Emergency Order 2 Under Ration Order 11]

FUEL OIL OTHER THAN KEROSENE IN SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Regional Administrator by § 1394.5715 of Ration Order No. 11, as amended, the following emergency order is prescribed:

(a) Findings. The Regional Administrator finds that in the States of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island, as the result of a serious decrease in stocks, there exists an emergency in the transportation and distribution of fuel oil which endangers the public health, the public welfare and the war effort.

(b) Scope of order. (1) Nothing in this emergency order shall be construed to limit the quantity of fuel oil of any grade which may be acquired by the persons listed in § 1394.5052 of Ration Order No. 11.

(2) This emergency order applies only to fuel oils of grades Nos. 2, 3, 4 5 and 6, hereinafter referred to as "fuel oil other than kerosene", and does not apply to fuel oil of grade No. 1, commonly known as range oil or kerosene, hereinafter referred to as "kerosene". Nothing in this emergency order shall be construed to affect the operation of Emergency Order No. 1.

(3) This emergency order shall be effective in the states of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island.

(c) Order. During the effective period of this order, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers,

(1) No person shall transfer or deliver fuel oil other than kerosene to any consumer nor shall any consumer accept a transfer or delivery if such customer has on hand a supply of such fuel oil sufficient to meet his estimated needs for seven days;

(2) No person shall transfer or deliver fuel oil other than kerosene to any consumer nor shall any consumer accept a transfer or delivery in an amount greater than a supply sufficient to meet his estimated consumption for ten days: Provided, however, That this limitation on the amount of a delivery shall not operate to prohibit a delivery of a greater amount

(i) Of residual oil where the minimum practicable delivery is more than a ten days' supply, or

(ii) Of distillate oil to the extent of 100 gallons, where 100 gallons is more than a ten days' supply, or

(iii) Where extraordinary circumstances of transportation or distribution require a delivery of more than a ten days' supply.

(3) List of priorities of transfers and deliveries. During the effective period of this order, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11, relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers, transfers and deliveries of fuel oil other than kerosene shall be made to all consumers on the following list, prior to deliveries to any other consumers:

(i) Consumers who require fuel oil other than kerosene for use in private dwellings;

(ii) Consumers who require fuel oil other than kerosene for use in buildings other than private dwellings used for residential purposes, including hospitals, apartment houses, hotels, rooming houses and the like;

(iii) Consumers engaged in operations listed on Schedule A of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3 to the extent necessary to enable them to carry on such operations, provided that such consumers certify in writing to the transferer the percentage of their present ration that is necessary to enable them to carry on such operations, and provided further that a copy of such certification shall be forthwith mailed by each such consumer to the nearest District Office of the War Production Board;

(iv) Consumers whose operations are not included in Schedule A of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3 but who may be certified by the Regional Director of the New England Office of the War Production Board, or by his duly authorized representative, to be engaged in essential war production the temporary interruption of which would seriously impede the war effort, provided that any such consumer shall furnish to the transferer such certificate or a copy thereof, prior to delivery;

(v) Consumers, who, in accordance with paragraph (7) of this order, obtain from a Local War Price and Rationing Board a certification in writing that they require fuel oil other than kerosene to a specified amount to meet an emergency involving a serious threat to life, health or valuable property, and who furnish such certification to the transferor prior to delivery.

The alphabetical or numerical arrangement of the foregoing list does not indicate priority of any consumer over another consumer on such list. All consumers on the list are in the same classification insofar as priority is concerned.

(4) Any person who has satisfied all current demands, as limited above, for either distillate or residual oil or both, made upon him by consumers on the priority list, may thereafter, subject to § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers, make transfers or deliveries out of his remaining stocks of such distillate or residual oil, as the case may be, to any consumer entitled to acquire fuel oil other than kerosene under Ration Order No. 11, except that the following are prohibited:

(i) Delivery to, and acceptance by, consumers for use in buildings operated exclusively for purposes of amusement, entertainment, athletics or sports, including but not limited to theatres, night clubs, bowling alleys, poolrooms, dance halls, barrooms and skating rinks;

(ii) Acceptance by consumers of delivery for use in buildings devoted in part to purposes of amusement, entertainment, athletics or sports, unless every practicable means has been taken to cut off the radiation and circulation of heat to the portion of such buildings devoted to purposes of amusement, entertainment, athletics or sports. Deliveries allowable under this paragraph shall be no more than sufficient to meet such consumers reduced needs.

(5) Any transferor of fuel oil other than kerosene who in good faith refuses to make a delivery to a consumer because of a reasonable belief on the part of such transferor that such consumer falls within the class of consumers deliveries to whom are prohibited shall not be deemed to have committed a violation of the provisions of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers.

(6) Any dealer may make a reasonable classification of consumers not on the priority list, based upon relative essentiality of use, and deliveries made in good faith on the basis of such classification shall not be deemed to be a violation of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers.

(7) Any consumer who requires a transfer for an emergency involving serious threat to life, health, or valuable property may, upon satisfying a Local Board of the genuineness of the need and the lack of other means of meeting it, obtain from the Local Board a certification of the existence of the emergency which will authorize delivery of a specified amount to such consumer to the same extent as if he were on the priority list above.

(8) Definitions. All terms in this order which are defined in Ration Order No. 11 shall have the meaning assigned to them in that ration order.

(9) Penalties. Any violation of this order shall be deemed a violation of Ration Order No. 11.

(10) Restrictions on transfers to consumers. Nothing contained in this emergency order shall authorize a transfer or delivery of fuel oil of any grade to a consumer except in exchange for valid coupons or other evidences, or delivery receipts, authorized by Ration Order No. 11.

(11) Effective period. This order shall take effect at 12:01 a. m. January 31, 1943, and shall terminate at 12:00 p. m. February 9, 1943, unless extended by further order.

(Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89, 421, and 507, 77th Cong.; W.P.B. Dir. 1, 7 F.R. 562; Supp. Dir. 1-O, 7 F.R. 8418; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; Ration Order No. 11, 7 F.R. 8480)

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9299

PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURE WITH RESPECT TO WAGE AND SALARY ADJUSTMENTS FOR EMPLOYEES SUBJECT TO THE RAILWAY LABOR ACT

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the United States, and more particularly by the act of October 2, 1942 (Public Law 729, 77th Congress), it is hereby ordered:

1. No increases in the wage rates or salary of any employee subject to the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, whether granted as a result of voluntary agreement, collective bargaining, conciliation, arbitration, or otherwise, and no decreases in such wage rates or salary, shall be made except in accordance with the provisions of this order; provided, however, that nothing contained in this order or Executive Order No. 9250 [1] shall be construed as affecting the procedure or limiting the jurisdiction of either the National Mediation Board, as defined in the Railway Labor Act, or the National Railway Labor Panel, as defined in Executive Order No. 9172,[2] except as herein specifically set forth.

2. No carrier shall make any change in wage rates, except such changes as by general order of the National War Labor Board, or by regulations of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, are permitted to be made without the specific approval of the Board or the Commissioner, as the case may be, unless notice of such proposed change shall have been filed with the Chairman of the National Railway Labor Panel, created by Executive Order No. 9172, and shall have been permitted to become effective as hereinafter provided.

Notwithstanding § 4001.2 of the Regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director,[3] for the purpose of determining what wage and salary adjustments may be made without any specific approval, the general orders of the National War Labor Board shall be applicable to all employees subject to the Railway Labor Act, except those receiving salaries at the rate of $5,000 or more per annum in regard to whom the regulations of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall apply. But any adjustment of salary under $5,000 heretofore approved by the Commissioner shall not be affected by this order.

3. If the Chairman of the National Railway Labor Panel has reason to believe that the proposed change, in wage rates or salary, may not conform to the standards prescribed in Executive Order No. 9250, or to the general stabilization program made effective thereunder, or to the directives on policy issued by the Economic Stabilization Director thereunder and the proposed change is not modified to conform to such standards, program, and directives, he shall designate three members of the Panel as an Emergency Board to investigate the proposed change and to report to the President. Otherwise, the Chairman of the Panel may permit the proposed change to become effective.

4. Emergency Boards, whether designated pursuant to the Railway Labor Act, Executive Order No. 9172, or section 3 of this order, in reporting to the President shall certify that their recommendations in regard to any proposed change affecting wage and salary payments conform with the standards prescribed in Executive Order No. 9250, the general stabilization program made effective thereunder, and with the directives on policy issued by the Economic Stabilization Director thereunder.

5. Copies of the report with recommendations made to the President by any Emergency Board under section 4 of this order shall be filed by the Board forthwith with the Economic Stabilization Director, the National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The Economic Stabilization Director may on behalf of himself or other departments and agencies concerned, report to the President the effect of the recommendations on the general stabilization program. PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1764]

PART 333—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 13

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Memorandum opinion and order granting temporary and conditionally final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board 13 for revision of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13.

On November 26, 1942, District Board No. 13 filed a petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting a revision of the price classifications and minimum prices which were established by an order dated July 6, 1942, 7 F.R. 5697, in Docket No. A-1481 for the coals of certain District No. 13 mines for all shipments except truck.

In support of this requested revision, the district board states that although its petition in Docket No. A-1481 requested that the same minimum prices be established for the coals involved herein as are applicable to the coal produced at the Whitwell Mine, Mine Index No. 95, the order of July 6, 1942, established minimum prices therefor in each size group 10 cents less than those applicable to Mine Index No. 95 coals except for shipments to Market Area 112 where minimum prices were established 6 cents higher than those applicable to Mine Index No. 95 coals.

District Board No. 13 also alleges that the coals of the mines herein involved are analogous to those of Mine Index No. 95 and have the same freight rate to Market Area 112 as the coals of that mine. The district board states that the prices established in Docket No. A-1481 offer the coals herein involved an advantage over other competing coals in all market areas except Market Area 112 and render them at a disadvantage in Market Area 112. It requests that prices be established for these coals the same as those established for the coals produced at Mine Index No. 95.

Accordingly, it appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth.

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter, and the following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 333.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

The petition proposed relief for the Cumberland Mt. Coal Co. Mine (Mine Index No. 1155) of Vandergriff, Layne and Sullivan. The records of the Division show that Vandergriff, Layne and Sullivan have been succeeded by Charlie Sullivan, and relief has been granted accordingly.

The petition also proposed relief for the coals of the Cain Mine (Mine Index No. 1227) of George D. Cain. Subsequent to the filing of the original petition herein, District Board No. 13 asked that the request for relief for Mine Index No. 1227 be deleted because the minimum prices for Mine Index No. 1227 were revised in Docket No. A-1606. Accordingly, the request for relief for this mine has not been granted.

Dated: January 23, 1943.

TEMPORARY AND CONDITIONALLY FINAL RELIEF, DISTRICT NO. 13

NOTE: The material contained in this supplement is to be read in the light of the classifications, prices, instructions, exceptions, and other provisions contained in Part 333 Minimum Price Schedule for District No. 13 and supplements thereto.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-232]

J. N. HEDBERG

J. N. Hedberg, San Jose, California, is a manufacturer of sirens which are made largely of aluminum.

During the period January 7, 1942 to October 23, 1942, without specific authorization from the War Production Board, J. N. Hedberg entered into arrangements with an aluminum foundry whereby he delivered aluminum scrap to the foundry which melted said aluminum scrap, cast same into sirens and other parts and delivered said parts to J. N. Hedberg for a charge of approximately $1,426.43. This aluminum weighed approximately 2,418 pounds. These transactions amounted to a toll arrangement and constituted violations of Supplementary Order M-1-d.

Subsequent to January 23, 1942, without specific authorization from the War Production Board, J. N. Hedberg used aluminum in the manufacture of sirens, having a value of approximately $11,576.77. The use of aluminum in the manufacture of said sirens constituted violations of Supplementary Orders M-1-c and M-1-i.

These violations of Supplementary Orders M-1-d, M-1-c and M-1-i have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.232 Suspension order S-232. (a) J. N. Hedberg, his successors and assigns, shall accept no deliveries from any source of primary aluminum, secondary aluminum, aluminum scrap or alloys of which aluminum constitutes the major part, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) J. N. Hedberg, his successors and assigns, shall not process, fabricate, assemble, or in any way use any primary aluminum, secondary aluminum, aluminum scrap or alloys of which aluminum constitutes the major part, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) J. N. Hedberg, his successors and assigns, shall not transfer or deliver articles heretofore produced by him, which contain aluminum, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve J. N. Hedberg, his successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent therewith.

(e) This order shall take effect February 9, 1943, and shall expire on August 9, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 4th day of February 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-233]

GRON METAL SPINNINGS MFG. CO., INC.

Gron Metal Spinnings Manufacturing Co., Inc., Chicago, Illinois, is a manufacturer of smoking stands and fluorescent lighting fixtures.

From January 23 to approximately October 30, 1942, the Company used aluminum, brass, steel and tinplate in the manufacture of large quantities of smoking stands. In the course of this manufacture the Company, at various times, violated Conservation Orders M-1-c, M-1-i, M-9-c, M-126 and Limitation Order L-62.

From April 2 to December 4, 1942, the Company manufactured and assembled fluorescent lighting fixtures in violation of General Limitation Order L-78.

The Company violated Priorities Regulation No. 3 by extending preference ratings to acquire approximately 14,300 pounds of steel which ratings were higher than the ones it was authorized to extend and apply. Furthermore, the Company while operating as a PRP unit applied and extended preference ratings other than the ones assigned to it on its PD-25A form in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 11. The Company also accepted deliveries of material at a time when its inventory was greatly in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 1 and failed to keep accurate and complete records of such inventories.

These violations of orders and regulations of the War Production Board have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.233 Suspension Order S-233. (a) Gron Metal Spinnings Manufacturing Co., Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not receive, put in process, process, manufacture, spin, assemble, or otherwise use any aluminum, copper, brass, steel, iron, or any other of the metals specified in the Metals List attached to Priorities Regulation No. 11 in any form, including scrap, or any parts and products containing any of such metals, except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Chicago, Regional Office, War Production Board.

(b) Deliveries of material to Gron Metal Spinnings Manufacturing Co., Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Chicago Regional Office, War Production Board.

(c) No allocation shall be made to Gron Metal Spinnings Manufacturing Co., Inc., its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Chicago Regional Office, War Production Board.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Gron Metal Spinnings Manufacturing Co., Inc., from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect on February 7, 1943, and shall expire on August 7, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 4th day of February 1943.

Such coupon notes shall be executed and forwarded to the transferor at the time of transfer or within twenty-four (24) hours thereafter.

(3) Nothing herein shall be deemed to forbid:

(i) The transfer of fuel oil actually in the fuel supply tank of a vehicle, boat, or equipment used for purposes other than supplying heat or hot water to buildings or structures, in conjunction with a lawful and bona fide transfer of such vehicle, boat, or equipment itself; or the consumption by the transferee in such vehicle, boat or equipment of fuel oil actually in the fuel supply tank thereof at the time of transfer; or

(ii) Transfers of fuel oil by legal process or by operation of law; or transfers of fuel oil in a storage tank or other container maintained by a consumer as part of an enterprise or establishment, or in the fuel supply tank of equipment supplying heat or hot water to buildings or structures, in conjunction with a lawful and bona fide transfer of such enterprise, establishment or equipment itself; or transfers of fuel oil by consumers to dealers or suppliers. Any person to whom a transfer of the character described in this subdivision (ii) is made within Area Two, shall forthwith report such transfer and the amount of fuel oil involved, to the local war price and rationing board in the area in which such fuel oil is located. (h) Directions as to deliveries and conversions. (1) The Director General for Operations may, from time to time, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (d), (e) and (g) of this order, issue specific directions directing or forbidding the transfer of fuel oil to any person or class of persons.

(2) The Director General for Operations or a representative of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War designated by him may from time to time examine and investigate the fuel oil burning facilities owned or operated by any person for the purpose of determining whether such equipment can be converted to the use of an alternate fuel. In making such investigation facts and circumstances which may relate to the particular problem, including the availability of alternate fuel, shall be considered. If it is found that the fuel oil burning facilities of any person may be converted to the use of alternate fuel, and that a supply of such fuel is available, without any unreasonable expenditure upon the part of the person and without working any exceptional or unreasonable hardship upon such person, then the Director General for Operations may, after notice sufficient to permit such conversion, forbid further deliveries of fuel oil for use in such facilities.

(i) Appeals and applications. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may file an appeal setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why he considers himself entitled to relief. All appeals shall be filed in quadruplicate. Any appeal involving a defense housing project shall be filed with the local Federal Housing Administration Office which shall review such appeal and transmit it, together with specific recommendations, to the Director of Marketing, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, South Interior Building, Washington, D. PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order No. 11,[1] Amendment 35]

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new paragraph (e) has been added to § 1394.5201; a new paragraph (e) has been added to § 1394.5705; § 1394.5721 is amended; in paragraph (a) of § 1394.5723 the phrase "which have not become void pursuant to paragraph (e) of § 1394.5201" is inserted between the phrase "A supplier may at any time deliver to any Board in the limitation area coupons" and the phrase "or other evidences including exchange certificates"; as set forth below:

Coupon Sheets

§ 1394.5201 Class 1 and Class 2 coupon sheets. • • •

(e) On and after February 20, 1943, all unit value coupons numbered "1" on Class 1 and on Class 2 coupon sheets shall be void. After thirty (30) days from the expiration of the period of validity, specified in paragraph (b) of this section, of all unit value coupons on Class 1 or Class 2 coupon sheets, other than unit value coupons numbered "1", such coupons shall be void. No fuel oil shall be transferred, and no exchange certificate, inventory coupon or other evidence shall be issued to a dealer or supplier in exchange for such void coupons.

• • • • •

Provisions Relating to Dealers and Suppliers

§ 1394.5705 Issuance of inventory coupons. • • •

(e) A dealer may at any time deliver to a Board in the limitation area unit value coupons on Class 1 or Class 2 coupon sheets, which have not become void pursuant to paragraph (e) of § 1394.5201, and obtain inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the coupons delivered. The dealer shall attach to the coupons delivered the summary required by § 1394.5722. The Board shall issue to him inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the coupons delivered.

• • • • •

Use of Coupons and Other Evidences

§ 1394.5721 Affixing coupons. Each dealer and supplier shall affix the coupons received by him directly from consumers to Form OPA R–120, in the manner directed thereon, when delivering such coupons to a Board (wherever in these regulations provision for such delivery is made) or, if his transferor so requests, to his transferor. Separate such forms shall be maintained for coupons of each type, and only coupons of the same class, gallonage value, and from the same thermal zone, may be attached to any one such form.

This amendment shall become effective February 10, 1943.

PART 1346—BUILDING MATERIALS

[Revised MPR 236,[1] Amendment 1]

HEATING BOILER CONVERSION PARTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Sections 1346.151 and 1346.159 are amended to read as set forth below.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 controls manufacturers' and producers' sales of conversion parts for warm air furnaces, sales of conversion parts for heating boilers in areas not subject to this regulation, or any sale of conversion parts for heating boilers where the total weight is 10 pounds or less; the General Maximum Price Regulation controls these sales when sold by any person other than a manufacturer or producer.

Maximum prices for the installation of the conversion parts for heating boilers and warm air furnaces referred to in the previous paragraph are established in Maximum Price Regulation No. 251.

Maximum prices for sales of conversion parts for marine and industrial boilers are subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 136.

Conversion parts, as defined in § 1346.169 (a) (8) of this regulation, do not include manganese steel castings or manganese steel casting products as defined in, and controlled by, Maximum Price Regulation No. 235.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 244, which establishes maximum prices for gray iron castings, does not apply, but this regulation does apply to the sale of § 1410.103 Maximum prices for woolen and worsted apparel fabrics sold by jobbers. * * *

(l) Sales by jobbers or manufacturers of apparel who purchase from converters. For the purpose of determining the maximum prices for jobbers, secondary jobbers or manufacturers of apparel who purchase woolen or worsted apparel fabrics from converters, the term "manufacturer" shall be construed to mean converter and the manufacturer's net invoice price and maximum price shall be construed accordingly

§ 1410.120 Maximum prices for sales of woolen or worsted apparel fabrics by converters—(a) How to determine maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales and deliveries by a converter of woolen and worsted apparel fabrics dyed and finished by him, or for his account, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) To what sellers this section applies. For the purpose of this section, the term "converter" means a person who during the calendar year 1942 was engaged in the business of purchasing fabrics in the grey (undyed) state and converting them, or causing them to be converted for his account, to the dyed and finished state.

A person who sells fabrics converted by him from the grey (undyed) state but who was not a converter during 1942 shall be classified as a jobber and his maximum price shall be determined in accordance with § 1410.103 of this regulation.

PART 1433—FEATHERS AND DOWN

[MPR 318]

FEATHERS AND DOWN

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

AUTHORITY: §§ 1433.1 to 1433.13, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1433.1 Sales of feathers and down at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) Regardless of any contract or other obligation (except as provided in § 1433.9, below), no person shall sell or deliver and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any feathers or down at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things. This regulation becomes effective with respect to sales or deliveries of raw or crude feathers on February 11, 1943, and becomes effective with respect to processed feathers or down on March 1, 1943. Feathers and down become "processed" when they have been cleaned, sterilized, and otherwise prepared to be used for filling sleeping bags and similar articles. The mere sorting of feathers does not constitute processing. More precise definitions of raw or crude feathers and processed feathers and down are contained in § 1433.3.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may be charged and paid.

§ 1433.2 To what products, transactions, and persons this regulation applies. (a) What products are covered by the regulation: This regulation covers sales of all grades of new raw or crude feathers and all grades of new processed feathers and down. Specific maximum prices in dollars and cents have been fixed for most of the grades of feathers and down which are used for the purpose of filling sleeping bags, pillows, and similar articles. It does not cover the sale of feathers used for millinery, sporting equipment and similar uses. Maximum prices for grades of feathers and down which are not specifically mentioned are to be calculated according to a method described below.

(b) What transactions are covered by the regulation: This regulation covers all sales of new feathers and down by any person to any other person including sales by brokers, dealers, except sales by a foreign seller to any domestic buyer. This exception includes domestic buyers who purchase through a bona fide agent.

(c) Any person who sells and any person who buys, in the course of trade or business, new feathers or down is subject to this regulation, except foreign sellers and domestic buyers insofar as they purchase from foreign sellers. The term "person" includes: an individual, corporation, or any other organized group; their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of its political subdivisions; or any agency of the foregoing.

§ 1433.3 Maximum prices for sales of feathers and down by all persons except brokers. The maximum prices which any person except a broker may charge for feathers and down are fixed by the table which follows:

TABLE OF MAXIMUM PRICES

(a) Raw or crude feathers:

Kind of feathers	Shipping terms	Maximum price per pound
1. Prime domestic goose: Gray or white feathers from the full grown goose, with full natural down content, containing not more than 3% wing and tail feathers by weight, and thoroughly dried.	F. o. b. dresser's plant or warehouse (the "dresser" is the person who plucks the fowl), packed for shipment.	$1.25
2. Prime domestic duck: Gray or white feathers from the full grown duck, with full natural down content, containing not more than 3% wing and tail feathers by weight, and thoroughly dried. "Full grown duck" means a duck with completely developed plumage which contains as much down as ducks ever develop at maturity.	F. o. b. dresser's plant or warehouse, packed for shipment.	1.00
3. XL Duck or XLDUX: Duck feathers of the standard quality, composition, and condition heretofore sold by the Feather Sales Agency of Brooklyn, N. Y., designated as XL Duck or XLDUX feathers.	F. o. b. Feather Sales Agency warehouse, packed or baled for shipment.	1.07½
4. Domestic duckling: Gray or white feathers from ducklings or not full grown ducks, sometimes called "green" ducklings, containing not more than 5% of wing and tail feathers by weight, and thoroughly dried. Ducklings are ducks with plumage not completely developed, which contains less down than the duck would produce if allowed to grow to maturity. down which have not been fixed by the above table—(a) Raw or crude feathers. Maximum prices for raw or crude feathers not specifically mentioned shall be prices in line with those fixed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 318. In calculating an in line price, consideration must be given to the amount and quality of processed down and feathers which can be obtained from the raw or crude feathers for which a maximum price is being calculated, compared to the amount and quality of the processed down and feathers obtained from the raw or crude feathers priced in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 318.

(b) Maximum prices for processed feathers and down not specifically mentioned shall be prices in line with those fixed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 318. In calculating an in line price, due consideration must be given to the quality of the down or feathers, including the filling capacity, resiliency, and other characteristics which affect quality and if the material is a mixture, the proportion of down and feathers must be ascertained and considered in calculating a maximum price.

(c) Before selling or offering to sell any raw or crude feathers or processed feathers and down other than the kinds and qualities for which dollars and cents prices are established in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 318, a seller shall submit to the Office of Price Administration (Consumers' Durable Goods Price Branch) a report showing the proposed maximum price and showing in detail how the price was calculated. Upon approval of the calculation of the price by the Office of Price Administration, or fifteen days after mailing the report, in the absence of a contrary direction from the Office of Price Administration, he may sell or offer to sell the feathers or down at the price reported.

§ 1433.5 Maximum prices which brokers or dealers may charge. (a) A broker or dealer is a person who buys and sells raw or crude feathers but does not process the feathers while they are in his possession. Neither the Defense Supplies Corporation nor any other government agency shall be considered a broker or dealer for the purposes of this section. A broker or dealer may add to the maximum prices which have been set out in the table in § 1433.3 the following charges:

(1) To the maximum price of raw waterfowl feathers, 7½% of the maximum price may be added, regardless of the point from which the feathers are shipped.

(2) To the maximum price of raw prime chicken and turkey body feathers, 1½¢ per pound may be added, if the feathers are shipped to the buyer directly from the dresser's city; 1½¢ per pound may be added if the feathers are shipped from the broker's own warehouse.

(b) A broker who cleans or sorts feathers to increase their value, may not upon the sale of those feathers add any charge on such sales; his maximum price is fixed in the table contained in § 1433.3.

(c) The Feather Sales Agency of Brooklyn, New York, may not add any amount to the maximum price of XL Duck or XLDUX, since that agency has traditionally performed the function of a broker, and the maximum price already includes a brokerage charge.

§ 1433.6 Prohibited practices. (a) Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars and cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings and the like.

(b) The following are among the practices specifically prohibited:

(1) Changing credit terms or any other conditions of sale which make such terms or conditions less favorable to the buyer than they were during October 1941.

(2) "Upgrading" or selling material of one grade at the price of a superior grade.

(3) Adulteration of feather stock by including large feathers or non-feather material to increase weight.

(4) Payment by the buyer to the seller of excessive "fees" for loading, packing, or otherwise handling the material sold.

(5) Sales of several types or grades of feathers showing only total weight and total price. Each sale must be itemized to show weight and price of each type and grade of material.

(6) Quoting only a delivered price: seller may prepay transportation, but must bill transportation charges as a separate item.

§ 1433.7 Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment. (a) The term "government contracts" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States." It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(b) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that a maximum price established in this regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of feathers and down which are essential to the war program and which are or will be the subject of a contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1433.8 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1433.9 Exemption from maximum price provisions of contracts to fill government orders. Any person who, before December 1, 1942, entered into a contract with anybody to supply feathers or down which are to be used in filling government contracts for sleeping bags or pillows may, prior to April 30, 1943, complete the contract at the contract price, even though that price is higher than the maximum price. If, however, those contract prices are higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, the seller must submit a copy of his contract to the Office of Price Administration (Consumers' Durable Goods Price Branch), Washington, D. C. within 30 days after the issuance of this regulation together with a statement of the amount in pounds of feathers and down which are not yet delivered under the contract.

§ 1433.10 Records. All sellers (including brokers or dealers) must keep records which will show a complete description of the feathers or down sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale and the prices. These records must be kept for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1433.11 Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or of any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation. "War procurement agencies" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

(d) The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are applicable to every person selling any feathers and down for which a maximum price is established by this regulation. These sections provide, in brief, that a license is necessary in order to make sales of any of the commodities for which maximum prices are established by this and certain other regulations. Such license is automatically granted to all sellers making these sales. It is not necessary to apply for the license, but a registration of all sellers may later be required. Licenses may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity which the seller is licensed to sell by said § 1499.16, and no person whose license is suspended may sell any such commodity during the period of suspension. A license may not be transferred.

§ 1433.12 Relation to other regulations. (a) Any sale or delivery governed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 318 is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.[3]

(b) The maximum price for export sales of feathers or down is governed by the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[3]

§ 1433.13 Effective date. (a) This regulation (§§ 1433.1 to 1433.13, inclusive) becomes effective with respect to sales or deliveries of raw or crude feathers on February 11, 1943, and becomes effective with respect to processed feathers or down on March 1, 1943.

(b) If feathers or down have been received before the effective date of this regulation, applicable to the particular feathers mentioned, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to a buyer, that shipment is not subject to this regulation. It remains subject to the terms of the General Maximum Price Regulation, which governed it at the time the feathers or down were turned over to the carrier.

Issued this 5th day of February 1943.

[Dockets Nos. A–1766, Part II and A–1786, Part II]

DISTRICT BOARD 4 AND SHEBAN MINING CO.

ORDER OF SEVERANCE, ETC.

In the matters of the petitions filed by District Board No. 4 and Sheban Mining Company for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals produced at the Sheban Mine, Mine Index No. 2314.

Order of severance and order continuing temporary relief, terminating final relief and notice of and order for hearing.

Original petitions, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act") were respectively filed in Docket No. A–1766 and Docket No. A–1786 by Sheban Mining Company and District Board No. 4, requesting among other matters, the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices, for shipment via rail for certain coals produced at the Sheban Mine, Mine Index No. 2314, located in District No. 4.

An amended petition, pursuant to said section of the Act, was thereafter filed in Dockets Nos. A–1766 and A–1786 by Sheban Mining Company requesting the establishment both temporary and permanent of price classifications and minimum prices for shipment by rail for coals produced at the said Sheban Mine.

Dockets Nos. A–1766 and A–1786 were consolidated by an order issued herein dated December 28, 1942, which established among other matters, temporary and conditionally final price classifications and minimum prices for certain coals produced by the Sheban Mine.

On January 14, 1943, District Board No. 8 filed a motion to modify the order herein dated December 28, 1942, and accordingly, it appears advisable that the price classifications and minimum prices established for the coals involved should not become conditionally final without a hearing, and that such hearing develop whether the coals produced at the Sheban Mine are cannel coals.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That those portions of the original and amended petitions heretofore filed herein, which relate to the request for relief, both temporary and permanent, for certain coals produced at said Sheban Mine be, and the same hereby are, severed therefrom, and designated as Dockets Nos. A–1766, Part II and A–1786, Part II.

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on February 26, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C.; and

It is further ordered, That Edward J. Hayes or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before February 21, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention, or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

It is further ordered, That the temporary relief heretofore granted for the coals of said Sheban Mine in the Order entered in Dockets Nos. A–1766 and A–1786 be, and the same hereby is, continued in effect until further order.

It is further ordered, That, with respect to the coals produced at the said Sheban Mine, the conditionally final relief heretofore granted in the order issued in Dockets Nos. A–1766 and A–1786 be, and the same hereby is, terminated.

It is further ordered, That the order heretofore issued in Dockets Nos. A–1766 and A–1786 shall, in all other respects, remain in full force and effect.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of Sheban Mining Company and the petition of District Board No. 4 filed in Dockets Nos. A–1766 and A–1786 requesting the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for shipment via rail for coals produced by the Sheban Mining Company, at its Sheban Mine, Mine Index No. 2314, located in District No. 4, and the petition of intervention of District Board No. 8 filed January 14, 1943, opposing the original petition and requesting that the temporary relief granted by the order issued herein dated December 28, 1942, be modified and to determine whether the coals produced at the Sheban Mine are cannel coals.

Dated: February 4, 1943.

[Docket No. A–1829]

DISTRICT BOARD 11

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 11 for an additional shipping point for coals produced from Mine Index Nos. 746 and 1354.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with the Division by the above-named party requesting the temporary establishment for 60 days of an additional shipping point at the Bobolink Mine, Mine Index No. 11 for approximately 13,000 tons of Third Vein mine run entry coal produced by the Honey Creek Mine, Mine Index No. 746 and the Victory Mine, Mine Index No. 1354, now stored on the ground at the Honey Creek Mine.

In support of the requested relief, petitioner alleges that the Pyramid Coal Corporation is the owner of the Victory Mine, Honey Creek Mine, and the Bobolink Mine, all of which are on adjacent properties. It appears that the Victory Mine tipple will not be completed until March 1, 1943 and the Bobolink Mine will be idle for several weeks starting January 15, 1943. In order to fill shipments on a current contract to the Indiana & Michigan Electric Company, petitioner requests that Pyramid Coal Corporation be given temporary relief by the establishment of the Bobolink Mine as an additional shipping point for a period of 60 days from January 9, 1943 pursuant to a telegraphic request and approval of the Director on January 9, 1943, for approximately 13,000 tons of Third Vein mine run entry coal produced at its Honey Creek and Victory Mines and now stored on the ground of the Honey Creek Mine.

It appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth, that no petitions of intervention have been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter, and the following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That temporary relief be granted as follows: The Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 11 for All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include the matter set forth in the Schedule marked "Supplement R" annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pending further order of the Director the relief granted herein shall be effective as of January 9, 1943 and shall expire on March 9, 1943.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within twenty-five (25) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: February 3, 1943.

(4) Emergency Order No. 2, heretofore prescribed and issued, shall remain in full force and effect except as modified with respect to transfer and deliveries of Bunker "C" oil by this emergency order.

(5) Definitions. All terms in this order which are defined in Ration Order No. 11 shall have the meaning assigned to them in that Ration Order.

TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 18—WAR SERVICE REGULATIONS

RECRUITMENT AND PLACEMENT, ETC.

Effective February 8, 1943, § 18.4 Recruitment and Placement issued, as amended, on September 26, 1942 (7 F.R. 7723) and on October 27, 1942 (7 F.R. 8841) is amended as follows:

§ 18.4 Recruitment and placement—(a) Procedure in filling vacancies. In conformity with the over-all labor supply policies of the Federal government which have been established in view of the comparatively small number of qualified persons now available for appointment to many positions, and in order to avoid competitive recruitment programs on the part of the agencies of the Federal government, the following procedures in the filling of vacancies must be observed:

(1) Each department and agency shall report to the Commission its estimated future needs for personnel, both in Washington and in the field, in such form and at such intervals as the Commission may prescribe.

(2) As soon as the need for filling positions becomes apparent, the department or agency concerned must place a requisition for personnel with the Commission.

(3) In filling requisitions for personnel, first priority will be given to qualified employees already in the Federal service. Especially will this apply to those who may, by order of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget, represent excess personnel where presently employed. Every effort will be made to utilize fully present employees of the Government before new employees are brought in from outside.

(4) The Commission shall, in consultation with the department or agency concerned, work out a program for developing sources of supply of qualified personnel. This program shall be of such a nature that full utilization will be made by the Commission of any resources available to the department or agency concerned.

No activities for developing sources of supply of qualified personnel shall be carried on except with the prior approval of the Commission and under its direction.

(5) Applications for employment in any positions in the Government service subject to these regulations, whether by original appointment or transfer, filed with any department or agency of the executive branch of the Government, shall be promptly transmitted to the Commission or its representatives. Except as may be provided for under subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, persons calling at any department or agency located at Washington, D. C., in connection with obtaining employment, shall not be asked to complete an application by such department or agency, but shall be referred to the Commission.

(6) No department or agency of the Government shall give any publicity to its needs or prospective needs for personnel through the press, in periodicals, trade or professional journals, over the radio, or otherwise, without the express prior approval of the Commission or its authorized representatives, and, after such approval, only in accordance with the applicable directives and procedures of the Office of War Information. This sub-paragraph shall apply to all positions which are subject either to the War Service Regulations or to the Civil Service Act and Rules.

(7) Upon the receipt of a request for names of qualified persons, the Commission will supply an adequate number from the head of appropriate lists of eligibles, or from such other sources as, in the judgment of the Commission, may be appropriate. The eligibles supplied by the Commission will not include the names of persons suggested by the appointing officer unless, in the judgment of the Commission, such persons are among the best qualified and available persons known to the Commission.

The Commission will not normally certify the name of a person proposed by an agency unless and until it has had a minimum period of two weeks in which to certify qualified applicants in response to the requisition. Under emergency circumstances, the Commission may shorten the time period specified in the preceding sentence, and the Commission may require a longer time period in the event of doubt as to the qualifications of the proposed appointee and in the temporary absence of other better qualified candidates.

(8) Whenever a requisition for personnel from any department or agency specifies qualifications which are, in the judgment of the Commission, too exacting in the light of the requirements of the job and of present labor market conditions, the Commission will return the requisition. In returning such requisitions, the Commission will indicate its willingness to work out with the department or agency concerned some other solution of its need for personnel, such as the development of a suitable training program and the recruitment of necessary trainees for such a program.

(9) The Commission may, upon agreement with the department or agency concerned, recruit persons directly for the filling of specific vacancies.

* * * * * *

(d) Selection. The nominating or appointing officer shall, with sole reference to merit and fitness, make selections for appointment from the names of eligibles furnished by the Commission unless better qualified persons for the position in question could be obtained by the Commission by presenting for consideration other names on the list of eligibles or by going outside the list entirely. The names of persons suggested by an appointing officer will not be included among the eligibles furnished by the Commission unless, in the judgment of the Commission, such persons are among the best qualified and available persons known to the Commission. An appointing officer who passes over an eligible granted disability preference or military preference and selects a person not granted such preference shall file with the Commission a statement setting forth in detail his reasons for so doing, which reasons shall not be made available to the veteran or to anyone else except in the discretion of the appointing officer.

Effective February 8, 1943, § 18.11 Extent of regulations issued, as amended, on September 26, 1942 (7 F.R. 7723), on September 28, 1942 (7 F.R. 8007) and on October 24, 1942 (7 F.R. 8679), is amended to read as follows:

§ 18.11. Extent of regulations—(a) Regulations superseded. The foregoing regulations shall supersede Civil Service Rules III, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X (5 CFR parts 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10), and all provisions of joint regulations inconsistent with these regulations, for all positions except (unless otherwise specifically provided in these regulations): (1) positions in the field service of the postal establishment; (2) positions other than those filled by civilian employees of the forces in the Police and the Fire Department of the municipal government of the District of Columbia; (3) positions of policeman in the U. S. Park Police force of the Interior Department.

(b) Regulations of Board of Legal Examiners. Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to affect any existing or future regulations promulgated by the Board of Legal Examiners pursuant to Executive Order No. 8743 of April 23, 1942.

(c) Applicability of War Manpower Commission directives. All actions taken under or pursuant to these regulations shall be subject to the directives and orders of the War Manpower Commission.

(d) Violations—Revocation of delegated authority. Whenever the Commission shall find that any department or agency, or part thereof, has acted in violation of any provision of the Civil Service Rules or of these regulations, the Commission may revoke in whole or in part any authority to act delegated to such department or agency, or part thereof.

(2) Notwithstanding the restrictions of (b) (1) hereof, any person required by the provisions of said (b) (1) to set aside Cheddar cheese may, at his option, sell or deliver all or part of the Cheddar cheese, set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof, to any authorized cheese assembler who agrees to set aside, out of the Cheddar cheese in his possession or control, a quantity of Cheddar cheese equal to the quantity of such set aside Cheddar cheese received by him and such authorized cheese assembler shall so set aside such quantity of Cheddar cheese. Each person delivering or shipping Cheddar cheese to an authorized cheese assembler shall deliver to such authorized cheese assembler a certificate, in duplicate, in substantially the following language (with the appropriate information inserted in the blank spaces), and the receipt of such Cheddar cheese shall be acknowledged by the authorized cheese assembler in the appropriate manner provided in said certificate:

(Signature of Authorized Cheese Assembler)

The authorized cheese assembler, after receiving Cheddar cheese as aforesaid, shall return one copy of the aforesaid certificate, after being duly acknowledged as aforesaid, to the person who delivered or shipped the aforesaid cheese; and such authorized cheese assembler shall retain the original of said certificate for at least one year after the date of receipt thereof.

(3) All Cheddar cheese set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be stored under the same conditions of storage customarily observed to maintain the quality of Cheddar cheese. At least 80 percent of the Cheddar cheese thus set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be No. 1 quality or better, as defined in the U. S. (4) Any cheese assembler who desires to become an authorized cheese assembler shall file with the Director an application, upon a form approved by the Director, setting forth the information requested in said form of application. Thereupon, the Director shall consider such application and issue a letter of authority unless, in the opinion of the Director, the issuance of such letter of authority will not tend to effectuate the purposes hereof. Any letter of authority may be revoked at any time by the Director. No person shall represent himself to be an authorized cheese assembler unless he holds a letter of authority duly issued by the Director pursuant to the provisions hereof. No person other than an authorized cheese assembler shall receive or, after receipt, deal in Cheddar cheese set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof.

Quantities set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof may also be released upon notice to that effect from the Director.

(6) The restrictions hereof shall be observed without regard to the rights of creditors, existing contracts or payments made. This Order shall not, however, be construed as reducing the amount of Cheddar cheese which any person is required to offer or deliver, under existing contracts or contracts subsequently entered into, to any agency specified in or pursuant to the provisions in (b) (1) hereof.

(c) Records and reports. Each person subject to this order shall maintain such records, for such periods of time, and shall execute and file such reports and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such time as may be prescribed by the Director.

(f) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may apply in writing for relief to the Director, setting forth, in said petition, all pertinent facts and the reasons for such petition being approved. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, and such decision by the Director shall be final.

(g) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, by any act or omission, falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order, or willfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter, in connection with this order, within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against such person as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to insure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of dried fruit to meet war and civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1407.1 Restrictions on the purchase, delivery and use of dried fruit—(a) Definitions. When used in this order unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) "Dried fruit" means the whole or fleshy portions of apples, apricots, peaches, pears, prunes, or grapes (raisins) preserved by the removal therefrom of part of the natural moisture, and, unless otherwise indicated, shall include such fruit in natural or processed condition.

(2) "Packer" means any person engaged in the business of processing and packaging dried fruit.

(3) "Processing" means grading, sizing, stemming, seeding, or treating dried fruit by the use of hot water, steam, chemicals or compressed or hot air; or cutting fresh apples acquired for the production of dried apples.

(4) "Government agency" means the Army of the United States, the Food Distribution Administration, and any other officer, board, agency, commission, or government-owned or government-controlled corporation of the United States specifically designated by the Director.

All such fruit so set aside may be delivered to the Army of the United States or the Food Distribution Administration without specific allocation: to any other government agency if specificially allocated to such agency, and to any private purchaser if released. Such fruit shall not be processed and packed without instructions which may be given by the Director, or by the Army of the United States, if such fruit is to be purchased by either of such agencies; or, if such fruit is specifically allocated to any other agency, instructions may be given by the agency to which it is allocated. The Director may issue specifications at any time as to processing, packing, labeling, boxing and strapping.

(2) Each packer shall mail to or file with the Food Distribution Administration on the fifteenth and last day of each month reports on form PD–625 series.

(3) If he determines that any dried fruit set aside pursuant to this order is not required for government agencies, the Director may release such dried fruit at any time by notice directed to the packer. So far as consistent with the defense requirements of the United States, such releases shall be of such a character as to allow to all packers, for sale to purchasers other than government agencies, substantially equal proportions of their packs of each fruit: Provided, however, That the Director may, in determining any amounts to be so released to any packer, take into account any quantities of dried fruit produced from the 1942 crop and sold and actually shipped by him before August 10, 1942.

(4) Any quantities of dried fruit allocated or released shall, unless otherwise specified, be withdrawn by the packer from the earliest reported stocks of such dried fruit.

(c) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sales and shall maintain such other records for such periods of time and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information, as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(d) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of dried fruit and premises used in his business and all of his books, records and accounts shall upon request be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(e) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(f) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or willfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(g) Communications to Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this Order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture; Washington, D. C. Ref: FD–16.

(h) Conservation Order M–205, superseded. This order supersedes in all respects Conservation Order M–205,[1] as amended,[2] of the War Production Board except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof said Conservation Order M–205, as amended, shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right or liability. [1] This document is a re-statement of Amendment 2 to Limitation Order L-170 as amended January 19, 1943 which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 5, 1943, page 1619 and reflects the order in its completed form as of February 4, 1943.

§ 1029.10 Limitation Order L-170—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Protection of production schedules. Producers of any items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts under the terms of this order may, notwithstanding the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended, schedule their production of such items as if the orders therefor bore a rating of AA-3.

(a) Wherever, in said Schedule A, two or more items are bracketed together and only one quota percentage assigned thereto, such percentage shall be applied to such producer's total base production of all such bracketed items, and the total permissible weight thus determined may be distributed among all or any one or more of such bracketed items at his election;

(b) As to silos (Item 296 of Schedule A), the permitted production of a producer shall not exceed the number of units produced by him during either 1940 or 1941, whichever was the greater; and

(c) Any producer, instead of conforming to his quota percentages for the items of attachments as indicated respectively in Schedule A, may at his option manufacture not more than an aggregate of 20% of his total base production of such attachments, and the total permissible weight thus determined may be distributed among all or any one or more of such items of attachments at his election: Provided, That once such option is made, it shall apply to all attachments to be produced.

(ii) Manufacture for sale in the continental United States, a total quantity of repair parts of a value (manufacturer's current selling price at the factory) in excess of an aggregate of 160% of one-half the total value (manufacturer's selling price at the factory during 1940 and 1941) of his entire net sales of repair parts during the calendar years 1940 and 1941 combined;

(iii) Manufacture, for sale in the continental United States, any farm machinery and equipment requiring rubber tires;

(iv) Sell in the continental United States any quantity of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts which is in excess of the quantity thereof authorized to be manufactured for such sale by the provisions of this order.

(2) The Director General for Operations may, by specific directions issued to any one or more producers, increase or decrease any such producer's quotas as to all or any one or more items authorized to be produced by him by this paragraph (c), and may transfer any portion of such quotas between any such producers (including the transfer thereof from producers located in critical areas as the same may be designated from time to time by the War Manpower Commission).

(3) As to any portion of any such producer's quota as so established which he may decide not to produce at any time after November 1, 1942, he shall immediately notify the War Production Board, so that appropriate action can be taken to transfer such portion of his quota.

(d) General restrictions on production for export. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g) hereof, and subject to the provisions of paragraphs (d) (2), (d) (3) and (e) hereof, during the period November 1, 1942, to October 31, 1943, inclusive, no producer shall manufacture for shipment, or ship:

(ii) To Canada a quantity of any item of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts (as listed in Schedule B-7, attached hereto and made a part hereof, as amended from time to time) in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the quota percentage designated in said Schedule B-7 for such item by the quantity thereof shipped by said producer to Canada during the calendar year 1940;

(iii) To any foreign country (including Canada and territories and possessions of the United States) any farm machinery and equipment requiring rubber tires.

(2) Except as to items destined for Canada (Schedule B-7) and for territories and possessions of the United States (Schedule B-6), no producer shall fabricate or process any material to be physically incorporated into any item of farm machinery and equipment which may be authorized to be manufactured for export by paragraph (d) (1) above, unless and until he has received from the Director General for Operations specific authorization for such fabrication or processing as to any or all such items, application for which may be by letter setting forth the pertinent facts: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph (d) (2) shall be deemed to prevent any such producer from earmarking for export, within his export quota, any items of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts from his inventory, whether or not such items were manufactured specifically for export.

As to any portion of any such producer's export quota, as established by paragraph (d) (1) above, which he may decide not to produce at any time after November 1, 1942, he shall immediately notify the War Production Board, so that appropriate action can be taken to transfer such portion of his export quota.

(3) The Director General for Operations may, by specific directions issued to any one or more producers, increase or decrease any such producer's quotas as established by paragraph (d) (1) above, and may transfer any portion of such quotas between any such producers (including the transfer thereof from producers located in critical areas as the same may be designated from time to time by the War Manpower Commission).

(e) Further restrictions on production—(1) Restrictions on production for specific periods. The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue supplementary orders (or specific directions to any one or more producers) governing the production of all or any one or more items of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts for specified monthly, bi-monthly or quarterly periods. On and after the effective date of any such supplementary order or specific direction, no producer affected thereby shall, notwithstanding the provisions of this Order L–170, manufacture any such item during the period specified except in accordance with the terms of such supplementary order or specific direction.

(2) Items containing iron and steel. On and after November 1, 1942, no producer shall put into process any iron or steel (excluding screws, nails, rivets, bolts, or wire, strapping or small hardware for joining or other similar essential purpose) to make any of the following items of farm machinery and equipment:

(1) No person shall sell any item of new farm machinery and equipment (except horseshoes, muleshoes, horseshoe nails and harness hardware) which he knows or has reason to know will not be used in the hands of the ultimate consumer for the production or care of crops, livestock, livestock products or other produce on a farm (or elsewhere in the case of poultry), except to fill a contract or purchase order bearing a preference rating of A–9 or higher;

(2) On and after November 1, 1942, no distributor shall sell or deliver to a consumer any new repair part which he knows or has reason to know will not be incorporated reasonably promptly into farm machinery and equipment in the possession of such consumer.

(i) Inventory provisions. (1) No distributor shall keep in his inventory, in his possession or under his control, for a period of more than thirty days, any used, traded-in, imperfect or non-usable item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts which cannot be reconditioned, but must dispose of the same through the customary disposal or scrap channels.

(2) Any producer may sell to any other producer any material in his inventory which is in excess of his requirements for the items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts permitted to be manufactured under the provisions of this order. Such sales shall be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 13 as amended.

(j) Standardization, simplification, substitution, and conservation of critical materials. (1) In the manufacture of any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts, no producer shall use any alloy steel, stainless steel, aluminum, magnesium, copper, brass, bronze, zinc, nickel, tin, cadmium or fabricated rubber products for any purpose where the use of other less critical materials will not impair the efficiency of operation of such item.

No materials shall be used which are prohibited by M Orders or other restrictions on use of critical materials as now or hereafter ordered by the Director General for Operations.

(2) The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue supplementary orders or schedules establishing required specifications with respect to the production of any item or items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts. "Required specifications" may include requirements to standardize or simplify the types, sizes or models of, or the specifications for, any such item or items; to eliminate, reduce or conserve the use of critical materials in the production thereof; and to substitute less critical for more critical materials in the production thereof. On and after the effective date of any such supplementary order or schedule, no farm machinery and equipment and repair parts affected thereby shall be produced, fabricated, assembled, or delivered, if such production, fabrication, assembly, or delivery is prohibited by the terms thereof.

(k) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(l) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(m) Reports. (1) All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(2) Each producer shall file not later than thirty days after October 19, 1942, a report of his production quotas on Form PD–629.

(3) Each producer shall file by the 10th day of each month a report on Form PD–630 of his production during the preceding month, the first report to be made on or before December 10, 1942.

(4) Each producer affected by paragraph (d) hereof shall file by the 10th day of each month a report on Form PD–387 (revised) of his shipments during the preceding month (starting with November, 1942) to all foreign countries (including all countries listed on Schedules B–1, B–2, B–3, B–4, B–5, B–6, and B–7).

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him in comparison with others similarly situated, may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(p) Communications. All communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Farm Machinery and Equipment Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–170.

(q) Inconsistent orders. This order supersedes as of November 1, 1942, Limitation Order L–26, and Supplementary Limitation Orders L–26–a and L–26–d, and all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder.

Issued this 4th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE A

SCHEDULE OF QUOTAS COVERING THE DOMESTIC PRODUCTION OF FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT AND REPAIR PARTS THEREFOR FOR THE PERIOD NOVEMBER 1, 1942, TO OCTOBER 31, 1943

Quotas for repair parts are expressed as a percentage of the average dollar value of all repair parts sold during the years 1940 and 1941. Quotas for new machinery and equipment including attachments are expressed as a percentage of the weight of each item produced during 1940 or 1941, whichever was higher. Producers of these items must use the percentages set forth in the respective columns, depending upon whether they are Class A, Class B, or Class C producers. Production of "bracketed items" may be distributed among all or any one or more items included in the particular bracket so long as the total weight of material used does not exceed that determined by the quota percentage assigned to the particular bracket.

Any item of farm machinery and equipment not provided for in this Schedule A shall not be manufactured, unless specifically exempted by Order L–170.

In order to clarify the classification of producers under paragraphs (b) (3), (4), (5) and (6) of § 1029.10 Limitation Order L-170, resulting from transfers of quotas pursuant to § 944.28 (Interpretation of Limitation and Conservation Orders with respect to the Assignability of Quotas), the following official interpretation is hereby issued with respect to said § 1029.10:

(1) Whenever a producer's total farm equipment business has been or may be sold as a going concern, continuing, in the hands of the purchaser, to make substantially the same product at the same plant and with substantially the same personnel (other than executive officers), the classification of the purchaser shall be based upon his total net sales (including those of affiliates) of all products during 1941, plus total sales of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts by the acquired company during 1941. However, if the purchaser uses the acquired company's 1940 base production under paragraph (b) (12) of Order L-170, then, for purposes of the purchaser's classification, sales of the acquired company during 1940, rather than 1941, must be used.

(2) Any other arrangement whereby a producer purports, or has purported, to assign to another person his quota (or a portion thereof) for the production of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts is invalid unless specifically authorized for the period covered by Order L-170 by the Director General for Operations pursuant to an appeal, which should be made jointly. If such an appeal is granted, the classification of the assignee, unless otherwise directed, will be based upon his total net sales (including those of affiliates) of all products during 1941, plus the 1941 sales of that portion of the assignor's farm machinery and equipment or repair parts business acquired by the assignee. If the assignee is authorized to use the assignor's 1940 base production of such portion, then, for purposes of the assignee's classification, sales of the assignor during 1940, rather than 1941, must be used.

(3) Assignments of quota specifically authorized by appeal under Limitation Order L-26 for the period ending October 31, 1942, are not recognized for the period covered by Order L-170. Accordingly, a new appeal should be made in each case where the assignee wishes to continue producing pursuant to an assignment of quota authorized under Order L-26. Appeals by any such assignee and his classification are governed by § 944.28 and paragraph (2) above. (Issued December 12, 1942.)

PART 3092—STEATITE TALC

[Conservation Order M–239 as Amended Feb. 6, 1943.]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of steatite talc for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3092.1 Conservation Order M–239—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Steatite talc" means naturally occurring magnesium silicate, both crude and beneficiated, suitable for use in the manufacture of electrical insulators and containing not to exceed one and one-half per cent (1½%) lime (CaO), not to exceed one and one-half per cent (1½%) ferric oxide (Fe_2O_3), and not to exceed four per cent (4%) alumina (Al_2O_3).

(2) "Permitted use" means a use in the manufacture of a product or in a process appearing upon List A hereto attached.

(3) "Producer" means a person who mines, mills, treats, or classifies steatite talc or otherwise prepares or beneficiates steatite talc for use by consumers.

(4) "Supplier" means a person who imports steatite talc into the United States or who offers steatite talc for sale to consumers. A producer may also be a supplier.

(5) "Consumer" means a person who uses steatite talc by incorporating it physically in a product he manufactures or who uses or consumes steatite talc in any other commercial or laboratory process.

(6) "Inventory" of a person includes the inventory of affiliates and subsidiaries of such person, and the inventory of others where such inventory is under the control of, or under common control with, or available for the use of such person.

(7) "Minimum practicable working inventory" means a six months' supply.

(b) Restrictions on use of steatite talc. (1) Between October 13, 1942, and November 15, 1942, no consumer shall use or consume steatite talc, except for permitted uses, in excess of 50 per cent of the average monthly weight of steatite talc used or consumed by him during the year 1941 for other than permitted uses; and, during such period, except for permitted uses, no consumer shall put into process any steatite talc in the manufacture of any product, or commence any process in which steatite talc is used or consumed, unless the product or the process will be completed by November 15, 1942.

(2) After November 15, 1942, no consumer shall use or consume any steatite talc except for permitted uses.

(c) Restrictions on sales or deliveries of steatite talc. No person after October 13, 1942, shall sell or deliver (including a delivery under toll agreement) steatite talc to any person if he knows or has reason to believe such material is to be received or used in violation of the terms of this order.

(d) Limitations of inventories. No person, other than a producer, shall accumulate an inventory of steatite talc in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts, or sub-assemblies in quantities in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed upon the uses of steatite talc by this order. Any person, other than a producer, who has an inventory in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory is prohibited from receiving any additional steatite talc until his inventory thereof has been reduced below a minimum practicable working inventory.

(e) Production of steatite talc. Each producer shall conduct his operations so as to produce the largest possible amounts of steatite talc in relation to the amounts of other grades of talc produced by him. The mines, mills, and plants of all producers shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times by agents or representatives of the War Production Board.

(f) Reports. On or before the 10th day of each month, each producer shall file with the War Production Board, in duplicate, Form PD–678 and each supplier shall file with the War Production Board, in duplicate, Form PD–679. All persons affected by this order shall file such other reports as may be requested from time to time by the Director General for Operations.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of steatite talc conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by letter or other written communication, in triplicate, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(2) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply to the use of steatite talc in all items hereafter manufactured irrespective of whether such items are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date hereof. Insofar as any other order of the Director General for Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided, the use of steatite talc in the production of any item, the limitations of such other order shall be observed.

(3) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Miscellaneous Minerals Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M–239.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 6th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg 4]

SALES OF CONTROLLED MATERIALS BY WAREHOUSES AND DISTRIBUTORS

§ 3175.4 CMP Regulation 4—(a) Purpose and scope. The purpose of this regulation is to specify the procedure to be followed by warehouses and distributors in marketing controlled materials under the Controlled Materials Plan after March 31, 1943. This regulation does not provide the means by which such persons obtain controlled materials, which will be governed by other regulations or orders.

Steel

(b) Definitions with respect to steel. The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this regulation and for the purpose of any other CMP regulation unless otherwise indicated:

(1) "Steel" means steel—both carbon (including wrought iron) and alloy—in any of the forms and shapes constituting a controlled material as defined in CMP Regulation No. 1.

(2) "Distributor" means any person (including a warehouse, jobber, dealer or retailer) who is engaged in the business of receiving steel for sale or resale and who does not process the material so sold otherwise than by performing such operations as cutting to length, shearing to size, torch cutting or burning to shape, sorting and grading, or pipe threading; but a person who, in connection with any sale, forms, bends, punches or performs any fabricating operation designed to prepare steel for final use or assembly shall not be deemed a distributor with respect to such sale.

(c) Deliveries of steel by distributors on authorized controlled material orders. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) of this regulation, no distributor shall deliver any steel from stock after March 31, 1943, except to fill authorized controlled material orders.

(2) Each distributor shall, to the extent of his available stocks, fill authorized controlled material orders, after March 31, 1943, subject to the following:

(i) A distributor shall reject any authorized controlled material order calling for delivery at any one time, to any one person, at any one destination, of 40,000 pounds, or more, of steel unless such order includes 10 or more individual items—each item to be of a different specified analysis, length and cross-section, and no item of which shall weigh more than 8,000 pounds—or unless all items covered by the order consist of oil country tubing, oil country casing, or oil country drill pipe;

(ii) A distributor who is of the opinion that the filling of any authorized controlled material order calling for delivery of steel would deplete his stocks to a point where his function in the distribution of controlled materials would be seriously impaired, may apply to the War Production Board for authority to reject such order and may delay filling the same until such application is acted upon. The War Production Board may authorize rejection of the order or direct that it be filled, in whole or in part, or take other appropriate action.

(d) Deliveries of steel by distributors on other orders. After March 31, 1943, a distributor may fill delivery orders for steel other than authorized controlled material orders, as follows:

(1) Orders in amounts of $10 or less;

(2) Orders bearing preference ratings of AA-5 or higher on which delivery is made prior to July 1, 1943;

(3) Orders calling for delivery of carbon steel which are authorized under Food Production Order 3 of the United States Department of Agriculture;

The undersigned hereby certifies to the distributor with whom this order is placed and to the War Production Board, subject to the criminal penalties provided in section 35 (A) of the United States Crimina' Code, that receipt of the steel covered by this order, together with all other steel received by, or on order for delivery to, the undersigned, from all sources, during the same quarter, will not exceed the limits specified in paragraph (d) (4) of CMP Regulation No. 4.

A distributor shall be entitled to rely on such certificate unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false.

(5) No person who obtains any steel pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph (d) shall obtain steel from any sources in the same calendar quarter in amounts aggregating more than the amounts therein specified.

Copper

(e) Definitions with respect to copper. The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this regulation and for the purpose of any other CMP regulation unless otherwise indicated:

(i) Such order does not require delivery of more than 500 pounds (copper or alloy weight) of any item to any one destination, at any one time; and

(ii) Such order is accompanied by a certificate, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7, in substantially the following form:

The undersigned hereby certifies to the warehouse with whom this order is placed and to the War Production Board, subject to the criminal penalties provided in section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, that the amount of each item of brass mill or wire mill products covered by this order, together with all other amounts of such item received by, or on order for delivery to the undersigned, at any one destination from warehouse stock during the same month, does not exceed 2,000 pounds, and that such items will not be used by the undersigned for any purpose in violation of any order of the War Production Board.

(2) No person who obtains any item of brass mill or wire mill products pursuant to this paragraph (f) shall accept deliveries of the same item at any one destination aggregating more than 2,000 pounds, during any one calendar month, from warehouse stocks.

(3) No warehouse shall deliver any brass mill or wire mill products from stock after February 15, 1943, except as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (f), nor shall any warehouse make any delivery if he has knowledge or reason to know that acceptance thereof would constitute a violation of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (f).

(g) Definitions with respect to aluminum. The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this regulation and for the purpose of any other CMP Regulation unless otherwise indicated:

(1) "Aluminum" means aluminum in any of the forms and shapes constituting controlled material as defined in CMP Regulation No. 1.

(2) "Distributor" means any person who is specifically authorized by the War Production Board to engage in the business of receiving aluminum for sale or resale.

(h) Deliveries of aluminum by distributors on authorized controlled material orders. (1) Each distributor shall, to the extent of his available stocks, fill authorized controlled material orders, except that a distributor shall reject any authorized controlled material order calling for delivery at any one time, to any one person, at any one destination, of more than 500 pounds of any gage, alloy and size of aluminum sheet, or more than 300 pounds of any alloy, shape and size of aluminum wire, rod or bar, or more than 200 pounds of any alloy, size and shape of aluminum tubing, extrusions or structural shapes: Provided, however, That any distributor shall be entitled to fill an authorized controlled material order calling for delivery at any one time, to any one person, at any one destination, of 2,000 pounds or less of any gage, alloy and size of aluminum sheet, 1,000 pounds or less of any gage, alloy and size of aluminum wire, rod or bar, or 500 pounds or less of any alloy, size and shape of aluminum tubing, extrusions or structural shapes, if such distributor shall first have requested the mill supplying him to fill such order and such mill shall have advised such distributor to fill the same from his stock. Such request and advice may be made verbally but shall be confirmed in writing.

(2) A distributor may fill orders other than authorized controlled material orders, calling for delivery of aluminum required for essential maintenance, repair or operating supplies, in the amount, and subject to the limitations, provided in paragraph (c) (2) of CMP Regulation No. 5.

General Provisions Applicable to Steel, Brass Mill Products, Wire Mill Products and Aluminum

(i) Directions to distributors and warehouses. Each distributor and warehouse shall comply with such directions as may be issued from time to time by the War Production Board with respect to making or withholding deliveries of steel, brass mill products, wire mill products or aluminum, and with respect to the earmarking of stocks of such material.

(j) Placement of authorized controlled material orders. A delivery order for steel brass mill products, wire mill products or aluminum, shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order, if but only if

(1) It is specifically designated as an authorized controlled material order by any regulation or order of the War Production Board; or

(2) It is endorsed with the appropriate allotment number and is accompanied by three copies of Form CMP-6 in the case of brass mill products or wire mill products, or two copies of such form in the case of aluminum. A delivery order for steel shall be endorsed with the appropriate allotment number but need not be accompanied by Form CMP-6.

(k) Verbal delivery orders. Any delivery order requiring shipment within seven days may be placed verbally or by telephone by stating to the distributor or warehouse the substance of the information required by this regulation, Provided, That the person placing the order furnishes to the distributor or warehouse, within seven days after placing the same, written confirmation of the order complying with the requirements of this regulation. In case of failure to receive written confirmation within seven days, the distributor or warehouse shall not accept any other order from, or deliver any additional material of any kind to, the purchaser until such written confirmation is furnished. On or before the 15th day of each month any distributor or warehouse who has received in the prior month a delivery order by telephone, shall notify the War Production Board, Compliance Division, of any case in which a purchaser has failed to furnish to him the written confirmation when due.

(l) Special provisions with respect to AAA orders. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this regulation, an authorized controlled material order placed with a distributor or warehouse bearing a rating of AAA shall be filled in preference to any other authorized controlled material orders regardless of time of receipt.

(i) For the construction of new buildings, or the establishment of new plants.

(ii) For the establishment of new production lines

(iii) For any other purpose that, in the opinion of the Director General for Operations at the time application is made, as provided in paragraph (d) (2) below, is not in the public interest, does not promote the national defense, or is in conflict with the policy of Conservation Order M–81 (To Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Tin Plate and Terne Plate) or other like orders

(c) Restrictions on application of ratings by producer. (1) The producer shall not apply any preference rating assigned by (b) (1) and (b) (2) above, if, in view of the current rate of consumption of his inventory of stores for repair and maintenance or operation, the delivery of the material to be rated would increase his inventory or stores above the amount permitted or provided in paragraph (e) below.

(2) The producer shall not apply any preference rating hereunder unless the material to be delivered cannot be secured when required without such rating.

(3) The producer may apply the rating only to those quantities and kinds of materials necessary to enable him to maintain his canning or processing schedules up to the end of the calendar year 1943.

(4) The producer shall not apply a preference rating hereunder to any order for material to which a lower rating is assigned by Conservation Order M–208 as amended.

(5) The producer shall not apply a preference rating hereunder to obtain material for use in construction, as the term is defined in Conservation Order L–41 as amended, unless he has obtained authority to begin construction in one of the ways prescribed by said order: Provided, That material obtained by applying a rating pursuant to this order is not material obtained "without making application for priorities assistance" within the meaning of paragraph (b) (7) of Order L–41.

(d) Application of preference rating. (1) A producer or any supplier, in order to apply or extend the preference ratings assigned hereunder shall comply with Priorities Regulation No. 3, as it may be amended from time to time.

(2) If the material is required for replacement or more efficient operation, the producer shall not apply preference rating AA–3, unless he shall have communicated with the Director of Food Distribution, describing the material needed and the nature of the proposed replacement or addition, and shall have received from the Director General for Operations a specific authorization to apply such rating, notwithstanding the fact that he may have previously been authorized to apply a rating of A–3, or A–1–c. Such application for authorization may be made by a written statement on Form PD–285, or, in any emergency, by telegram giving substantially the information called for by said Form PD–285.

(e) Inventory provisions. A producer shall not accept deliveries (whether rated hereunder or not) of material for repair and maintenance or operation which will increase the inventory or stores available to the producer for such purposes to an amount greater than the minimum necessary for repair and maintenance and to sustain the current level of operations of the producer, and the ratio of such inventory and stores to current operations shall in no event exceed the ratio of average inventory to average operation for the years 1938, 1939, and 1940.

(f) Records. In addition to records required to be kept under Priorities Regulation No. 1, a producer, and each supplier placing or receiving any purchase order or contract rated hereunder, shall each retain, for a period of two years, for inspection by representatives of the Director of Food Distribution, endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, whether accepted or rejected segregated from all other purchase orders or contracts or filed in such a manner that they can be readily segregated for such inspection.

(g) Reports. Each producer who applies a preference rating hereunder shall file such reports as may be required from time to time by the Director of Food Distribution; and until further notice any producer who applies a preference rating hereunder for repair, maintenance or operation shall file with the Director of Food Distribution on or before the 10th day of each month copies of all purchase orders on which such ratings have been applied during the previous month.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref: P–115.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended at any time as to any producer or any supplier. In the event of revocation, deliveries already rated pursuant to this order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. No additional applications or extensions of the rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the producer or supplier affected by such revocation.

(k) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

Issued this 8th day of February 1943.

Director General for Operations.

(9) "Supplier" means any person with whom a contract or purchase order has been placed for delivery of material to a processor or to another supplier.

(b) Assignment of preference ratings. Preference ratings are hereby assigned, subject to the restrictions and conditions of paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof:

(c) Restrictions on application of ratings by processor. (1) The processor shall not apply any preference rating assigned by (b) (1) and (b) (2) above if, in view of the current rate of consumption of his inventory or stores for repair and maintenance or operation, the delivery of the material to be rated would increase his inventory or stores above the amount permitted or provided in paragraph (e) below.

(2) The processor shall not apply any preference rating hereunder unless the material to be delivered cannot be secured when required without such rating.

(3) The processor may apply the rating only to those quantities and kinds of materials necessary to enable him to maintain his processing schedules up to the end of the calendar year 1943.

(4) The processor shall not apply any rating hereunder to any order for material to which a lower rating is assigned by Conservation Order M–208, as amended.

(5) The processor shall not apply a preference rating hereunder to obtain material for use in construction, as the term is defined in Conservation Order L–41 as amended, unless he has obtained authority to begin construction in one of the ways prescribed by said order, Provided, That material obtained by applying a rating pursuant to this order is not material obtained "without making application for priorities assistance" within the meaning of paragraph (b) (7) of Order L–41.

(2) If the material is required for replacement, the processor shall not apply preference rating AA–3, unless he shall have communicated with the Director of Food Distribution, describing the material needed and the nature of the proposed replacement, and shall have received from the Director General for Operations a specific authorization to apply such rating, notwithstanding the fact that, prior to November 12, 1942, he may have been authorized to apply a lower rating under this order. Such application for authorization may be made by a written statement on Form PD–414 or, in any emergency, by telegram giving substantially the information called for by said Form PD–414.

(e) Inventory provisions. A processor shall not accept deliveries (whether rated hereunder or not) of material for repair and maintenance or operation which will increase the inventory or stores available to the processor for such purposes to an amount greater than the minimum necessary for repair and maintenance and to sustain the current level of operations of the processor, and the ratio of such inventory and stores to current operations shall in no event exceed the ratio of average inventory to average operation for the years 1938, 1939, and 1940.

(f) Records. In addition to the records required to be kept under Priorities Regulation 1, a processor placing any purchase order or contract rated hereunder shall retain, for a period of two years, for inspection by representatives of the Director of Food Distribution, endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, whether accepted or rejected, segregated from all other purchase orders or contracts or filed in such a manner that they can be readily segregated for such inspection.

(g) Reports. Each processor who applies a preference rating hereunder shall file such reports as may be required from time to time by the Director of Food Distribution; and until further notice, any processor who applies a preference rating hereunder for repair, maintenance or operation under paragraph (b), shall file with the Director of Food Distribution within 10 days after the end of each quarter Form PD–413.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref.: P–118.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended at any time as to any processor or any supplier. In the event of revocation, deliveries already rated pursuant to this order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. PART 3096—CONSERVATION OF PAPER AND PAPERBOARD

[General Conservation Order M-241-a]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply, for defense, for private account and for export, of various materials and facilities required in the manufacture and distribution of pulp, paper and paperboard; and the following order is deemed necessary in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3096.2 General Conservation Order M-241-a—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Converter" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing from pulp, paper and/or paperboard any of the commodities or articles referred to in paragraph (b).

(b) Restrictions on consumption of pulp, paper and/or paperboard in the manufacture of certain converted products. (1) No converter shall during the first calendar quarter of 1943, or any calendar quarter thereafter, consume in the manufacture of any article or class of articles on List A any quantity, in tons, of pulp, paper and/or paperboard greater than the quantity determined by applying the percentage figure on List A opposite the designation of such article or class of articles to either, at the option of the converter:

(i) The quantity, in tons, of pulp, paper and/or paperboard consumed by such converter in the manufacture of such article or class of articles during the corresponding quarter of 1942; or

(ii) One-fourth of the total quantity of pulp, paper and/or paperboard consumed by such converter in the manufacture of such article or class of articles during the entire calendar year of 1942.

(2) From and after February 15, 1943, no converter shall manufacture out of pulp, paper or paperboard any article or class of articles on List B, or, if on February 15, 1943, any such article is partially but not completely manufactured out of pulp, paper or paperboard, complete the manufacture thereof or cut, shape, alter or otherwise put the same into form for final use.

It shall be the duty of each converter to determine in the first instance which, if any, of his products are included among the articles and classes of articles on Lists A and B. In case of doubt he may apply to the Director General for Operations, in writing, describing the product in question, for a specific ruling, by telegram or letter, determining whether or not the same is so included. The Director General for Operations may of his own motion in any case, by telegram or letter, issue a specific ruling determining whether or not a particular product of a particular converter is so included.

(c) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(d) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(e) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(f) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(g) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Communications. All communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Pulp and Paper Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-241-a.

Issued this 8th day of February 1943.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 1, as Amended Feb. 8, 1943]

§ 3175.1 CMP Regulation 1—(a) Purpose and scope. The purpose of this regulation is to define the rights and obligations under the Controlled Materials Plan of persons outside of the Claimant Agencies and the War Production Board. This regulation and other CMP regulations to be issued from time to time implement the "Controlled Materials Plan" which was published by the War Production Board, for informational purposes only, under date of November 2, 1942. In case of any inconsistency between such publication (or any other descriptive literature which may be published from time to time) and any CMP regulation, the provisions of the CMP regulation shall govern. Other CMP regulations contain, or will contain, provisions regarding such matters as inventory restrictions, preference ratings, warehouses, dealers, maintenance, repair and operating supplies, construction and facilities, and reports.

(b) Definitions. The following definitions shall apply for the purposes of this regulation and for the purposes of any other CMP regulation unless otherwise indicated:

(1) "Controlled material" means steel—both carbon (including wrought iron) and alloy—copper (including copper base alloys) and aluminum, in each case only in the forms and shapes indicated in Schedule I attached.

(2) "Controlled Materials Division" means the Steel Division, the Copper Division or the Aluminum Division of the War Production Board.

(3) "Industry Division" means the Division, Bureau, or other unit of the War Production Board which is charged with supervision over the operations of a particular industry. The term also includes any other government agency which, by arrangement with the War Production Board may perform similar functions with respect to a particular industry.

(4) "Claimant Agency" means the following government offices and such others as may be designated from time to time. (Identifying symbols are indicated in parentheses.)

NOTE: Following list amended by addition of last item, Feb. 8, 1943.

War Department (W)—except Ordnance which is identified by the symbol (O).
Navy Department (N).
Maritime Commission (M).
Aircraft Resources Control Office (agent for Army Air Forces and Bureau of Aeronautics of United States Navy) (C).
Office of Lend-Lease Administration (L).
Board of Economic Warfare (E).
Office of Civilian Supply (S).
Department of Agriculture (A).
Office of Defense Transportation (T).
Office of Rubber Director (R).
Facilities Bureau of the War Production Board (F).
Petroleum Administration for War (P).
National Housing Agency (H).
Office of War Utilities Director (U).

The symbol (D) will be used in lieu of Claimant Agency symbols to identify certain programs covering items destined for the Dominion of Canada.

(5) "Allotment" means (i) a determination by the Requirements Committee of the War Production Board of the amount of controlled materials which a Claimant Agency may receive during a specified period, or (ii) a further determination pursuant thereto by a Claimant Agency, Industry Division, prime consumer or secondary consumer, as to the portion of its allotment of controlled materials which may be received by one of its prime consumers or secondary consumers, as the case may be.

(6) "Prime consumer" means any person who receives an allotment of controlled material from a Claimant Agency or an Industry Division.

(7) "Secondary consumer" means any person who receives an allotment of controlled material from a prime consumer or another secondary consumer.

(8) "Class A product" means any product which is not a Class B product (as defined in subparagraph (9) below), and which contains any steel, copper or aluminum, fabricated or assembled beyond the forms and shapes specified in Schedule I, other than such steel, copper or aluminum as may be contained in Class B products incorporated in it as parts or sub-assemblies.

(9) "Class B product" means any product listed in the "Official CMP Class B Product List" issued by the War Production Board, as the same may be modified from time to time, which contains any steel, copper or aluminum, fabricated or assembled beyond the forms and shapes specified in Schedule I, other than such as may be contained in other Class B products incorporated in it as parts or sub-assemblies.

(10) "Program" means a plan specifying the total amount of an item or class of items to be provided in a specified period of time.

(11) "Authorized program" means a program specifically authorized by the Requirements Committee or by a Claimant Agency or Industry Division within the limits of its allotment.

(12) "Production schedule" means a plan specifying the total amount of an item or class of items to be produced by an individual consumer in a specified period of time.

(13) "Authorized production schedule" means a production schedule specifically authorized within the limits of an authorized program by a Claimant Agency or by an Industry Division with respect to a prime consumer, or specifically authorized by a prime or secondary consumer with respect to a secondary consumer producing products for it as required to meet an authorized production schedule.

(14) "Delivery order" means any purchase order, contract, release or shipping instruction which constitutes a definite and complete instruction from a purchaser to a seller calling for delivery of any material or product. The term does not include any contract, purchase order, or other arrangement which, although specifying the total amount to be delivered, contemplates that further instructions are to be given.

(15) "Authorized controlled material order" means any delivery order for any controlled material as such (as distinct from a product containing controlled material) which is placed pursuant to an allotment as provided in paragraph(s) of this regulation or which is specifically designated to be such an order by any regulation or order of the War Production Board.

NOTE: Paragraphs (c) (1), (c) (2), and (c) (3) amended by deleting the words "each month of".

(c) General allotment procedure—(1) Allotments by Requirements Committee to Claimant Agencies. The Requirements Committee of the War Production Board will distribute the available supply of controlled materials by making allotments to the Claimant Agencies or Industry Divisions for each quarter, designating the amount of each form of controlled material available, during the quarter, to each Claimant Agency or Industry Division for allotment to its prime and secondary consumers.

(2) Allotments by Claimant Agencies to prime consumers producing Class A products. Each Claimant Agency will distribute the allotments received by it by making further allotments to the prime consumers who produce Class A products for it. Such allotments will designate the amount of each form of controlled material available to each such prime consumer, during the quarter, for use by it or allotment to the secondary consumers producing Class A products as parts or sub-assemblies for it. A prime consumer producing Class A products for several Claimant Agencies shall obtain separate allotments from each. A Claimant Agency, may, in particular cases, make allotments through an Industry Division.

(3) Allotments by Industry Divisions to producers of Class B products. Unless otherwise specifically directed, allotments to producers of Class B products will be made only by Industry Divisions, both in the case of Class B products which are end-products and in the case of Class B products which are incorporated in other products whether Class A or Class B. Allotments made by the Requirements Committee may be made available to the Industry Divisions for this purpose by the Claimant Agencies. Each Industry Division will make allotments to the prime consumers producing Class B products under its jurisdiction. Such allotments will designate the amount of each form of controlled material available to each such prime consumer, during the quarter, for use by it or allotment to secondary consumers producing Class A products for it. A manufacturer of several Class B products coming under the jurisdiction of different Industry Divisions shall obtain separate allotments from each. A consumer producing Class B products is always a prime consumer with respect to such production.

(4) Allotments by prime and secondary consumers. Each prime consumer receiving an allotment may use that portion of the allotment which he requires to obtain controlled materials as such for his authorized production schedule, and shall allot the remainder to his secondary consumers producing Class A products for him, to cover their requirements for controlled materials. Allotments by secondary consumers to secondary consumers supplying them may be made in the same fashion. A secondary consumer producing Class A products for several other consumers shall obtain separate allotments from each.

(5) Advance allotments. Advance allotments by Claimant Agencies or Industry Divisions to prime consumers may be made within specified limits before receipt of allotments from the Requirements Committee in order to assure fulfillment of long term programs and schedules. Prime consumers receiving such advance allotments may, in turn, make allotments to their secondary consumers, and secondary consumers may make further allotments, in the same manner as in the case of ordinary allotments, but no consumer shall make any allotment in advance of receiving his own allotment.

(6) Allotment numbers. (i) Allotments to prime consumers shall be identified by allotment numbers consisting of a Claimant Agency letter symbol and nine digits. The Claimant Agency symbol is indicated after the name of each Agency in paragraph (b) (4) of this regulation. The first four digits identify the authorized program of the Claimant Agency. The next three digits identify the authorized production schedule of the prime consumer. The last two digits indicate the quarter for which the allotment is valid, instead of indicating the month as originally provided prior to amendment of this regulation. The numerical identification of months, as previously prescribed, is retained; months are numbered consecutively beginning with January 1942 (not 1943). Each quarter will be identified by the first month in the quarter. Thus, 16 will denote the second quarter of 1943, 19 will denote the third quarter, etc. However, if an allotment is made under the monthly system prescribed prior to amendment of this regulation, and bears the number of the second or third month in a quarter, it will nevertheless represent the entire quarter. Thus, 16, 17 or 18 will denote the second quarter of 1943, and 19, 20, or 21 will denote the third quarter of 1943. Orders placed by consumers with controlled materials producers (as distinct from allotments to consumers) are to be identified by month number instead of quarterly number, as provided in paragraph (s) (3).

(ii) Allotments to secondary consumers shall be identified by an abbreviated allotment number consisting only of a major program identification and the quarterly identification number. The major program identification shall consist of the Claimant Agency letter symbol followed by the first digit only of the program number (omitting the last three digits of the program number and the entire schedule number). For example, in the case of an allotment to a prime consumer, designated W-2345-687-16, the allotment to a secondary consumer will be simply W-2-16 denoting an allotment for major program number 2 of the War Department for delivery of controlled materials in the second quarter of 1943.

(d) Bills of materials, applications for allotments and other information serving as basis for allotments. (1) The basis for an allotment to a consumer shall be his actual requirements for controlled materials in connection with the fulfillment of an authorized production schedule. The production schedule shall be authorized as provided in paragraph (n) of this regulation. Information as to requirements shall be in the form of a bill of materials, an application for allotment and or other information as provided below in this paragraph (d).

(2) A bill of materials shows the amounts of controlled materials required by a consumer and his secondary consumers, irrespective of time of delivery and inventory, for production of one unit or a specified number of units of his product. Bills of materials shall be prepared in the manner specified in "General Instructions on Bills of Materials," on forms CMP-1, CMP-2 and CMP-3 or on such other forms as may be prescribed. No consumer shall be required to furnish a bill of materials on any form which is not officially prescribed (as indicated by a Bureau of Budget number), but in cases where another form is in use which gives the same information as the official form, the Claimant Agency, Industry Division or consumer to whom a bill of materials is to be furnished may accept it on such other form.

(3) An application for allotment shows the aggregate amount of each form of controlled material required (after taking inventories into account to the extent required by CMP Regulation No. 2) by a consumer and his secondary consumers during each month of a quarter for his entire production of a specified product or class of products for the same customer, in the case of Class A products, or for all customers (unless otherwise directed) in the case of Class B products. Applications are to be made by manufacturers of Class A products on Form CMP-4A as issued by the appropriate Claimant Agency, and by manufacturers of Class B products on Form CMP-4B as issued by the War Production Board, or on such other forms as may be prescribed. Although allotments are to be made by quarters instead of months, applications for allotments shall show monthly requirements where required by the application forms, so that information as to over-all requirements may be compiled on a monthly basis by the Claimant Agencies and the Controlled Materials Divisions.

(4) A bill of materials or application for allotment shall not include controlled materials required for manufacture of Class B products which will be incorporated in the product with respect to which the bill of material or application is submitted, although information as to the number or value of such Class B products is to be given in bills of materials to the extent required by the instructions.

(5) Requirements for maintenance, repair or operating supplies shall not be included in bills of materials or applications for allotment. Requirements for such purposes are to be obtained separately as provided in CMP Regulation No. 5.

(6) Bills of materials and applications for allotments shall be filed with the Claimant Agency, Industry Division or other consumer by whom the allotment is to be made, as indicated in paragraph (c) of this regulation. Bills of materials shall be filed only when and as called for by such Claimant Agency, Industry Division or other consumer. Manufacturers of Class A products shall file applications for allotments only when and as called for by the Claimant Agency or other consumer for whom they make their products. Manufacturers of Class B products who will require controlled materials from controlled material producers during the second quarter of 1943 (or whose secondary consumers will require the same) must file applications for allotments on Form CMP-4B not later than February 9, 1943, or by such other date as may be designated or approved by the appropriate Industry Division (or in special cases by a Claimant Agency). Those manufacturers of Class B products who will obtain their requirements of controlled materials for the second quarter of 1943 entirely from warehouses or retailers, and whose secondary consumers will do the same need not file any applications for allotments. Procedures for obtaining controlled materials from warehouses or retailers and limitations on the amount which may be obtained will be provided in CMP Regulation No. 4. Manufacturers of Class A products who sell them for use as maintenance, repair or operating supplies, or deliver them to distributors, shall obtain special allotments on Form CMP-4B as provided in paragraph (k-1) of this regulation.

(7) Each person making an allotment may require such other information in lieu of, or in addition to, a bill of materials or application for allotment as is required to enable him to make the allotment requested or to furnish any bill of materials, application for allotment or other information that may be required of him. If the consumer from whom such other information is requested is of the opinion that compliance with such request would be unreasonably burdensome he may appeal for relief as provided in paragraph (z) of this regulation.

(8) Any consumer making an allotment may waive the furnishing of a bill of materials or application for allotment, or both, if he has other information as to actual requirements of his secondary consumers (taking into account the inventory restrictions of CMP Regulation No. 2) which is sufficiently accurate and detailed to enable him to make the allotment and to furnish any bill of materials, application for allotment or other information that may be required of him.

(e) Responsibility for statements of requirements, including those of secondary consumers; duty to correct overstatements. (1) The furnishing of any bill of materials, application for allotment or other information as to requirements by a consumer, shall constitute a representation by him to the person to whom it is furnished, to the appropriate Claimant Agency and to the War Production Board, that the statements contained therein are complete and accurate, to the best of his knowledge and belief, not only with respect to such consumer's own requirements but also with respect to those of his secondary consumers.

(2) Any person who ascertains that he has substantially overstated (whether by inadvertence or otherwise) his requirements, or those of his secondary consumers, for any form of controlled material, shall immediately report such error to the person to whom the statement of requirements was furnished. If he has already received an allotment based on such overstatement, he shall immediately cancel or reduce the same (or an equivalent amount of other allotments received for the same authorized production schedule) to the extent of such excess, and report such cancellation or reduction to the person from whom the allotment was received; or, if he is unable for any reason to make such cancellation, he shall immediately make a full report to the person from whom he received the allotment, and shall send a copy of such report to the appropriate Claimant Agency or Industry Division, if the allotment was received from another consumer.

(3) If any consumer receives any statement of requirements which he knows or has reason to believe to be substantially excessive (whether by inadvertence or otherwise), he shall withhold any allotment based thereon (either entirely or in an amount sufficient to correct the maximum excess) until satisfied that the statement is not excessive or that it has been appropriately modified. If unable to obtain sufficient information or an appropriate modification, he shall promptly report the matter to the appropriate Claimant Agency or Industry Division. Failure to withhold allotments or to make such report shall be deemed participation in the offense.

(4) If, after making any allotment, a consumer ascertains or has reason to believe that the allotment was substantially in excess of actual requirements, he shall either (i) correct the excess by cancelling or reducing the allotment or other allotments made by him to the same consumer, or (ii) report the matter promptly to the appropriate Claimant Agency or Industry Division. Failure to make such correction or report shall be deemed participation in the offense.

(5) An inadvertent overstatement of requirements shall be deemed substantially excessive for purposes of subparagraphs (2), (3), and (4) of this paragraph (e) if, but only if, it exceeds actual requirements by either (i) one-third or more of actual requirements or (ii) the minimum mill quantity specified in Schedule IV attached, whichever is less.

(f) Forms in which controlled materials are allotted. Each allotment, whether made by a Claimant Agency, an Industry Division or a prime or a secondary consumer, shall specify the form of the controlled material allotted. Allotments of steel shall be in terms of (1) carbon steel (including wrought iron) and (2) alloy steel, without further breakdown. Allotments of copper and aluminum shall be broken down as indicated in Schedule I. A consumer may make allotments only in the same forms of controlled materials in which he has received his allotment.

(g) Allotments by consumers. (1) No consumer shall make any allotment in an amount which exceeds the related allotment received by him, after deducting all other allotments made by him and all orders for controlled materials placed by him pursuant to his related allotment.

(2) No consumer shall make any allotment in excess of the amount required, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to fulfill the related authorized production schedule of the secondary consumer to whom the allotment is made (including the schedules of any secondary consumers supplying the latter).

(3) No consumer shall make any allotment for the production of Class B products and no person shall accept any allotment from a consumer for the production of Class B products.

(4) No consumer who has received his allotment for an authorized production schedule shall place any delivery order (other than small orders placed pursuant to paragraph (l) of this regulation) for any Class A product required to fulfill said schedule, unless concurrently therewith or prior thereto, he makes an allotment to the person with whom the order is placed, in the amount required by such person to fill said order (taking such person's inventory into account to the extent required by CMP Regulation No. 2); Provided, however, That if he purchases a Class A product from a distributor under the conditions specified in paragraph (k-1) of this regulation, he need make no allotment but must charge his own allotment as provided in paragraph (v) of this regulation.

(h) Methods of allotment. (1) A consumer may make an allotment to his secondary consumer by either:

(i) Executing and returning one of the copies of the application (Form CMP-4A, or such other form as may be prescribed) furnished to the consumer by his secondary consumer or, in the event an application has been waived, by indicating on the prescribed application form the controlled materials allotted and executing and delivering such form to the secondary consumer;

(ii) Placing on or affixing to his delivery order for one or more Class A products the short form of allotment (Form CMP-5) set out in Schedule II attached hereto, subject to the accompanying instructions; or

(iii) Telegraphing the information required under subdivision (i) or (ii) above and confirming the same with the appropriate written form.

(2) Every consumer shall place on each allotment made by him the allotment number which is on the related allotment received by him, except that if the full allotment number described in subdivision (i) of paragraph (c) (6) of this regulation is on the allotment received by him, he need only place on related allotments made by him the abbreviated allotment number described in subdivision (ii) of paragraph (c) (6). If a consumer places a delivery order for which he has made an allotment by separate instrument, he shall place the appropriate number on said order.

(i) Method of cancelling or reducing allotments. A person who has made an allotment may cancel or reduce the same by notice in writing to the person to whom it was made. A person who has received an allotment may cancel or reduce the same by making an appropriate notation thereon and notifying the person from whom he received it. In either case, if an allotment received by a person is cancelled he must cancel all allotments which he has made, and all authorized controlled material orders which he has placed, on the basis of the allotment; and, if an allotment received by a person is reduced, he must cancel or reduce allotments which he has made, or authorized controlled material orders which he has placed, to the extent that the same exceed his allotment as reduced. If such cancellation or reduction is not practicable, he may make equivalent cancellations or reductions with respect to other allotments received by him for the same production schedule. If he deems such course of action impracticable, he shall immediately report to the appropriate Claimant Agency or Industry Division for instructions.

(j) Assignment of allotments. No consumer shall transfer or assign any allotment in any way unless:

(1) Delivery orders placed with him, in connection with which the allotment was made to him, have been transferred or assigned to another consumer;

(2) The authorized production schedules of the respective consumers have been duly adjusted; and

NOTE: Subparagraph (3) revoked, and subparagraph (4) redesignated as (3) Feb 8, 1943.

(3) The transfer or assignment is approved in writing by the person who made the allotment.

(k) Grouping of allotment and authorized production schedules by major programs. A consumer operating under several authorized production schedules may combine in a single allotment to a secondary consumer requirements for any number of different production schedules which are identified by the same major program number as provided in paragraph (c) (6) (ii), and he may authorize a single production schedule for the secondary consumer in connection with such allotment. If the secondary consumer has filed separate applications, and the consumer making the allotment acts on such applications separately, the secondary consumer may nevertheless treat such allotments and authorized production schedules bearing the same major program number as a single allotment and a single authorized production schedule.

(k–1) Special provisions regarding Class A products sold to distributors or as maintenance, repair or operating supplies. (1) A distributor of Class A products who receives physical delivery thereof may, unless otherwise specifically ordered, buy and sell the same without making or receiving allotments. A manufacturer of Class A products selling them directly or indirectly to such distributors may obtain an allotment for such manufacture from the appropriate Industry Division pursuant to application on Form CMP–4B in the same manner as if they were Class B products. If physical delivery is made directly by the manufacturer to a distributor's customer, the latter (unless he is also a distributor) shall make an allotment directly to the manufacturer in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the distributor had no part in the transaction.

(2) A manufacturer of Class A products who sells them for use as maintenance, repair or operating supplies (except items directly purchased and programmed by a Claimant Agency) shall, unless otherwise specifically ordered, obtain allotments for such manufacture in the same manner as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (k–1) for delivery to distributors. Applications pursuant to said subparagraph (1) and this subparagraph (2) may be combined in a single application on Form CMP–4B.

(3) A manufacturer who also sells purchased Class A products to round out his line, which do not represent more than 10% of his total sales, shall be deemed the manufacturer of such products and not a distributor for purposes of this paragraph (k–1).

(l) Placing of orders for Class A products requiring small quantities of controlled material, without making allotments. (1) A person requiring any Class A product in a quantity constituting a "small order," as defined in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (l), and who is entitled to obtain such product by using an allotment number, may, in lieu of making an allotment, place on his order the applicable allotment number followed by the symbol SO: Provided, however, That no person shall subdivide his requirements for Class A products into small orders for the purpose of coming within this provision.

(2) As used in this paragraph (l), "small order" means a delivery order for a Class A product placed with the manufacturer thereof by a consumer, where the aggregate amounts of controlled material required to fill such order, together with all delivery orders for the same Class A product placed by the same consumer with the same manufacturer calling for delivery during the same month do not exceed the following:

Carbon steel (including wrought iron)	1 ton
Alloy steel	400 lbs.
Copper and copper base alloys	100 lbs.
Aluminum	20 lbs.

(3) A manufacturer of Class A products who receives small orders may obtain his requirements of controlled materials to fill the same by placing authorized controlled material orders (as provided in paragraph (s) of this regulation and in CMP Regulation No. 5 regarding warehouses and distributors of controlled materials) in the same manner as if he had received an allotment therefor, except that, in lieu of an allotment number, he shall use the symbol SO. Use of such symbol shall constitute a representation, subject to the criminal penalties of section 35 (A) of the U. S. Criminal Code, that the controlled materials ordered are required for the production of Class A products which will be delivered on small orders, or to replace in inventory Class A products so delivered. If it is impracticable to keep exact accounts of the amounts of controlled material required for small orders, a reasonable estimate may be made.

(4) No manufacturer of Class A products receiving a small order for such products shall be required to furnish his customer with a bill of materials, application for allotment or equivalent information with respect thereto, other than a statement, if requested, that the controlled materials required come within the limits of a small order.

(m) Relationship between allotments and authorized production schedules. Every allotment made by a consumer must include or be accompanied by authorization of a production schedule with respect to the products to be supplied to him, and no consumer shall authorize a production schedule for a secondary consumer unless he concurrently allots the controlled materials required to fulfill the schedule; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not apply to any delivery order bearing a symbol (such as a small order bearing the symbol SO) which may be placed without making an allotment as expressly permitted by any regulation or order of the War Production Board.

(n) Manner of authorizing production schedules. (1) A production schedule for each prime consumer producing a Class A product shall be authorized by the appropriate Claimant Agency on Form CMP–4A, or such other form as may be prescribed. A Claimant Agency may, in particular cases, authorize a production schedule through an Industry Division.

(2) A production schedule for each secondary consumer producing a Class A product shall be authorized by the consumer for whom such Class A product is to be produced, on the form on which the related allotment is made; provided, however, that the delivery date specified on a delivery order shall constitute an authorization of the minimum production schedule required to permit delivery on such date.

(3) A production schedule for each consumer producing a Class B product shall be authorized by the appropriate Industry Division (or in special cases by a Claimant Agency) on Form CMP–4B, or such other form as may be prescribed.

(4) A consumer receiving allotments from several persons shall obtain separate authorized production schedules from each.

(5) Prior to authorizing a production schedule, a Claimant Agency, Industry Division or consumer may furnish a tentative production schedule to be used as a basis in submitting requirements, but such action shall not constitute authorization of a schedule.

(o) Compliance with authorized production schedules. (1) Each consumer receiving an authorized production schedule shall fulfill the same unless prevented by circumstances beyond his control, except that a manufacturer of Class B products need not produce more than required to fill orders bearing preference ratings.

(2) No consumer who has received an authorized production schedule shall exceed such schedule in any month, except that (i) a deficiency in meeting an authorized production schedule during any month may be made up in any subsequent month or months, (ii) production authorized for any month may be completed at any time after the 15th of the preceding month and, (iii) where a delivery order calls for deliveries, in successive months, of Class A products in quantities which are less than the minimum practicable production quantity, and compliance with monthly production schedules would result in substantial interruption of production and consequent interference with production to fill other delivery orders, the consumer may produce (and his customer may order) in the first month the minimum practicable quantity which may be made without such interference. A person shall be deemed to exceed an authorized production schedule if his completion of finished products exceeds the limits authorized, or if his rate of fabricating, assembling, or otherwise processing, or acquiring raw materials or parts, exceeds the practicable working minimum required to meet the authorized production schedule.

(3) In case a Claimant Agency authorizes a production schedule permitting production of a Class A product in a quantity different from the quantity called for in the related contract between the Claimant Agency and the prime consumer, the lesser of the two quantities shall govern, but the appropriate officer of the Claimant Agency should be promptly notified.

(p) Rejection of orders in excess of capacity. No prime or secondary consumer shall accept a delivery order for a Class A or Class B product manufactured by him calling for delivery after March 31, 1943, if he does not expect to be able to fulfill the same by the requested delivery date, subject to unexpected contingencies and to any period of grace which may be specified in the delivery order. If the person whose order is rejected is unable to find another manufacturer who is in a position to accept it, he should report the facts to the appropriate Claimant Agency or Industry Division.

(q) Reconciliation of conflicting schedules. In any case where, for any reason, a manufacturer of Class A or Class B products is unable to fulfill conflicting authorized production schedules which he has accepted from different persons, he shall immediately report to the appropriate Industry Division for directions, except that such report shall be made to a Claimant Agency if all conflicting schedules bear its symbol or if all Claimant Agencies whose schedules conflict have stipulated a single Claimant Agency for such purposes.

(r) Alternative procedure for simultaneous allotments. A prime or secondary consumer who has several secondary consumers in different degrees of remoteness and finds it impracticable to determine the exact allotments to be made to each of his immediate secondary consumers, for their needs and those of their secondary consumers, may, at his option, make simultaneous direct allotments to each secondary consumer, of all degrees of remoteness, by adopting the following procedure:

(1) The consumer who is to make the allotment (hereafter in this paragraph (r) called the originating consumer) shall maintain a complete list of all secondary consumers making Class A products for incorporation in his product. He shall keep this list current at all times by requiring each of his immediate secondary consumers to report promptly to him any change with respect to the source of each secondary consumer's Class A purchased products.

(2) Immediately upon receiving an allotment, the originating consumer shall notify each secondary consumer on the list (either directly or through intervening secondary consumers) of the authorized schedule for which the allotment has been made to him. Such notice shall not include an allotment number. It shall identify the product to be delivered by the secondary consumer to whom the notice is sent and state the quantity to be delivered and the time when delivery is required.

(3) Promptly upon receipt of such preliminary notice, each secondary consumer shall report to the originating consumer directly (not through intervening secondary consumers), the amount of each form of controlled material required by him each month in order to make the deliveries indicated. Each such secondary consumer shall include only his own requirements of controlled materials, not those of his secondary consumers. No form is prescribed for such statement.

(4) The originating consumer shall then determine the total requirements of all his secondary consumers under the schedule, checking the list to make certain that a preliminary statement of requirements has been received from each secondary consumer.

(5) If such summary shows that the aggregate requirements of the originating consumer and all his secondary consumers for each form of controlled material do not exceed the allotment made to him for the schedule he may then allot directly to each secondary consumer on the list the amount indicated in the preliminary statement of requirements. No form is prescribed for such allotment, and it may be made by telegram, but it must include the allotment number required by paragraph (c) (6) (ii) of this regulation and a statement substantially as follows: "This allotment is made in accordance with the alternative procedure for simultaneous allotments provided in paragraph (r) of CMP Regulation No. 1." Such allotment shall constitute authorization of a production schedule for the secondary consumer in the amount specified in the notice sent to him pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (r). If aggregate requirements do not exceed his allotment, the originating consumer shall be under no obligation to check the accuracy of the preliminary statements received from his secondary consumers before making allotments to them, but otherwise he and his secondary consumers shall remain subject to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this regulation regarding responsibility for statements of requirements.

(6) If the summary shows that the aggregate requirements of the originating consumer and all his secondary consumers exceed the allotment made to him with respect to any form of controlled material, the originating consumer shall not make any allotment or place any authorized controlled material order for the production schedule covered by his allotment until and unless:

(i) Requirements have been revised by himself or by one or more of his secondary consumers to the extent necessary to eliminate such excess, or

(ii) With the express permission of the appropriate Claimant Agency or Industry Division after he has reported the facts to it, he withholds an amount sufficient to cover all adjustments which must be made in the requirements of his secondary consumers in order to bring them within his allotment.

(s) Placement of orders with controlled materials producers. (1) A delivery order placed with a controlled materials producer for controlled material shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order if, but only if, it complies with the provisions of this paragraph (s) or is specifically designated as an authorized controlled material order by any regulation or order of the War Production Board.

(2) A consumer who has received an allotment may place an authorized controlled material order with any controlled materials producer, unless otherwise specifically directed. An allotment to a prime consumer may include a direction to place delivery orders for controlled materials with one or more designated controlled materials producers. In such event the consumer shall use the allotment only to obtain controlled materials from the designated controlled materials producer or producers or to make allotments to secondary consumers, designating therein only producers named in the allotment received by him. Except as required by the allotment which he has received, no consumer shall impose any such restriction in any allotment made by him.

(3) A delivery order for any controlled material, other than steel castings, placed with a controlled materials producer shall be accompanied by three copies of Form CMP–6. A consumer placing a delivery order for steel castings shall endorse the appropriate allotment number on such order, except that delivery orders for small amounts may be combined in the same manner as provided in paragraph (k) hereof with respect to grouping of allotments. Every authorized controlled material order and every copy of Form CMP–6 shall bear the abbreviated allotment number described in paragraph (c) (6) (ii) of this regulation, including, as the last two digits, the number of the month in which delivery is requested as distinct from the number identifying the quarter for which the allotment received is valid. For example, if a consumer receives an allotment bearing the number W–2–16 and places an authorized controlled material order for delivery in May 1943, the order and Form CMP–6 shall bear the number W–2–17.

(4) A delivery order for controlled material must be in sufficient detail to permit entry on mill schedules and must be received by the controlled materials producer at such time in advance as is specified in Schedule III attached, or at such later time as the controlled materials producer may find it practicable to accept the same, provided that no controlled materials producer shall discriminate between customers in rejecting or accepting late orders.

(5) Controlled materials required for fulfillment of a production schedule which has not yet been authorized may be ordered for delivery before July 1, 1943, under applicable priorities regulations and orders (as the same may be modified from time to time), without placing an authorized controlled material order. Authorized controlled material orders shall, however, take precedence over other orders to the extent provided in CMP Regulation No. 3 regarding preference ratings.

(6) A delivery order placed by a consumer before he has received his allotment and authorized production schedule may be converted into an authorized controlled material order either by furnishing a copy of the order conforming to the requirements of this paragraph (s) or by furnishing in writing the requisite information clearly identifying the order, accompanied in either case by Form CMP–6, except that such form is not required for delivery orders for steel castings.

(s–1) General restriction on placement of authorized controlled material orders. In order to prevent congestion of orders calling for delivery of controlled materials in the early portions of each quarter, no consumer shall (unless previously authorized in writing by the appropriate Controlled Materials Division) place authorized controlled material orders (with controlled materials producers or other suppliers) requesting delivery of the same controlled material either (i) in the first month of any quarter in an amount exceeding one-third of the aggregate amount of such controlled material for which he has received allotments for the quarter as of the time of placing his order, or (ii) in the first two months of any quarter in an amount exceeding two-thirds of such aggregate: Provided, That, in the case of aluminum, during the second quarter of 1943, the limitations shall be 30% for the first month and 63% for the first two months. No consumer shall, however, be required by the provisions of this paragraph (s–1) to reduce a delivery order below the minimum mill quantity specified in Schedule IV attached. In no event shall a consumer request delivery in a greater amount or on an earlier date than required to fill his authorized production schedule, or in an amount so large or on a date so early that receipt of such amount on the requested date would result in his having an inventory of controlled materials in excess of the limitations prescribed by CMP Regulation No. 2 or by any other applicable regulation or order of the War Production Board.

(t) Controlled materials producers—(1) Each controlled materials producer shall comply with such production directives as may be issued from time to time by the appropriate Controlled Materials Division.

(2) A controlled materials producer shall accept authorized controlled material orders in the order in which received by him except:

(i) He may reject orders for less than the minimum mill quantities specified in Schedule IV attached, but shall not discriminate between customers in rejecting or accepting such orders.

(ii) In any case where he is of the opinion that the filling of the order would substantially reduce his over-all production owing to the large or small size of the order, unusual specifications, or otherwise, he shall apply to the appropriate Controlled Materials Division which may direct that the order be placed with another supplier or take other appropriate action.

(iii) He shall refuse any order for shipment of any product in any month if such order, together with all his authorized controlled material orders already on hand for delivery during that month and any orders carried over from the preceding month, plus such amounts as he may be directed by the Controlled Materials Division to deliver or set aside for delivery to warehouses or nonintegrated mills or otherwise, total 110% of the production of such product specified in his production directive, or, if no production directive is currently in effect with respect to such product, total 105% of his expected production. As soon as such limits of 110% and 105% respectively have been reached, each controlled materials producer shall promptly notify the appropriate Controlled Materials Division in writing.

(iv) He shall reject orders to the extent required by specific direction of the Controlled Materials Division.

(3) No controlled materials producer shall, after March 31, 1943, make any delivery of controlled material except:

(i) A delivery made to fill an authorized controlled material order;

(ii) A delivery which is completed before July 1, 1943, and which is made in compliance with applicable priorities regulations and orders;

(iii) A delivery made pursuant to a specific direction of the Director of the Controlled Materials Division.

A controlled materials producer's use of controlled material produced by him (except use in processing which does not convert the same into any form or shape other than one specified with respect to such controlled material on Schedule I) shall be deemed a delivery for the purposes of this paragraph (t).

(4) A controlled materials producer shall make delivery on each authorized controlled material order as close to the requested delivery date as is practicable in view of the need for maximum production and compliance with production schedules. If it is not practicable to make delivery during the month requested, delivery may be made:

(i) After the 15th of the preceding month, provided such delivery does not interfere with delivery on authorized controlled material orders designating shipment in such preceding month or earlier months, and provided production to meet such delivery would not violate any production directive in effect; or

(ii) As early as practicable in the month following the month requested: Provided, that, In such case, the controlled materials producer shall promptly notify the customer of such delay. If such delay will interfere with the customer's authorized production schedule the customer should immediately apply to the appropriate Controlled Materials Division for relief.

(5) If, after accepting an authorized controlled material order, the producer cannot make delivery before the end of the month following the month in which delivery is requested, he shall promptly notify the appropriate Controlled Materials Division in writing stating the allotment number, the name of the customer and the material covered by the order, but he shall not thereafter fill the order unless specifically directed to do so.

(6) All directions to controlled materials producers affecting production and distribution of controlled materials shall be issued by and through the Controlled Materials Divisions.

(7) If the controlled material delivered pursuant to an authorized controlled material order varies from the exact amount specified in the authorized controlled material order, the making and acceptance of such delivery shall not be deemed a violation of this regulation or any other CMP Regulation by the controlled materials producer or his customer, provided such variation does not exceed the commercially recognized shipping tolerance, or allowance for excess or shortage.

(8) An authorized controlled material order shall not constitute an allotment of controlled material to the controlled materials producer with whom it is placed. If such producer requires delivery after March 31, 1943 of controlled materials from other controlled materials producers, to be processed by him and sold to his customers in another form or shape constituting a controlled material, such delivery may be made or accepted only pursuant to a specific direction as provided in subparagraph (3) (iii) of this paragraph (t).

(u) Restrictions on use of allotments or materials or products obtained by allotments. (1) No consumer shall use an allotment, or any controlled material or Class A product obtained pursuant to an allotment for any purpose except:

(i) To fulfill the authorized production schedule for which the allotment was received or to fulfill any other authorized production schedule of the same consumer, within the same plant or operating unit, which schedule is identified by the same Claimant Agency letter symbol.

(ii) For any purpose specifically authorized or directed by the Director General for Operations, or by the appropriate Claimant Agency where only such Agency's schedules are affected or where a single Claimant Agency has been stipulated for the purpose by all Claimant Agencies whose schedules are affected; or

(iii) To restore to a practicable working minimum his inventory of such material or product if the same has been depleted in fulfilling such production schedule or such purpose, subject, however, to the inventory limitations of CMP Regulation No. 2; or

(iv) As permitted or required by Priorities Regulation No. 13, pertaining to special sales, or any other applicable regulation of the War Production Board.

NOTE: The words "used for different authorized production schedules" deleted from (u) (2) Feb 8, 1943.

(2) The provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (u) shall not require physical segregation of inventories provided the restrictions applicable to any specific lot of material or product are observed with respect to an equivalent amount of the same material or product. A consumer who is operating under several authorized production schedules need not maintain separate records of the production obtained from the allotment for each schedule provided that his records show that his use of material for his respective schedules is substantially proportionate to the amounts of material allotted for each, and that his aggregate production of any product does not exceed his aggregate authorized production schedules for that product.

(v) Adjustments on account of controlled materials or Class A products obtained without use of allotments. Each consumer shall promptly reduce, in the manner provided in paragraph (i) of this regulation, any allotment received by him, to the extent that, either before or after receiving the allotment, he fills a substantial portion of any of his requirements covered by the allotment through the acquisition of controlled materials or Class A products in any other manner than by use of the allotment, including without limitation:

(1) Transactions covered by preference ratings (including preference ratings assigned on PRP Certificates or otherwise);

(2) Transactions not affected by preference ratings;

(3) Purchases from warehouses or retailers pursuant to CMP Regulation No. 4 or otherwise;

(4) Purchases pursuant to Priorities Regulation No. 13 or otherwise, from persons not regularly engaged in the business of selling the material or product;

(5) Purchases on small orders pursuant to paragraph (i) of this regulation;

(6) Purchases of second-hand materials or products.

For purposes of this paragraph (v), a "substantial portion" of requirements covered by an allotment shall mean an amount of controlled materials which is either in excess of 25% of the material allotted or is greater than the minimum mill quantity of such material specified in Schedule IV attached.

(w) Adjustments for changes in requirements. If a consumer's requirements for controlled materials or Class A products are increased after he receives his allotment, he should apply for an additional allotment from the person who made the same. If his requirements decrease, for any reason, he shall promptly cancel or reduce his allotment in the manner provided in paragraph (i) of this regulation.

(x) Other War Production Board regulations and orders. Nothing in this regulation (or any other CMP regulation) shall be construed to relieve any person from complying with any applicable priorities regulation or any order of the War Production Board (including orders in the "E," "L," "M" and "P" series). In case compliance by any person with the provisions of any such regulation or order would prevent fulfillment of an authorized production schedule, he should immediately report the matter to the appropriate Industry Division, and to the Claimant Agency whose schedule is affected. The Director General for Operations will thereupon take such action as is deemed appropriate, but unless and until otherwise expressly authorized or directed by the Director General for Operations, such person shall comply with the provisions of such regulation or order.

NOTE: The words "by allotment numbers" deleted from paragraph (y). Feb. 8, 1943.

(y) Records and reports. (1) Each consumer making or receiving any allotment of controlled materials shall maintain at his regular place of business accurate records of all allotments received, of procurement pursuant to all allotments, and of the subdivision of all allotments among his direct secondary consumers. Such records shall be kept separately by abbreviated allotment numbers, as provided in paragraph (c) (6) (ii) of this regulation, and shall include separate entries under each number for each customer, Claimant Agency or Industry Division from whom allotments are received under such number.

(2) Each controlled materials producer shall report to the appropriate Controlled Materials Division, on the forms and for the periods prescribed, such information on production, consumption and distribution of controlled materials as may be prescribed by the appropriate Controlled Materials Division.

(3) Each prime or secondary consumer and each controlled materials producer shall retain for two years at his regular place of business all documents on which he relies as entitling him to make or receive an allotment or to deliver or accept delivery of controlled materials or Class A products, segregated and available for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, or Claimant Agencies, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection.

(z) Appeals and applications for relief. (1) Any person who is subject to any requirement of any regulation, direction, order or other action under the Controlled Materials Plan, may appeal for relief by filing a letter in triplicate with the appropriate authority specified below in this paragraph (z), setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief.

(2) Except as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph (z) or as otherwise specifically directed, an appeal by a producer of Class A products should be filed with the appropriate Claimant Agency, and an appeal by a producer of Class B products should be filed with the appropriate Industry Division, unless the matter affects only production schedules of a single Claimant Agency or where a single Claimant Agency has been stipulated for the purpose by all Claimant Agencies whose schedules are affected, in which case the appeal should be filed with such Claimant Agency.

(3) An appeal concerning the operations of a controlled materials producer (whether filed by such producer, by a consumer, or by a Claimant Agency) shall be filed with the appropriate Controlled Materials Division.

(4) A producer of Class B products may apply for permission to be treated as a producer of Class A products. A producer of Class A products making a large variety of items which are sold to many customers and whose allotments originate from several Claimant Agencies, may make application to be treated as a producer of Class B products, but such permission will not be granted with reference to component parts or subassemblies, unless the necessary adjustments in bills of materials which include such component parts or sub-assemblies can be made without difficulty. Application for reclassification should be filed with the CMP Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., and may be filed either directly by the producer or by a Claimant Agency on his behalf.

(5) In case of any disagreement between any persons as to the interpretation of any provisions of this regulation or any other regulation, direction, or order under the Controlled Materials Plan, the matter should be referred to the Inquiry and Service Branch, CMP Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

(aa) Penalties. Any person who willfully purports to make any allotment of controlled materials or to place authorized controlled material orders in excess of the amount allotted to him, or violates any other provision of this regulation, or any other regulation, direction or order under the Controlled Materials Plan, or who knowingly or willfully makes any false or fraudulent statement or representation with respect to requirements for controlled materials or in any other matter under the jurisdiction of any agency of the United States under the Controlled Materials Plan, is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by a fine up to $10,000 or by imprisonment or both. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries or allotments of controlled material or from making or obtaining any further deliveries of, or from processing or using, any material under priorities control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

SCHEDULE II—SHORT FORM OF ALLOTMENT

Allotment number	Controlled Material Products allotted

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE OF SHORT FORM OF ALLOTMENT—FORM CMP-5

The above short form of allotment may be used by any consumer for the purpose of making an allotment to a secondary consumer producing Class A products for him. The short form of allotment must be either placed on or physically attached to the delivery order calling for delivery of the Class A products. If it is attached the delivery order number or other identification must be indicated on the form.

The form must be followed by the signature of an authorized official of the consumer making the allotment, but need not be separately signed if it is placed on the delivery order in such a position that the signature of the delivery order by such an authorized official clearly applies to the allotment as well as to the order itself.

The size of the form may be varied, but all information called for by the form must be supplied and the general arrangement and wording of the form must be followed.

Under the heading "Controlled Material Products Allotted" the person making the allotment must designate the forms which are allotted. These must be shown in the breakdown prescribed in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1, and must be within the allotments received by such consumer for the same forms. Additional columns may be added depending on the number of forms of controlled material allotted. A sample form follows:

Allotment number	Controlled Material Products allotted

PART 1389—APPAREL

[MPR 287[1] Amendment 3]

Amendment No. 3 to Maximum Price Regulation 287—Manufacturers' Prices for Women's, Girls' and Children's Outerwear Garments.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment is issued herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new paragraph (d) is added to § 1389.356a; in § 1389.373 (a), a new subparagraph (13) is added; in § 1389.374, in paragraph (a), two new paragraphs are added to subparagraph (2); a new § 1389.376 has been added, as set forth below:

§ 1389.356a Special pricing rules. * * *

(d) Additional selling price lines; Rule 12. In addition to the selling price lines which a manufacturer has listed in his Pricing Chart, prepared pursuant to § 1389.353 (a), he may also at his option sell garments in any selling price line listed in Appendix G, (§ 1389.376): Provided, however, That in no event may a manufacturer use a selling price line listed in Appendix G, which is higher than the highest selling price line for that category number, listed in his Pricing Chart, or in his Supplemental Pricing Chart prepared pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section. He shall take as his maximum allowable margin, the maximum allowable margin listed in the Pricing Chart prepared pursuant to § 1389.353 (a), for the selling price line, in the same category number, which is next lower to the selling price line in which the garment is being sold.

Example: Assume that the manufacturer whose report illustrated in Appendix B (§ 1389.371) finds that he has designed a dress in Category No. 22 to sell in a $4.75 selling price line, but that it does not have a minimum allowable cost of $3.47. Under Rule 12, he may sell this dress in a $4.25 selling price line, if the garment has a direct cost of $3.32, or more. The minimum allowable cost of $3.32 is calculated by taking a margin of 22% on a $4.25 selling price line. This margin is the maximum allowable margin listed in the Pricing Chart for $3.75, the next lower selling price line in Category No. 22.

§ 1389.373 Appendix D: Cost records—(a) Instructions for preparing cost records. * * *

(13) Tolerance. If a manufacturer finds that his estimated calculations of the direct cost in a cutting are inaccurate, then for the purposes of this regulation, each garment in that cutting will be deemed to have the minimum allowable cost, if the direct cost is no less than 97% of the minimum allowable cost for that selling price line in that category number.

* * * * * * *

§ 1389.374 Appendix E: Table of permissible selling price lines for new categories—(a) Instructions for use of table. * * *

(2) * * *

In addition, a manufacturer may also use any selling price line listed in Appendix G (§ 1389.375) which is lower than the selling price line listed in that group.

Example: The manufacturer mentioned in the example in this paragraph may also sell women's coats of Category No. 1 in any selling price line listed in Appendix G, which is lower than $14.75. Thus, in addition to the $14.75, $12.75, $10.75, $8.75, $7.75, $6.75, $5.75, and $4.75 selling price lines listed in paragraph (b) of this section, he may also sell his women's coats in the following selling price lines, taken from Appendix G, which are lower than $14.75, namely $13.75, and $11.75.

§ 1389.376 Appendix G: Table of additional selling price lines. (a) The following additional selling price lines[1] may be used by manufacturers pursuant to § 1389.365a (d).

AUTHORITY: §§ 1438.57 to 1438.64 inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong., and E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1438.51 Maximum prices for coated and bonded abrasive products. On and after February 12, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any coated or bonded abrasive product and no person shall buy or receive any coated or bonded abrasive product in the course of trade or business from any seller at a price in excess of the following maximum prices and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do so.

(a) Sales or deliveries of such coated and bonded abrasive products as were sold or offered for sale by the seller during March, 1942—(1) Sales or deliveries to the United States or any agency thereof or to the government of any country whose defense the president deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, "An Act to Promote the defense of the United States," or any agency of any such government. (i) The maximum price for any coated abrasive product shall be the net price which such seller charged most frequently on his deliveries of three units or more of the same commodity during March, 1942, to such a purchaser.

(ii) The maximum price for any bonded abrasive product shall be the net price which such seller charged most frequently on his deliveries of the same commodity during March, 1942, to such a purchaser.

(iii) If no such delivery of any coated or bonded abrasive product was made by the seller during March, 1942, the seller's maximum price shall be his highest net offering price for the same commodity in March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class.

(2) Sales or deliveries to all other persons. (i) The maximum price shall be the highest net price charged by such seller for the same commodity on a delivery made during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class.

(ii) If no such delivery was made by the seller during March, 1942, the seller's maximum price shall be his highest net offering price for the same commodity in March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class.

(b) Sales or deliveries of coated and bonded abrasive products not sold or offered for sale by the seller during March, 1942. Any seller of a coated or bonded abrasive product who is unable to determine his maximum price or prices under paragraph (a), shall file his selling price for that commodity with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for approval. Such selling price shall be determined, whenever feasible, by the use of the pricing formula or method of calculating prices used by the seller during March, 1942, to determine the price of similarly priced coated or bonded abrasive products, for which he had prices in effect at that time. The values given to the factors used in such formula or method shall be no higher than the highest values given to the same factors in the determination of his prices during March, 1942.

Pending approval by the Price Administrator of prices submitted for approval under this paragraph, any seller may sell, deliver, exchange, or offer to sell, deliver or exchange, and any person may buy, offer to buy or receive from the seller in the course of trade or business, such coated or bonded abrasive product at the price submitted for approval. If, however, the Price Administrator disapproves the price submitted, the selling price shall be revised downward to the maximum price which the Price Administrator shall approve, and any payment made in excess of the price so approved shall be refunded to the buyer within fifteen days after the date of the letter, order, or other written instrument informing the seller of such revision: Provided, however, That no such refund shall be required with respect to any delivery made at a price established prior to February 11, 1943, in accordance with the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation. In the absence of notice to the contrary from the Office of Price Administration within thirty days after a seller files such a selling price with the Office of Price Administration, the price filed shall stand approved and shall be the maximum price applicable.

When filing such a price with the Office of Price Administration, the seller shall set forth, in addition to the net price, his list price, and all discounts, allowances, and differentials for all classes of buyers, a description and identification of the commodity, a statement of facts differentiating such commodity from the other commodities sold by the seller, and a statement setting forth the method used in calculating the price therefor.

(c) Sales of coated abrasive products by the Tennessee Sandpaper Corporation. The Tennessee Sandpaper Corporation, Nashville, Tennessee, may sell and deliver, and any person may buy or receive in the course of trade or business, from the Tennessee Sandpaper Corporation, coated abrasive products sold or offered for sale by it during March, 1942, at prices no higher than the maximum prices established in Order No. 127, issued November 4, 1942, under § 1499.18 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. For coated abrasive products not sold or offered for sale by the Tennessee Sandpaper Corporation during March, 1942, the other applicable provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 316, shall control: Provided, however, That the maximum prices for such products not sold or offered for sale by the Tennessee Sandpaper Corporation during March, 1942, may be calculated to reflect a 10% increase over March prices so that the maximum prices on such products will be in line with the seller's maximum prices on his other coated abrasive products.

§ 1438.52 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1438.51 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1438.53 Packaging and transportation charges and practices. A seller may not change the packaging and transportation charges and practices which he had in effect during March, 1942, if such change would result in higher prices to his customers.

§ 1438.54 Export sales. Export sales of coated and bonded abrasive products shall be subject to the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1438.55 Idle or frozen materials. The maximum price at which any person may sell or deliver idle or frozen coated and bonded abrasive products shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 204[2] on Idle or Frozen Materials Sold Under Priorities Regulation No. 13.

§ 1438.56 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In an appropriate situation, where a petition for amendment requires extended consideration, the Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1438.57 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 316 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to coated and bonded abrasive products, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1438.58 Records and reports. (a) Every person making sales or deliveries of coated or bonded abrasive products and every person making purchases or accepting delivery of coated or bonded abrasive products in the course of trade or business, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long a period as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale, purchase, or delivery showing the date thereof, the name of the purchaser or seller, the quantity and kind of coated or bonded abrasive products sold, purchased, or delivered, and the price received or paid therefor, and each such seller shall keep a record of all discounts, differentials, and allowances which the seller had in effect during March, 1942, with a proper identification of each such discount, differential and allowance.

(b) On or before February 11, 1943, every producer shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a copy of his current price lists and discount schedules, or other statements setting forth his current selling prices for all classes of buyers, indicating in each instance, his maximum price, unless such producer has already filed such information with that Office. The reports required under this paragraph (b) refer only to domestic transactions. Reports with respect to export prices are governed by the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Such person shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration, and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1438.59 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 316 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 316, or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1438.60 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 316 may file a petition for an amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1438.61 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation.[3] The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 316 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1438.62 Effect upon Order No. 78 and Order No. 96 under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Order No. 78 and Order No. 96 under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation are hereby revoked.

Customary differentials in discounts on price list goods shall be among the criteria which establish differences among classes of purchasers.

Purpose and Application of Procedural Regulation No. 4

§ 1300.151 Purpose and application. It is the purpose of this regulation to prescribe the procedure used by the Office of Price Administration in the issuance of rationing suspension orders. The regulation does not apply to suspension orders issued by War Price and Rationing Boards, but § 1300.169 of this regulation prescribes the procedure used on appeal from such orders.

Suspension order Proceedings

§ 1300.152 Institution of proceedings. Proceedings for the issuance of suspension orders shall be instituted by the service of a notice of hearing upon the respondent not less than three (3) days prior to such hearing.

§ 1300.153 Notice of hearing. A notice of any hearing to be held pursuant to this procedural regulation shall be issued by the Regional Attorney and shall set forth the time and place of hearing, a statement of the charges against the respondent, and a statement of the purpose for which the hearing is to be held.

(b) If the notice of hearing is served at least five (5) days before the date set for the hearing, the notice may provide that such hearing will be held only if respondent files with the Hearing Commissioner a request for such hearing and a statement of the general nature of his defense to each of the charges. Such notice shall fix the time for filing the request and statement, which shall be not less than three days after service of the notice.

(c) No hearing need be held if the respondent has failed to file the required request and statement within the time prescribed by a notice issued in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 1300.154 Hearing Commissioner; Presiding Officer; appointment and duties: Any hearing held pursuant to this regulation shall be conducted by a Hearing Commissioner or such person as he may designate to conduct such hearing (hereinafter called "presiding officer"). The Hearing Commissioner or a presiding officer shall preside at the hearing, administer oaths and affirmations, and rule on the admission and exclusion of evidence.

§ 1300.155 Continuance or adjournment of hearing. The hearing shall be held at the time and place specified by the notice of hearing, but the Hearing Commissioner or presiding officer may continue or adjourn the hearing to a later date or to a different place. Notice of such adjournment or continuance may be made by announcement at the hearing.

§ 1300.156 Conduct of hearing. (a) The hearing shall be conducted by the Hearing Commissioner or presiding officer in such manner as will permit the presentation of evidence and argument to the fullest extent compatible with fair and expeditious determination of the issues raised in the hearing. To this end:

(1) The respondent shall have the right to be represented by counsel of his own choosing.

(2) The rules of evidence prevailing in the courts of law or equity shall not be controlling.

(3) The Hearing Commissioner or presiding officer shall afford reasonable opportunity for cross-examination of witnesses.

(b) All hearings held pursuant to this procedural regulation shall be public.

§ 1300.157 Subpoenas. (a) Applications for subpoenas shall be filed with the Hearing Commissioner, who may thereafter grant or deny the application or refer it to the presiding officer. The subpoena shall be issued if such application is approved by the presiding officer.

(b) The application for subpoena shall specify the name and address of the witness and the nature of the facts to be proved by him and, if calling for the production of documents, shall specify them with such particularity as will enable them to be identified for purposes of production.

(c) Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and by tendering to him the fees and mileage specified in section 2 (a) (4) of the Act. When the subpoena is issued at the instance of the Regional Attorney, fees and mileage need not be tendered.

§ 1300.158 Witnesses. Witnesses summoned before a Hearing Commissioner or presiding officer at any hearing held pursuant to this regulation shall be paid the fees and mileage specified by section 2 (a) (4) of the Act. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witness appears.

§ 1300.159 Contemptuous conduct. Contemptuous conduct at any hearing shall be ground for exclusion from the hearing. The refusal of a witness to answer any question which has been ruled to be proper shall, in the discretion of the Hearing Commissioner, or presiding officer, be ground for the striking out of all testimony previously given by such witness on related matters.

§ 1300.160 Transcript of hearing. A stenographic report of all hearings shall be taken. The report need not be transcribed if such transcription is waived by the parties to the proceeding. If the report is transcribed, a copy shall be available for inspection during business hours at the Office of the Hearing Commissioner. Argument of counsel shall not be included in the report except at the direction of the Hearing Commissioner or presiding officer.

§ 1300.161 Presiding officer's advisory report; service. (a) A presiding officer who has conducted a hearing shall prepare an advisory report. Such report shall contain (1) findings of fact, (2) conclusions of law, and (3) recommendations with respect to the disposition of the matter.

(b) The advisory report shall be filed with the Hearing Commissioner, and copies thereof shall be served on the respondent and the Regional Attorney.

§ 1300.162 Briefs on presiding officer's advisory report. (a) Any party may submit to the Hearing Commissioner a brief or written argument in opposition to or in support of the report of the presiding officer.

(b) Such briefs shall be filed within five (5) days after the service of the presiding officer's report. Two (2) copies of the brief shall be filed with the Hearing Commissioner and a copy thereof served upon the opposing party at or before the time of filing.

(c) Briefs may be filed after the time prescribed by paragraph (b) of this section only with the permission of the Hearing Commissioner.

§ 1300.163 Briefs after hearing before Commissioner. The Hearing Commissioner may, upon the request of any party to a proceeding conducted by him, permit the filing of briefs or written argument. Such briefs or written argument shall be filed within such time as the Hearing Commissioner may prescribe.

§ 1300.164 Waiver of hearing. (a) If a respondent fails to appear at a hearing or fails to request a hearing when such request is required pursuant to § 1300.153 (b), he shall be deemed to have waived a hearing, and the charges set forth in the notice of hearing shall be deemed to be admitted for the purposes of the hearing. In such cases the Regional Attorney may present evidence relevant to the determination of the effective period of any suspension order which might be issued against the respondent.

(b) At any time prior to the tenth day after the service of a suspension order issued after a default, the respondent may file with the Hearing Commissioner who issued the order, a petition for the reopening of the proceedings, setting forth the grounds on which he believes his default should be excused. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the Regional Attorney at or prior to the time it is filed with the Hearing Commissioner. If the Hearing Commissioner grants the petition he shall notify the Regional Attorney and the respondent of the time and place set for the hearing and may set aside or stay the suspension order.

§ 1300.165 Order of the Hearing Commissioner. (a) If the Hearing Commissioner determines that a respondent has violated a rationing regulation or order he may issue a suspension order.

(b) Any suspension order hereunder shall set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law upon which it is based, and shall contain a statement of the reasons why a suspension order should be issued unless such statement is set forth in an opinion accompanying the order.

(c) If the Hearing Commissioner determines that no suspension order should be issued he shall issue an order dismissing the proceeding in which he shall set forth his findings of fact and conclusions of law. The order shall contain a statement of the reasons why a suspension order should not be issued unless such reasons are stated in an opinion accompanying the order.

§ 1300.166 Consent order. If the Hearing Commissioner approves an agreement entered into by the Regional Attorney and a respondent with respect to the terms of a suspension order, he shall issue the order agreed upon, and such order shall have the same force and effect as an order issued under § 1300.165.

§ 1300.167 Hearing and order by Hearing Administrator. (a) At any time after the service of a notice of hearing and before the service of the suspension order, the Hearing Administrator may direct that the proceedings be brought before him.

(b) Notice that the proceedings are to be brought before the Hearing Administrator shall be served upon the Regional Attorney, the respondent and the Hearing Commissioner.

(c) Proceedings brought before the Hearing Administrator shall be conducted in the same manner as if brought before a Hearing Commissioner.

§ 1300.168 Incidental provisions in suspension orders: A suspension order issued under this regulation may contain such provisions as may be deemed appropriate to make effective the regulation or prohibition prescribed in the order.

Suspension Orders on Appeal From Orders of War Price and Rationing Boards

§ 1300.169 Appeals from orders of Boards. (a) Whenever a right to appeal to a Hearing Commissioner from an order of a War Price and Rationing Board is granted by a rationing order or regulation, such appeal may be taken within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rationing order or regulation.

(b) The appeal shall be heard by the Hearing Commissioner or a presiding officer, and determined by the Hearing Commissioner in the same manner as if it were a proceeding instituted by a notice of hearing issued under §1300.152.

(c) The Hearing Commissioner may, for good cause shown upon application by the respondent, stay or suspend the operation of an order issued by a War Price and Rationing Board pending the hearing and determination of the appeal.

(d) Any order issued by the Hearing Commissioner upon the determination of the appeal shall supersede the order of the Board from which the appeal was taken.

Appeals to and Review by Hearing Administrator

§ 1300.170 Appeals from orders of the Hearing Commissioner. (a) The respondent or the Regional Attorney may appeal to the Hearing Administrator from any order of the Hearing Commissioner issued under this regulation within ten (10) days (or in the case of orders issued in the Territories and Possessions, within thirty (30) days) after service of such order.

§ 1300.171 Notice of appeal. (a) The appeal may be taken by serving a notice of appeal on the Hearing Commissioner and the other party to the proceeding and filing a copy of the notice of appeal with proof of such service at the Office of the Hearing Administrator.

(b) The notice of appeal shall contain (1) a reference to the findings of fact and conclusions of law, if any, to which exception is taken, (2) a brief statement of the grounds for such exceptions, (3) the modifications proposed with respect to the order appealed from, and (4) a brief statement of the reasons supporting such modifications.

§ 1300.172 Stay pending appeal. The Hearing Administrator may, for good cause shown upon application by the respondent, stay or suspend the operation of an order of a Hearing Commissioner pending the determination of the appeal.

§ 1300.173 Record on appeal. The Hearing Commissioner shall, within three (3) days after the receipt of the notice of appeal, send to the Hearing Administrator the complete record in the case which shall include:

Two (2) copies of the brief shall be filed with the Hearing Administrator and a copy thereof served upon the opposing party at or before the time of filing.

(c) Briefs may be filed after the time prescribed by paragraph (b) of this section only with the permission of the Hearing Administrator.

§ 1300.175 Order on appeal. (a) The Hearing Administrator may affirm, reverse or modify the order of a Hearing Commissioner or direct that a further hearing be held thereon.

(b) The Hearing Administrator shall issue his order on appeal within a reasonable time after the filing of the notice of appeal. The order may be accompanied by an opinion of the Hearing Administrator, setting forth the reasons for the action taken.

(c) Copies of the order on appeal shall be served on the respondent and the Regional Attorney.

§ 1300.176 Review on initiative of Hearing Administrator. (a) If neither the Regional Attorney nor the respondent appeals from the order within the time prescribed in § 1300.170, the Hearing Administrator may review the case on his own motion.

(b) The Hearing Administrator shall initiate a review under subsection (a) of this section by serving a notice of intention to review on the Regional Attorney and respondent.

(c) A review proceeding under this section shall be conducted in the same manner as an appeal under § 1300.170 except that briefs shall be filed within 15 days (or in the case of orders issued in the Territories and Possessions, within thirty-five (35) days) after the service of notice of intention to review.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

SHOES

Preamble: Reliable reports show that more shoes were made in the United States in 1941 than ever before. As a result, our shoe supply was somewhat larger than normal up to the middle of 1942. Since that time, however, shoe stocks have gradually been declining and the supply and demand factors are such that a serious shortage is expected unless the market is controlled.

Production and sales reports for the second half of 1942 show a sharp decline in production of civilian shoes and an increase in retail sales, with the result that retail stocks declined substantially during the year. The trend toward a shortage of shoes is thus shown.

The 1943 production of shoes for civilian use is expected to be smaller than in 1942 for several reasons. Shortages of leather (and other materials) and of skilled manpower are the principal causes of this decline. Furthermore, as our armed forces grow, a larger share of the shoes made must be set aside for them, so the civilian supply is further reduced. Because of these factors, the 1943 production of civilian shoes is expected to be at least 25% less than in 1942.

The Government, through restriction orders issued by the War Production Board, is attempting to make supplies of leather go as far as possible. For example, the number of styles a shoe manufacturer may make has been reduced so as to make it unnecessary for shoe stores to keep in stock many different styles of shoes. However, much of the leather in hides is thin or of poor quality and since it is impossible to stretch the quantity or to improve the quality of sole leather the total number of shoes that can be made is limited.

If consumer buying of shoes were not controlled, it is reasonable to expect that the number of pairs bought in 1943 would be at least as large as in 1942. In fact, many factors indicate that 1943 sales would be larger. Among these factors are the following: (1) People can afford to buy more shoes because they have more money to spend altogether and are unable to spend it for automobiles or other durable goods; (2) as the better grades of leather are used for shoes for the armed forces, many civilian shoes, being of poorer quality, will wear out sooner and require earlier replacement; (3) with gasoline rationing, together with greater employment, more people will be walking to work or on the job and will normally wear out their shoes faster; (4) as shoe stocks decline, consumers tend to stock up and to buy more shoes than they need, thereby increasing the shortage.

Even though 1943 sales should not increase above 1942, but should remain the same, the more conservative estimates indicate that sales would exceed production by over 100 million pairs. This excess would have to come out of current stocks, resulting in a decrease of stocks of approximately 50%.

As a shortage developed, it may be expected that shoes usable for work or street wear would sell faster than luxury shoes and would virtually disappear from stores. Furthermore, shoe store stocks would become unbalanced as to sizes so that many customers could not be fitted.

These factors make it essential that the market be controlled and that the control be exercised before a serious shortage develops. By doing so while stocks are relatively large, stores can be allowed a large enough inventory to serve their customers in a normal way and each person can be allowed enough shoes to take care of his needs.

Some shoes will not be rationed under this program. Soft-soled slippers, moccasins, and infants' shoes are eliminated because the supply of leather used in them is ample for all needs. Hard-soled house and boudoir slippers are excluded because their production is being curtailed and the existing supplies can be permitted to disappear without causing any hardship. Waterproof rubber footwear is excluded because the types of which the supply is most critical are already rationed under Ration Order No. 6.

Under the plan used to ration shoes, consumers will buy shoes in almost the same way as they now buy sugar and coffee. At the outset, Stamp No. 17 in War Ration Book One will be used for shoes until June 15, 1943. The Office of Price Administration will announce what stamps are good for later periods. Ordinarily, the customer must tear the stamp from his book and give it to the person making the sale or delivery when the shoes are ordered or delivered. However, in case of a "mail order" the stamp may be sent in by mail when the order is given. Members of a family may use each other's stamps, but in all other cases a stamp may be used to get shoes only for the person to whom the War Ration Book was issued.

The normal needs of everyone will be met by the use of the war ration stamps. To take care of unusual cases where a person needs extra shoes to wear on his job or to protect his health he is permitted to get a special shoe stamp for this purpose by applying to his board.

Employers who furnish special shoes to employees who need them on their job; and institutions which furnish shoes for residents (including athletic shoes for students) are permitted to get a supply for that purpose by applying to a district office of the Office of Price Administration.

To have an effective rationing program, all sales of shoes must be controlled and dealers' inventories must be limited to what they need under rationing. Therefore, everyone dealing in shoes is required to register and file an inventory. In most cases, registration will take place by opening a "shoe ration bank account" at a bank, since the ration banking program will be used by the trade. At the time of registration each distributor will be given a credit of ration currency which he may use, in addition to the ration currency received from customers, to buy shoes. Members of the trade who have ration bank accounts may replace their inventory to the extent of sales, by depositing the stamps and other ration currency received from customers and drawing ration checks to their suppliers. The dealers will not open ration bank accounts nor file inventories until the program has been in operation for a month or more. Until that time they will buy and sell shoes within the trade on "credit". Shoes acquired in this period must be "paid for" when the establishment has filed its inventory.

To give dealers time to prepare for the rationing program, no one is allowed to buy or sell shoes until the first Tuesday after the order becomes effective.

§ 1404.101 Rationing of shoes. Under the authority vested in the Office of Price Administration and the Price Administrator by Executive Order 9125 issued by the President on April 7, 1942, by Directive 1 and Supplementary Directive 1–T of the War Production Board, issued January 24, 1942, and February 7, 1943, respectively, this Ration Order 17 (shoes) which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued.

ARTICLE I—HOW CONSUMERS BUY SHOES

(This part tells all one must know to get shoes for use)

SECTION 1.1 Buyer must give up evidence of his right to buy shoes. A person who wants to buy or otherwise acquire shoes for use may do so if he first gives the seller or other person making the transfer valid shoe ration currency. The ration currency used by a consumer may be a "war ration shoe stamp," a "special shoe stamp," or a "certificate". Ration currency may be used only to get shoes for the person for whom it was issued, except that a war ration stamp issued to a member of a family may be used to get shoes for any member of his family. Ration currency may be used during the time and in the way this order permits but not otherwise. (Some words are used in this order with a special meaning. Examples are "acquire", "transfer", "person", "family", and "stamp". These terms are fully explained in section 3.13.)

SEC. 1.2 How war ration stamp is used. Everyone who has a valid war ration book may use each shoe stamp in it to get one pair of shoes. Section 1.16 tells what war ration stamps are for shoes and when they may be used. The stamp must be torn out of the war ration book in the presence of the supplier or his employee or a person making the delivery for him either when the shoes are ordered or when they are delivered. If the war ration stamp is removed in any other manner or at any other time it is void. However, when shoes are ordered by mail the stamp may be torn out of the book and sent with the order but the supplier may not deliver the shoes until he has received the stamp.

SEC. 1.3 War ration book turned over to boarding house may be returned to get shoes. A person who has turned his war ration book over to a boarding house, hospital, or a similar institution when required by Rationing Order No. 3[1] (sugar) or Ration Order No. 12[2] (coffee) may get it back to use it to get shoes if the institution does not furnish his shoes. However, he must return it promptly.

SEC. 1.4 War Ration Book One may be issued for person confined in institution. If a person who is confined in an institution that does not furnish his shoes does not have War Ration Book One, either because he was never issued one or because he has surrendered it to his board, he may obtain one to use to get shoes, by applying to the board serving the area in which he lives. Someone else may apply for him if he is unable to do so himself. If a book is issued to him, the board shall remove from it all stamps except Stamps No. 17 and 18. He may, however, get a war ration book in a way permitted by other applicable ration orders.

SEC. 1.5 How to get extra shoes for one's own use. (a) Any person who needs extra shoes and who does not have valid shoe ration currency and can not obtain a war ration shoe stamp from a member of his family may get a special shoe stamp (or temporary shoe purchase certificate) to permit him to get the extra shoes he needs. He should apply to the War Price and Rationing Board serving the area in which he lives, on OPA Form R-1703. If it is impracticable for him to apply at the proper board, any Board may, in its discretion, accept and act on his application. (If he makes an application before the application forms are available, he may do it by writing a letter to the board giving all the information necessary to show his eligibility and need for the shoes.) He may mail or bring his application to the Board or may have someone else do so for him. In most cases, the applicant must sign the application himself, but if he is a minor, is legally incompetent, or is physically unable to sign it himself someone else may sign it as his agent. The board may require the applicant to appear before it to give more information before acting on the application and may deny an application of a person who has acquired or transferred shoes in violation of this order.

(b) Except for some special reason, everyone will be given the right to buy all the shoes he needs for ordinary wear by using the stamps in his war ration book. Therefore, a person does not have "need" for extra shoes: (1) if the kind of shoes he wants are furnished him by his employer or by an institution; or (2) if he has two or more pairs of wearable (or repairable) shoes of the kind wanted or which he could use for the same purpose; or (3) if he wants them simply for sportswear or to maintain his personal appearance; or (4) if he already has valid shoe ration currency, or he can obtain a war ration stamp from a member of his family, which he could use to get the shoes he wants. The board may also find that "need" does not exist if it would not be a hardship for the applicant to wait until his next shoe stamp is valid to get the shoes he wants.

(c) If a special shoe stamp (or temporary shoe purchase certificate) is issued, the board will write on it the date of issue and the serial number of the applicant's war ration book then being used for shoes. Until the special shoe stamps are available, the board will issue a temporary shoe purchase certificate (OPA Form R-306) instead of a special shoe stamp.

SEC. 1.6 How special shoe stamp is used. A person who gets a special shoe stamp in a way permitted by this order may use it within 30 days from the date it was issued to get one pair of shoes. Before using this stamp, he must write on it the serial number of his war ration book then being used for shoes (unless that number is already written on the stamp) and must show the war ration book having the same serial number to the person to whom he gives the stamp. However, when an order for shoes is given by mail, the stamp may be sent with the order and if that is done the war ration book need not be shown.

SEC. 1.7 Employers and institutions may get shoes. (a) Any employer who furnishes his employees with special shoes necessary for the performance of their jobs; any educational institution that furnishes its students with shoes of a special type required for athletic activities (including physical training); or any correctional or charitable institution that furnishes shoes to its residents may get certificates to acquire the number of pairs of shoes it needs for that purpose. To get the certificates, the employer or institution should apply (on OPA Form R-1702) to the District Office for the area where the institution, or the employer's principal business office is located. In emergencies, however, any District Office may accept and act on the application. The applicant shall furnish all the information called for by the form prescribed or needed to establish the eligibility and need for the number of pairs applied for. (Until the regular forms are available, the District Office will issue temporary shoe purchase certificates and the employer or institution may apply by writing a letter to the District Office giving all the information necessary to show his eligibility and need for the shoes.)

(b) An employer or educational institution may get certificates under this section for not more than the number of pairs of shoes needed to give it a total supply of wearable shoes of the kind desired (including any already owned, whether in use or not, that are wearable or that can be repaired) equal to one pair for each employee or student to be supplied, plus a reserve of 10 per cent.

(c) A charitable or correctional institution may get certificates under this section for not more than the number of pairs of shoes needed of the kind applied for or a kind that could be used for the same purpose to give it a total supply of wearable shoes (including any already owned, whether in use or not, that are wearable or that can be repaired) equal to two pairs of shoes for each resident to be supplied, plus a reserve of 10 per cent.

(d) An employer or institution that gets shoes under this section may let its employees, students, or residents, as the case may be, use the shoes but it must keep title to them. However, if a member or resident of a charitable or correctional institution leaves the institution it may give him a pair of shoes to take with him.

SEC. 1.8 How certificates may be used. A person who gets a certificate (including a temporary shoe purchase certificate) in a way permitted by this order may use it only within 30 days from the date it was issued to get the number of pairs of shoes of the type permitted by the certificate. It may be used only by or for the person to whom it was issued. If it is sent with a mail order, the shoes may be delivered only to the name and address written on the certificate.

SEC. 1.9 A consumer may acquire shoes shipped before effective date of order. Any consumer may acquire shoes that were shipped or mailed to him before the effective date of this order, or that were wrapped, marked or held for delivery to him before the effective date of this order, if they are delivered to him or to a carrier for delivery to him before February 12, 1943. He need not give up a stamp or other ration currency to get them if they are delivered in this way. (As to imports, this section is limited by section 3.4.)

SEC. 1.10 Consumer may exchange shoes. Any consumer may return new shoes to the establishment from which he got them and with the latter's consent may get another pair in exchange or may get back a special shoe stamp if the establishment accepts the shoes returned and also refunds the full purchase price. If he is given a special shoe stamp, the person giving it to him must write on it the date of its issue. (Until special shoe stamps are available, he will be given a loose War Ration Stamp No. 17 with a receipt for the returned shoes and he may use this Stamp to get one pair of shoes. If he takes this stamp to another store, he must give the receipt for the refund and the stamp to his supplier. He may, however, send the stamp with an order by mail without enclosing the refund receipt.)

[1] 7 F.R. [illegible]

SEC. 1.11 District Office may issue certificate to welfare agency. To avoid hardship caused by flood, tornado, or other public disaster, a District Office or the National Office may issue shoe purchase certificates to the American Red Cross (or any of its branches) or other recognized welfare agency (on written application made on OPA Form R–1702) to permit it to acquire shoes for free distribution to persons who lose their shoes in the catastrophe. (Before the regular forms are available the District or National Office will issue temporary shoe purchase certificates and the welfare agency may apply by writing a letter to the District or National Office showing the need for the shoes.) Shoes acquired by the welfare agency with certificates so issued may be transferred to anyone having need for them as a result of a catastrophe, without getting ration currency for them.

SEC. 1.12 Anyone may acquire used shoes. Anyone may acquire used shoes without giving up ration currency. However, shoes returned for exchange under section 1.10, shoes acquired by employers and institutions under section 1.7, and shoes used for wear-testing or as samples may not be transferred or acquired as used shoes. (The term "used" is explained in section 3.13.)

SEC. 1.13 Anyone may acquire non-rationed shoes. Anyone may acquire, without giving up a stamp or other ration currency, shoes that have been marked non-rationed as allowed under section 2.11 of this order.

SEC. 1.14 Members of armed services may acquire shoes. (a) Any member of the armed services of the United States may acquire shoes furnished or sold him by his branch of the armed services, without surrendering ration currency.

(b) Any member of the armed services of the United States who wants shoes that he cannot get from his branch of the armed services and who does not have a war ration shoe stamp may get certificates for the shoes he needs. Certificates for this purpose may be issued by an authorized officer of his branch of the armed services.

SEC. 1.15 Erasures, changes, and mutilation invalidates stamps and certificates. Any omission, erasure, or change on a special shoe stamp or a shoe purchase certificate makes it void. A stamp that has been torn or mutilated is valid only if more than one half of it remains intact when presented, and, in the case of a special shoe stamp, only if it shows the date of issue and the serial number of the holder's war ration book. A certificate that is torn shall be valid only if the remaining portion can be read and shows the date, the number of pairs for which it is good, the name of the holder, and the signature of the issuing officer.

SEC. 1.16 What war ration stamps are for shoes. The following schedule shows what stamps are evidence of a right to acquire shoes and the time they are valid.

War ration book number	Stamp number	Valid period (For men's, women's, and children's shoes)
One	17	First Tuesday after effective date of order to June 15, 1943, inclusive

ARTICLE II—HOW THIS ORDER AFFECTS THE TRADE

(This part should be read by everyone who deals in shoes)

SECTION 2.1 Shoe sales are frozen for one day. No establishment may transfer new shoes to a consumer until the first Tuesday after the effective date of this order.

SEC. 2.2 Shoes on order may be acquired or transferred without ration currency in some cases. (a) An establishment may acquire shoes without giving up ration currency, if the shoes had been shipped or mailed to the establishment before this order became effective. (In the case of imports, this provision is limited by section 3.4.)

(b) At any time before the first Friday after this order becomes effective an establishment may deliver shoes to a consumer, or to a carrier for such purpose, without getting ration currency, if the shoes had been ordered by the consumer and they had been wrapped, marked, or held for delivery to him before this order was in effect.

SEC. 2.3 Establishments must file inventory. (a) Every establishment must file an inventory of its supply of shoes and ration currency (on OPA Form R–1701) before a date to be announced by the Office of Price Administration. After that date, no establishment may transfer or acquire new shoes until it has filed an inventory in the way required by this order. The inventory shall be taken as of the close of business on the last Saturday before the date set for filing inventories. All information required by the inventory form must be furnished. The inventory shall include: (1) All new shoes (by types) located in the establishment, other than those which are there only for repair; (2) all new shoes owned by the establishment which are stored in a public warehouse or are in the hands of another for repair; (3) the amount of ration currency on hand (by pairs of shoes); (4) the number of pairs of shoes transferred by it for which ration currency is owed to it; (5) the number of pairs of new shoes transferred by it to exempt persons or agencies; and (6) the number of pairs of shoes acquired by it for which it owes ration currency. A person who owns two or more establishments and has new shoes stored in a public warehouse must include all of them in the inventories of his establishments, but may allot the shoes in the public warehouse to such of his establishments as he wants.

(b) If the establishment opens a shoe ration bank account, the inventory shall be filed at the bank; otherwise, it must be filed at the District Office.

SEC. 2.4 Establishments must open ration bank accounts. Every establishment must open a shoe ration bank account before a date to be announced by the Office of Price Administration unless it does not have access to ration banking facilities. After that date, only ration checks drawn to the account of the establishment transferring the shoes may be used as ration currency for transfers of shoes between establishments. However, if an establishment has notified the District Office that it does not have access to a bank which handles ration bank accounts, it may send stamps or certificates to its supplier in the manner provided in section 2.8.

SEC. 2.5 How to open a shoe ration bank account. (a) A separate account must be opened for each establishment even though two or more are owned by the same person. There may be two or more establishments at the same location if separate records and inventories are kept.

(b) If an establishment already has a ration bank account for some other commodity it must open its shoe ration bank account at the same bank. Otherwise it may open its account at the bank where it has its regular checking account; or if it does not have a regular checking account, it may open its account at any convenient commercial bank. To open the account, the owner of the establishment must file with the bank its inventory (on OPA Form R–1701) and a signature card to show who may sign ration checks for the establishment. All distributors who are entitled to a shoe purchase allowance under section 2.6 may make out and present a deposit slip for the amount of the shoe purchase allowance, which will be credited to the account.

SEC. 2.6 Distributors entitled to initial allowance. When its inventory is filed, each distributing establishment will be given a shoe purchase allowance which it may use, in addition to the ration currency received from customers, to acquire shoes and to repay its suppliers for shoes received from them on "credit" under the next section. The amount of this shoe purchase allowance will be 50 per cent of the number of pairs of new shoes properly included in the establishment's inventory. If the inventory is filed at the District Office, the District Office will issue a certificate to the establishment for the amount of its shoe purchase allowance.

SEC. 2.7 Establishments may deal in shoes—(a) Transfer must be made for ration currency. An establishment may transfer shoes to a consumer or to another establishment if it first gets valid ration currency from him. However, until the establishment has filed its inventory, stamps, certificates, or other ration currency received from customers must be kept by the establishment that first received them; such ration currency may be transferred to another establishment only as permitted by section 2.8.

(b) Credit may be given for ration currency for limited period. Until the time set for filing the inventory, shoes may be transferred between establishments which were in business on the effective date of this order without the giving up of ration currency in advance. When the establishment getting the shoes has filed its inventory it must within ten days give its supplier valid ration currency for the number of pairs of new shoes received. It may not give ration currency to suppliers for other shoes until it has sent ration currency to its supplier for all shoes received under this paragraph. (An establishment that was not in business on the effective date of this order may acquire shoes in this manner if it has notified the District Office of its opening and has received an acknowledgement of the filing of the notice.)

SEC. 2.8 Distributors having no access to ration banks use ration currency. Any distributor who has notified the District Office that he is unable to open a ration bank account because there are no ration banking facilities in the area he serves, shall use stamps and certificates which he has received (including ration currency received as an initial allowance) to repay his suppliers for shoes shipped on "credit" before the date set for the filing of inventories. After all ration "debts" have been repaid, he may replenish his stock by sending stamps and certificates to his supplier for the number of shoes ordered. Ration currency may be forwarded to a supplier only within the time it is valid for deposit as provided in the next section. An establishment forwarding a certificate to a supplier must endorse its name on the reverse side.

SEC. 2.9 How to deposit ration currency—(a) Time for depositing is limited. A war ration stamp received by an establishment may be deposited to its shoe ration bank account within 30 days after the end of its valid period. A special shoe stamp or certificate (including the temporary shoe purchase certificate) may be so deposited within 60 days after the date of its issue. Stamps or certificates not deposited within such time are void. (There is no limit on the time when shoe ration checks may be deposited.)

(b) Endorsement. Before depositing a ration check or certificate the establishment should endorse it.

(c) Deposit slips are used. When ration currency is deposited, the items should be listed on a deposit slip, in duplicate, as on the form provided by the bank for that purpose (for other rules on the use of shoe ration bank accounts, see General Ration Order No. 3A, which covers ration banking).

SEC. 2.10 Refunds to consumers made with Special Shoe Stamps. An establishment that is unable to fill a consumer's order for which it has received valid ration currency, and an establishment making a refund for returned shoes as permitted by section 1.10, must return to the consumer a special shoe stamp as a refund for the currency or shoes received. It must write the date of issue on each stamp so refunded. It may get special shoe stamps for this purpose from its Board, in exchange for a certified ration check drawn to the account of the Office of Price Administration or in exchange for war ration shoe stamps received from customers. (Until the establishment opens its bank account it may return to the consumer any War Ration Stamp No. 17 it has received if it also returns a receipt for the shoes returned or the ration currency received.)

SEC. 2.11 Establishments may be allowed to mark shoes "non-rationed". Because there may be little demand under rationing for some kinds of shoes now in stock, provision will be made, if necessary, to allow establishments to mark certain shoes as "non-rationed" and to transfer them without getting ration currency. When full information of consumer buying trends under rationing is secured, the Office of Price Administration will announce the way to apply for the necessary approval.

SEC. 2.12 Shoes may be used for wear-testing or as samples. (a) A manufacturer may use shoes for wear-testing them and for this purpose may let its employees or others use them without getting ration currency.

(b) An establishment may use shoes as samples and for this purpose may furnish single shoes (not a pair) to salesmen or to other establishments, without getting ration currency.

(c) An establishment furnishing new shoes to another under this section must keep title to the shoes unless ration currency is received for them or they are permitted to be sold as "non-rationed" shoes under the above section. They may not be considered to be "used" shoes. Separate records must be kept of all shoes used or transferred under this section.

SEC. 2.13 Establishments must keep records. (a) Every establishment shall furnish an invoice to each person (other than an individual consumer) to whom it makes a transfer of shoes. The invoice must contain the date of transfer, the number of pairs transferred, the price per pair and in total, and the name and address of the person (or establishment) to whom the transfer is made.

(b) Each establishment shall keep the following records for at least two years:

(1) All invoices received for shoes acquired;

(2) Copies of all invoices furnished by it pursuant to the above paragraph;

(3) Records of any new shoes acquired for which invoices were not received containing the same information as is called for by the above paragraph;

(4) The number of pairs of new shoes transferred to consumers, to other establishments, and to any person from whom ration currency is not required;

(5) An inventory of its stock of shoes, by types as listed on OPA Form R–1701, taken at six-month intervals;

(6) The number of pairs of shoes manufactured, by types as listed on OPA Form R–1701; and

(7) Copies of any reports of shoe production or transfers made to the Office of Price Administration or any other Government agency.

(c) All records required to be kept shall be made available for inspection by an authorized representative of the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 2.14 Manufacturers report shoes shipped. Each manufacturer shall make such reports concerning production and transfers of shoes as the Office of Price Administration may require. Copies of the form on which the report is to be made, together with instructions, will be furnished by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 2.15 Replacement certificates may be issued to distributors. (a) Any registered distributing establishment whose ration currency has been destroyed, damaged, lost, or stolen, or whose shoes have been: (1) taken from him by judicial process, or the enforcement of a security interest, (2) exported, delivered as slop-chest supplies, or as supplies to Ships' Service Stores Afloat, or transferred to or for the account of an exempt person or agency without getting ration currency, or (3) damaged, destroyed, lost, or stolen, may get a certificate to replace the ration currency or shoes, as the case may be. Application for the replacement certificate should be made to the District Office (on OPA Form R–1704) and should show the facts necessary to establish the eligibility for the replacement certificate, including all information required by the form prescribed.

(b) If an establishment should recover shoes or ration currency for which a replacement certificate has been issued under this section it shall within five days deliver to the District Office ration currency of a kind prescribed by the Office of Price Administration for the number of pairs of shoes, or the amount of the ration currency, so recovered.

SEC. 2.16 New businesses may get inventory allowance. Any new establishment, opened in good faith after the time set for filing inventories, may get a shoe purchase allowance in the form of a certificate for the number of pairs of shoes it needs to service its expected customers. (Except for some unusual reason, the establishment will not be allowed an inventory of more than its expected sales for six months.) Application should be made (on OPA Form R–1704) to the District Office serving the area in which the establishment is or will be located and should contain all information required by the form or necessary to establish the number of pairs of shoes it needs. The District Office may issue a certificate to the applicant on such terms as it may prescribe and permit him to open an account. The establishment should open the account by filing an inventory (on OPA Form R–1701) and a signature card, and by depositing the certificate at the bank where it has its regular checking account (or at any convenient commercial bank if it does not have a checking account.) The District Office may require the applicant to make subsequent reports to it of his actual sales and may adjust his inventory accordingly by giving him a certificate for additional shoes or requiring him to surrender ration currency for any stock above his needs.

SEC. 2.17 Establishment may get increased inventory. An establishment which has not made an application within six months to get extra shoes may get certificates for the extra shoes it needs to service its normal share of the customers in its area, if (a) it is unable to service its customers because its stock of shoes was greatly below normal when it opened its ration bank account; or (b) the volume of its normal sales (or other transfers) during the period since the effective date of this order has increased to the extent that it cannot service its normal share of the customer demand in its area. Application should be made (on OPA Form R–1704) to the District Office serving the area in which the establishment is located and should contain all facts necessary to establish its need for the extra shoes.

ARTICLE III—GENERAL PROVISIONS

(This part should be referred to when special problems arise)

Other Transfers Permitted

SECTION 3.1 Transfers to carriers, warehouses, and repair shops permitted. Shoes may be transferred to or from a carrier or a public warehouse in connection with their shipment or storage, and to or from a shoe repair shop in connection with their repair, without the giving up of ration currency. (This does not permit a transfer of title to the shoes in violation of other provisions of this order.)

SEC. 3.2 Transfer of damaged, lost, or stolen shoes permitted. (a) Shoes that have been substantially destroyed so as to be no longer usable as shoes may be transferred to anyone without getting ration currency.

(b) A person whose shoes have been lost or stolen may get them back without giving up ration currency. If a distributor has received replacement certificates for them, he must send ration currency (of a type to be prescribed by the Office of Price Administration) to the District Office for the number of pairs of shoes returned.

(c) Shoes that have been damaged but which are still usable as shoes and undamaged shoes mingled therewith, shoes that were stolen, and shoes in imminent danger of being damaged or stolen may be acquired without the surrender of ration currency, for the purpose of transfer only, by: (1) Persons lawfully engaging in the insurance business and common or contract carriers in connection with the right of subrogation or by virtue of the payment by them of a claim for damage to or loss of the shoes; and (2) persons performing public fire or safety functions, warehousemen, or persons engaged primarily in the business of adjusting losses and selling or reconditioning and selling damaged commodities, who take possession of or receive them on the occurrence or imminence of casualties.

(d) A transfer of the shoes by any person included in paragraph (c) of this section may be made without the surrender of ration currency to another person so included, or to the owner, or to the person from whose lawful custody the shoes were taken. All other transfers of the shoes (if new) must be made in exchange for ration currency. Any ration currency so received must be surrendered to a District Office within five days.

SEC. 3.3 Transfer by operation of law or for security purposes permitted. (a) Any person may acquire shoes or a lien thereon, without giving up ration currency, for permissible transfer only, if the shoes are acquired or the lien is created through judicial process, operation of law, or through an order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction. (A State or the United States or any agency of a State or the United States may do so through the enforcement of statutory rights against the shoes.)

(b) A lien may be created on shoes for security purposes, without the surrender of ration currency, in favor of: (1) A State or the United States or any agency or political subdivision of a State or the United States; (2) any person licensed by a State or the United States to engage in the business of making loans upon collateral; and (3) any person if the lien is or is to be on all or substantially all of the shoes owned by an establishment or on all or substantially all of the business assets of an employer-consumer.

(c) Shoes or any interest in shoes acquired pursuant to this section may be returned to the person from whom acquired, or a lien on shoes may be released, without the surrender of ration currency. (If a distributor has received replacement certificates for them, he must send ration currency (of a type prescribed by the Office of Price Administration) to the District Office for the number of pairs of shoes returned.)

(d) Any person holding a lien on shoes or a security interest in shoes permitted by this section or created before this order became effective may enforce the security interest or lien in the manner provided by applicable laws.

(e) New shoes acquired by a person under this section (except when returned to a person who had owned them for use) may not be used by him and may be transferred only in exchange for ration currency. Any ration currency so received must be surrendered to a District Office within five days.

SEC. 3.4 Shoes may be imported. (a) New shoes may be brought into the continental United States (the forty-eight States and the District of Columbia) from an outside point if they are delivered to the Collector of Customs at the point of entry. They may be delivered to him without getting ration currency.

(b) The Collector may release the shoes without getting ration currency if the shoes (1) were imported by one of the exempt agencies referred to in section 3.6; (2) were imported as a part of the personal effects of a consumer who had not been in the continental United States during the previous 30 days; or (3) were shipped or mailed before the effective date of this order and released by the Collector within 30 days after such effective date.

(c) In all other cases the Collector may return or otherwise transfer the shoes if he first gets valid ration currency for the number of pairs of new shoes so transferred. A shoe distributor who desires to get new shoes from the Collector under this paragraph must give him a certificate or a certified ration check drawn to the account of the Office of Price Administration. (A certificate may be secured for this purpose from the District Office on such terms as it may provide as to the giving up of other ration currency.)

(d) Ration currency received by the Collector of Customs shall be delivered, at least once each calendar month, to the District Office for the area in which the ration currency is received.

SEC. 3.5. Shoes may be exported. Any person may export shoes to a foreign country under an export license issued by the Board of Economic Warfare, or may ship to a territory, possession, or dependency of the United States (other than the District of Columbia), or may transfer shoes to another as slop-chest supplies for use of crew members aboard any ocean-going vessel operating in foreign, coastwise, or intercoastal trade, or to Ships' Service Stores Afloat, without getting ration currency.

SEC. 3.6 Shoes may be transferred to exempt persons. (a) Any person may transfer shoes to any of the exempt agencies or persons or for the account of any of the government agencies listed in the next paragraph, without getting ration currency.

(b) The exempt agencies and persons to which this section applies are:

(1) The Army and Navy of the United States;
(2) U. S. Maritime Commission;
(3) The Panama Canal;
(4) The Coast and Geodetic Survey;
(5) Civil Aeronautics Authority;
(6) National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics;
(7) The Office of Scientific Research and Development;
(8) The Office of Lend Lease Administration;
(9) The War Shipping Administration;
(10) Any agency of the United States to the extent it acquires shoes for export to and use in a foreign country or a Territory, Possession, or Dependency of the United States (other than the District of Columbia); and
(11) Any person acquiring shoes for export to and use in any foreign country under an export license issued by the Export Control Branch, Office of Exports, Board of Economic Warfare.

(c) A person who acquires shoes under this section "for the account of" one of the above exempt government agencies without giving up ration currency (for example, a contractor who has has a war contract with an exempt government agency) must give his supplier a written signed statement that the shoes to be acquired will become the property of the exempt government agency and that it will keep title to them, and a copy of his war contract or other proof to support the statement.

SEC. 3.7 Transfer of business. Any person who buys (or otherwise acquires) substantially all of the assets of any business, institution, or establishment may acquire any shoes which are a part of the assets, without giving up ration currency. However, a person may get new shoes from a shoe distributor or manufacturer under this section only if he first gets the approval of the District Office and complies with terms it may set.

Prohibited Acts Relating to Shoes and Certificates

SEC. 3.8 Transfer of shoes is prohibited. No person shall transfer or acquire shoes (or offer to do so) except in accordance with this order.

SEC. 3.9 Evidences generally not transferable. No person shall use, possess without authority, or transfer a stamp, certificate, or ration check except as permitted in this order.

Appeals and Suspension Orders

SEC. 3.10 Persons affected may appeal. Any person directly affected by the action of a Board, State Director, District Manager, or Regional Administrator taken with respect to any matter before him under this Order may appeal from the action in the way permitted by Procedural Regulation No. 9.* (Uniform Appeals Procedure)

SEC. 3.11 Violators may lose right to rationed products. Any person who violates this order may, by administrative suspension order, be prohibited from acquiring or transferring new shoes or other rationed products for such period as in the judgment of the Administrator is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote national security.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

Notice is also hereby given that any application, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division for the disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing, must be filed not later than fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Code Member of the complaint herein.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant alleging that Red Top Coal Company, Inc., a code member, Spangler, Pennsylvania, whose code membership become effective as of June 20, 1937, operator of the Red Top Mine, Mine Index No. 415, located in Cambria County Pennsylvania, in Subdistrict No. 17 of District No. 1, wilfully violated the Act, the Code, and rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

I. By selling, subsequent to September 30, 1940, to various purchasers, coal produced by said code member at its aforesaid mine at prices below the effective minima established therefor in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for All Shipments Except Truck, including sales of said coal during the period January 2, 1941, to March 25, 1941, both dates inclusive, as follows:

(a) Approximately 44.35 net tons of 2" lump coal at $2.35 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, whereas such coal was classified as Size Group No. 1 and priced at $2.60 per net ton f. o. b. said mine in said schedule;

(b) 142.55 net tons of ¾" slack coal at $2.10 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, whereas such coal was classified as Size Group No. 5 and priced at $2.15 per net ton in said schedule;

(c) 48.50 net tons of 1¼" nut and slack coal at $2.20 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, whereas such coal was classified as Size Group No. 4 and priced at $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. said mine in said schedule;

(d) 142.35 net tons of ½" slack coal at $2.10 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, whereas such coal was classified as Size Group No. 5 and priced at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. said mine in said schedule; and

(e) 41.90 net tons of modified mine run coal at $2.30 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, whereas such coal was classified as Size Group No. 3, and priced at $2.35 per net ton f. o. b. said mine in said Schedule, resulting in violations of section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code.

II. By intentionally misrepresenting the origin of the coal described in Paragraph I hereof, with the exception of 46.25 net tons shipped in Car No. PRR 161931 on March 25, 1941, in that said code member invoiced such coal as having been produced by McCombie Coal Mining Company at its Bakerton Mine No. 3, Mine Index No. 25, whereas such coal was produced by said code member at its Red Top Mine, Mine Index No. 415, resulting in violations of section 4 II (i) 8 of the Act, Part II (i) 8 of the Code, and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

III. By paying, during the period October 3, 1940, to March 8, 1941, both dates inclusive, commissions of 25 cents per net ton on 319.55 net tons and 35 cents per net ton on 208.35 net tons of coal produced at its aforesaid mine, to F. J. Balch, Springfield, Massachusetts, allegedly acting as sales agent for said code member pursuant to a contract dated January 21, 1938, filed with the Division prior to June 23, 1939, although said code member had failed to give written notice to the Statistical Bureau for District No. 1 within twenty (20) business days after June 23, 1939, that such contract was still in force and effect without modification or change, as required by Order of the National Bituminous Coal Commission dated June 23, 1939, which was adopted, ratified, and continued in effect as a regulation of the Bituminous Coal Division by Order of the Secretary of the Interior dated July 1, 1939, and as amended now appears in part as Rule 4 (A), section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, resulting in violation of Rule 9 of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

IV. By granting discounts totalling $53.34 from the effective minimum prices established therefor, during the period February 26, 1941, to March 3, 1941, both dates inclusive, on the sale of 503.55 net tons of mine run and ¾" slack coal produced by said code member at its aforesaid mine, to Guy Commons, Hastings, Pennsylvania, for resale to Endicott-Johnson Corporation, Endicott, New York, notwithstanding that said Guy Commons was not a registered distributor, and therefore not a person authorized by the Division to receive discounts, resulting in violations of section 4 II (e) of the Act, Part II (e) of the Code, and Rule 1 of section III of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said Code Member and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in this proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Act, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the Code Member; and that failure to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to be an admission of the allegations of the complaint herein and a consent to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

Notice is also hereby given that if it shall be determined that the Code Member has wilfully committed any one or more of the violations alleged in the complaint, an order may be entered either revoking the membership of the Code Member in the Code and the Code Member's right to an exemption from the taxes imposed by section 3520 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, or directing the Code Member to cease and desist from violating the Code and regulations made thereunder.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

Notice is also hereby given that any application, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division for the disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing, must be filed not later than fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Code Member of the complaint herein.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant alleging that the Code Member, located at Drakesboro, Kentucky, whose Code Membership became effective as of June 21, 1937, operator of Black Diamond No. 2 Mine (Mine Index No. 6) and Black Diamond No. 3 Mine (Mine Index No. 7), both located in Muehlenburg County, Kentucky in District No. 9, has, subsequent to September 30, 1940, wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder:

1. By selling and delivering coal produced at the aforesaid mines to the Boillin-Harrison Company, Clarksville, Tennessee, wholesale grocers, for resale and delivery to W. E. Beach Coal Company, Clarksville, Tennessee, a retail coal dealer, including:

Date	Amount in tons	Size	Size group	Minimum price	Invoice price
Oct. 29, 1940 to Apr. 29, 1942	3,174.10	3" lump	3	$1.95	$1.95
Mar. 30, 1942	53.10	6" lump	1	2.05	1.80
June 28, 1941 to Apr. 29, 1942	727.05	1¼" lump	6	1.70	1.70
Oct. 29, 1940 to Apr. 29, 1942	453.75	3" x 2" nut	5	1.75	1.75
Jan. 14, 1942 to Mar. 3, 1942	150.75	6" x 3" egg	3	1.95	1.95
Jan. 14, 1941 to Apr. 16, 1941	169.25	Mine run	7	1.70	1.70
June 28, 1941 to Aug. 13, 1941	92.15	1½" x ¼" slacker	10	1.40	1.40

and allowing to the said Boillin-Harrison Company in the aforesaid transactions rebates, credits, or unearned discounts from such invoiced prices in amounts ranging from 5 cents to 25 cents per net ton, which rebates, credits, or unearned discounts had the effect of reducing the sales prices thereof to the Boillin-Harrison Company below the effective minimum prices for said coals and resulted in violations of section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code; section 4 II (i) 6 of the Act and Part II (i) 6 of the Code; and Rule 6 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

II. By failing to receive payments of the invoices for the coal referred to in Item I above in United States currency, or funds equivalent thereto, which payments were made by Boillin-Harrison Company to the code member in the form of groceries and other staple articles, and that each of said payments resulted in a violation of section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code; section 4 II (i) 6 of the Act and Part II (i) 6 of the Code; and Rule 1 (F) of section VII and Rule 6 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

III. By granting allowances ranging from 20 cents to 35 cents per net ton from the invoiced prices for alleged substandard preparation or quality on one car (51.10 net tons) of 3" lump coal sold on or about January 3, 1942, and 4 cars (203.65 net tons) of 1¼" lump coal sold on or about June 28, 1941, August 13, 1941, and January 3, 1942, of the coal referred to in Item I above, without filing information as specified by Rule 1 of section X of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, which had the effect of reducing the actual sale prices below the applicable minima for said coals, and that each of said allowances resulted in a violation of said rule, section 4 II (e) of the Act, and Part II (e) of the Code.

IV. By intentionally misrepresenting by way of invoicing the sizes of coal produced at the aforesaid mines, including approximately 18,842.35 tons of coal sold to various purchasers during the period October 25, 1940 through March 31, 1941, said code member failing to sell and invoice such coal under the sizes actually loaded and under the classifications designated therefor, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9 for All Shipments Except Truck, resulting in violations of section 4 II (i) 8 of the Act, Part II (i) 8 of the Code; and Rule 8 fo section XIII and Rule 2 of section XII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

V. (a) By unlawfully substituting, without prior approval of the Director, upon an order for 3" lump coal from Forest Products Chemical Company, Memphis, Tennessee, and selling to said purchaser during the period commencing July 26, 1941, and ending July 28, 1941, at a price of $1.95 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, approximately 162 net tons of 6" lump coal produced at its said Black Diamond No. 2 Mine, for which coal the effective minimum price was $2.05 per net ton f. o. b. the mine as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9 for All Shipments Except Truck, resulting in violations of section 4 II (e) of the Act, Part II (e) of the Code; and Rule 1 (a) of section XI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

(b) By unlawfully substituting, without filing formal applications, upon forms provided by the Division, upon an order for 3" lump coal from said Forest Products Chemical Company, and selling to said purchaser, during the period commencing July 26, 1941 and ending July 30, 1941, at a price of $1.95 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, approximately 268.7 net tons of 6" lump coal produced at its said Black Diamond No. 2 Mine, for which coal the effective minimum price was $2.05 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9, for All Shipments Except Truck, resulting in violations of section 4 II (e) of the Act; Part II (e) of the Code; and Rule 1 (e) of section XI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

VI. By paying to Southwestern Fuel Company, Memphis, Tennessee, unauthorized sales agency commissions, including commissions ranging from 5 cents to 18.31 cents per ton for sales by Southwestern Fuel Company on the code member's behalf of approximately 7,410.85 tons of coal produced at the aforesaid mines, or either of them, and sold during the period October 12, 1940 through June 23, 1941, whereas neither said code member nor said agent filed with the Division within twenty (20) business days following the effective date of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, a copy of the contract of agency executed on September 13, 1938, and filed with the Division in January 1942, resulting in violation of Rule 4 (A) and 9 (a) of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

[Docket Nos. A-1815, A-1821]

DAY'S MUTUAL COAL CO., ET AL.

ORDER OF CONSOLIDATION

In the matter of the petitions of Day's Mutual Coal Company, Duncan and Nicolo and Bills and Kilgore, code members in District No. 20, for the establishment of minimum prices for coals sold to Standard Coal, Incorporated, for sizing, preparation and resale by it.

In the matter of the petition of Standard Coal, Incorporated, for an exception to Rule 3 of section V and Rule 1 of section VI of the marketing rules and regulations as to coal purchased by it for sizing, preparation and resale.

Order of consolidation, order granting temporary relief in part and notice of and order for hearing.

Original petitions in the above-entitled matters were filed with this Division, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

The petition in Docket No. A-1815 requests that the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices of District No. 20 for All Shipments be modified so as to permit petitioners therein to sell and deliver coal in Size Groups Nos. 4, 10 and 13 produced at their respective mines to Standard Coal, Inc., Salt Lake City, Utah, at 50 cents per ton less than the prevailing rail prices for these coals, Standard Coal, Inc., to size, prepare and resell the coal as and with its own coal.

The petition in Docket No. A-1821, after setting forth substantially the facts alleged in Docket No. A-1815, requests that petitioner, Standard Coal, Inc., be granted an exception to Rule 3 of Section V and Rule 1 of section VI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations so as to permit it to show petitioner's Standard Mine, Mine Index No. 21, as the originating mine of coal purchased from Day's Mutual Coal Company, Bills and Kilgore, and Duncan and Nicolo. Requests for temporary relief have been made in both petitions.

It appears that Duncan and Nicolo, Day's Mutual Coal Company and Bills and Kilgore operate truck mines at the head of Spring Canyon, near Helper, Utah. None of these mines has rail-loading facilities, and all are suffering from a seriously impaired market for their truck coals as a result of present market conditions. Standard Coal, Inc. has adequate sizing, preparation and rail-loading facilities in Spring Canyon, and is agreeable to preparing and marketing this coal for rail shipment if the relief requested in the present petitions can be granted.

It appears to the Director that the above-entitled matters raise similar and related issues and that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief. The original petitions, however, do not contain facts sufficient to warrant the granting of the permanent relief requested therein without a hearing. The Director is of the opinion that the relief hereinafter set forth will be adequate pending such hearing.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the above entitled matters be, and the same hereby are, consolidated.

It is further ordered, That, pending further order in this matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the minimum prices for coal in Size Groups 4, 10 and 13 produced at Day's Mine, Mine Index No. 32 of Day's Mutual Coal Company, the Duncan Mine, Mine Index No. 180 of I. W. Duncan and Tom Nicolo, and the Bills and Kilgore Mine, Mine Index No. 195, of Elvin Bills and Charles Kilgore, all in District 20, when sold to Standard Coal, Inc., for delivery at that company's tipple at Standardville, Utah, for sizing, preparation and resale by it for rail shipment or commingling with the coals of the Standard Mine for resale by it for rail shipment, shall be $3.20, $1.60 and $2.45 per net ton, respectively: Provided, however, That the minimum prices applicable to the coals of the Standard Coal, Inc., for rail shipment shall apply to these coals when resold by Standard Coal, Inc.: And provided further, That the invoices of Standard Coal, Inc., covering the sale of these coals when sold either separately or commingled, shall indicate by mine index number the mines from which such coals originated.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Dockets Nos. A–1815 and A–1821, under the applicable provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and the rules and regulations of the Division, be held on March 26, 1943 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, in a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division in Salt Lake County Courthouse, Salt Lake City, Utah.

It is further ordered, That D. C. McCurtain, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer or officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearings from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to these proceedings may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petitions is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 22, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petitions, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petitions, petitions of intervention or otherwise, which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of original petitions.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of Day's Mutual Coal Company (Wayne Day), Duncan and Nicolo, and Bills and Kilgore, and the petition of Standard Coal, Inc., requesting, respectively, as follows:

(1) That the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 20 for All Shipments be modified to include minimum prices of $3.00, $1.40 and $2.25 per net ton for coals in Size Groups 4, 10 and 13 produced at Day's Mine, Mine Index No. 32, of Day's Mutual Coal Company, the Duncan Mine, Mine Index No. 180, of I. W. Duncan and Tom Nicolo, and the Bills and Kilgore Mine, Mine Index No. 195, of Elvin Bills and Charles Kilgore, when sold to Standard Coal, Inc., for delivery at that company's tipple at Standardville, Utah, for sizing, preparation and resale by it for rail shipment or commingling with the coals of the Standard Mine, Mine Index No. 21 of Standard Coal, Inc. for resale.

(2) That an exception to Rule 3 of section V and Rule 1 of section VI be granted the Standard Coal, Incorporated, to permit it to show its Standard Mine, Mine Index No. 21, as the originating mine of coal purchased by it from Day's Mutual Coal Company, Bills and Kilgore, and Duncan and Nicolo, and sized, prepared and loaded over its facilities, or commingled with coal from the Standard Mine, for resale for rail shipment by Standard Coal, Inc.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petitions in the above-entitled matters, and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That except as hereinbefore provided, the requests for temporary relief be, and the same hereby are, denied without prejudice to the renewal of such requests for temporary relief, upon further showing or upon the basis of the record to be made at the hearing to be held herein.

Dated: February 6, 1943.

D. District Board No. 17 has not taken any action in this matter.

E. Section 6 (a) of the Act, provides in part that in the event a district board shall fail for any reason to take action authorized or required by this section, then the Division may take such action in lieu of the district board.

F. District Board No. 17 having failed to take action as authorized or required by the Act on the matters hereinbefore described, the Division finds it necessary in the proper administration of the Act to take action thereon in lieu of the Board, as in this Notice of and Order for Hearing provided, pursuant to section 6 (a) and other pertinent provisions of the Act for the purpose of determining:

It is further ordered, That D. C. McCurtain, or any other officer of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. G-115]

THE EAST OHIO GAS COMPANY

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

FEBRUARY 3, 1943.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) On October 26, 1938, the City of Cleveland filed with the Commission a petition praying for an investigation and a determination by the Commission of the cost of transportation in interstate commerce of natural gas by The East Ohio Gas Company from the Ohio River to the city gate of Cleveland, Ohio; by order of February 14, 1939, the Commission instituted an investigation to determine the cost of transportation of natural gas by The East Ohio Gas Company from the Ohio River to the city gate of Cleveland, Ohio; on March 16, 1939, the company petitioned for a rehearing and stay of the order of the Commission on February 14, 1939; on April 14, 1939, the Commission denied the application for rehearing and stay, and amended the order instituting investigation; on June 13, 1939, the company filed a petition for review of the Commission's orders of February 14, 1939, and April 14, 1939, with the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit; and on November 8, 1940, said Circuit Court of Appeals dismissed the petition for want of jurisdiction holding on the authority of Federal Power Commission v. Metropolitan Edison Co. et al., 304 U. S. 375, that the challenged order of February 14, 1939, is not reviewable under section 19 (b) of the Natural Gas Act which does not contemplate a review of orders of a procedural, interim, and preliminary character which are merely the means whereby the Commission has taken initial steps to the formulation of an ultimate determination; the company did not file in the Supreme Court of the United States a petition for certiorari with respect to said decision of said Circuit Court of Appeals, but since said date has failed and refused to comply with paragraph (B) of the Commission order of February 14, 1939, which required the company to furnish to this Commission, under oath, on or before April 17, 1939, certain enumerated data respecting inventories, facilities and expenses enumerated in said order;

(b) On June 25, 1942, the Cities of Euclid, Docket No. G-399, and Cleveland, Ohio, Docket No. G-400, filed with this Commission separate complaints against The East Ohio Gas Company in practically identical form, and the City of Lakewood, Ohio, Docket No. G-401, filed a similar complaint on June 29, 1942. Said cities complained that The East Ohio Gas Company has failed and refused to comply with various regulations and orders of this Commission, including the order of this Commission of February 14, 1939. Said cities allege that they have a substantial interest in the enforcement of the Commission's orders and in the determination of the company's original cost. Said cities pray this Commission to enforce its said orders and to determine said original cost; and

(c) On July 5, 1938, by its Order No. 51 and pursuant to the authority vested in it by sections 10 and 14 of the Natural Gas Act, the Commission instituted an investigation of natural-gas companies and directed the filing of reports by such companies. On August 15, 1938, The East Ohio Gas Company filed a response to the questionnaire authorized by said Order No. 51 and supplied the information called for thereby, including a map showing the location of its facilities and a description of the use and method of operation of such facilities and the Commission has relied upon such facts which were supplied to it by said company. Said company transports to various points in the State of Ohio natural gas produced outside of Ohio and delivered into its transmission systems at the West Virginia-Ohio State line. In East Ohio Gas Company v. Tax Commission, 283 U. S. 465, the Supreme Court of the United States held that said company's transportation of natural gas in the State of Ohio is interstate commerce, using the following language:

> The transportation of gas from wells outside Ohio by the lines of the producing companies to the state line and thence by means of applicant's high pressure transmission lines to their connection with its local systems is essentially national—not local—in character and is interstate commerce within as well as without that State.

The Commission finds that:

It is advisable, necessary and proper, in the public interest, to hold a hearing at this time in the investigation into and concerning the cost of national gas service rendered by said company from the Ohio River to the city gate serving Cleveland, Euclid, and Lakewood, Ohio;

The Commission orders, That:

(A) A public hearing be held in Room 331, Old Post Office Building, Cleveland, Ohio, on March 3, 1943, at 10:00 a. m., for the purpose of determining:

(i) Whether The East Ohio Gas Company is a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act; and

(ii) The cost of natural-gas service rendered by said company, including the cost of transportation of natural gas by said company from the Ohio River to the city gate serving Cleveland, Euclid and Lakewood, Ohio;

(B) Interested State Commissions may participate in the hearing as provided in § 67.4 of the Provisional Rules of Practice and Regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

BABER'S SERVICE STATIONS AND RIVERVIEW SERVICE STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Samuel J. Baber, doing business as Baber's Service Stations, and Riverview Service Station, 601 N Street SW., Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Washington, D. C., on November 27, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing.

It is hereby determined:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station located at 601 N Street SW., Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1502), in that on various occasions between July 22 and November 16, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons or other evidences.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Washington, D. C., respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 208 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale at his filling station at 601 N Street SW., Washington D. C.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline at his filling station at 601 N Street SW., Washington, D. C.

(3) No person shall in any manner, directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasline to respondent for resale at his filling station at 601 N Street SW., Washington, D. C.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 208 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

This Suspension Order No. 208 shall become affective 12:01 a. m. February 16, 1943, and unless sooner terminated shall expire 12:01 a. m. March 18, 1943.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216); Supplementary Directive 1Q (7 F.R. 9121))

Issued this 6th day of February 1943.

PART 1415—IMPORTED FOODS

TEA QUOTAS FOR PACKERS AND WHOLESALERS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, issued December 5, 1942, and in order to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of tea to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1415.2 Tea quotas—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business entity.

(2) The term "tea" means packaged or bulk tea in any form.

(3) The term "packer" means any person who packs tea owned by him or who has tea owned by him packed for his account by some other person.

(4) The term "wholesale receiver" means any person (regardless of whether or not he is also a packer) who buys tea for:

(i) Resale exclusively or predominantly at wholesale.

(ii) Resale through four or more centrally-owned, affiliated, or independent stores owned or, for purchasing purposes, represented by him.

(iii) Resale by retail or for any other purpose not specified above, if his monthly purchases of tea during 1941 averaged 200 pounds or more per month.

(5) The term "net deliveries" means the total deliveries of tea made by a packer or accepted by a wholesale receiver during a corresponding quarter of 1941 minus the total of any deliveries of tea made by him during that period to persons specified in (c) (4) hereof.

(6) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) General restrictions. (1) No packer shall accept delivery of tea or deliver tea packed by him or in bulk, except as permitted by this order.

(2) Wholesale receiver shall accept delivery of tea from any person, or resell tea, except as permitted by this order.

(3) No person shall accept delivery of tea from any packer, and no person shall deliver tea to any packer or wholesale receiver, with knowledge or reason to believe that such packer is not entitled to deliver, or that such packer or wholesale receiver is not entitled to accept delivery of such tea pursuant to this order.

(4) Every packer and every wholesale receiver shall sell tea equitably to purchasers and shall not favor purchasers who buy other products from them or discriminate against purchasers who do not buy other products from them.

(c) Quota restrictions and exceptions thereto. (1) No packer shall accept delivery of more tea during any quota period than his total acceptance quota for that period as determined by the Director from time to time. Acceptances against such quota shall be subject to the further restriction of (d) (1) hereof.

(2) No packer shall deliver more tea during any quota period than his delivery quota for that period as determined by the Director from time to time.

(3) No wholesale receiver shall accept delivery of more tea during any quota period than his total acceptance quota for that period as determined by the Director from time to time.

(v) Any hospital, asylum, orphanage, prison, or other similar institution, which is operated by any Federal, State, or local governmental agency, and which received tea during 1941 under contracts awarded upon the basis of competitive bids: Provided, That no such institution may, during any month, accept delivery of more tea than a percentage of its average monthly use of tea during the corresponding quarter of 1941, such percentage to be the same as the percentage determined for wholesale receivers under (c) (2) hereof by the Director from time to time.

(5) All quotas hereunder shall be calculated quantitatively in terms of pounds.

(6) Any packer who delivers a substantial portion of his quota of tea directly to consumers or to retailers may, by letter, submit to the Director a plan to transfer the distribution of all or a part of that portion to wholesale receivers of the class described in (a) (4) hereof. Such a plan must contemplate a substantial conservation of automotive and related equipment and material and, also, contain provision for equitable distribution of the transferred volume among such wholesale receivers and an equitable redistribution of that volume within the areas previously served directly by the packer. If such a plan is authorized by the Director, the packer may deliver to wholesale receivers of the class described in (a) (4) hereof, and such wholesale receivers may accept, without charge to their quotas, the volume of tea authorized for transfer: Provided, That delivery of such tea is accompanied by a dated certification by the packer in substantially the following language (with the appropriate information inserted in the blank spaces):

(2) If a shipment of tea imported by or specifically for a packer arrives in the United States and by virtue of (d) (1) hereof such packer is not entitled to accept delivery of any or all of such tea and is unable to make an immediate bona fide sale to some person who is neither a subsidiary nor an affiliate of such packer and who is entitled to accept delivery of the excess portion of such shipment or an equivalent amount of tea from his existing inventory, such packer may take possession of such excess, pending the actions provided for below:

§ 1415.3 Tea quotas, reports, and records. (a) For the 3-month period commencing January 1, 1943, tea quotas shall be as follows, subject to any increase pursuant to the provisions of (b) hereof:

(1) The acceptance quota for any packer shall be one and one-third times the amount of his delivery quota under the provisions of (a) (2) hereof.

(2) The delivery quota for any packer shall be 50% of his "net deliveries" (as defined in said Food Distribution Order No. 18) of tea during the corresponding 3-month period of either 1941 or 1942, whichever is greater.

(3) The acceptance quota for any wholesale receiver shall be 50% of his "net deliveries" (as defined in said Food Distribution Order No. 18) of tea during the corresponding 3-month period of either 1941 or 1942 whichever is greater.

(b) Any person who (1) computes a quota under the provisions of (a) hereof on the basis of the specified 1941 base period and not the 1940 base period and (2) directly or indirectly serves any county or other area designated in Schedule D (§ 1407.244) (7 F.R. 6937, 10845), of Ration Order 3 of the Office of Price Administration as amended is hereby assigned a supplementary quota for each such area. Such supplementary quota, which shall be available only for ultimate distribution in the particular increased-population area referred to in said Schedule D shall be computed by determining the amount of his quota under the provisions of (a) hereof by determining the portion of that amount allocable to deliveries to or for each such area, and by applying to that portion the percentage of population increase designated in said Schedule D of Ration Order 3, for that area for periods commencing on or after January 1, 1943.

(c) All tea accepted by any packer or wholesale receiver and all tea delivered by any packer on or after January 1, 1943 whether so accepted or delivered before or after the issuance of this order, shall be charged against the acceptance, delivery, or supplementary quota of such packer or wholesale receiver, as the case may be.

(d) Within 10 days after the close of each quarterly period, every packer shall report, by letter, to the Director the total quantity of any quota-exempt deliveries of tea made by him during that quarterly period in connection with each class of persons under the provisions of § 1415.2 (c) (4) of Food Distribution Order No. 18, (supra) issued by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States on February 6, 1943. Every packer and every wholesale receiver participating in any transaction to which this order applies shall keep and preserve, for a period of not less than two years, records which, upon examination, will disclose his total monthly inventories of tea and the monthly deliveries made by him (if he is a packer), or accepted by him (if he is a wholesale receiver). If the sales slips, invoices, bills, or other instruments or records customarily kept by him are sufficient to furnish the information specified herein, no additional record system need be installed to meet the requirements hereof.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter III—The Tax Court of the United States

PART 701—RULES OF PRACTICE

RULES OF PRACTICE AMENDED

Section 701.2 (Rule 2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 701.2 Admission to practice. Applicants who establish to the satisfaction of the Court that they are citizens of the United States, of good moral character and repute, and possessed of the requisite qualifications to represent others in the preparation and trial of cases, may be admitted to practice before the Court.

All applicants, before being admitted to practice, must take a written examination or examinations given by the Court: Provided, however, That a current certificate from the Clerk of the appropriate court, showing that the applicant is an attorney-at-law who has been admitted to practice before and is a member in good standing of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States or of the highest court of any State or Territory or of the District of Columbia, may be accepted in lieu of examination. The Court, before admitting an applicant to practice, may require him to take an oral examination in addition to the written examination. Any person who has thrice failed a written examination given by the Court shall not thereafter be eligible for admission to practice before the Court.

An application to be filed must be on the form provided by the Court. Application blanks and other necessary information will be furnished by the Secretary of the Court upon request.

An applicant must be sponsored by at least three persons theretofore enrolled to practice before this Court, each of whom must send his letter of recommendation directly to the Court where it will be treated as a confidential communication. The sponsor shall state in his letter fully and frankly the extent of his acquaintance with the applicant, his opinion of the moral character and repute of the applicant, and his opinion of the qualifications of the applicant to practice before this Court. The Court may in its discretion accept an applicant with less than three such sponsors.

The Court will hold an examination for applicants at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the second Wednesday in September of each year and at such other times and places as it may designate. The Court will notify each applicant, whose application is in order, of the time and place at which he is to present himself for examination, and the applicant must present that notice to the examiner as his authority for taking an examination. An applicant seeking to qualify by examination must accompany his application with a fee of $10.

Corporations and firms will not be admitted or recognized.

Practitioners before this Court shall carry on their practice in accordance with the letter and spirit of the canons of professional ethics as adopted by the American Bar Association.

The Court may deny admission to, suspend or disbar any person who in its judgment does not possess the requisite qualifications to represent others, or who is lacking in character, integrity, or proper professional conduct. No person shall be suspended for more than 60 days or disbarred until he has been afforded an opportunity to be heard. A Division may immediately suspend any person for not more than 60 days for contempt or misconduct during the course of any proceeding.

The Court may require any practitioner before it to furnish a statement under oath of the terms and circumstances of his employment in any proceeding.

All persons on the roll of practitioners on January 1, 1943, are enrolled to practice without further showing or examination.

Section 701.26 (Rule 26) is amended to read as follows:

§ 701.26 Place of hearing; requests and designation. The petitioner at the time of filing the petition shall also file a request showing the name of the place where he would prefer the hearing on the merits to be held. A copy of this request will be served upon the Commissioner by the clerk of the Court.

If the petitioner has filed no request the respondent shall file at the time he files his answer, a request showing the name of the place preferred by him. A copy will be served upon the petitioner by the clerk of the Court.

These requests shall not be bound as a part of the petition or answer but shall be separate therefrom and shall consist of an original and two copies.

The Court will designate the place of hearing in accordance with the statutory provision that the time and place of trial shall be fixed "with as little inconvenience and expense to taxpayers as is practicable," and, in all cases, will notify the parties of the place at which or in the vicinity of which the hearing on the merits will be held.

If either party desires a change in designation of the place of hearing he must file a motion to that effect, stating fully his reasons therefor. Such motions, made after the notice of the time of the hearing has been mailed, will not be deemed to have been timely filed.

In case it is necessary for the Court to hear the parties on matters other than the merits, such hearing will be held in Washington unless good cause is shown for holding it elsewhere. (See Appendix II for further information to assist in making requests as to place of hearing.)

Section 701.31 (Rule 31) is amended by inserting a new paragraph (d), quoted below, and by changing paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) to paragraphs (e), (f) and (g):

§ 701.31 Evidence and the submission of evidence. * * *

(d) Exhibits attached to a stipulation or a deposition shall be numbered serially, i. e., 1, 2, 3, etc., if offered by the petitioner; shall be lettered serially, i. e., A, B, C, etc., if offered by the respondent; and shall be marked serially, i. e., 1–A, 2–B, 3–C, etc., if offered as a joint exhibit.

The first line of the second paragraph of § 701.35, is amended to read:

§ 701.35 Briefs. * * *

If briefs are typewritten, an original and two copies shall be filed; * * *

Section 701.45 (Rule 45) is amended by striking the second paragraph of paragraph (f) and all of paragraph (k) and by substituting for the matter stricken from paragraph (f) the following:

§ 701.45 Depositions. * * *

(f) Manner of taking. * * *

Objections to questions or answers shall be explicitly but briefly and concisely stated and recorded without any unnecessary comment, explanation, or argument by counsel for either party.

The first paragraph of § 701.46 (Rule 46) is amended to read:

§ 701.46 Depositions upon written interrogatories. Depositions may be taken in the discretion of the Court upon written interrogatories in substantially the same manner as provided in Rule 45 for depositions upon oral examination. An original and five copies of the interrogatories must be filed with the application. The clerk will serve one copy of the application and of the interrogatories upon the opposite party. If the opposite party desires to file objections or cross-interrogatories, he must do so within 15 days after the application and interrogatories have been served upon him. Cross-interrogatories must consist of an original and five copies. The clerk will serve one copy thereof upon the opposite party who, if he has any objection thereto, must file his objections within 15 days thereafter.

A new § 701.47 (New Rule 47) is added to read as follows:

§ 701.47 Tender of and objections to depositions. The deposition of any witness whether taken upon oral examination or upon written interrogatories shall not constitute a part of the record until offered and received in evidence (see Rule 31), but the consideration of any objections to the receipt of a deposition or any part thereof will be limited as set forth in this rule.

Where depositions are taken upon oral examination objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy or materiality of testimony may be made at the hearing, even though not noted at or before the taking of the deposition, unless the ground for the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at or before the time of the taking of the deposition. Objections directed to errors and irregularities in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of any question or answer, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might have been obviated, removed or cured if promptly presented will not be considered unless made at the taking of the deposition. (See Rule 45 (f))

No objections to written interrogatories or cross-interrogatories will be considered subsequent to the taking of the deposition unless they have been made in the manner and within the time prescribed therefor by Rule 46.

Errors or irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Rules 45 and 46 shall not form the basis for objections but questions in respect thereto shall be raised on a motion to suppress the deposition in whole or in part made with reasonable promptness after such defect is or with due diligence might have been ascertained.

A new § 701.63 (New Rule 63) is added to read as follows:

§ 701.63 Processing tax cases. All proceedings pending in the Board of Review on December 31, 1942, and, under section 510 of the Revenue Act of 1942, now pending in this Court shall be proceeded with and disposed of as if originally begun before this Court. The hearings and proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the Court's Rules of Practice. The said Rules of Practice shall also be applicable to any proceeding instituted in this Court after December 31, 1942, to review the allowance or disallowance by the Commissioner of a claim for refund of amounts collected as processing tax. Where any of the rules or the matter contained in the Appendix thereto refer to the determination of a deficiency or a notice of such determination, such rules and the matter in the Appendix, when applied to proceedings involving the refund of processing tax, shall be read to refer to the rejection in whole or in part of a claim for refund and notice of such rejection; and the computation to be filed under Rule 50 shall refer to the amount of the refund due.

Where a petition for review of the action of the Commissioner in rejecting in whole or in part a claim for the refund of an amount paid as processing tax is filed with this Court, a copy of the notice of such rejection together with the Commissioner's statement or statements accompanying the notice of rejection shall be attached to the petition. There shall also be attached to the petition a copy of the claim for refund.

1. Amend the regulations by adding a new part to be known as part 662 to read as follows: "Special Local Boards in Penal or Correctional Institutions."

§ 662.1 Special local boards. The Director of Selective Service may establish a panel of any local board which has jurisdiction over the area in which any penal or correctional institution is located. Such panel shall be known as a special local board and with respect to the persons in such penal or correctional institution shall have the same rights, duties, and powers as any other local board.

§ 662.2 Regulations governing special local boards. Special local boards established under the authority of § 662.1 shall be governed by the provisions of this part of these regulations and such other provisions of these regulations as are not in conflict therewith.

§ 662.3 Transfer of record of registrants. (a) When a person who has registered enters an institution having a special local board, the clerk of such special local board shall immediately complete a Request for Transfer of Record (Form 64) and transmit it to the local board having such registrant's selective service records.

(b) When it receives such Request for Transfer of Record (Form 64), the local board having the registrant's selective service records shall (1) place the Request for Transfer of Record (Form 64) in the registrant's Cover Sheet (Form 53), make a duplicate Cover Sheet (Form 53), and a copy of the Registration Card (Form 1) of such registrant; (2) forward such duplicate Cover Sheet (Form 53) and copy of Registration Card (Form 1) together with all other papers with reference to such registrant to the special local board from which it received such Request for Transfer of Record (Form 64); and (3) retain in its files the original Cover Sheet (Form 53), the original Registration Card (Form 1), and a copy of the letter covering the transmittal of the records of such registrant to the special local board from which the Request for Transfer of Record (Form 64) was received.

§ 662.4 Registration. When a person required to present himself for and submit to registration has not done so prior to the time he enters an institution having a special local board, he shall be registered. When any such person refuses to register, any person authorized to act as registrar shall sign the person's name and indicate that he has done so by signing his own name, followed by the word "Registrar," beneath the name of such person, and the act of such registrar in so doing shall have the same force and effect as if such person had signed his name to the Registration Card (Form 1), and such person shall thereby be registered.

§ 662.5 Registrars. Any member or clerical assistant of, or any other person appointed as a registrar by, a special local board may perform the duty of a registrar.

§ 662.6 Classification. Registrants who are inmates of the penal or correctional institution shall furnish such information as the special local board may require. Each such registrant may be classified or his classification may be reopened and considered anew by the special local board without reference to whether his classification has or has not been previously considered by it or by any other local board.

§ 662.7 Induction. When a registrant is an inmate of a penal or correctional institution which has a special local board and has been classified in a class available for service, the local board of which such special local board is a panel shall make arrangements for his delivery for induction or for his assignment to work of national importance.

§ 662.8 Disposition of record of registrant who leaves an institution. (a) When a registrant whose selective service records were transferred to a special local board under the provisions of § 662.3 leaves the institution, all papers with reference to such registrant except his Cover Sheet (Form 53) and a copy of his Registration Card (Form 1) shall be forwarded to the local board having jurisdiction of the address given on line 2 of his Registration Card (Form 1).

(c) For each registrant who leaves the institution, the special local board shall transfer to a separate file for completed cases the Cover Sheet (Form 53), a copy of the Registration Card (Form 1), and a copy of the letter covering the transmittal of the records of such registrant to the local board having jurisdiction of the address given on line 2 of such registrant's Registration Card (Form 1).

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

CLEANERS HANGER CO.

Cleaners Hanger Company, a corporation with its principal office at Detroit, Michigan, and plants at Cleveland, Ohio, Baltimore, Maryland, and Gadsden, Alabama, is a manufacturer of garment hangers. During the months of April, May, and June, 1942, the Company consumed 1,742,839 pounds of steel in the production of metal garment hangers which was 604,530 pounds in excess of the amount of steel it was permitted to consume for this purpose under General Limitation Order L–30. During most of this time the Company was aware of the restrictions contained in General Limitation Order L–30 and its violation thereof was wilful.

Subsequent to November 17, 1942, the Company used approximately 50,000 pounds of steel in the manufacture of hooks for paperboard garment and coat hangers although the use of steel for this purpose was then prohibited by Supplementary Limitation Order L–30–d, with the terms of which the Company was familiar.

These violations of Limitation Orders L–30 and L–30–d have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.234 Suspension Order S–234. (a) Cleaners Hanger Company, its successors and assigns, shall not process, fabricate, or use any of the metals specified in the Metals List attached to Priorities Regulation No. 11 in any form, nor shall Cleaners Hanger Company, its successors and assigns, sell or deliver any article or item in the fabrication of which there has been used or consumed or to which is attached any of the metals specified in the Metals List attached to Priorities Regulation No. 11 in any form, except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Cleveland Regional Office, War Production Board.

(b) Deliveries of material to Cleaners Hanger Company, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Cleveland Regional Office, War Production Board.

(c) No allocation shall be made to Cleaners Hanger Company, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is covered by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Cleveland Regional Office, War Production Board.

(d) The provisions of this order shall not be applicable to deliveries, fabrication, use, or receipt of materials or articles by Cleaners Hanger Company at its Gadsden, Alabama, plant.

(e) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Cleaners Hanger Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(f) This order shall take effect on February 13, 1943, and shall expire on August 13, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 8th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of portable jaw and portable roll crushers or portable crushing plants as herein defined.

(3) "Portable jaw crusher" means a machine commonly known as a portable jaw crusher of either the lever (Blake) or overhead eccentric type designed for producing construction aggregates by reducing non-metallic minerals.

(4) "Portable roll crusher" means a machine commonly known as a portable roll crusher designed for producing construction aggregates by reducing non-metallic minerals.

(5) "Portable crushing plant" means any crushing plant incorporating either or both portable jaw or portable roll crushers.

(b) Limitations on production of portable jaw crushers. (1) On and after February 1, 1943, no producer shall use or put into process any materials for the manufacture of portable jaw crushers (to be used either independently or as a part of a portable crushing plant) except as provided in paragraph (b) (3) hereof.

(2) On and after March 1, 1943, no producer shall assemble portable jaw crushers (to be used either independently or as a part of a portable crushing plant) except as provided in paragraph (b) (3) hereof.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (b) (4), (b) (5), (b) (6) and (b) (7) hereof, producers are permitted to manufacture and assemble only one size of either the lever (Blake) type or of the overhead eccentric type portable jaw crusher in each of the following groups:

(i) Group A, 9" x 14" to 11" x 18" inclusive. A producer having the necessary equipment to produce a portable jaw crusher in the size of 10" x 16" may produce that size only in Group A.

(ix) Group I. Each producer may manufacture one size portable jaw crusher larger than 26" x 40" provided it is at least 4" larger in one or both jaw dimensions.

(4) If a producer elects to manufacture a permitted product which falls within the description of more than one of the above groups, such producer may not manufacture other types or sizes in those groups.

(5) For the purposes of this paragraph (b) the size of portable jaw crushers shall be determined as follows:

(i) By a horizontal measurement of the receiving opening from the apex of the corrugation on the stationary jaw to the base of the opposite corrugation on the movable jaw while the eccentric is at the maximum open position.

(ii) By measuring the inside distance between keyplates (cheek plates) when both of the jaws and both of the keyplates are in place.

(iii) Portable jaw crushers in Groups A, B, C and D (described in paragraph (b) (3) hereof) shall be measured when the discharge opening at the bottom is 1½" between the apex of the corrugation on the stationary jaw and the base of the oposite corrugation on the movable jaw, and

(iv) Portable jaw crushers in Groups E, F, G, H and I (described in paragraph (b) (3) hereof) when such discharge opening at the bottom is 3 inches.

(6) No person, unless actively engaged in the current production of portable jaw crushers (as indicated in his January, 1943 filing of Production and Shipment Schedules on Form PD–697, pursuant to Limitation Order L–192) shall thereafter enter into the production of such crushers.

(7) No producer, who is not actively engaged in the current production of portable jaw crushers in a size category listed in paragraph (b) (3) above, shall thereafter produce any portable jaw crusher in that size category.

(c) Limitation on production of portable roll crushers. (1) On and after February 1, 1943, no producer shall use or put into process any materials for the manufacture of portable roll crushers (to be used either independently or as a part of a portable crushing plant) except as provided in paragraph (c) (3) hereof.

(2) On and after March 1, 1943, no producer shall assemble portable roll crushers (to be used either independently or as a part of a portable crushing plant) except as provided in paragraph (c) (3) hereof.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (c) (4), (c) (5) and (c) (6) hereof, producers are permitted to manufacture and assemble portable roll crushers in the following sizes only:

(i) 16" x 16"
(ii) 24" x 16"
(iii) 30" x 18"
(iv) 40" x 22"
(v) 54" x 24"

(4) For the purpose of this paragraph (c) the size of portable roll crushers shall be determined by measuring the outside diameter and width of the shells when installed in a new unused portable roll crusher.

(5) No person, unless actively engaged in the current production of portable roll crushers (as indicated by his January, 1943 filing of Production and Shipment Schedules on Form PD–697, pursuant to Limitation Order L–192) shall thereafter enter into the production of such crushers.

(6) [Revoked February 5, 1943].

(d) List of permitted crushers. On or before February 14, 1943, every producer shall file Form PD–754 with the Construction Machinery Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–217, Schedule II, listing product, model number, size and type of those portable jaw and portable roll crushers currently produced by such producers which are proposed to be continued in production in accordance with the limitations of this order. No producer shall thereafter deviate from the sizes and types of crushers as listed by him and no producer shall enter into the production of any size or type of crusher not listed by him on such form, unless the Director General for Operations shall otherwise direct.

(e) Not applicable to maintenance and repair parts. Nothing in this order shall restrict a producer from continuing to manufacture and sell maintenance and repair parts for any and all sizes of portable jaw and portable roll crushers, provided that such manufacture and sale of parts is confined solely to meet the demands for repair parts for maintenance.

(f) Limitation Order L–192. Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to permit any contravention of the provisions of Limitation Order L–192.

Issued this 5th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

[F. R. Doc. 43–2083; Filed, February 8, 1943; 4:57 p. m.]

[1] This document is a re-statement of Amendment 1 to Schedule 2 to Limitation Order No. L–217 which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER, February 6, 1943, page 1679, and reflects the order in its complete form as of February 5, 1943.

PART 923—TUNGSTEN

[Conservation Order M–29–b as Amended Feb. 9, 1943]

Whereas, national defense requirements have created a shortage of tungsten for the combined needs of defense, private account, and export; and the supply now is and will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements unless its use in the manufacture of many products where such use is not absolutely necessary for the defense or essential civilian requirements is curtailed or prohibited as hereinafter provided;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 923.5 Conservation Order M–29–b—(a) Prohibition on use of tungsten in articles appearing on List A. (1) Between February 1 and April 30, 1942, inclusive, no person shall use in the manufacture of any item on List A more tungsten than 17½% of the tungsten used by him for such item during the 12-months period ending June 30, 1941.

(2) Effective May 1, 1942, no tungsten shall be used in the manufacture of any item on List A.

(b) Limitation on all other uses of tungsten. (1) Between February 1 and March 31, 1942, inclusive, no person shall use in the manufacture of any article not covered by paragraphs (a) or (c) of this order more tungsten than 12% of the tungsten used by him for such article during the 12-months period ending June 30, 1941.

(2) Beginning April 1, 1942, no person shall use during any calendar quarter in the manufacture of any article not covered by paragraphs (a) or (c) of this order more tungsten than 17½% of the tungsten used by him for such article in the 12-months period ending June 30, 1941.

(c) Exceptions. Where and to the extent that the use of any less critical material is impracticable, the prohibitions, limitations and restrictions contained in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall not apply to the use of tungsten in the manufacture of any item on or for any of the uses set forth on List B attached; nor shall such prohibitions, limitations and restrictions apply to the use of tungsten in the manufacture of any item or product for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration or the Coast Guard, where the use of tungsten to the extent employed is required by the latest applicable specifications (including performance specifications) of the appropriate government agency or service.

(d) Prohibitions against sales or deliveries. No person shall on or after February 14, 1942, sell or deliver tungsten to any person if he knows, or has reason to believe, such material is to be used in violation of the terms of this order.

(e) Limitation of inventories. No manufacturer shall receive delivery of tungsten, (including scrap) or products thereof, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts or sub-assemblies, nor shall he put into process any raw material, in quantities which in either case shall result in an inventory of such raw, semi-processed or finished material in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed upon the production of tungsten products by this order.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. this order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation 1, (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of tungsten conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense work to defense work may appeal to the War Production Board, Reference: M–29–b, on such forms as may be prescribed by said Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(3) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply to the use of material in all articles manufactured on or after February 14, 1942, irrespective of whether such articles are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date hereof, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating. Insofar as any other order issued by the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of tungsten in the production of any article, the limitations of such other order shall be observed. In the absence of a specific direction by the Director General for Operations to the contrary, insofar as this order may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than is provided in General Preference Order M–29 or any other order of the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations, or of the Director General for Operations, or any preference rating certificate, the use of tungsten in the production of any article, the limitations imposed by this order shall be observed.

(e) Violations or false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(5) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(i) "Tungsten" means and includes:

(a) Ores and concentrates, including beneficiated or treated forms, containing tungsten (commercially recognized).

(b) The element tungsten in pure form, ferrotungsten, tungsten in the form of metal powder, and other combinations with other elements in semi-manufactured or manufactured form, prepared for consumption in the manufacture of steel, or for other purposes.

(c) All chemical compounds having tungsten as an essential and recognizable component.

(d) All scrap or secondary material containing commercially recoverable tungsten as defined in (a), (b), and (c) above, excluding tungsten-bearing iron and steel scrap.

(ii) "Inventory" of a person includes the inventory of affiliates and subsidiaries of such person, and the inventory of others where such inventory is under the control of or under common control with or available for the use of such person.

(iii) "Manufacture" means to fabricate, assemble or process in any way, but does not include installation of a finished product for the ultimate consumer.

(iv) "Item" means any article or any component part thereof.

(v) "Use" means both (a) the act of putting tungsten into process in the manufacture of any item and (b) the act of completing the manufacture of any such item. (Where a person is limited to a percentage of the material used in a base period, this limitation applies respectively to (1) the amount of material put into process during the base period and (2) the total amount of material contained in a completed item or article multiplied by the number of such items or articles completed during the base period. Each restriction must be applied separately.)

(vi) "Put into process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material from that form in which it is received by him.

Issued this 9th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

[General Preference Order M-11 as Amended Feb 9, 1943]

Section 937.1 General Preference Order M-11, is hereby amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of zinc for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 937.1 General Preference Order M-11—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Zinc" means all grades of metallic zinc (spelter) produced directly from ores, concentrates or other primary material; or redistilled from zinc scrap, including ashes, dross, skimmings, clippings, castings, engravers' plates, die castings, die cast scrap, or any secondary zinc-bearing material.

(2) "Zinc scrap" means all materials or products the principal content of which, by weight, is zinc, which materials or products are the waste or by-products of fabrication or have been discarded on account of obsolescence, failure or other reason.

(3) "Remelt zinc" means any zinc material sweated or remelted from zinc scrap including ashes, dross, skimmings, clippings, castings, engravers' plates, die castings, die cast scrap, or any secondary zinc-bearing material.

(4) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(5) "Producer" means any person producing zinc or remelt zinc and any person who has zinc or remelt zinc produced for him under toll agreement.

(6) "Dealer" means any person who receives physical delivery of zinc or remelt zinc and sells or holds the same for resale without changing the form. A person who produces any zinc or remelt zinc or who has the same produced for him under toll agreement, is a producer as to such zinc or remelt zinc, not a dealer.

(7) "Scrap dealer" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying and selling zinc scrap.

(8) "Toll agreement" means any agreement by which title to material remains vested in a person other than the one processing the material.

(c) Restrictions—(1) Deliveries by a producer. No producer shall ship or deliver zinc or remelt zinc to any person except on presentation by that person of an allocation certificate issued by the Director General for Operations. Upon accepting an allocation certificate, the producer shall endorse thereon the amounts of zinc by grades and of remelt zinc, which he agrees to ship under such certificate in the calendar month covered by the certificate. No producer shall endorse an allocation certificate for zinc or remelt zinc, or make any shipment thereunder, if, by so doing, the total endorsements or shipments of zinc, by grades, and of remelt zinc under the certificate will exceed the amounts, by grades, authorized by such certificate.

(2) Deliveries by dealers. No dealer shall ship or deliver any zinc or remelt zinc, except with the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations, to fill a purchase order bearing a preference rating lower than AA-5; nor shall any dealer ship or deliver any zinc or remelt zinc in any month to any person who has:

(i) Received or purchased for delivery in that month as much as 20 short tons, in the aggregate, of zinc and remelt zinc from all sources; or

(ii) Requested or received an allocation certificate for zinc or remelt zinc from the War Production Board for that month.

A person who is a dealer but who also produces zinc or remelt zinc or has the same produced for him under toll agreement, shall not ship or deliver any zinc or remelt zinc so produced except as permitted by paragraph (c) (1) of this order.

(3) Acceptance of deliveries. No person shall accept any delivery of zinc or remelt zinc from a producer or dealer otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this order.

(4) Toll agreements. No person shall produce any zinc or remelt zinc under any existing or future toll agreement until and unless he has made a report to the Office of Production Management or the War Production Board, Ref.: M-11, setting forth the names of the parties to such agreement, the material involved as to kind and grade, the form of the same, the estimated tonnage involved, the estimated rate of deliveries, the length of time the agreement or other similar agreement has been in force, the duration of the agreement, the purpose for which the zinc is to be used, and any other pertinent data.

(d) Allocation certificates. The Director General for Operations will issue allocation certificates for zinc and remelt zinc on or about the first of each month. An allocation certificate will authorize shipment during the calendar month by a producer to the holder of the certificate of specified amounts of zinc, designated by grades or groups of grades, and of remelt zinc. This certificate must be presented to the producer for endorsement as provided in paragraph (c) (1) of this order. A producer need not accept a new order although supported by an allocation certificate if his entire production for the month is committed under contract and he has reason to believe that other allocation certificates will be presented during the month by the person or persons to whom his production is committed in amounts at least equal to his production.

(e) Applications for allocation certificates. Any person wishing to apply for an allocation of zinc or remelt zinc from a producer for any month shall file an application with the War Production Board, Zinc Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-11, not later than the fifteenth day of the month preceding the month in which the allocation of zinc or remelt zinc is desired: Provided, That any person seeking an allocation for remelt zinc to be delivered during the period from February 9, 1943 until February 28, 1943, inclusive, should apply as soon as possible. Dealers shall make such application on Form PD-450. Persons other than dealers shall make applications on Form PD-94a or such other form as the Director General for Operations may designate from time to time.

(f) Restrictions on deliveries of zinc scrap. No person shall ship or deliver any zinc scrap except to a scrap dealer or to a producer or manufacturer for use in the manufacture of redistilled zinc, remelt zinc, brass, zinc dust, zinc oxide, chemicals or salts, unless he obtains the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations to do otherwise. A person delivering zinc scrap is not entitled to rely on the fact that the person receiving delivery will use zinc scrap in the manufacture of redistilled zinc, remelt zinc, brass, zinc dust, zinc oxide, chemicals or salts, unless he receives a certificate from the person accepting delivery stating substantially as follows:

Pursuant to Order M-11, the undersigned certifies that he will use any zinc scrap obtained pursuant to the annexed purchase order in the manufacture of redistilled zinc, remelt zinc, brass, zinc dust, zinc oxide, chemicals or salts.

(Name of company)

By ---
(Authorized official)

Each certificate must be signed by an authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. A person delivering zinc scrap is not entitled to rely on such a certificate if he knows or has reason to believe that the certificate is false, but, in the absence of such knowledge or reason to believe, he may rely on the certificate.

(g) Requests for authorizations of the Director General for Operations. Any person who seeks the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations to do anything under this order for which no form of application is prescribed, may request such authorization by letter in duplicate, addressed to: War Production Board, Zinc Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-11.

All other applications, statements or other communications concerning the subject matter of this order should be addressed in the same manner.

(h) Exceptions. Exceptions from the provisions of paragraphs (c), (d) and (f) shall be as follows:

(1) Anticipatory shipments. If any producer has reason to believe that any person will receive an allocation certificate in a given month, he may ship to that person an amount of zinc or remelt zinc not to exceed twenty-five (25%) percent of the amount of the same grade of zinc or of remelt zinc which the producer shipped to the same customer in the preceding month. Any person receiving such an anticipatory shipment shall immediately upon receipt of his allocation certificate submit it to the shipping producer for endorsement. If a producer makes an anticipatory shipment and does not receive an allocation certificate later in the same month covering the shipment, he must notify the War Production Board, Zinc Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-11, immediately, and make no further shipments to the same customer except pursuant to an allocation certificate.

(2) Deliveries to the Metals Reserve Company. Any person may ship, sell and deliver zinc, remelt zinc or zinc scrap to the Metals Reserve Company or to any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (15 U.S.C. section 606 (b)), or to any duly authorized agent of such corporation without an allocation certificate, preference rating or any specific authority from the Director General for Operations.

(3) Substitute grades of zinc or remelt zinc. Any producer may, with the consent of the purchaser, substitute for any amount of any grade of zinc specified in an allocation certificate an equal amount of any lower grade of zinc or an equal amount of remelt zinc.

(4) Special directions. The Director General for Operations may, from time to time, issue special directions to any person as to the source, destination, special kinds and amounts of zinc, remelt zinc or zinc scrap to be delivered or acquired by any person, and the Director may also specifically direct the manner and quantities in which such zinc, remelt zinc and zinc scrap may be processed.

(5) Foreign zinc. Zinc imported under bond or drawback agreement may be re-exported by any person pursuant to an export license duly issued by the Office of Export Control of the Board of Economic Warfare.

(i) Interdepartmental shipments. The restrictions, limitations, and prohibitions in paragraph (c), (d) and (f) of this order shall apply not only to all shipments and deliveries of zinc, remelt zinc and zinc scrap from one business enterprise to another business enterprise, but also to all shipments and deliveries of zinc, remelt zinc and zinc scrap from any branch, division or department of any business enterprise to another branch, division or department in the same business enterprise.

(j) Reports. Producers of zinc and remelt zinc must report on Form PD-452 for each month by the fifteenth day of the following month. All producers and generators of, dealers in, and users of zinc, remelt zinc or zinc scrap shall file reports with the War Production Board at such times and in such manner and form as it may prescribe, showing such information as the War Production Board may from time to time require.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priorities control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 9th day of February, 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Interpretation 1 of Priorities Regulation 15]

The following official interpretation is hereby issued with respect to § 944.36 of Priorities Regulation 15:

The impression exists in some quarters that the provisions of Priorities Regulation 15 make it unnecessary to observe any restrictions of limitation and conservation orders of the War Production Board in the manufacture of articles for export. This impression is erroneous.

The regulation does not in any way relax restrictions in limitation or conservation orders in so far as they apply to manufacture within the United States or to the maintenance of inventory within the United States. The only effect of the regulation is to lift such restrictions as may be based upon the size of an inventory maintained in a foreign country or on a use (including use for manufacture) which is to take place in a foreign country.

Of course, no orders of the War Production Board directly limit the size of inventory or the manner of use of an article in a foreign country. Nevertheless, there are some orders which, in the absence of Priorities Regulation 15, might impose such limitations indirectly. Orders which provide that a person may not sell a particular material if he knows or has reason to believe that the purchaser will, upon receipt, have an inventory exceeding some stated amount or use the material for a particular purpose would, in the absence of this regulation, prevent certain sales by subjecting sellers to possible liability even though the inventory existed or the use occurred in a foreign country. Priorities Regulation 15 has the effect of relieving sellers of such liability in the limited situation described.

Furthermore, it is only restrictions which are expressed as based upon size of inventory or manner of use which are affected by the regulation. Where an order requires administrative action, such as an allocation or an express authorization, that requirement is not waived and must be met before the material can be delivered, acquired or used.

Issued this 9th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1023—JEWEL BEARINGS

[Conservation Order M-50, as Amended Feb. 9, 1943]

Whereas, national defense requirements have created a shortage of jewel bearings (as hereafter defined) for the combined needs of defense and private account, and the supply of jewel bearings now is and will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements, unless the supply of jewel bearings and jewel bearing material (as hereinafter defined) is conserved and their use in certain products manufactured for civilian use is curtailed; and it is necessary in the public interest to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution and use thereof.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1023.1 Conservation Order M-50—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Jewel bearing material" means any natural sapphire or ruby of industrial quality, any synthetic sapphire or ruby, or any other material of similar chemical composition and physical properties.

(2) "Jewel bearing" means any jewel bearing material which has been processed in any manner for use where friction occurs, including vees, rings, cups, endstones, pallet stones, roller pins, needles, stylii, cutters, nozzles, supports, tool bits, and dies.

(3) "Substitute jewel bearing" means a metal, agate, garnet, spinel, glass, or other bearing designed to replace, or to substitute for, a large ring bearing or a vee bearing of sapphire or ruby.

(4) "Large ring bearing" means any jewel bearing or substitute jewel bearing through which a hole has been pierced from one parallel face to the other which has the following dimensions:

Outside diameter greater than	0.050 inch (1.270 mm.)
Thickness greater than	0.012 inch (.305 mm.)
Hole diameter greater than	0.006 inch (.152 mm.)

(5) "Vee bearing" means any jewel bearing or substitute bearing which has a conically shaped cavity in one of the parallel faces.

(6) "Supplier" means any person who has engaged in the importation or processing of jewel bearings, substitute jewel bearings, or jewel bearing material, since January 14, 1942.

(7) "Consumer" means any person who uses jewel bearings or substitute jewel bearings in the manufacture of any article.

(8) "Processing" means manufacturing, fabricating, polishing, or modifying in any manner jewel bearing material or material designed to substitute therefor.

(9) "Blank" means preparage, rondel, cylinder, or prism made from jewel bearing material for the purpose of fabrication of a jewel bearing but which has not been drilled or formed.

(10) "Use" of a jewel bearing or substitute jewel bearing means to mount the jewel bearing in a screw or other setting, or to incorporate physically the mounted or unmounted bearing in a device where its normal bearing surface may be subjected to friction from a moving part or object.

(11) "Semi-fabricated jewel bearing" means any jewel bearing processed beyond the blank stage but on which additional processing is necessary before it is ready to be used by a consumer.

(12) "Finished bearing" means any jewel bearing or substitute jewel bearing which has been processed to a point where it can immediately be used by a consumer.

(13) "Implements of war" means combat end products, complete for tactical operations (including, but not limited to, aircraft, ammunition, armament, weapons, ships, tanks, and military vehicles), and any parts, assemblies, and materials to be incorporated in any of the foregoing items. This term does not include facilities or equipment used to manufacture the foregoing items.

(b) Restrictions on delivery, processing, use, and sale. (1) On and after November 2, 1942, each supplier shall set aside his entire stock, receipts, and production of finished jewel bearings, jewel bearing material, semi-fabricated jewel bearings, and blanks as a reserve for the fulfillment of present and future defense orders, and such other orders and uses as may be authorized from time to time by the Director General for Operations.

(2) No supplier shall make deliveries or withdrawals from such reserve either to his customers or for purposes of his own use, except as authorized by the Director General for Operations. The Director will from time to time allocate the supply of finished jewel bearings, of semi-fabricated jewel bearings, of blanks, and of jewel bearing material; and may specifically direct the manner and quantities in which deliveries to or by particular persons or for particular uses shall be made or withheld. He may also direct, limit, or prohibit processing of jewel bearing material, blanks, and semi-fabricated jewel bearings. He may also direct, limit, or prohibit deliveries, withdrawals from inventories, and particular uses of jewel bearings in the hands of consumers. He may also allocate the supply of finished substitute jewel bearings, or any particular kind thereof, in the hands either of suppliers or consumers, and may direct, limit, or prohibit deliveries, withdrawals from inventories, and particular uses of substitute jewel bearings. Such allocations and directions will be made to insure the satisfaction of the defense requirements of the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made, in the discretion of the Director General for Operations, without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular contracts or purchase orders.

(3) Unless specifically directed or authorized by the Director General for Operations, no person shall sell or deliver to any person for any purpose vee bearings or large ring bearings of sapphire or ruby, except:

(i) That any person may sell such bearings to the person from whom he originally acquired them; and

(ii) That a wholesaler or distributor (but not a supplier) may sell or deliver large ring bearings to persons who will use such large ring bearings solely in the repair of watches or aeroplane instruments.

(c) Additional restrictions on consumers—(1) Use of vee bearings and large ring bearings. Unless specifically directed or authorized by the Director General for Operations, no person shall use vee bearings or large ring bearings of sapphire or ruby in the manufacture of any article other than:

(i) "Implements of war" as defined in this order, which are being produced for the Army or the Navy of the United States, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, or for any foreign government pursuant to the act approved March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), where the use of vee bearings or large ring bearings of sapphire or ruby to the extent employed is required by the latest issue of government specifications (including performance specifications, unless otherwise directed by the Director General for Operations) applicable to the contract, subcontract, or purchase order; or such other articles or products being produced for any of the foregoing services, agencies, or foreign governments, as may be from time to time approved and designated by the Director General for Operations by means of supplementary orders: Provided, however, That no person in the manufacture of implements of war or other articles or products covered by this paragraph (c) (1) (i) shall use a vee bearing or a large ring bearing of sapphire or ruby in any place or application where the governmental contracting agency 30 days or more previously has issued a written statement to such person permitting the use of a substitute jewel bearing in such place or application: Provided, further, That any person who uses vee bearings or large ring bearings of sapphire or ruby, in order to meet performance specifications in the manufacture of any article or product covered by this paragraph (c) (1) (i), shall furnish such information with respect to such article or product and the specifications applicable thereto as may be requested from time to time by the War Production Board.

(ii) Instruments for use in aeroplanes and ships.

(iii) Machine tools.

(iv) Dial indicator gages, being mechanisms for amplifying and measuring the displacement of a movable contact point, thereby measuring a dimension or variations from a standard dimension, each such gage comprising essentially a case with means for mounting the indicator, a spindle carrying the contact point, an amplifying mechanism, a pointer, and a graduated dial.

(v) Railroad standard watches, as such term is used and defined in Order L-175 of the War Production Board.

(2) Use of substitute bearings. On and after 30 days after November 2, 1942, unless specifically directed or authorized by the Director General for Operations, no person shall use jewel bearings of any type in the manufacture or repair of any article, other than those described in paragraph (c) (1) (i), in any place where it would be practicable, considering performance requirements, to use substitute jewel bearings, and in the repair of any such article no person shall replace a jewel bearing with a jewel bearing of any type if the bearing being replaced can be repaired or if it would be practicable, considering performance requirements, to use a substitute jewel bearing in its place.

(d) General exception. The prohibiting which on or after November 2, 1942, order shall not apply to any jewel bearing which on or after November 2, 1942, without violating any order of the Director General for Operations, had been physically incorporated in a device in which, without further assemblage, its normal bearing surface was subjected to friction from a moving part or object.

(e) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of jewel bearings conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by letter or other written communication, in triplicate, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(f) Reports. (1) Each supplier shall file with the War Production Board, Ref: M-50, on or before the 15th day of each calendar month, all the information required by Form PD-235.

(2) Each consumer shall file with the War Production Board, Ref. M-50, on or before the 15th day of each calendar month, all the information required by Form PD-236.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions— (1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Miscellaneous Minerals Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-50.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 9th day of February 1943.

Director General for Operations.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1168.1 General Limitation Order L-101—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

Such definition does not include a complete commercial motor vehicle chassis or trailer chassis upon which a bus body is to be mounted, or a tractor for propulsion of a trailer bus.

(c) Restrictions on delivery of passenger carriers. On and after May 21, 1942, irrespective of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or of any other commitment, no producer shall transfer or deliver and no person shall accept any transfer or delivery of any new passenger carrier, except as authorized pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (d) hereof.

(d) Production and delivery of passenger carriers. (1) Each producer of passenger carriers shall schedule his production and make deliveries of passenger carriers in accordance with such specific directions as may be issued from time to time by the Director General for Operations, who may incorporate therein such requests and recommendations as may be submitted by the Office of Defense Transportation.

(2) The production and delivery schedules established by any specific direction which may be issued from time to time pursuant to paragraph (d) (1) above shall be maintained without regard to any preference ratings already assigned or hereafter assigned to particular contracts, commitments, or purchase orders and may be altered only upon specific directions of the Director General for Operations.

(3) If it becomes impossible for any producer to maintain production and delivery of passenger carriers in accordance with any such schedule, he shall immediately notify the Director General for Operations, and, unless otherwise directed by the Director General for Operations, he shall continue to produce and deliver passenger carriers in the order set forth in such schedule and shall postpone production and delivery of any such passenger carriers only to the extent required by the circumstances causing his failure to maintain production and delivery as required by such schedule.

(e) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories,

A supplier, who uses asbestos textiles which he has produced in the manufacture of any product which is not itself an asbestos textile as defined in paragraph (a) (1), shall be deemed also to be a consumer.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of asbestos textiles. (1) On and after April 1, 1943, no supplier shall deliver asbestos textiles, and no person shall accept delivery of asbestos textiles from a supplier, except upon specific authorization by the Director General for Operations upon application pursuant to paragraph (d) or except as provided in paragraph (c).

(iii) Such certification shall be signed by an authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7 and shall be in substantially the following form:

The undersigned hereby certifies pursuant to War Production Board Order M-283 that the requested delivery of asbestos textiles plus other deliveries of asbestos textiles heretofore accepted during the month for which delivery is requested does not exceed 100 pounds in the aggregate, and that the undersigned has not been specifically authorized by the War Production Board to accept delivery of any quantity of asbestos textiles during the month for which delivery is requested.

Six copies shall be prepared, of which three (with table II left blank) shall be forwarded, not later than the 1st day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for delivery is requested, to the supplier with whom the order or orders described in such application are placed, and two (with table II filled out) shall be sent, not later than the 10th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for delivery is requested, to the War Production Board. A separate set of forms shall be prepared for each plant location of the applicant and for each supplier from whom the delivery of asbestos textiles is sought.

Each such supplier in his separate capacity as a consumer and as a supplier shall file all the applications and reports required by paragraphs (d) (1) and (d) (2). A supplier who consumes all or any part of his production of asbestos textiles in the manufacture of products which are not asbestos textiles as defined in subparagraph (a) (1) must request allocation only for that type of asbestos textile that immediately precedes the manufacturing process which changes its form beyond that shown in the list of asbestos textiles in paragraph (a) (1).

(2) Each supplier shall notify the War Production Board of the cancellation by a consumer of any authorized delivery or of his own inability to make authorized delivery within 5 days after he has notice of such fact.

(2) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Cork-Asbestos and Fibrous Glass Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: M-283.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Such allocations and directions will be made to insure the satisfaction of war requirements of the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made, in the discretion of the Director General for Operations, without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular purchase orders or contracts. The Director General for Operations may also take into consideration the possible dislocation of labor and the necessity of keeping a plant in operation so that it may be able to fulfill war and essential civilian requirements.

(d) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(3) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, by addressed to: War Production Board, Lumber and Lumber Products Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-279.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 3]

PREFERENCE RATINGS UNDER THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

§ 3175.3 CMP Regulation 3—(a) Purpose and scope. The purpose of this regulation is to define the operation of preference ratings under the Controlled Materials Plan.

(b) Definitions. The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this regulation and for the purposes of any other CMP regulation unless otherwise indicated:

(1) "Production material" means, with respect to any person, material or products (including fabricated parts and subassemblies) which will be delivered by him as his product, or will be physically incorporated into such product, and includes the portion of such material normally consumed or converted into scrap in the course of processing. It does not include any items purchased by him as manufacturing equipment or for maintenance, repair or operating supplies as defined in CMP Regulation 5.

(2) "Allotment number or symbol" means:

(i) An allotment number or symbol placed on a delivery order as provided in paragraphs (f) and (g) of this regulation, or as provided in CMP Regulation 1 or CMP Regulation 5; or

(ii) A number or symbol placed on a delivery order pursuant to any other regulation or order of the War Production Board if, but only if, it is expressly stated that such number or symbol shall constitute an "allotment number or symbol" for purposes of this regulation.

(c) Superiority of ratings with allotment numbers or symbols over other ratings of equal grade. A delivery order bearing a preference rating with an allotment number or symbol shall (unless otherwise ordered by the Director General for Operations) be deemed superior in rating, for purposes of Priorities Regulation 1, to any delivery order bearing a rating of the same grade without an allotment number or symbol, but shall not be superior to another order bearing a rating of a higher grade. For example, a rating of AA-2X with an allotment number or symbol is superior to another rating of AA-2X without an allotment number or symbol, but is inferior to any rating of AA-1 with or without an allotment number or symbol.

(d) Preference ratings with allotment numbers for production schedules—(1) Prime consumers. In each case when an allotment is made to a prime consumer making Class A or Class B products, and his production schedule is authorized by a Claimant Agency or an Industry Division, a preference rating will be assigned to such schedule for use with the allotment number applicable to the schedule.

(2) Secondary consumers. In each case when an allotment is made to a secondary consumer making Class A products and his production schedule is authorized by the consumer making the allotment, the consumer making the allotment shall apply or extend to such production schedule the same rating as he has received for his own related production schedule for use with the appropriate allotment number.

(3) Use of ratings received for authorized production schedules. A prime or secondary consumer who has received a preference rating for an authorized production schedule as provided in this paragraph (d) may use said rating, with the appropriate allotment number, only to acquire production materials in the minimum practicable amounts required to fulfill such schedules, or to replace production materials in his inventory, subject to the restrictions of paragraph (c) (2) or Priorities Regulation 3. He may not use such rating for any other purpose.

(e) No extension of customers' ratings by prime consumers making Class B products. A prime consumer who manufactures Class B products and has received an authorized production schedule for such manufacture, accompanied by a preference rating to be used with his allotment number, shall not extend any other rating received by him from a customer, except that if a delivery to be made by him is rated AAA, he may extend said rating to the extent necessary to obtain production material required to fill his AAA order, but may not extend the same for purposes of replenishing his inventory.

(f) Use of allotment numbers and symbols on delivery orders. (1) Each prime or secondary consumer shall place on each rated delivery order for production materials, required to fulfill his authorized production schedule of Class A or Class B products, his allotment number with the certification provided in paragraph (g) of this regulation.

(2) A person placing a rated order for maintenance, repair or operating supplies under CMP Regulation 5 shall place thereon the allotment symbol MRO with the certification required by said regulation.

(3) A person placing a rated small order for Class A products pursuant to paragraph (1) of CMP Regulation 1 shall place thereon his allotment number and the symbol SO as required by said regulation, with the certification provided in paragraph (g) of this regulation.

(4) No person shall place any allotment number or symbol on any delivery order except as required by the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (f) or as specifically provided in any other regulation or order of the War Production Board. If a person who is not authorized to use an allotment number or symbol receives a rated order with an allotment number or symbol, he may extend the rating, to the extent and in the manner permitted by Priorities Regulation 3, but he shall not use the allotment number or symbol in extending the rating.

(g) Form of certification. A prime or secondary consumer when placing an allotment number or symbol on a rated delivery order pursuant to this regulation or CMP Regulation No. 1 shall endorse on the order a certification in substantially the following form (in lieu of the certification provided in Priorities Regulation No. 3) signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

Preference rating ------- Allotment number ------- The undersigned certifies, subject to the criminal penalties for misrepresentation contained in section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, that he is authorized under CMP Regulation No. 3 to apply or extend the above preference rating and allotment number or symbol to the delivery of the items covered by the attached delivery order.

An allotment number shall consist of the appropriate Claimant Agency letter symbol followed by the major program number (consisting of one digit only as provided in paragraph (c) (6) (ii) of CMP Regulation No. 1). If the order is placed in connection with an allotment of controlled materials by the purchaser to the seller, the two digits denoting the quarter for which the allotment is valid shall be added as provided in said regulation.

(h) Use of existing ratings prior to authorization of production schedules. A person who has not yet received his allotment and CMP rating for a particular production schedule may apply and extend other preference ratings for such production to the extent permitted by existing Priorities Regulations and Orders (including, in the case of PRP Units, Priorities Regulation 11A regarding transition from PRP to CMP).

(i) Construction and facilities. Preference ratings assigned for construction or facilities may be applied or extended in the manner and subject to the restrictions provided in CMP Regulation No. 6.

(j) Effect of preference ratings on deliveries of controlled materials. (1) Authorized controlled material orders placed with controlled materials producers shall be accepted and filled by such producers as provided in CMP Regulation No. 1 without regard to any preference ratings applicable to such delivery orders and in preference to all other delivery orders, except as may be otherwise specifically directed. To the extent that controlled materials producers are able to fill orders other than authorized controlled material orders, they shall fill such orders until July 1, 1943, in accordance with preference ratings as provided in Priorities Regulation 1 and subject to any other applicable regulations or orders of the War Production Board.

(2) Authorized controlled material orders placed pursuant to applicable CMP Regulations, with persons who are not controlled materials producers, shall be filled by them without regard to any preference ratings applicable to such delivery orders and in preference to all other delivery orders, except as otherwise specifically provided in applicable regulations or orders of the War Production Board, and except that an authorized controlled material order placed with any such person which is rated AAA shall take precedence over other authorized controlled material orders.

(k) Effect of ratings on conflicting production and delivery schedules for Class A and Class B products. Manufacturers of Class A and Class B products must comply with the requirements of paragraph (p) of CMP Regulation 1 with respect to the rejection of orders in excess of capacity, and, in the event they are unable to fulfill all orders which they have accepted, they must report for instructions as provided in paragraph (q) of CMP Regulation 1, but until and unless otherwise instructed, they shall fill orders in accordance with preference ratings as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 1 and paragraph (c) of this regulation.

Issued this 9th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

[CMP Reg. 5]

MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND OPERATING SUPPLIES

§ 3175.5 CMP Regulation 5—(a) Purpose and scope. (1) The purpose of this regulation is to provide a uniform procedure for obtaining maintenance, repair and operating supplies, both in the case of controlled materials obtained by use of allotment symbols under the Controlled Materials Plan and in the case of materials or products obtained by preference ratings. Persons requiring maintenance, repair and operating supplies, in any form, in such quantities as are available from warehouses or distributors under CMP Regulation No. 4, or at retail without preference ratings or allotments, may obtain the same without using the procedure provided in this regulation, but subject to all applicable limitations in War Production Board regulations and orders.

(2) The provisions of this regulation shall not apply to governmental agencies (other than Claimant Agencies) except to the extent that they may be engaged in one of the activities listed in Schedules I or II attached, and shall not apply to any person or institution, public or private, engaged in educational, religious or charitable activities. Procedures for the obtaining of maintenance, repairs and operating supplies by such governmental agencies and by such persons and institutions will be provided by a separate regulation or order. This regulation is also inapplicable to certain purchases by Claimant Agencies or for export as more fully provided in paragraph (g).

(b) Definitions. The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this regulation, and for the purpose of any other CMP Regulation unless otherwise indicated:

(1) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue a facility in sound working condition, and "repair" means the restoration of a facility to sound working condition when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts or the like: Provided, That neither maintenance nor repair shall include the improvement of any plant, facility or equipment, by replacing material which is still usable, with material of a better kind, quality or design, except as provided in paragraph (b) (3) of this regulation.

(2) "Operating supplies" means any materials or products which are normally carried by a person as operating supplies according to established accounting practice and are not included in his finished product, except that materials included in such product which are normally chargeable to operating expense may be treated as operating supplies. The term shall also include such items as hand tools, customarily purchased by the particular employer for sale to his employees for use only in his business, in those cases where they would constitute operating supplies under established accounting practice if issued to employees without charge. The term shall not include any of the items specified in List A attached.

(3) In addition, there may be included as maintenance, repair and operating supplies, minor items of productive capital equipment and minor capital additions or replacements not exceeding $500 (excluding cost of labor); Provided, That no capital equipment, addition or replacement aggregating more than $500 in cost shall be subdivided for the purpose of coming within this definition, and, provided further, that the acquisition and use of materials for construction shall be subject to the provisions of Conservation Order L-41, as amended from time to time.

(4) Production materials required by a manufacturer for physical incorporation in his products, which products he sells for use as maintenance, repair or operating supplies, may be obtained as provided in CMP Regulation No. 1 and in CMP Regulation No. 3, and such production materials shall not be deemed maintenance, repair or operating supplies, as to such manufacturer.

(c) Controlled materials. (1) Subject to the quantity restrictions contained in paragraph (f) of this regulation, any person engaged in the business of producing any product or conducting any business listed in Schedule I or II, requiring delivery after March 31, 1943, of any controlled material, except aluminum, for maintenance, repair or operating supplies in the conduct of such business, may obtain the same by placing on his delivery order substantially the following certification, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

CMP allotment symbol MRO—(P order No. ———)—The undersigned certifies, subject to the criminal penalties for misrepresentation contained in section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, that the controlled materials covered by this order are required for essential maintenance, repair or operating supplies, to be used for a purpose listed in Schedule I or Schedule II of CMP Regulation No. 5 and that delivery thereof will not result in a violation of the quantity restrictions contained in paragraph (f) of said regulation.

When the person making such certification is covered by any order in the "P" series he shall also show, in the space indicated, the number of such "P" order.

An order bearing such certification shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order and shall have the same status as an order bearing an allotment number under all applicable CMP regulations, unless otherwise expressly provided.

(2) Any person engaged in the business of producing any product or conducting any business listed in Schedule I or II requiring aluminum in any of the forms or shapes constituting a controlled material, for essential maintenance, repair or operating supplies, may obtain the same from a controlled materials producer or from an approved aluminum warehouse, in amounts of not to exceed 100 pounds from all sources during any one calendar quarter, provided, that any order placed pursuant to this paragraph (c) (2) shall be accompanied by a certificate in substantially the following form, signed manually, or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

The undersigned certifies, subject to the criminal penalties for misrepresentation contained in section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, that the materials covered by this order are required for essential maintenance, repair or operating supplies, to be used for a purpose listed in Schedule I or II of CMP Regulation No. 5, that the use of other materials for such purpose is impracticable; and that the amount of aluminum covered by this order, together with all other amounts received by, or on order for delivery to the undersigned, from all sources, for such purposes during the same quarter, will not exceed 100 pounds.

Any producer or warehouse receiving an order bearing such certificate shall be entitled to rely thereon and may fill the order, unless he knows or has reason to believe the certificate to be false.

(d) Preference ratings for maintenance, repair and operating supplies. (1) Subject to the quantity restrictions contained in paragraph (f) of this regulation, orders calling for delivery after March 31, 1943, of maintenance, repair or operating supplies other than controlled materials (regardless of whether such supplies be Class A products, Class B products, or other products or materials) are hereby assigned preference ratings as follows:

(i) AA-1 for maintenance or repair of facilities required for producing any product or conducting any business listed in Schedule I or for necessary operating supplies for such production or business;

(ii) AA-2X for maintenance or repair of facilities required for producing any product or conducting any business listed in Schedule II or for necessary operating supplies for such production or business; and

(iii) A-10 for necessary maintenance or repair of facilities required for producing any product or conducting any business not listed in Schedule I or Schedule II or for necessary operating supplies for any such purpose.

(2) A preference rating assigned under this paragraph (d) shall be applied only by use of the following certification (in lieu of the endorsement specified in Priorities Regulation No. 3), signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

Preference rating ..... (specify rating)—MRO. The undersigned certifies, subject to the criminal penalties for misrepresentation contained in section 25 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, that the items covered by this order are required for essential maintenance repair or operating supplies, that this order is rated and placed in compliance with CMP Regulation No. 5, and that the delivery requested will not result in a violation of the quantity restrictions contained in paragraph (f) of said regulation.

(3) A person with whom a delivery order is placed bearing a preference rating assigned by this regulation may extend the rating only in the manner provided in Priorities Regulation No. 3 (using the endorsement therein specified) and subject to the limitations contained therein and in CMP Regulation No. 2.

(e) Plants engaged in several activities. If a single plant or operating unit is engaged in several activities which are not all listed on the same schedule (or if some are so listed and others are unlisted), and it is impracticable to apportion requirements for maintenance, repair and operating supplies between such activities the principal activity alone shall be considered for purposes of determining whether controlled materials may be obtained under paragraph (c) of this regulation and also for determining which preference ratings may be applied under paragraph (d).

(f) Quantity restrictions. (1) No person shall use the allotment symbol or preference ratings assigned by this regulation to obtain maintenance, repair or operating supplies during any calendar quarter in an aggregate amount exceeding one-fourth of his aggregate expenditures for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the calendar year 1942 (or his fiscal year ending nearest to December 31, 1942), except that a person engaged in a seasonal business may use such allotment symbol or preference ratings to obtain during any calendar quarter, up to, but not in excess of, his aggregate expenditures for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the corresponding quarter of 1942 (or of such fiscal year). In neither case, however, shall any person use such allotment symbol or preference ratings to obtain maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the 12 months ending March 31, 1944, in an amount exceeding his aggregate expenditures for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the calendar year 1942 (or such fiscal year).

(2) A person who has several plants or other operating units which maintain separate records of maintenance, repair and operating supplies shall treat each of them separately for purposes of complying with the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (f).

(3) In the case of a plant or other operating unit which was not in operation during the base period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (f), the person operating the same may take, as a base, his expenditures for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the first quarter of 1943, or during the portion thereof when the plant or unit was in operation, reasonably adjusted for seasonal or other variable factors; provided, that he first notifies the War Production Board in writing of the base which he is taking, the reasons therefor, and the nature of any adjustments made. In the case of a plant starting operations after February 28, 1943, maintenance, repair and operating supplies may be acquired pursuant to this regulation in the minimum amounts necessary for operation, without other restrictions, up to $5,000 per quarter. If more than this amount is required, application shall be made in writing to the War Production Board for a specific quota. In any case where the base provided in subparagraph (1) or by this subparagraph (3) is deemed too low for necessary operations, application may be made in writing for modification thereof.

(4) The restrictions contained in this paragraph (f) shall apply in addition to any quantitative restrictions contained in any order in the "P" series, unless the particular P order expressly provides that the restrictions of this regulation shall be inapplicable.

(5) The Director General for Operations may, by further regulations or orders, require specified persons or classes of persons to file applications or reports regarding their requirements of maintenance, repair and operating supplies and may prescribe specific quantitative limits for the same, either larger or smaller than the limits provided above in this paragraph (f).

(g) Special provisions for Claimant Agencies, exports and ship repairs. Maintenance, repair and operating supplies, required either by a Claimant Agency (including any plant or establishment owned and operated by a Claimant Agency) or for export, as regular procurement items covered by specific programs, and material required for ship repairs programmed by the Maritime Commission, shall not be obtained under this regulation, but, if they are controlled materials or Class A products, shall be obtained only by the use of allotments in the same manner as production materials under CMP Regulation No. 1, and, if they are other materials or products, shall be obtained only by such preference ratings as may be specifically assigned for the purpose.

(h) Penalties for misrepresentation or diversion. (1) The placing of any order bearing a certification or symbol as provided by this regulation shall constitute a representation, subject to the criminal penalties of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 80), that the person placing the order is entitled, under the terms of this regulation to use of the symbol or preference rating indicated thereon.

(2) No person shall use for any purpose other than essential maintenance, repair or operations, any supplies obtained pursuant to this regulation, or use any supplies obtained under a preference rating assigned by this regulation for a purpose to which a lower rating, or no rating, is assigned. Any such use shall constitute a crime punishable by fine or imprisonment or both. Physical segregation of inventories is not required, provided the restrictions applicable to any specific lot of material or product are observed with respect to an equivalent amount of the same material or product.

(i) Inventory restrictions. Nothing in this regulation shall be deemed to authorize any person to receive any delivery of maintenance, repair or operating supplies if acceptance thereof would increase his inventory above a practicable working minimum as provided in § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 or would exceed the inventory limitations prescribed for such person by CMP Regulation No. 2, or by any other applicable regulation or order of the War Production Board.

(j) Additional assistance in individual cases. Any person requiring maintenance, repair or operating supplies who is unable to obtain them pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this regulation, may apply to the War Production Board for additional assistance on such form as may be appropriate, having regard to the material required and the business activity involved. If no particular form is specified by applicable orders or regulations of the War Production Board, such application may be made on Form PD-1A or, in the case of a PRP unit, on Form PD-25F. Such application may be filed with the appropriate Industry Division, or, if the amount involved is less than $500, with the regional office of the War Production Board.

(k) Effect on other orders and procedures. (1) The preference ratings assigned by this regulation shall supersede the preference ratings assigned by all orders in the "P" series for maintenance, repair and operating supplies with respect to materials or products to be delivered after March 31, 1943, except as may be otherwise provided by amendments of such orders specifically providing to the contrary.

(2) Subject to paragraph (k) (1) of this regulation all of the terms, provisions and restrictions contained in all orders in the "P" series including definitions, requirements for making applications and filing reports, and other restrictions, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (f) (4) of this regulation, shall, subject to the inventory restrictions of CMP Regulation No. 2, remain in full force and effect until modified or revoked.

(3) In addition, each person who, in accordance with existing priorities procedures not covered by "P" orders, is required to file applications or reports with respect to his requirements for, or use of, maintenance, repair or operating supplies, or is limited in the amount of such supplies which he is permitted to acquire or use, shall continue to comply with such procedures until the same are modified or revoked.

(4) Nothing in this regulation shall be construed to relieve any person from complying with any applicable priorities regulation or order of the War Production Board (including orders in the "E," "L" and "M" series) or with any order of any other competent authority.

(l) Industry reclassification. Any person who is of the opinion that the business activity in which he is engaged should be listed in Schedule I, if it is listed in Schedule II, or should be listed in either Schedule I or Schedule II, if it is not listed in either of such schedules, may apply to have such activity so listed by filing a letter, in triplicate, with the appropriate Industry Division setting forth the relevant facts and the reasons why he considers such request should be granted.

(m) Records. Each person acquiring maintenance, repair or operating supplies pursuant to this regulation shall keep and preserve, for a period of not less than two years, accurate and complete records of all such supplies so acquired, and used, which shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(n) Communications. All communications concerning this regulation should be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: CMP Regulation No. 5.

Issued this 9th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3179—FIBROUS GLASS TEXTILES

[Conservation Order M-282]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of fibrous glass textiles for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3179.1 Conservation Order M-282—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Fibrous glass textile" means any material fabricated from fibrous glass sliver which is in the form of roving, yarn, cord, sleeving, tape, or cloth.

(2) "Producer" means any person who manufactures sliver from which fibrous glass textiles are produced.

(3) "Distributor" means any person who purchases fibrous glass textiles for the purpose of resale either in the form received or after further processing, as by varnishing, impregnating, cutting, or admixing with other materials.

(4) "User" means any person who purchases or accepts delivery of fibrous glass textiles from producers or distributors for processing into other forms of fibrous glass textiles or for installation, application, or use. A producer, who uses any part of his own production of fibrous glass textiles in the manufacture of any product which is not itself a fibrous glass textile as defined in paragraph (a) (1), shall be deemed also to be a user.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture and processing of sliver and delivery of fibrous glass textiles. (1) On and after April 1, 1943, no producer shall manufacture sliver, or place it into process, as by warping or weaving, or deliver fibrous glass textiles, and no person shall accept delivery of fibrous glass textiles from a producer (unless such textiles were shipped prior to April 1, 1943), except upon specific authorization by the Director General for Operations upon application pursuant to paragraph (c).

(2) The Director General for Operations will from time to time issue specific instructions,

(i) To each producer, authorizing and directing him to manufacture and to place into process such kinds and quantities of sliver and at such times as may be necessary to produce specified quantities and kinds of fibrous glass textiles for delivery at specified times;

(ii) To each producer, authorizing and directing him to deliver fibrous glass textiles; and

(iii) To distributors and users, authorizing them to accept delivery of fibrous glass textiles from producers.

(3) Each person specifically authorized to accept delivery of fibrous glass textiles shall use such fibrous glass textiles for the purpose for which the authorization was requested, except as otherwise directed by the Director General for Operations.

(4) The Director General for Operations at his discretion at any time may issue special directions to any person with respect to the use, process to final product, delivery, or acceptance of delivery of, or the placing of orders for, fibrous glass textiles by such person, or to any producer with respect to the kinds of fibrous glass textiles which he may or must produce.

(5) Such authorizations and directions will be made to ensure the satisfaction of requirements, direct and indirect, for the defense of the United States, and for essential civilian supply; and may also be made in consideration of any possible dislocation of labor, of the problems of transportation, including cross-hauling, and of the necessity of keeping a plant in operation so that it may be able to fulfill war orders and essential requirements; and may be issued, and, unless otherwise specified by the Director General for Operations, shall be complied with, without regard to preference ratings.

(c) Applications and reports—(1) Distributors and users; application for authorization to accept delivery. Each distributor and each user seeking authorization to accept delivery of fibrous glass textiles from a producer during any calendar month shall file application on Form PD-790. Six copies shall be prepared, of which two shall be forwarded to the producer, together with the purchase order, not later than the 1st day of the month preceding the month for which delivery is requested, and three shall be sent at the same time to the War Production Board.

(2) Producers—(i) Application for authorization to manufacture sliver and to place sliver into process. Each producer seeking authorization to manufacture sliver and to place sliver into process for the production of fibrous glass textiles in any month shall file application on Form PD-789 in triplicate with the War Production Board on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization is requested.

(ii) Application for authorization to deliver fibrous glass textiles. Producers shall seek authorization to deliver fibrous glass textiles only to distributors and users who have filed with them Form PD-790 in duplicate. Each producer seeking authorization to make such deliveries to any distributor or user during any calendar month shall indicate on both copies of Form PD-790 received from such distributor or user his proposed deliveries during such month to such distributor or user, and shall file one of such copies with the War Production Board on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month for which delivery is requested.

(iii) Deliveries by producers for own use; application for authorization. Each producer who consumes part of his production of fibrous glass textiles in the manufacture of any product which is not itself a fibrous glass textile, as defined in paragraph (a) (1), shall treat the production and consumption parts of his operations as separate divisions, and delivery to himself for consumption shall be deemed delivery, requiring authorization within the meaning of paragraph (b) (1). Each such producer in his separate capacity as a producer and as a user shall file all the applications and reports required by paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2) (ii). A producer who consumes all or any part of his production of fibrous glass textiles in the manufacture of products which are not fibrous glass textiles as defined in paragraph (a) (1) must request allocation only for that type of fibrous glass textile which immediately precedes the manufacturing process which changes its form beyond that shown in the list of fibrous glass textiles in paragraph (a) (1).

(iv) Cancellation of deliveries; notice by producer. Each producer shall notify the War Production Board of the cancellation by a distributor or user of any authorized delivery or of inability to make authorized delivery within 5 days after he has notice of such fact.

(3) Other reports. All persons affected by this order shall file such other reports as may be requested from time to time by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Communications to War Production Board. All applications and reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Cork, Asbestos and Fibrous Glass Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: M-282.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 9th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1300—PROCEDURE

[Amendment 1 to Rev. Procedural Reg. 3 [1]]

PROCEDURE FOR ADJUSTMENTS, AMENDMENTS, PROTESTS AND INTERPRETATIONS UNDER RENT REGULATIONS

Sections 1300.209, 1300.212, 1300.229, and 1300.234 (a) of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 3 are amended to read as follows:

§ 1300.209 Applications for review. Any landlord whose petition for adjustment or other relief has been dismissed or denied in whole or in part by the rent director, or any landlord subject to an order entered by the rent director on his own initiative, may within fifteen days after the date on which notice of such determination was mailed to him, file with the rent director an application for review of such determination by the regional administrator for the region in which the defense-rental area office is located. An application for review shall be filed in triplicate upon forms prescribed by the Administrator and pursuant to instructions stated on such forms, and shall be accompanied by three copies of all the evidence, in affidavit form, upon which the landlord intends to rely in support of his objections to the dismissal or denial of the petition for adjustment or other relief, or to the order entered by the rent director on his own initiative. Immediately upon the filing of an application for review of such determination, the rent director shall forthwith forward the record of the proceedings with respect to which such application is filed to the appropriate regional administrator. If a petition for adjustment or other relief is denied by the regional administrator upon such application for review, or if an order entered by the rent director on his own initiative is affirmed, such denial or affirmance shall be final subject only to protest as provided in §§ 1300.215 to 1300.228, inclusive, of this regulation.

§ 1300.212 Place for filing petitions for amendment; form and contents. A petition for amendment shall be filed with the Secretary, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. One original and four copies of the petition and of all accompanying documents and briefs shall be filed. Each copy shall be printed, typewritten, mimeographed, or prepared by a similar process, and shall be plainly legible. Copies shall be double spaced, except that quotations shall be single spaced and indented. Every such petition shall be designated "Petition for Amendment" and shall contain, upon the first page thereof, the name of the defense-rental area and the number and date of issuance of the maximum rent regulation to which the petition relates, and the name and address of the petitioner. The petition shall specify the manner in which the petitioner is subject to or affected by the provision of the maximum rent regulation involved, and shall include a specific statement of the particular amendment desired and the facts which make that amendment necessary or appropriate. The petition shall be accompanied by affidavits setting forth the evidence upon which the petitioner relies in his petition.

§ 1300.229 Requests for oral hearing. Any protestant or petitioner may request an oral hearing. Such request shall be accompanied by a showing as to why the filing of affidavits or other written evidence and briefs will not permit the fair and expeditious disposition of the protest. In the event that an oral hearing is ordered in connection with a protest, or with proceedings under § 1300.208 of this regulation, notice thereof shall be served on the protestant or petitioner not less than five days prior to such hearing. The time and place of the hearing shall be stated in the notice. Any such oral hearing may be limited in such manner and to the extent deemed appropriate to the expeditious determination of the proceeding.

§ 1300.234 Subpoenas. (a) Any protestant or petitioner may apply for a subpoena in connection with an oral hearing. Applications for subpoenas when made prior to the oral hearing shall be filed as follows: (1) in connection with a protest against a provision of a maximum rent regulation or order, with the Secretary, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.; (2) in connection with a proceeding under § 1300.208 of this regulation with the rent director or regional administrator, as the case may be, before whom such proceeding is pending. The Administrator may grant or deny an application for a subpoena or refer it to the presiding officer appointed or designated under § 1300.232 who may thereafter grant or deny the application. Applications for subpoenas made during the oral hearing shall be submitted to the presiding officer, who may grant or deny such application.

[RPS 88,[2] Amendment 66]

PETROLEUM AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1340.159 (b) a new subparagraph (11) is added and in § 1340.162 the designations (1) and (2) are corrected to read (a) and (b) respectively and a new paragraph (c) is added to read as set forth below:

§ 1340.159 Appendix A: Maximum prices for petroleum and petroleum products. * * *

(b) Petroleum products. * * *

(11) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of § 1340.159 (b) a seller's maximum tank wagon price at a particular point for a particular grade of gasoline, kerosene, range or stove oil, distillate fuel oils, and tractor and diesel fuel shall be the maximum price of the reference tank wagon seller as specified hereunder for the same grade at the same point provided the reference tank wagon seller's maximum price is higher than the maximum price which would otherwise be applicable. Where more than one reference seller is specified for a particular point, and such reference sellers do not have the same maximum price for such point, then the maximum price of the reference seller having the lowest maximum price shall be controlling.

For a product of a particular seller to be regarded as of the same grade as a product of the reference seller, it must customarily have been so regarded in trade practice at the point of sale and it must be a product that has customarily been sold in competition with the product of the reference seller.

[MPR 317]

LOCKS AND LOCK SETS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, to replace Revised Price Schedule No. 40[1] insofar as it establishes maximum prices for locks or lock sets, with a separate regulation.

So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has consulted with representatives of the trade and industry, and in the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Regulation are generally fair and equitable and in conformity with the general level of maximum prices prevailing during the period October 1 to October 15, 1941, for comparable products. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Accordingly, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 317 is hereby issued.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR. 319]

CERTAIN BAKERY PRODUCTS

This regulation provides for the determination of maximum prices for certain bakery products. The prescribed formula for determining those prices takes into consideration present cost of ingredients and packaging materials, subject to certain limitations, labor costs at March 1942, wage rates, and a dollar and cents mark up as of a specified base period.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are generally fair, just and equitable and tend to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and of Executive Order No. 9250.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 319 is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 319 is hereby issued.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1351.1901 to 1351.1920 inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong., E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1351.1901 Scope of this regulation. This regulation provides for new maximum prices for all sales of certain bakery products listed in Appendix A. New maximum prices must be recalculated by all sellers during each April and October occurring after the effective date of this regulation as hereinafter provided.

§ 1351.1902 Maximum prices of producers for sales to retailers. Each producer of a commodity listed in Appendix A of this regulation shall determine his maximum prices for each producing plant for sales to retailers as follows:

(a) Ingredient and packaging material cost. The producer shall ascertain his actual or estimated actual cost of ingredients and packaging materials for each producing plant per unit of the commodity at the time of calculation, subject to the following limitations:

(1) He shall not include his cost of any ingredient or packaging material at higher than the maximum price thereof to him as prescribed by the Office of Price Administration at that time together with the actual transportation charges to his established place of business where such maximum price is fixed on an f. o. b. basis.

(2) Except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, (a), if no maximum price has been prescribed by the Office of Price Administration for an ingredient or packaging material, he shall not include it at a cost higher than the average market price of such ingredient or packaging material at his usual source of supply and for the quantities normally purchased by him in March 1942, or if there were no substantial market sales of such ingredient or packaging material during March, 1942, than during the base period of the commodity to be priced as specified in Appendix A of this regulation, together with actual transportation charges paid by him to his established place of business, if any.

(3) Where one of the following commodities is not subject to a maximum price prescribed by the Office of Price Administration at the time of the calculation and constitutes an ingredient of the commodity to be priced, the producer shall include his actual cost of the same delivered to his established place of business during the base period of the commodity to be priced as specified in Appendix A hereof, plus the amount hereinafter specified opposite each such ingredient:

Ingredient:	Amount Per ton
Fresh apples	$6.50
Fresh apricots	23.00
Fresh cherries, red sour and pitted	50.00
Fresh cherries, sweet	56.00
Fresh figs	34.00
Fresh grapes	14.00
Fresh peaches, clingstone, including clingstone nectarines	7.00
Fresh peaches, freestone, including freestone nectarines	15.00
Fresh pears	15.00
Fresh plums	2.00
Fresh prunes	13.00
	Per pound
Beans	0.35
Walnuts, black	0.12
Walnuts, California	0.25
Cashews	0.22
Fresh berries, except strawberries	0.03
Fresh strawberries, actual cost at the time of calculation not exceeding	0.03

(b) Direct labor costs. To the cost of ingredients and packaging materials, as ascertained under the preceding paragraph, the producer shall add the "direct labor cost" per unit of the commodity to be priced determined by his actual costs thereof but no higher than his highest "March 1942, wage rates." "Direct labor cost" shall include the labor involved in the manufacturing, packaging and shipping of the commodity, but shall not include the labor involved in the purchase of ingredients and supplies, plant and machinery maintenance, distribution, selling or advertising of the commodity, or administrative expenses. Said "March 1942 wage rate" shall be the highest wage rates paid by the producer in March 1942, for each class of labor involved in the production of the commodity to be priced. If the producer employs a class of labor included in "direct labor cost" which he did not employ during March 1942, he shall take the highest wage rate paid in March 1942, by a producer of the same or a comparable commodity, operating under the most nearly comparable conditions, who did employ that class of labor during March 1942.

(c) The mark up. The producer shall ascertain his mark up for each producing plant for sales to retailers as follows: He shall ascertain (1) his weighted average actual selling price for each producing plant per unit of the commodity to be priced which he sold to retailers during the base period set forth for each commodity in Appendix A of this regulation, and subtract therefrom (2) his weighted average actual cost of ingredients, packaging materials and direct labor (as above defined) per unit of the commodity for all such sales to retailers during such base period. If the producer did not sell the same commodity during such base period, he shall ascertain his mark up by taking the margin computed as herein before provided on the nearest comparable commodity which he did sell during such base period. If he did not sell the same or any such comparable commodity during such base period, he shall take the mark up determined in like manner for the same or the nearest comparable commodity sold to retailers during such base period by his closest competitive producer operating under the most nearly comparable conditions. If he cannot ascertain his mark up under the foregoing provisions, he shall take as his mark up his margin computed in like manner on a commodity having the nearest cost and which he sold during said base period to retailers in the same or the nearest price line for sales to retailers. In calculating his margins hereunder by the use of his weighted average actual selling prices, the producer must distinguish prices which are f. o. b. producer's plant and delivered prices. He may not average f. o. b. prices and delivered prices together. If he had both, he shall average each separately and thus arrive at separate margins and ultimately by following paragraph (d) hereof, at a separate maximum price f. o. b. producer's plant and a maximum price delivered respectively. If he had only an f. o. b. producer's plant selling price, his maximum price ultimately arrived at under paragraph (d) hereof will be f. o. b. producer's plant; and to determine a maximum delivered price therefrom, he may: (i) as to each subsequent transaction, add the actual delivery cost thereto; or (ii) he may take a representative list of his deliveries in the area served by him and average the actual or estimated actual cost of each such delivery and add that figure to said maximum f. o. b. producer's plant price, thereby arriving at a uniform delivered maximum price to which he may add no further delivery costs. If he had only a delivered selling price, his maximum price ultimately arrived at under paragraph (d) hereof will be a maximum delivered price to which he may never add further delivery costs. To determine a maximum price f. o. b. producer's plant from a maximum price delivered, he shall take all or a representative list of his deliveries in the area served by him during the base period and average the actual cost of each such delivery and subtract that figure from said maximum delivered price.

(d) The producer shall add together his present cost of ingredients and packaging materials as determined under paragraph (a) of this section, direct labor costs as determined under paragraph (b) of this section, and his dollar and cents margin or mark up as determined under paragraph (c) of this section, and the resulting figure shall be his maximum price for the producing plant in question per unit of the commodity for all sales to retailers.

§ 1351.1903 Maximum prices of producers for sales to ultimate consumers. Each producer of a commodity listed in Appendix A of this regulation shall determine his maximum prices for each producing plant for sales to ultimate consumers as follows:

(a) Ingredient and packaging material cost and direct labor costs. The producer shall ascertain his actual or estimated actual cost of ingredients and packaging materials, and his direct labor per unit of the commodity at the time of calculation pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 1351.1902.

(b) Mark up. The producer shall next ascertain his average margin per unit of the commodity to be priced during the base period set forth for each commodity in Appendix A of this regulation by deducting from the average selling price for all sales to ultimate consumers during said base period, his weighted average actual cost of ingredients, packaging materials and direct labor (as above defined) during said base period for all such sales. If the producer did not sell the same commodity during such base period, he shall ascertain his mark up by taking the margin computed as hereinbefore provided on the nearest comparable commodity which he did sell during such base period. If he did not sell the same or any such comparable commodity during such base period he shall take the mark up determined in like manner for the same or the nearest comparable commodity sold to ultimate consumers during such base period by his closest competitive producer operating under the most nearly comparable conditions. If he cannot ascertain his mark up under the foregoing provisions he shall take as his mark up his margin computed in like manner on a commodity having the nearest cost and which he sold to ultimate consumers during said base period in the same or the nearest price line to ultimate consumers.

(c) The producer shall add together his present cost of ingredients, packaging materials and direct labor as determined under paragraph (a) of this section and his dollar and cents margin or mark up as determined under paragraph (b) of this section, and the resulting figure shall be his maximum price for the producing plant in question per unit of the commodity for sales to ultimate consumers, to which he may add no additional delivery charges.

(d) Wherever a producer sold only to ultimate consumers during said base period and he finds that his records are insufficient during said base period prescribed to determine his maximum prices for direct sales to ultimate consumers, he may at his option, take the month of March 1942, as the base period in place of said otherwise prescribed base period.

§ 1351.1905 Maximum prices of producers for sales to wholesalers and routesellers. (a) If the producer has determined his maximum price for sales of a commodity listed in Appendix A of this regulation under § 1351.1902 hereof, he shall determine his maximum prices for sales of that commodity to wholesalers and routesellers by deducting 20% from his maximum prices for sales to retailers, f. o. b. producer's plant, and the figure resulting shall be his maximum f. o. b. price for sales to wholesalers and routesellers to which he may add the actual costs of delivery if any, and so arrive at a maximum delivered price for sales to wholesalers and routesellers; or he may determine his maximum delivered price for sales to wholesalers and routesellers by deducting 20% from his maximum delivered price for sales to retailers, to which he may add no further delivery costs.

(b) If the producer has not determined his maximum price for sales to retailers under § 1351.1902 hereof, and has determined his maximum price for sales to ultimate consumers under § 1351.1903 hereof, he shall determine his maximum price for sales to wholesalers and routesellers by deducting 25% from his maximum price for sales to ultimate consumers, and the resulting figure shall be his maximum price f. o. b. producer's plant for sales to wholesalers and routesellers to which he may add the actual costs of delivery, if any, and so arrive at a maximum price[2] delivered for sales to wholesalers and routesellers.

(c) If the producer cannot determine his maximum price for sales to wholesalers and routesellers under the foregoing provisions of this section, he shall take and adopt the maximum price for sales to wholesalers and routesellers of the same or most comparable commodity sold by his closest competitive producer operating under the most nearly comparable conditions.

§ 1351.1906 Maximum prices of wholesalers and routesellers. (a) The maximum price of every wholesaler for sales of a commodity listed in Appendix A hereof to retailers shall be his producer's maximum price for sales of this commodity to retailers, or if none, the maximum price of the closest competitor of said wholesaler for sales of the same or most comparable commodity to retailers.

(b) The maximum price of every wholesaler for sales of a commodity listed in Appendix A hereof to other wholesalers or to routesellers, shall be the producer's maximum price for sales of this commodity to wholesalers or routesellers respectively, or if none, the maximum price of the closest competitor of said wholesaler for sales of the same or most comparable commodity to wholesalers or routesellers.

(c) The maximum price of every routeseller for sales of a commodity listed in Appendix A hereof to ultimate consumers shall be his producer's maximum price for sales of this commodity to ultimate consumers or if none, the maximum price of the closest competitor of said routeseller for sales of the same or most comparable commodity to ultimate consumers.

(d) The maximum price of every routeseller for sales of a commodity listed in Appendix A hereof to retailers shall be his producer's maximum price for sales to retailers, or if none, the maximum price of the closest competitor of said routeseller for sales of the same or most comparable commodity to retailers.

(e) The maximum price of every routeseller for sales of a commodity listed in Appendix A hereof to wholesalers or to other routesellers shall be his producer's maximum price for sales to wholesalers or routesellers respectively, or if none, the maximum price of the closest competitor of said routeseller for sales of the same or most comparable commodity to wholesalers or routesellers.

§ 1351.1907 Producers' wrappers must show retail price. Wherever a producer sells a commodity listed in Appendix A hereof in a wrapper or package he shall calculate the maximum price of the retailer for sales to ultimate consumers in accordance with § 1351.1904, and he shall print it on the face of said wrapper or package inserting it in the following statement:

Retailer's ceiling price ———.

§ 1351.1908 Package or unit net weight changes. Where it is the customary practice of a producer of a commodity listed in Appendix A of this regulation to reflect cost changes by package or unit net weight changes, he may reflect the price changes prescribed by this regulation by changes in package or unit net weight in the following manner: He shall divide the maximum price per unit of the commodity as determined under this regulation into his selling price per unit of the commodity prevailing immediately before the effective date of this regulation, and then multiply the existing package or unit net weight of the commodity by the percentage so determined. The resulting figure shall be the new package or unit net weight for sales under this regulation at the selling price per unit of the commodity prevailing immediately before the effective date of this regulation and said selling price shall be his maximum price hereunder.

§ 1351.1909 Exempt sales. Sales or deliveries of any commodity listed in Appendix A to the War Department or the Department of the Navy of the United States shall be exempt from this regulation and the General Maximum Price Regulation but sales or deliveries of any such commodity to post exchange shall be and remain subject to this regulation.

§ 1351.1910 (a) Time within which maximum prices must be calculated and reported. Every person subject to this regulation shall calculate and report his maximum prices in writing to the Office of Price Administration within 60 days after the effective date of this regulation. At any time after any such person has calculated or reported his maximum prices under this regulation, he may not sell these commodities at a price higher than the price reported or calculated although he may sell at a lower price. Maximum prices for sales to ultimate consumers shall be reported to the State or district office of the Office of Price Administration. Wholesalers, routesellers or retailers whose suppliers of these commodities have not reported their maximum prices as required herein within two weeks before the last day required or until after the time has expired for so doing, may report their prices within two weeks after the prices have been reported by their suppliers.

(b) Recalculation of maximum prices periodically. During the months of April and October of each year after the effective date of this regulation beginning with October, 1943, every person subject to this regulation shall recalculate his maximum prices on all commodities listed in Appendix A of this regulation pursuant to the provisions of this regulation on the basis of his then existing ingredient and packaging costs, but using the previous direct labor costs and mark up and report these new maximum prices in writing to the Office of Price Administration. At any time after he has calculated or reported his new maximum prices under this regulation, he may not sell these commodities at a price higher than the price reported or calculated although he may sell at a lower price.

(c) Maximum prices reported under this regulation cannot be changed without consent. Maximum prices calculated and reported to the Office of Price Administration under this regulation, may not be changed except by the written permission of the Office of Price Administration which will be given solely in cases of excusable clerical error or other mistake.

§ 1351.1911 Limiting applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] After any person subject to this regulation has calculated or reported his maximum prices under this regulation on any commodity covered hereby the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall have no further application to sales or deliveries by him thereof. Sixty days after the effective date of this regulation, the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not apply to sales or deliveries by producers, wholesalers and routesellers of any of the commodities covered by this regulation, or by retailers thereof.

§ 1351.1913 Notice of retailer's ceiling price. Where any unpackaged item of any commodity under this regulation is sold by a producer, wholesaler or routeseller to a retailer for the first time after the maximum price for it has been established or recalculated under this regulation, or in the case of a producer selling a unit of the commodity to any of the foregoing classification or persons for the first time after the maximum price for it has been established or recalculated under this regulation, the seller shall notify his purchaser in writing before or at the time of delivery of the retailer's ceiling price for the commodity, which shall be forwarded to the retailer selling the commodity. When the retailer receives this notice he shall keep it and make it available upon request for public examination. This notice shall contain the retailer's ceiling price for the commodity arrived at by multiplying the producers maximum price for sales thereof to retailers by 125 percent and shall read as follows:

Notice of retailer's ceiling price. The Office of Price Administration has established a new ceiling price for retailers for sales by them of (insert name of commodity) at (insert retailer's ceiling price for this commodity).

This price was arrived at by multiplying the producer's maximum price for sales of this commodity to retailers by 125 percent. The Office of Price Administration requires you to keep this information for public examination.

§ 1351.1914 Evasion. The provisions of this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of any commodity covered by this regulation alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege or by tying-in-agreement or other trade understanding or otherwise.

§ 1351.1915 Export sales. The maximum prices at which any person subject to this regulation may export any commodity covered by this regulation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Export Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1916 Protests and petitions for amendments. Any person seeking a protest or an amendment of any provisions of this regulation may file a protest or petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1917 Enforcement. (a) Any person violating any provision of this regulation shall be subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or of any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, State or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter IV—War Shipping Administration

[General Order 8, Revised, Supp. 8, Revised]

PART 302—CONTRACTS WITH VESSEL OWNERS AND RATES OF COMPENSATION RELATING THERETO

Supplement 8 (§§ 302.76 to 302.87 inclusive) to General Order 8 (Revised) (§§ 302.12 to 302.16 inclusive) is revised to read: "Prescribing regulations for determining time lost by the United States of America under Time Charters executed by and through the War Shipping Administration or the United States Maritime Commission" and "Prescribing regulations for determining compensation payable to owners and chartered owners of vessels time chartered to the United States Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, for time lost in partially or entirely arming, degaussing, or demagnetizing, prior to delivery of such vessels to the Government."

§ 302.76 Definitions. (a) The word "Warshiptime" when used herein refers to the form of time charter approved by the Administration under its General Order No. 11 (§ 302.50); however, the regulations promulgated herein shall also be applicable, in so far as they may be relevant, to all other forms of time charters executed by the United States of America, acting by and through the War Shipping Administration or its predecessor, the United States Maritime Commission.

(b) The words "owner" or "owners" when referred to herein shall be deemed to include the owners or chartered-owners or owner's agents of vessels operated or operating under Warshiptime as hereinabove defined.

(c) The word "charterer" shall be deemed to mean the United States of America, acting by and through the War Shipping Administration or United States Maritime Commission.

(d) The word "agent" shall be deemed to mean the agent of the charterer.

§ 302.77 Provisions of Warshiptime under which time is lost by the charterer but hire may continue, be suspended or reduced to one-half. (a) Full hire continues to run, although time is lost by the charterer, under circumstances within the following clauses of Part II of Warshiptime (§ 302.50):

(1) The happening of any event listed in Clause 4 (a) caused by the fault of the charterer or caused or contributed to by war or warlike acts as more fully described in Clause 4 (i);

(2) Time lost (when the vessel needs repairs necessary to her working) due to circumstances described in Clause 4 (b) (ii);

(3) Time lost in the installation or repair (for charterer's account) of equipment or defensive armament as described in Clause 11, subject, however, to regulations issued pursuant to Article 2 (d) of General Order 8 (Revised) (§ 302.13 (d)); and

(4) Time lost because of the unavailability of drydock as prescribed in Clause 12.

(b) Hire is reduced to one-half, when time is lost by the charterer, under circumstances within the following Clauses of Part II of Warshiptime (§ 302.50):

(1) Time lost from circumstances described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Clause 4; Provided, however, That the events described in said paragraph (a) are not caused by the charterer or caused or contributed to by war or warlike acts as described in Clause 4 (i);

(2) Time lost in excess of 48 hours in any two-month period in the cleaning of boilers and overhauling of machinery as prescribed in the last paragraph of Clause 4; and

(3) Time lost in the event of a disabled winch or winches or insufficient power to operate winches as prescribed in Clause 17.

(c) Hire is suspended under circumstances within the following Clauses of Part II of Warshiptime (§ 302.50):

(3) Time lost in remedying defects caused by the owner's failure to maintain the condition of the vessel as prescribed in Clause 1;

(4) Time lost from damage to the vessel resulting in its constructive total loss (damage in excess of 50% of the value of the vessel) as prescribed in Clause 3.

(5) Time lost due to any act of neglect, fault, omission to act, breach of contract, or breach of any order of the charterer, by the owner pursuant to the provisions of Warshiptime. (§ 302.50)

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 5872, 7967, 8943, 10155; 8 F.R. 537.

§ 302.78 Savings required to be credited to the charterer during periods in which full hire continues, and expenses to be borne by the owner when hire is suspended, or is reduced to one-half (a) During periods in which full hire accrues under circumstances described in § 302.77 (a) hereinabove, the provisions of Warshiptime (§ 302.50) provide that credit shall be given the charterer for savings effected by owners with respect to those expenses set forth in Clause 6, and a corresponding deduction therefor shall be made from charter hire.

(b) (1) Under the provisions of Warshiptime, the cost of fuel and water consumed shall be borne by the owner during all periods in which hire is reduced;

(2) If, during the period that hire is reduced under the provisions of Warshiptime, the vessel shall be required to put into any port or place other than that to which the vessel is bound, the cost of fuel and water consumed, as well as all port charges, pilotages, and other expenses for the charterer's account incurred during such period, shall be borne by the owner.

(3) The last sentence of Clause 12 of Part II of Warshiptime provides that all towage, pilotage, and other expenses incidental to the drydocking, and all port charges incurred and fuel and water consumed (to the extent such fresh water is to be provided or paid for by the charterer) while hire is suspended as provided in this clause, shall be for the owner's account.

§ 302.79 Concurrent "off-hire" situations. When time is lost by the charterer from events or series of events which, under the provisions of the foregoing regulations, would require the simultaneous suspension, reduction or continuation of hire (excluding, however, defensing and repairs thereto as one of the events), the charterer will adjust such instances as follows: (1) Determine the number of days and or hours during which such events were concurrent; (2) add the hire applicable to the two or more events; and (3) divide the sum thereof by the number of such events, the quotient thereof being the hire payable during such period to the owners. However, if the same rate of hire is applicable to two or more of such events, they shall be considered as one event.

Example: A. Assume that the following work is performed concurrently:

(a) Repairs listed in Clause 4 (a), of Warshiptime, caused or contributed to by a warlike act (for which 100% hire is payable), time consumed three days;

(b) Repairs listed in the same Clause 4 (a) of Warshiptime, which are not the result of a warlike act (for which 50% hire is payable), time consumed two days;

(c) Cleaning boilers in excess of two days as provided in Clause 4 (for which 50% hire is payable), time consumed one day;

(d) Cleaning and painting the bottom of the ship as provided in Clause 12 of Warshiptime (for which no hire is payable), time consumed one day; and

(e) Defensing not to be considered as a concurrent event, time consumed four days.

CALCULATION

Days consumed	First day		Second day		Third day		Fourth day
	Percent hire	Events	Percent hire	Events	Percent hire	Events	Percent hire	Events
(a) 3	100	1	100	1	100	1
(b) 2	50	1	50	1
(c) 1
(d) 1	0	1
(e) 4							100
Rate of hire	150	3	150	2	100	1	100
	50		75		100		100

Items (b) and (c) have been treated as one event for the first day inasmuch as they both take the same rate of hire. Item (e) is not taken into the calculation as it is not other work is being performed concurrently.

§ 302.80 Preparation of "off-hire" certificate. (a) For each event within the provisions of § 302.77 hereinabove, the owner shall execute, and the charterer's Agent shall countersign (whether or not the owner and agent are the same), in triplicate a certificate (hereinafter referred to as "off-hire certificate") setting forth the following information:

(1) The cause or causes which produced such occurrence;

(2) The relevant extracts from the engine, deck or port logs, whichever may be pertinent;

(3) The time lost by the vessel (computed in days and hours) as a result of such occurrence;

(4) Statement whether hire should continue be reduced to one-half, or be suspended during the time specified in subparagraph (3) above;

(5) (i) If hire is to continue a statement should be made of the savings effected by the owner.

(ii) If hire is suspended or reduced a statement should be made of the expenses which would otherwise be borne by the charterer but which are because of such suspension or reduction, borne by the owner.

(iii) Such savings effected or such expenses borne by the owner, if any, should be deducted from the hire accruing to the owner under subparagraph (4) above.

(6) Such certificate of off-hire should then be mailed to the Manager, Charters and Agencies Section, Division of Operations, War Shipping Administration, Washington, D. C. not later than 30 days after knowledge by the owner of the occurrence except that for occurrences prior to the effective date of this order, such certificate shall be mailed immediately.

(b) Every owner shall be required to exercise due diligence to effect savings during periods in which the vessel remains on hire as more fully described in § 302.78.

(c) For repeated failure by owners to furnish voluntarily the certificates of off-hire required hereunder, or for failure to exercise due diligence in effecting savings or assuming the expenses which are ordinarily borne by the charterer (in the applicable circumstances described in § 302.77 hereinabove), the proper officers of the charterer are authorized to suspend payments of hire in an amount equaling, in the estimate of the charterer, the time lost by the charterer plus any savings which should have been effected by the owners for the benefit of the charterer, and any expenses which should have been borne by the owner in the applicable cases which are normally for the account of the charterer.

§ 302.81 Applicability of regulations. The regulations published hereunder shall be applicable, to the extent permissible under the particular charter, to all time charters executed with owners by the charterer from July, 1941. In the event that an "off-hire" situation occurs which is not covered by regulations promulgated hereunder, such situation shall be settled on the basis of the law applicable under the provisions of the charter.

§ 302.82 Off-hire certificate. The form of off-hire certificate to be used in connection with the foregoing regulations shall be furnished, in triplicate, in the following form:

NOTE: If the facts recited in subparagraph (1) set forth time lost by the vessel in a repair yard, the written concurrence of the local District Manager of Maintenance and Repairs of the charterer should be obtained as to the statement of time lost in making the various types of repairs, including defensing time.

§ 302.83 Determination of and payment for time lost resulting from defensing, for which the owner has not been previously compensated, prior to the delivery of the vessel to the administration under form of charter tendered pursuant to General Order 8 (Revised) and supplements thereto (§ 302.12 et seq.). Owners shall be compensated for time lost by them resulting from defensing of vessels subsequently delivered to the Government under a time charter tendered pursuant to said General Order 8 (Revised) as set forth below:

The Administration shall reimburse owners for time lost by them in partially or entirely arming or degaussing in instances where delivery of the vessel was effected prior to the effective date of the charter tendered pursuant to General Order 8 (Revised) at the applicable rate of hire set forth in such charter, except that no hire shall be paid for time consumed by such owners in making repairs to the vessel of a nature which would have, but for the defensing, prevented the vessel from working in whole or in part and which were performed during the period of such arming and degaussing.

(a) Owners shall prepare public vouchers in the usual form which shall be supported by a statement, or statements, reflecting:

(1) Date and time vessel was made available upon receipt of the order for defensing, and date and time vessel was again ready for service after completion of defensing;

(2) Total time consumed in (1) above computed in days and hours;

(3) Deduction for full time consumed in making owners' repairs of a nature which would have, but for the defensing, prevented the vessel from working in whole or in part and which were performed during the period of such defensing;

(4) Value of net time lost in defensing, calculated at the applicable charter hire rate, or pro rata part thereof, prescribed in General Order 8 (Revised) or supplements thereto (§§ 302.12 to 302.75 incl.);

(5) Deductions from the value of the net time lost, referred to in subparagraph (4) above, the following, if applicable:

(i) Credit shall be given the charterer for savings effected by owners, during periods in which full hire has accrued, with respect to expenses set forth in § 302.78 (a); and

(ii) During periods in which hire is reduced or suspended, the cost of fuel and water, if for the charterer's account, shall be borne by the owner.

(6) Net amount claimed for time lost resulting from defensing; and

In no event shall the owner receive compensation in an amount in excess of the value of the time representing the loss of the use of the vessel to the owner.

In addition to the above statements there shall be required a statement, in duplicate, from the yard which performed such defensing setting forth the time consumed in such defensing and repairs, such statement to bear the written approval of the Administration's local District Manager of Maintenance and Repairs.

(b) Public vouchers (Form 1034, revised) shall be prepared for each vessel and shall be submitted in quintruplicate to the local district auditor or port auditor, or the General Auditor of Operations, Division of Finance, War Shipping Administration, Washington, D. C. (if there is no district auditor or port auditor in the home port of the owner), and shall be prepared to read substantially as follows:

Compensation for time lost in defensing SS ....., prior to delivery to the Government, for which compensation has not heretofore been received, calculated at the applicable time charter rate prescribed in General Order 8 (Revised), and supplements thereto (§§ 302.12 to 302.75 incl.), and in the manner prescribed in Supplement 8 (Revised) thereto (§ 302.76), subject to adjustment to conform with the provisions of the said general order and the applicable time charter. Payment by the War Shipping Administration of all, or any part of the amounts claimed herein shall not be construed as an approval of the correctness of the amounts stated to be due the owner, nor as a waiver of any of the rights or remedies of the War Shipping Administration under the terms of the applicable time charter agreement or otherwise.

§ 302.84 Disputes. In the event of a dispute between the owner and the War Shipping Administration as to the amount of time consumed in performing defensing, owner's repairs, etc., the decision of the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, shall be final and binding.

RIDGWAY COAL CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION, ETC.

In the matter of John H. Ridgway, doing business under the name and style of Ridgway Coal Company, Code Member.

Order granting application filed pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division for disposition hereof without formal hearing and Cease and Desist Order.

A complaint, dated July 8, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act") having been duly filed on July 11, 1942, with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 4, a district board (the "Complainant"), alleging that John H. Ridgway, doing business under the name and style of Ridgway Coal Company (the "Code Member"), operating the Buckeye Mine (Mine Index No. 1803) and the Ridgway Mine (Mine Index No. 1804), both located in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, District No. 4, willfully violated the provisions of the Act, the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code"), and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, as more fully set forth in the complaint; and

The complaint herein and the Notice of and Order for Hearing, issued July 24, 1942, having been duly served on the code member on July 30, 1942; and the hearing noticed for September 22, 1942, having been postponed to September 28, 1942, by order issued September 10, 1942; and

A hearing having been held, and a record made, at the Post Office Building, Canton, Ohio, on September 28, 1942, and code member and its counsel having failed to appear at such hearing due to a misunderstanding on their part as to the time and date of the postponed hearing; and

The code member having, by reason of said misunderstanding and failure to appear at the hearing, been given special permission by the Director on October 20, 1942, to file within seven (7) days from the date thereof an application under § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure for consideration in the same manner as though the hearing had not been held, and the code member having filed such application on October 27, 1942; and

Notice, dated November 24, 1942, of the filing of said application having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 25, 1942, pursuant to said § 301.132 of the rules, and copies of said notice having been duly mailed to interested parties, including the complainant herein; and

Said notice of filing having provided that interested parties desiring to do so, might, within fifteen (15) days from the date of said notice, file recommendations or requests for informal conferences in respect to said application, and it appearing that no such recommendations or requests have been filed with the Division; and promulgated by the Division on December 11, 1940 and January 14, 1941, respectively, pursuant to the authority granted in section 4 II (a) of the Act; and

It further appearing that the code member, during the period January 1941 to June 1942, both months inclusive, did not maintain and keep on file shipping records nor file with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 4, debit or credit memoranda relative to coal produced at said mines and shipped by rail, as required by Orders Nos. 156 and 313, promulgated on January 18, 1937, and February 24, 1941, respectively, as alleged in the complaint herein for the reason that no coal was sold or shipped by rail during said period; and

It further appearing in said application that the code member consents to the entry of an order canceling and revoking its code membership, or of an order directing it to cease and desist from further violations of the Act, the Code, and regulations thereunder, or to the entry of an order revoking its code membership and also enjoining and restraining the code member from further violations of the Act, the Code, and rules and regulations thereunder upon any restoration of its code membership;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Division by section 4 II (j) of the Act, authorizing it to adjust complaints of violations, and to compose the differences of the parties therein, and upon said application filed pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division and upon evidence in the possession of the Division, it is hereby found that:

Ridgway, doing business under the name and style of Ridgway Coal Company, filed with the Division an acceptance of the Bituminous Coal Code, dated August 12, 1938, and his code membership was made effective as of December 15, 1937, and since said date he has been and is now a code member operating the Buckeye Mine (Mine Index No. 1803) and the Ridgway Mine (Mine Index No. 1804), both located in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, District No. 4;

(3 John H. Ridgway, doing business under the name and style of Ridgway Coal Company, failed and refused to file with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 4, a report of all sales, by truck or wagon, during the period January 1, 1941, to and including June 30, 1942, of coal produced at the Buckeye Mine (Mine Index No. 1803) and the Ridgway Mine (Mine Index No. 1804), as required by Orders Nos. 307 and 309 promulgated by the Director of the Bituminous Coal Division on December 11, 1940, and January 14, 1941, respectively, pursuant to authority granted in section 4 II (a) of the Act; and said code member, during the period January 1, 1941, to and including June 30, 1942, neither sold nor shipped coal for rail movement from the Ridgway Mine (Mine Index No. 1804).

Upon the basis of the application, the above findings, and the authority vested in the Division as herein above set forth,

It is ordered, That the application filed pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure for disposition of this compliance proceeding without formal hearing be and the same hereby is granted;

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant alleging that Homer Michael, a code member, La Jose, Pennsylvania, whose code membership became effective as of July 16, 1938, and who operates the Michael Mine, Mine Index No. 1763, located in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, Subdistrict No. 18 of District No. 1, has wilfully violated the Act, the Code promulgated thereunder, and orders, rules and regulations of the Division as follows:

1. By selling and delivering, by truck, subsequent to September 30, 1940, coal produced at the aforesaid mine, at prices below the effective minimum prices established for said coal, plus the transportation charges, handling charges, or incidental charges from the transportation facilities at the mine to the point at which all such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchasers, including the following transactions:

The sale and delivery during the period from January 31, 1942, to February 23, 1942, both dates inclusive, of approximately 33.6 net tons of run of mine coal, Size Group 3, to various purchasers, at $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. destination, whereas the effective minimum f. o. b. mine price of said coal, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipment (the "Schedule"), was $2.25 per ton plus an amount at least as nearly as practicable to the transportation charges, handling charges, or incidental charges from the transportation facilities at the mine to the points at which all such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchasers, as required by Price Instruction No. 6 as amended and contained in Supplement No. 1 to said Schedule, each of which transactions resulted in a wilful violation of section 4 II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code.

2 By selling subsequent to September 30, 1940, below the effective minimum price established therefor, coal produced at his aforesaid mine including:

Approximately 107 net tons of run of mine coal, Size Group 3, sold during the period January 1, 1942, to March 7, 1942, both dates inclusive, to various purchasers at prices ranging from $1.50 to $2.00 f. o. b. said mine, whereas the effective minimum price for said coal as set forth in said Schedule, was $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, each of which said transactions resulted in a wilful violation of section 4 Part II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code.

3. By failing to file with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 1, not later than 5 days after the first day of the fifteenth day in each month, duplicate copies of each sales slip or invoice covering sales of coal produced at said mine by said code member, for shipment by truck or wagon during the period October 1, 1940, to December 31, 1940, both dates inclusive, each of such failures to so file, constituted a wilful violation of said Order No. 296, dated September 23, 1940, the Act, the Code, and orders, rules and regulations of the Division, pursuant to which said order was promulgated.

4. By failing to file with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 1, for each month commencing with the period January 1, 1941, to the date hereof, a report of all sales of coal sold and shipped from said mine by truck or wagon, within 5 days after the end of the month, copies of truck tickets, sales slips, or invoices for each such sales, giving all the information required by section III (b) of Order No. 307, or a listing of each such sales giving all the information required by section III (b) of Order No. 307 (on B. C. D. No. 468), each of such failures to so file, constituted a wilful violation of said Order No. 308, dated January 14, 1941, the Act, the Code and orders, rules and regulations of the Division, pursuant to which said order was promulgated.

Dated: February 6, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

Notice is also hereby given that any application, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division for the disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing, must be filed not later than fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Code Member of the complaint herein.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant alleging that said Reed Coal Mining Company, a corporation, 1015 U. S National Bank Building, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, whose code membership became effective as of June 21, 1937, operator of the Reed No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 416, located in Subdistrict 24 of District No. 1, Cambria County, Pennsylvania, has wilfully violated the Act, the Code, and orders, rules and regulations of the Division as set forth below.

By allowing or paying directly or indirectly sales agency commissions, pursuant to sales agency contracts entered into after August 8, 1940, appointing the sales agents indicated below, on sales of coal produced at its said mine and sold through said sales agents and delivered to various purchasers after January 1, 1941, in the following transactions:

Sales agents	Date of sales Agency contracts	Period of sales (1941)	Sales by tons	Commissions allowed	Allowable commissions
Eastern Coal & Coke Co.	Oct. 18, 1940	Jan. 2 to Sept. 16	8,917.25	$1,528.19	$1,072.10
Louis Gilletti & Co., Inc.	Apr. 30, 1941	Aug. 8 to Sept. 23	422.30	87.49	50.67
Corbrit Coal Co.	Sept. 30, 1940	Jan. 4 to 17	504.00	3,379.88	2,105.78
A. K. Althouse & Co.	July 26, 1941	Dec. 29 to March 6	45.75	12.59	5.49

said commissions as allowed or paid, directly or indirectly, were in excess of the maximum discounts which said sales agents could have received if they had purchased said coal as distributors under the schedule of due and reasonable maximum discounts for distributors established pursuant to section 4 II (h) of the Act and such commissions so allowed and paid, directly or indirectly, resulted in violations of Rule 13 (A) of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by said code member by reason of the fact that no applications pursuant to said rule were filed with the Division for permission to allow and pay said commissions.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said Code Member and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in this proceeding. Notice is also hereby given that if it shall be determined that the Code Member has wilfully committed any one or more of the violations alleged in the complaint, an order may be entered either revoking the membership of the Code Member in the Code and the Code Member's right to an exemption from the taxes imposed by section 3520 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, or directing the Code Member to cease and desist from violating the Code and regulations made thereunder.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

Notice is also hereby given that any application, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division for the disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing, must be filed not later than fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Code Member of the complaint herein.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant alleging that said Steve Pysz doing business under the name and style of Press Coal Company, a code member, R. F. D., Barnesboro, Pennsylvania, whose code membership became effective as of October 15, 1938, and who operates the Thermal #7 Mine, Mine Index No. 598, located in Cambria County, Pennsylvania, in District No. 1, has wilfully violated the Act, the Code, orders, rules and regulations of the Division as set forth below.

1. By allowing or paying directly or indirectly, sales agency commissions in the aggregate amount of $3,063.96, pursuant to a sales agency contract entered into on or about October 1, 1940, appointing R. G. Strand, trading under the name and style of Thermal Coal Sales Company, Johnstown, Pennsylvania ("Thermal"), formerly a registered distributor, as sales agent for said code member, on sales of approximately 19,549.55 net tons of coal produced at his mine and sold through said sales agent and delivered by rail to various purchasers, during the period January 9, 1941 to March 31, 1942 which commissions as allowed or paid, directly or indirectly, were $1,458.56 in excess of the maximum discounts which said sales agent could have received if it had purchased said coal as a distributor under the schedule of due and reasonable maximum discounts for distributors established pursuant to section 4 II (h) of the Act, and that such commissions so allowed and paid directly or indirectly, resulted in a violation of Rule 13 (A) of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by said code member by reason of the fact that no application pursuant to said rule was filed with the Division for permission to allow and pay said commissions.

2. By allowing or paying directly or indirectly sales agency commissions in the aggregate amount of $8.16, pursuant to the sales agency contract referred to in (1) hereof, on approximately 54.2 net tons of 2" nut and slack coal produced at said mine and sold through Thermal and delivered by rail to Valley Camp Coal Company, Baltimore, Maryland, Registered Distributor, Registration No. 9204, on or about October 4, 1940, which commission as allowed or paid, directly or indirectly was $2.34 in excess of the maximum discount which Thermal could have received if it had purchased said coal as a distributor under the schedule of due and reasonable maximum discounts for distributors established pursuant to section 4 II (h) of the Act, and that such commission so allowed or paid directly or indirectly, resulted in violations of Rule 13 (A) of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by said code member by reason of the fact that no application pursuant to said rule was filed with the Division for permission to allow and pay said commission.

3. By selling, for rail shipment, through Thermal, subsequent to September 30, 1940, to Valley Camp Coal Company, Baltimore, Maryland, Registered Distributor, Registration No. 9204, coal produced at the aforesaid mine, below the effective minimum price established therefor by the Division, including the sale of 54.2 net tons of 2" nut and slack coal on or about October 4, 1940 at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, whereas the size of said coal fell within a size group or classification for which no price was listed for said mine in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for All Shipments Except Truck, and, therefore, pursuant to said Schedule, said coal should have been sold at not less than $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, the applicable minimum price established for the next largest size, to wit, Size Group No. 3, for which a price was listed for said mine, therefore said sale and delivery resulted in a violation of said section 4 Part II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code.

ESTABLISHING A MINIMUM WARTIME WORKWEEK OF FORTY-EIGHT HOURS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes, as President of the United States, and in order to meet the manpower requirements of our armed forces and our expanding war production program by a fuller utilization of our available manpower, it is hereby ordered:

1. For the duration of the war, no plant, factory or other place of employment shall be deemed to be making the most effective utilization of its manpower if the minimum workweek therein is less than 48 hours per week.

The question has arisen whether under this section of the order the machinery applied for must be physically in the hands of the dealer or mail order house before the applicant may make the certification. Section 1202.218 (b) does not require physical location. It is sufficient if the dealer states to the applicant that such dealer will be able to obtain such a machine for delivery to the applicant within a reasonable time. The machinery may be actually located in the manufacturer's hands, the distributor's hands or in a branch house or other distribution point through which the dealer normally obtains the equipment called for. If the dealer can make such a statement to the applicant, the applicant will be able to certify in writing that he has located such equipment in the hands of a dealer. As far as mail order houses are concerned, the requirement is satisfied if the equipment sought by the applicant is listed in the then current mail order catalog. If the equipment is found in the catalog, the applicant is entitled to make the certification required by § 1202.218 (b).

If a dealer or mail order house receives a purchase certificate for such an item of farm machinery and equipment and is unable within a reasonable time to make delivery of such item, such dealer or mail order house shall, after the passage of such reasonable time, return the purchase certificate to the issuing county farm rationing committee.

Issued this 10th day of February 1943.

Director of Food Production.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of spices to meet war and civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1455.1 Conservation and distribution of restricted spices—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(2) The term "restricted spice" means any specific spice which, during any quota period, is subject to a quota determined for that period by the Director, and shall include such spice in ground, unground, distilled, mixed, or other form.

(3) The term "bulk dealer" means any person who deals in restricted spices exclusively in original import packages.

(4) The term "packer" means any person who grinds, distils, or packs restricted spices owned by him, or has such spices ground, distilled, or packed for his account by some other person, for resale.

(5) The term "receiver" means any person who accepts delivery of restricted spices for resale at wholesale or retail or for use in operating a public or private commercial or institutional eating place, but such term shall include neither any bulk dealer nor any person in the quota-exempt classes listed under paragraph (b) (2).

(7) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(8) The term "common weight equivalent" means the number of pounds of distilled or extracted restricted spice that may be obtained from a given number of pounds of the same spice in dry form (ground or unground) where a quota for any person is computed under this order as a certain number of pounds of a restricted spice in dry form (ground or unground), or the number of pounds of a restricted spice in dry form (ground or unground) that it takes to yield a given number of pounds of the same spice in distilled or extracted form where a quota for any person is computed under and the nature of the relief sought. The

(b) Quota restrictions. (1) Except as permitted in paragraphs (b) (2), (b) (3), and (b) (4) below, no packer shall deliver, no receiver shall accept, and no industrial user shall use more of any restricted spice during any quota period than his quota thereof for that period, such quota period and quota to be determined by the Director from time to time.

(2) Any person may, without charge to his quota, deliver or accept for delivery any restricted spice to any of the following persons, or may use any restricted spice in the manufacture or processing of any product to be so delivered, or for replacing in his inventory any restricted spice so delivered or used:

(i) The Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, War Shipping Administration, or any other governmental agency designated by the Director, or any agency of the United States Government for supplies to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Government of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(iv) Any person for retail sale through concession restaurants at Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard camps or through outlets not operated for private profit and established primarily for the use of Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard personnel within or on Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard establishments or vessels, including post exchanges, sales commissaries, officers' messes, servicemen's clubs, and ship service stores.

(3) During the first third of any quota period, any person may utilize any unused portion of such person's quota for the preceding quota period. During the last third of any quota period, any person may utilize any portion of such person's anticipated quota for the subsequent quota period: Provided, however, That if the quota for such subsequent quota period is reduced by the Director after such anticipatory utilization has been made, the amount of any excess anticipation shall be charged against the quota for the next subsequent quota period.

(4) The restrictions of paragraph (b) (1) shall not apply to any deliveries of restricted spices in the original import packages by a packer to another packer or to a bulk dealer. In determining a packer's volume of receipts or deliveries of restricted spices during any base period specified for computing a quota, no packer shall include any receipts or deliveries made in the original import packages to other packers or to bulk dealers.

(5) The base period for any person who was not in business during any base period specified by the Director for computing a quota hereunder shall be the earliest period of equal length that such person was in business after the beginning of the base period specified.

(6) All quotas hereunder shall be computed in terms of pounds and in terms of a common weight equivalent.

(c) Distribution restrictions. (1) No person shall accept restricted spices from any packer or receiver, and no person shall deliver restricted spices to any other person, with knowledge or reason to believe that such packer or receiver is not entitled to deliver or that such other person is not entitled to accept such restricted spices pursuant to this order.

(2) Every packer and every receiver shall sell restricted spices equitably to purchasers and shall not favor purchasers who buy other products from them or discriminate against purchasers who do not buy other products from them.

(d) Inventory restrictions. Except for the purpose of filling orders under paragraph (b) (2) above:

(1) No receiver shall accept delivery of any restricted spice which will increase such receiver's inventory thereof to an amount in excess of the amount of his then current quota of such spice.

(2) No industrial user shall accept delivery of any restricted spice which will increase his inventory thereof to an amount in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory in view of the restrictions herein relating to his use of such spice.

(3) No receiver who had an excess inventory of any restricted spice on May 8, 1942, may sell or deliver more than a 90-day supply of such spice during any quota period in which the balance of such inventory at any time exceeds a 90-day supply. During any quota period, a 90-day supply shall be an amount equivalent to the receiver's acceptance quota of the restricted spice for that quota period. An excess inventory shall be considered to have existed on May 8, 1942, if, on that date, the receiver was subject to a quota and his inventory of any restricted spice (excluding any inventory then in retail stores or outlets owned by him) was more than twice the amount of his acceptance quota for the month of May 1942.

(e) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(f) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of spices and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(g) Applicability of order. (1) Any person doing business in one or more of the 48 States or the District of Columbia is subject to the provisions hereof, but the provisions hereof shall not apply to any person doing business in any Territory or Possession of the United States with respect to such business.

(2) In the case of any person who combines two or more of the businesses of a packer, a receiver, or an industrial user, the provisions hereof applicable to each such business shall apply separately to such of his operations as are part of such class of business. However, any packer who distributes his entire production of restricted spices through a wholesale subsidiary company may elect to consider the two companies as one and apply his quota to deliveries made by the subsidiary company.

(3) Any person who operates more than one unit (branch, division, store, subsidiary company, or other similar unit) in the same class of business may, at his election, consider any such units or groups of units as separate persons for purposes of applying the quota and inventory restrictions of this order.

(h) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or willfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(i) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(j) Communications to Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref.: FD-19.

(k) Conservation Order M-127 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects Conservation Order M-127 of the War Production Board, as amended September 25, 1942, (7 F.R. 7590), except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof, said Conservation Order M-127, as amended, shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit,

Methods of disposition of private war housing including rent levels, sales prices, and petitions to National Housing Agency.

The National Housing Agency occupancy and disposition policies applicable to all private war housing are stated in NHA General Order No. 60–2 (§§ 702.1 to 702.4). The purpose of this order is to promulgate regulations implementing such policies.

§ 702.10 Definitions. (a) As used in this order, the following terms are defined as follows:

(1) "Private war housing", "begun", "completion", and "held for rental" shall have the meaning ascribed to them in NHA General Order No. 62–2;

(2) "Sale price" means the total consideration paid by the purchaser, excluding those incidental charges which a purchaser of real estate customarily assumes in the community where the real estate is located;

(3) "Shelter rent" means the total rent less reasonable allowances for tenant services;

(4) "Tenant services" means those services and utilities which are customarily provided and paid for by a lessor of an unfurnished dwelling unit in the community where the real estate is located; household furniture for a furnished dwelling unit is not included in "tenant services".

(5) "Room" means only a living room, dining room, sleeping room, or kitchen, except that a kitchenette or dinette is considered as one-half room each.

§ 702.11 Disposition of private war housing. (a) For the duration of the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939, all private war housing begun on or after February 10, 1943, shall be held for rental to eligible war workers as provided in NHA General Order No. 60–2, at the rentals specified in the application for priority assistance or authority to begin construction submitted in connection with such dwelling units, which rentals (unless otherwise authorized in § 702.12) shall in no event exceed $50 per month shelter rent per unfurnished dwelling unit plus a reasonable charge for tenant services (in no event, exceeding $3 per month per room); and, except for involuntary transfers, shall be disposed of only as follows:

(1) A dwelling unit in a private war housing project may be purchased by an occupant (initial occupant or reoccupant), after four months of continuous occupancy by such occupant if

(i) The sale price (except as provided in § 702.12) is not in excess of the fair market price thereof, or $6,000, whichever is lower,

(ii) The purchaser is an eligible war worker under the provisions of NHA General Order No. 60–1, and

(iii) The owner submits to the National Housing Agency Regional Representative, through the local office of the Federal Housing Administration, an agreement in the prescribed form (Form NHA 60–1), properly executed by the purchaser, stating that such purchaser will continue to occupy the dwelling unit or will hold the dwelling unit subject to all occupancy and disposition provisions set forth in NHA General Order No. 60–2.

A sale may be made under paragraph (a) (1) without obtaining further approval from the National Housing Agency: Provided, The above-mentioned Form NHA 60–1 is submitted to the National Housing Agency Regional Representative, through the local office of the Federal Housing Administration, immediately following such sale.

(2) Any such housing may be transferred to a person who will not occupy any part of such housing or his (or her) own dwelling, if

(i) The sale price (except as provided in § 702.12) of each dwelling unit in such housing is not in excess of the fair market price thereof, or $6,000, whichever is lower, and

(ii) The transferor submits to the National Housing Agency Regional Representative, through the local office of the Federal Housing Administration, an agreement in the prescribed form (Form NHA 60–1), properly executed by the transferee, stating that such transferee will hold the premises subject to all occupancy and disposition provisions set forth in NHA General Order No. 60–2.

A transfer may be made under this paragraph (a) (2) without obtaining further approval from the National Housing Agency: Provided, The above-mentioned Form NHA 60–1 is submitted to the National Housing Agency Regional Representative, through the local office of the Federal Housing Administration, immediately following such transfer.

(iii) At any time subsequent to 60 days after completion of any private war housing, the original owner, or any subsequent owner, of such housing may petition the National Housing Agency to permit such housing to be disposed of otherwise than as provided in § 702.11 (a). Any such petition shall be submitted to a National Housing Agency Regional Representative, through the local office of the Federal Housing Administration, on a properly executed Form NHA 60–2. Each National Housing Agency Regional Representative is hereby authorized to grant such relief to persons who petition under this paragraph as the National Housing Agency Regional Representative deems appropriate, in the particular case, by relaxing the occupancy and disposition provisions applicable to such housing. Any relaxation of such occupancy and disposition provisions may permit a shortening of any holding period applicable to such housing or a liberalization of the definition of eligible war worker applicable to such housing, or both; may permit a change in rent level or sale price in accordance with § 702.12, in exceptional cases, where the National Housing Agency Regional Representative determines that there is no further need for reserving such housing for eligible war workers, the occupancy and disposition provisions may be removed entirely from such housing.

(b) All private war housing begun prior to February 10, 1943, the ownership of which has been transferred since such housing was begun, may be rented, sold or otherwise disposed of at the option of the owner without exception.

(c) All private war housing begun prior to February 10, 1943, which has not been transferred since such housing was begun, may be rented, sold, or otherwise disposed of at the option of the owner except that for the duration of the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939 (4 F.R. 3851):

(1) Rentals or sales prices (except for involuntary transfer and except to the extent approved prior to February 10, 1943, by the War Production Board, or subsequent to February 10, 1943, by the National Housing Agency) shall not exceed the respective maximum amounts permitted by the conditions of the application (or other instruments related thereto) for priority assistance, authority to begin construction, or exemption from the Consumer Credit Regulations (7 F.R. 3351) submitted in connection with such housing; and the requirements of such application (or other instruments related thereto) with respect to occupancy preference to war workers shall be complied with; or

(2) All such housing constructed with priority assistance, or with authority to begin construction, obtained from the War Production Board by filing an application for such assistance or authority on Form PD–105 (Revised 4–23–42), or Form PD–200 accompanied by a form Applicants' Supplemental Certification if such application was for authority to begin construction of housing not to be occupied by the owner, may be disposed of, except for involuntary transfers, only as provided in such application or as follows:

(i) If such application did not provide for sale, such housing may be sold subject to the provisions set forth in § 702.11 (a) or

(ii) If such application did not provide for rent or lease-option, such housing may be rented, with or without an option to purchase, after the National Housing Agency Regional Representative for the area in which such housing is located has approved the initial rent or the lease-option payments for such housing. Any petition requesting such an approval of the initial rent or the lease-option payments for such housing shall be submitted to a National Housing Agency Regional Representative, through the local office of the Federal Housing Administration, on a properly executed Form NHA 60–3. Each National Housing Agency Regional Representative is hereby authorized to approve in the particular case the amount of such initial rent or lease-option payments.

§ 702.12 Adjustment of rent or sale price. (a) The initial rent charge prior to any occupancy or the sale price for any housing accommodations in a private war housing project may be increased over the amount provided therefor in § 702.11 only when approved by the National Housing Agency. The owner of any such housing may petition the National Housing Agency to permit an increase in rent charge or sale price at any time. Any such petition shall be submitted to the National Housing Agency Regional Representative, through the local office of the Federal Housing Administration, on a properly executed Form NHA 60–4. Each National Housing Agency Regional Representative is hereby authorized to grant such relief as he deems appropriate in the particular case, provided the petition for relief shows clearly that the owner has incurred, or will incur, costs in the construction of such housing, over which the owner had or has no control, in excess of the costs estimated originally in connection with such housing.

(b) Any request for permission to increase the rent charge for any private war housing after such housing has been occupied initially must be submitted to the local office of the Office of Price Administration.

PART 704—EXCEPTIONS OF CREDITS FOR DEFENSE HOUSING FROM CONSUMER CREDIT REGULATIONS

ORDER DELEGATING AUTHORITY TO CREDITORS AND LENDERS

Order delegating authority to creditors and lenders to except remodeling and rehabilitation credits from Consumer Credit Regulations.

Section 222.8 (e) of the Consumer Credit Regulations (Revised May 6, 1942) (7 F.R. 3351) issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, vests authority in the Administrator of the National Housing Agency, or his authorized agent, to exempt "any extension of credit to remodel or rehabilitate any structure" from the provisions of Regulation W by designating projects as "defense housing". The Administrator's authority to make such designation was delegated to qualified "registrants" in National Housing Administrator's Order No. 8, dated June 19, 1942, subject to various conditions set forth in such order. The purpose of this general order is to supersede National Housing Administrator's Order No. 8 with respect to all applications submitted to registrants on and after February 10, 1943.

Sec.
704.1 Delegation of authority.
704.2 Projects which may be designated "defense housing".
704.3 Responsibilities of contractor.
704.4 Responsibilities of initial creditors.
704.5 Responsibilities of succeeding creditors.
704.6 Forms.

AUTHORITY: §§ 704.1 to 704.6, inclusive, issued under E.O. 9070, 7 F.R. 1529, 12 CFR 222.8 (e).

§ 704.1 Delegation of authority. (a) Any application filed on or after February 10, 1943, with a registrant for the purpose of designating any project as "defense housing" shall be governed by the provisions set forth in this general order.

(b) Pursuant to the authority vested in the Administrator of the National Housing Agency by § 222.8 (e) of the Consumer Credit Regulations issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Administrator hereby delegates to any creditor or lender who is qualified as a "registrant" in accordance with the provisions of the Consumer Credit Regulations, authority to designate any project for the remodeling or rehabilitation of an existing structure as "defense housing" when, after obtaining a bona fide signed statement on Form NHA 60–5,[1] the registrant finds in good faith that the proposed project satisfies the criteria set forth in § 704.2.

§ 704.2 Projects which may be designated "defense housing". (a) Registrants may designate as "defense housing" any housing projects which have been allotted materials under the Controlled Materials Plan, or have been granted priority assistance or authority to begin construction by the War Production Board, for which allotment, assistance, or authority an application was made on WPB Form PD–105 or Form PD–200.

(b) Registrants may designate as "defense housing" any housing projects which help maintain the local housing supply by enabling the occupants to continue living in housing accommodations now occupied by them, but only where:

(1) The existing structure involved will become uninhabitable (meaning a definite hazard to the health or safety of the occupants, not merely an inconvenience) if the work covered by the application is not performed within ninety (90) days from the date of application,

(2) The project is located within a private war housing priority locality (lists of such localities are obtainable from local offices of the Federal Housing Administration), and

(3) The project involves an essential restoration of living accommodations, without change of design or the creation of additional living space.

NOTE: Extensions of credit to finance projects intended to conserve fuel shall not be exempted from Regulation W under the authority delegates in this general order. Such projects may be exempted under the provisions of § 222.8 (m) of the Consumer Credit Regulations (7 F.R. 5807), which exempts extensions of credit to finance (1) converting heating equipment to the use of any other fuel, (2) installing certain types of insulation within structures, (3) installing storm sash and weather stripping, and (4) the purchase of materials for such purposes.

(c) Registrants may designate as "defense housing" any housing projects which will help maintain the local housing supply through the reconstruction or restoration of housing accommodations damaged or destroyed after December 31, 1941, by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, act of God or the public enemy, but only where such housing accommodations are located in a private war housing priority locality.

§ 704.3 Responsibilities of contractor. In any case where the contractor is not the initial creditor, the contractor shall certify on the application form that to the best of his information and belief the statements made by the owner concerning the essential nature of the project are correct.

§ 704.4 Responsibilities of initial creditors. (a) The initial creditor (the registrant who extends credit directly to the owner) is responsible for determining that each proposed project falls fairly within the criteria set forth in § 704.2.

(b) The initial creditor is entitled to rely upon the statements made by the owner on the application form unless he knows that such statements are untrue, or unless he has knowledge of facts which would raise a doubt in the mind of a reasonably prudent man as to the truth of the statements.

(c) If the application form contains any incomplete or questionable statements, the initial creditor has the responsibility of satisfying himself or itself as to their meaning and accuracy before exempting the extension of credit from the Consumer Credit Regulations, either by obtaining a supplemental explanation in writing signed by the owner, or by investigating the property, or both.

(d) With respect to applications covering repairs claimed to be essential to continued habitation (under § 704.2 (b)) initial creditors have the responsibility of segregating essential from non-essential repairs where the application includes both, and of exempting from the Consumer Credit Regulations only that portion of the extension of credit necessary to cover the essential repairs. Applications which include either exterior siding or roofing must be carefully scrutinized and approved only after the initial creditor has satisfied himself that the housing accommodations would become uninhabitable if such siding or roofing were not applied within ninety (90) days. Initial creditors must segregate and disapprove all items on each application which cover such non-essential work as interior or exterior decoration, unless such decoration is commonly regarded as an integral part of, and incidental to, an essential item on the same application.

(e) The initial creditor shall retain a copy of each application covering a project which he designates as "defense housing" in accordance with this order and shall transmit: One legible duplicate copy of each such application to the Regional Office of the National Housing Agency for the area in which the property covered by the application is located (jurisdiction and address of such offices can be obtained from the nearest office of the Federal Housing Administration); one such copy to the owner of the property covered by the application; and, if the paper or debt is transferred to a secondary creditor, one such copy to the secondary creditor together with any supplemental explanatory statements submitted by the owner and a written description of any investigations which the initial creditor made with respect to the property covered by the application.

§ 704.5 Responsibilities of succeeding creditors. (a) The secondary creditor, (any transferee who purchases or receives the paper or debt) and each succeeding creditor, is entitled to rely upon the statements appearing on the application form and any signed supplemental statements by the owner or initial creditor. No succeeding creditor shall purchase or receive the paper or debt when he knows that such statements are untrue, or when the statements show on their face that the application should not have been approved by a previous creditor.

(b) The secondary creditor and each succeeding creditor shall release the application form and any supplemental explanatory statements pertaining thereto to transferees who purchase or receive the paper or debt from him.

§ 704.6 Forms. All properly executed applications on Form NHA–38 received by registrants prior to February 10, 1943 may be processed in accordance with National Housing Administrator's Order No. 8. On and after February 10, 1943 no applications shall be accepted by registrants except on Form NHA 60–5.

AUTHORITY: §§ 703.1 to 703.3, inclusive issued under E.O. 9070, 7 F.R. 1529.

Provided, That after any housing accommodation, described in the foregoing § 703.2, (a), (b), (c), has been held available for occupancy by such eligible war workers for 60 days after completion or for 60 days after any vacancy occurs, the NHA constituent agency having control of any such dwelling accommodation may (if the NHA Regional Representative has been informed fifteen days in advance to indicate a further holding period if he deems it desirable) permit such housing accommodation to be occupied by (1) other civilian war workers (as defined in NHA General Order No. 60–1) or to enlisted men in the naval or military services of the United States or to officers of the Army or Marine Corps not above the rank of captain, and officers of the Navy and Coast Guard, not above the grade of lieutenant, senior grade, assigned to duty at naval or military reservations, posts or bases, or to duty at defense industries; or (in the event there is no present or anticipated demand for occupancy by such other civilian or military war workers) to (2) others eligible for occupancy as prescribed by the NHA constituent agency having control of such dwelling accommodation.

§ 703.3 Limited reservation. (a) Reasonable preference for occupancy by war workers (as required by the conditions under which priority assistance was granted[7]) shall be observed with respect to all FPHA-aided public war housing projects for which applications for priority assistance were submitted to WPB prior to February 10, 1943.[8] The local housing authorities that own and manage these projects shall be requested to conform, to the extent practicable, their management programs by reserving initial occupancy or reoccupancy in these projects to such eligible war workers (as defined in NHA General Order No. 60–1) as are eligible under applicable state or Federal laws in the same manner as is required with respect to the projects described in § 703.2 (b).

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-235]

HOME IMPROVEMENT CORP.

Home Improvement Corporation of Norfolk, Virginia, is engaged in the general contracting business. Subsequent to September 7, 1942, without the authorization of the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board, Home Improvement Corporation began construction (as defined in Conservation Order L-41) of twenty garage buildings situated in and about the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth, Virginia, the estimated cost of each of said garages being in excess of $200. Such construction was begun in disregard of the provisions of Conservation Order L-41, as amended September 2, 1942, with which the Home Improvement Corporation was, or should have been, familiar, and therefore constituted a wilful violation of that order.

This violation of Conservation Order L-41 has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts; It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.235 Suspension Order S-235. (a) Home Improvement Corporation, its successors and assigns, are hereby prohibited from ordering, purchasing, accepting delivery of, withdrawing from inventory, or in any other manner securing or using material or construction plant in order to begin or continue the erection, construction, remodeling or rehabilitation of any building, structure, or project or additions thereto or extensions or alterations thereof, including but not limited to maintenance and repair, except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Philadelphia Regional Office, War Production Board.

(b) Deliveries of material to Home Improvement Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) No allocation shall be made to Home Improvement Corporation, its successors and assigns, of any material, the supply or distribution of which is covered by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Home Improvement Corporation from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect February 12, 1943, and shall expire May 12, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall have no further effect.

Issued this 9th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations

(1) To require records and reports and to make audits of the accounts and inspections of the facilities of any person wherever located, involved directly or indirectly in the sale, transfer, delivery or other disposition of firewood to or from any point in any of the rationed areas; and

(2) To require any person wherever located, who is involved, directly or indirectly, at any stage in the distribution of firewood which is ultimately sold, transferred, delivered or otherwise disposed of in any of the rationed areas (whether by such person or by other persons), or which is ultimately used in any of the rationed areas, to comply with any rule, regulation or procedure promulgated or established pursuant to the authority delegated in paragraph (a) of this supplementary directive.

(d) As used in this supplementary directive, the term "rationed area" means the States of Washington, Oregon and Idaho or such communities or areas within such States as may from time to time be designated by the Office of Price Administration.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 13]

PROCESSED FOODS

Why Processed Foods Must Be Rationed

Our soldiers and sailors in combat areas must be fed—they must be well fed. The armed forces of our allies must be fed. War is fought, and won, as much by food as by munitions. Food is a weapon which we must forge and send wherever needed—to the millions of our fighting men—to our allies and their fighting men—to their fighters on the home front, in factories, in shipyards, in munitions plants.

Processed foods—canned and frozen fruits and vegetables, and dried fruits—have been aptly called "fighting foods." Because they are compact, easily shipped and easily prepared—because they can be kept for long periods without spoiling—they fill a vital need of our armed forces and those of our allies.

Thus, the war has brought a tremendous increase in the demand for processed foods. A large part of our supply of these fighting foods must be shipped to our armed forces and to our allies.

At the same time, the war has limited our ability to increase production indefinitely. Shortages of tin, rubber and steel—of manpower and of plant facilities—place definite limits on the possibilities of expansion.

The result is that our supplies are not sufficient to meet normal civilian demands. The supplies of processed foods which are available must therefore be rationed so that everyone can get his fair share.

The use of canned baby foods has increased tremendously during the past few years. Here too, however, the war limits our ability to expand production indefinitely. Baby foods are therefore included in the program in order to help avoid depriving any mother of the convenience of using these foods because of uneven distribution of supplies. Babies have war ration books, and their books can be used for those foods.

The Point Rationing System

Processed foods are rationed by what is called a "point" system. A particular "price", in points, is fixed for each item of processed foods. That "price" is called its "point value". Every consumer is then given a certain number of "points" which he can "spend" for processed foods, just as he has a certain amount of money which he can spend. He can get less of a higher priced item, or more of a lower priced item.

The reason for adopting this system is that there are a great number of different items of processed foods. If the supply of each item were divided evenly, there would not be enough to go around. Thus, if everyone were given stamps for canned asparagus, the amount which each consumer could get would be too small to be useful.

However, many of those items can be substituted for each other. To a considerable extent, the use of one item, rather than another, depends upon personal preference. For example, one person may prefer canned peaches, while another prefers canned pears.

The point system provides a method for letting everyone choose the kinds he prefers. It gives the same type of flexibility that a person has when he spends his money. He can get canned peas or, if he prefers, canned asparagus. He can get a small can of peas and a small can of asparagus, instead of a large can of peas.

Furthermore, the point system provides a method for adjusting demand to the available supply. For example, if canned tomatoes are relatively plentiful, a low point value could be fixed. More people would then buy canned tomatoes, just as when the money price is low. If canned tomatoes become scarce, their point value is increased. Fewer consumers will then buy them, since consumers who do not want canned tomatoes badly will not wish to spend too many of their points on canned tomatoes, when they could get other processed foods at a lower point price.

The point rationing system has been in use in England for a long time. It works simply and easily—and it is the most satisfactory method yet devised for fair and flexible distribution of a group of commodities which should be rationed together.

How Consumers Get Processed Foods

Consumers are given "points" for processed foods in the form of the blue stamps in War Ration Book Two. Each stamp has a number which shows the number of points for which it is good.

Consumers register for and get War Ration Book Two during the week before processed foods rationing actually begins. When they apply for the book, they declare their stocks of processed foods and give up stamps for any excessive amounts they have.

During the week of registration for War Ration Book Two, consumers are not permitted to buy processed foods. The reason for this is to give retailers a chance to stock up and to prepare to meet demands under rationing. At the same time, it helps make sure that all consumers start evenly. If purchases were permitted, a hoarder could get his War Ration Book Two, and then go out and buy processed foods during the rest of the week without giving up points. This would give him an unfair advantage which would be inconsistent with the purposes of rationing.

When rationing begins, a consumer gives up stamps when he buys processed foods in much the same way as he gives up sugar stamps when he gets sugar. If he buys an item with a point value of 11 points, he gives up stamps worth 11 points. Retailers are required to post point values plainly, so that consumers will know just how many points each item costs.

Just as in the case of sugar, only certain stamps are good at a particular time. In this way, supplies are spread out evenly among consumers, over the year. At the outset of the program, 48 points worth of stamps will be good each month.

While no consumer starts with more points than the number in his War Ration Book Two, the order makes provision for cases of special need. A consumer who needs processed foods because of special dietary requirements due to illness can go to his local Board and get a certificate for more points, so that he can get the additional foods he needs. A consumer who lives in remote areas and who buys supplies for a long period at one time can exchange his stamps for a certificate, so that he can make his purchases all at once.

The order permits housewives to lend processed foods to each other. It also permits any person who has more processed foods of a particular kind than he needs, to exchange them for other types of processed foods of equal point value.

All of these provisions for special cases give the system necessary flexibility and permit it to operate in a way which will cause as little hardship as possible.

How Other Users Get Processed Foods

Many consumers eat in restaurants or other eating establishments. The problem of rationing the food supply of those establishments (called "institutional users") is not confined to processed foods. Institutional users need other rationed foods. Therefore, the method by which institutional users get rationed foods—sugar and coffee, as well as processed foods—is covered by a general order, called General Ration Order 5.

There is another purpose for which processed foods are used. Processed foods are used in making other items which are not rationed under this order. That use is called an "industrial use." For example, bakeries may use canned or dried fruits in making pies. Pies are not rationed. Therefore, a bakery which uses canned peaches to make peach pie is an "industrial user."

It is obvious that if consumers are cut, these uses should also be cut. Therefore, the allotments given to industrial users are calculated in such a way that they will take a cut which is fair as compared with the cut borne by the average home consumer.

How the Trade Operates Under the Order

In order to make sure that all processed foods are accounted for, points must be given up for all sales of processed foods. When a retailer buys from a wholesaler, he gives up to the wholesaler points he got from consumers or from other people to whom he made sales. Similarly, when a wholesaler buys from a producer or importer (called a "processor"), the wholesaler gives up points. Processors then turn over their points to the Office of Price Administration—and the points they turn over must match the point value of processed foods they transferred.

It is also important to make sure that supplies of processed foods are evenly distributed and that every person who deals in processed foods has his proper share to sell. This is done by making provision for retailer and wholesaler inventories. No one, however, can get a supply of processed foods for sale unless he is engaged or is about to engage in the business of dealing in them. He must show that he is part of the channel of distribution. Therefore, retailers, wholesalers and processors are required to register under this order and to give information showing the volume of their business.

Retailers register and report only once—at the end of the first month of rationing. They report their sales during that month. Their volume shows how large a supply they need under rationing. A retailer is therefore given an "allowable inventory" which is based on his sales during the first month of rationing. However, to make sure that he has a large enough stock to work with flexibly, his sales are multiplied by a "factor" fixed by the Office of Price Administration, to get his allowable inventory.

Wholesalers also get allowable inventories, based on their sales under rationing. However, in some respects they are treated differently from retailers.

Wholesalers occupy a strategic position in the distribution of processed foods. Many of them have large warehouse space. During the packing seasons, supplies must flow to them freely, since the limited storage space of most processors would otherwise overflow. During those seasons, the problems of storage and warehousing make it important to let wholesalers get large quantities, even if they do not need them all for immediate sale. In other seasons, when supplies are scarce, the amount going to each wholesaler should be reduced, since no storage problem exists and even distribution is important.

Wholesalers are therefore required to report their sales each month. The Office of Price Administration fixes a factor, for each month, to reflect available supplies and proper distribution of them. Each wholesaler then gets a maximum allowable inventory for each month, equal to his sales during the last month, multiplied by that factor.

Any retailer or wholesaler who does not have large enough stocks when rationing begins, can come in during the first month for an emergency adjustment. He will be given a certificate for enough points to get adequate working stocks.

Processors have no allowable inventory problems, since they sell stocks which they themselves produce or import. However, all processed foods must be accounted for. Furthermore, rationing can be effective only if the available supply is known. Processors are therefore required to make monthly reports of their sales, inventories and production or imports. In this way, the necessary information is obtained. Processors are, of course, required to register at the start of rationing, so that supplies at that time, and the sources of future supplies, can be known.

Adjustments at Trade Levels

The order makes provision for various adjustments at trade levels, to get maximum flexibility. For example, retailers and wholesalers may apply for adjustments of their allowable inventories, to cover changed conditions or unusual situations. They can also apply for "loans" of points, if their own points are tied up in shipments which have not arrived. Provision is made for new business—for persons who wish to engage in processing, wholesaling or retailing processed foods.

Provisions of this type, coupled with the provisions made for special cases at the consumer level, should permit the order to operate on the smoothest and most flexible basis consistent with effective rationing.

Article I—Introduction[1]

SECTION 1.1 This order covers processed foods. (a) The following foods, called "processed foods", are covered by this order:

(1) All fruits, fruit juices, vegetables, vegetable juices, soups and baby foods, packed in hermetically sealed containers of any type and sterilized by the use of heat;

(2) All frozen fruits and vegetables;

(3) All dried and dehydrated fruits.

The only foods in the above group which are not covered by this order are: candied fruits; cereals; chili con carne; frozen fruits and vegetables in containers over ten (10) pounds; fruit and vegetable juices in containers over one (1) gallon; fruit cakes; fruit puddings; jams; jellies; meat stews containing some vegetables; milk; olives; paste products, such as spaghetti, macaroni, or noodles, whether or not they are packed with added vegetable sauces; pickles; potato salad; preserves; relishes; and by-products of fruits or vegetables, such as soya bean oil, soya bean milk, fruit and vegetable dyes, and similar products. The foods not covered by this order are not processed foods as that term is used.

(b) Puncturing or opening the container in which processed foods are packed, or merely removing them from the container, does not cause them to cease to be processed foods.

(c) When any processed food is prepared for service and served, it is no longer considered a processed food. Thus, a "person" who is served canned peaches in a restaurant, as part of a meal, is not getting processed food. Furthermore, when a processed food has been used in making a product which is not rationed under this order, it ceases to be a processed food. For example, canned peaches may be used in baking peach pie—that pie, and the peaches in it, are not processed foods.

SEC. 1.2 Processed foods are rationed by the point system. (a) All types of processed foods are rationed together, as a group, through the use of the point system of rationing. Each item of processed foods is given a particular point value for each size in which it is sold. The point value of a processed food is the number of points that must be given up by any person who wants to get it, just as the money price of an article is the amount of money it costs. The point values will be fixed by the Office of Price Administration in a supplement to this order, containing the official table of point values. These point values may be changed from time to time, as conditions require.

SEC. 1.3 Points come in the form of stamps, certificates and ration checks. (a) There are several forms of tokens or ration currency which represent points.

(b) The basic tokens are the blue "stamps" in War Ration Book Two, which are designated by the Office of Price Administration to be used for the acquisition of processed foods. They are the form in which points are generally given up by consumers.

(c) Other forms of ration currency authorized by the Office of Price Administration are "certificates" (OPA Form R–1201) and ration checks drawn on ration bank account. A certificate is issued by the Office of Price Administration (or a person authorized by that office to issue it) and is worth the number of points stated on it. Ration checks are very much like ordinary checks. They are drawn on a bank account in which a person has deposited his points, just as an ordinary check is drawn on a bank account in which he has deposited his money. (The cases in which ration checks are used are covered in Articles VIII and IX.)

Article II—Consumers

SECTION 2.1 When a person is a consumer. (a) Any "person" who buys or "acquires" "processed foods" for his personal use or for use at a table at which he eats, is a "consumer". (When a person gets processed foods in order to resell them or in order to use them in making other products for sale, he is not a consumer, since those are not personal uses. He is a consumer only so far as he does get processed foods for personal uses.)

SEC. 2.2 Consumer may not purchase processed foods from February 21, 1943 to February 28, 1943. (a) From February 21, to February 28, 1943, inclusive, no consumer may buy or acquire processed foods from any other person. (However, a consumer may borrow processed foods from, and return borrowed processed foods to, another consumer and may acquire processed foods from another consumer for consumption at a common table.)

SEC. 2.3 Consumers may purchase after February 28, 1943 only for points. (a) Beginning March 1, 1943, a consumer may buy or acquire processed foods only by giving up points equal to the point value of the processed foods acquired. However, a consumer may exchange processed foods with any other person for other processed foods of equal point value, without giving up points.

(b) Consumers may lend processed foods to, or borrow them from, other consumers, and they may return borrowed processed foods. They may also acquire processed foods from other consumers for consumption at a common table. No points are to be given up for such transactions. (A transaction is not a loan of processed foods if any charge is made.)

SEC. 2.4 How points are given up by consumer—(a) A consumer uses stamps. A consumer gives up points, when he acquires processed foods, by surrendering blue "stamps" taken from his War Ration Book Two. A stamp is not good unless the book from which it is taken has a validation stamp properly placed on its cover.

(b) Stamps may be used only during fixed periods. Each blue stamp in War Ration Book Two is good for a limited time only and a consumer may use it only during that time. The letter printed on the stamp is used to indicate the time when it may be used by a consumer. Stamps lettered "A," "B" and "C" may be used only during March 1943. Stamps lettered "D," "E" and "F" may be used only from March 25, 1943 to April 30, 1943, inclusive. The other blue stamps in War Ration Book Two may be used only during periods which will be fixed in a supplement to this order. These periods may be changed by the Office of Price Administration, even after they have begun.

(c) General rules for the use of stamps by consumers. A consumer must give up stamps worth exactly the point value of the processed foods he acquires. The number of points a stamp is worth is shown by the figure printed on it. Stamps must be given up at the time processed foods are acquired. The stamps may be used by a consumer only if torn out of the war ration book in the presence of the person who is selling or transferring the processed foods. A stamp may be used only to get processed foods for the consumer from whose book it is taken, or for use at a table at which he eats.

(d) A consumer also uses certificates. Any consumer to whom a "board" issues a "certificate" may use it to acquire processed foods, just as the blue stamps from War Ration Book Two are used. The number of points a certificate is worth, and the date when it expires, will be shown on that certificate. A consumer to whom a certificate has been issued must sign his name on the back before he may use it.

(e) How mail order purchases are made. A consumer who orders processed foods for delivery by mail may detach stamps from his War Ration Book Two and send them with his order. The stamps are good if the envelope in which they are inclosed is postmarked on or before the last day on which they may be used by a consumer, even if the seller does not receive them until after that date. If the seller cannot fill all or any part of the order, he will return a ration check for the difference. The consumer may exchange that check, at any Board, for a certificate which he can then use to get processed foods.

SEC. 2.5 Consumers who need more processed foods because of illness may apply for more points. (a) Any consumer whose health requires that he have more processed foods than he can get with War Ration Book Two, may apply for additional points. The application must be made, on OPA Form R–315, by the consumer himself or by someone acting for him, and may be made in person or by mail. The application can be made only to the board for the place where the consumer lives. He must submit with his application a written statement of a licensed or registered physician or surgeon, showing why he must have more processed foods, the amounts and types he needs during the next two months, and why he cannot use unrationed foods instead.

(b) If the board finds that his health depends upon his getting more processed foods, and that he cannot use or cannot get unrationed foods, it shall issue to him one or more certificates for the number of points necessary to get the additional processed foods he needs during the next two months.

SEC. 2.6 Consumers who must purchase in quantity may apply for certificates. (a) Some consumers may not be able to get processed foods during the period when their stamps are good, either because of transportation difficulties, or because they live an unusually long distance from their market. Such a consumer may apply for a certificate in exchange for some or all of the blue stamps in his War Ration Book Two, so that he can get the amount of processed foods to which he is entitled at a time when he is able to get them. The application must be made on OPA Form R–315, in person or by mail, to the board for the place where he lives. It must be made by the consumer himself or by someone acting for him.

(b) If the board finds that the consumer will suffer hardship because he cannot get the processed foods to which he is entitled during the periods when his stamps are good (for the reasons set forth above), it may issue to him a certificate. The certificate may be for any number of points up to the value of the remaining blue stamps in his War Ration Book Two. The board must remove from that book, and cancel, blue stamps worth the amount of the certificate.

SEC. 2.7 Service men on furlough may get certificates. (a) A person in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard of the United States, who is on furlough for seven days or longer and who does not have a War Ration Book Two, may get a certificate for sixteen points for each week (or fraction of a week) of his furlough. He may get such a certificate by presenting his leave papers to any board. The board must write on the leave papers its designation, a statement that it has issued a certificate, the amount of the certificate, and the date of issuance.

SEC. 2.8 Consumers may give away home canned processed foods. (a) Any consumer may give (but not sell) to any other person processed foods which he has canned from fresh fruits or vegetables primarily for consumption in his own household. These gifts may be made and received without the surrender of points. Processed foods so received may not be sold. No consumer may give away a total of more than fifty quarts of processed foods in any one calendar year, under this section.

Article III—Processors

SECTION 3.1 Explanation of the terms processor and processor establishment—(a) A place where processed foods are produced is a processor establishment. Any place at which a "person" produces "processed foods" for sale or other "transfer", is a "processor establishment".

(1) A person produces processed foods:

(i) If he bottles, cans or packs fruits, fruit juices, vegetables, vegetable juices, soups or baby foods, in hermetically sealed containers and sterilizes them by the use of heat; or

(ii) If he packs frozen fruits or vegetables in containers of ten pounds or less; or

(iii) If he sorts, washes, and dries or dehydrates fruits; or

(iv) If he repacks frozen fruits or vegetables from containers over ten pounds into containers of ten pounds or less; or

(v) If he repacks fruit or vegetable juices from containers over one gallon into hermetically sealed containers of one gallon or less and sterilizes them by the use of heat; or

(vi) If he uses processed foods to produce other processed foods (as, if he uses canned peaches to make canned fruit salad).

(NOTE: Not all items in the above groups are processed foods as that term is defined. For example, fruit and vegetable juices packed in containers over one gallon are not processed foods. Canned olives are not processed foods. Therefore, a person who packs fruit juices in containers over one gallon, or who cans or bottles olives, does not thereby produce a processed food.)

(b) A place to which processed foods are imported is a processor establishment. Any place (including space in a public warehouse) to which a person imports processed foods into the United States, from any place outside the United States, for sale or transfer, is also a processor establishment.

(c) A place where a person keeps only processed foods he produced is a processor establishment. The term processor establishment also includes a place (including space in a public warehouse) at which a person does not produce or import processed foods, if he regularly keeps there for sale or transfer, only stocks of processed foods which he himself produced or imported. (If he also regularly keeps there, for sale or transfer, processed foods produced or imported by someone else, it is not a processor establishment, but it may be a "wholesale" or a "retail establishment," depending upon the nature of his operations there). There is, however, one case in which a place where a person keeps processed foods produced or imported by someone else is a processor establishment. A person may get processed foods from someone else, to use them in producing other processed foods for sale or transfer. If he keeps the processed foods obtained from someone else, only to use them to produce other processed foods, the place where he keeps them is a processor establishment.

(d) A place where processed foods produced only for own use is not a processor establishment. A place at which a person produces or imports processed foods only for his own use, and not for sale or transfer, is not a processor establishment. (Thus, if he produces processed foods, at a particular place, only for the purpose of using them in baking pies, or in serving meals, that place is not a processor establishment).

(e) Person who has processor establishment is a processor. Any person who has a processor establishment is called a "processor".

SEC. 3.2 Processors must register and file reports—(a) Registration. Every processor must register with the Office of Price Administration by filing OPA Form R–1305, at any time from March 1, 1943 to March 10, 1943, inclusive. The form must be completed and signed by the processor or his authorized agent. If he has more than one processor establishment, he must show, for each, its name and address, the type of business done there, and the name of the person authorized to report for it on OPA Form R–1305.

(b) Reports. Every processor must file a monthly report, also on OPA Form R–1305, covering the operation of his processor establishment during the month before. However, in reporting his production or imports of processed foods, a processor shall not include amounts which he used in grading the processed foods he produced or imported. The report must be signed by him or by his authorized agent. If he has more than one processor establishment, he must file a separate report for each, except that he may combine in a single report all his processor establishments in a single state. The first report which must be filed is for February 1943, and is part of his registration. Reports for subsequent months must be filed within ten days after the end of the month.

(c) Some processors need not file reports for months after February 1943. A processor who produced or imported less than 10,000 pounds of processed foods during 1942 must register but need not file a report for any month after February 1943. However, if his total production and imports in 1943 reach 10,000 pounds, he must file reports beginning for the month in which that figure was reached.

(d) Processors must give information called for by form. The processor must give all information called for by OPA Form R–1305.

(e) Registration and reports must be filed in Washington. The processor's registration and monthly reports must be filed by mailing OPA Form R–1305 to the Office of Price Administration, care of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C. The form is considered filed on time if the envelope is postmarked on or before the last day it is due.

SEC. 3.3 Processor is given a registration number. (a) After a processor has registered, the "Washington Office" will send him a card giving him his registration number. After he gets the registration number, he must use it on each invoice or similar document prepared in connection with any sale or transfer of processed foods from any of his processor establishments.

SEC. 3.4 Processor may not do business if he does not register and file reports. (a) No processor may transfer or "acquire" processed foods after March 10, 1943, unless he has registered in the manner required.

(b) No processor may transfer or acquire processed foods after any date on which a report is due from him, unless he has filed that report.

SEC. 3.5 Processors must report their inventories. (a) As part of his registration, a processor must report, on OPA Form R–1305, the point value of his inventory of processed foods (by items and sizes) at the close of business on February 28, 1943. His inventory at the beginning and end of each month must then be reported in his report for that month.

(b) A processor's inventory at his processor establishment consists of all processed foods physically located at that establishment or in transit to it. However, the following items are not part of that inventory:

(1) Processed foods stored at the establishment for a person other than his customer or transferee, or held there as security for a loan to someone else (or similar transaction), or in transit to it for either of those purposes;

(2) Processed foods included in the inventory of one of his other establishments.

SEC. 3.6 A processor must turn over the points he receives to the Washington office. (a) A processor is not permitted to buy or acquire processed foods with the points he gets for sales or transfers of processed foods which he produced or imported, except for two purposes:

(1) To get back processed foods he transferred if his transferee returns them to him; or

(2) To acquire processed foods with which to produce other processed foods.

(b) A processor must give up to the Office of Price Administration for cancellation, all points he receives for sales or transfers of processed foods. Not later than the tenth day of every month he must issue and mail to the Office of Price Administration, care of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C., his certified ration check (payable to the Office of Price Administration) for all those points he received during the month before. A processor who is required to file monthly reports on OPA Form R–1305, must attach his check to the report. A processor who does not have to file reports must send his check in a sealed envelope, enclosing a statement showing his name, principal business address and registration number.

(c) A processor who used some of those points to get back processed foods he transferred, or to acquire processed foods for reprocessing, must issue and send his check for the rest. He must enclose with his check a statement giving the name of the person who returned or from whom he acquired the processed foods, the items returned or acquired, and the point value of those items.

SEC. 3.7 A processor may acquire processed foods to fill out his own line. (a) A processor who does not regularly keep for sale or transfer stocks of processed foods which were produced or imported by someone else does not get an allowable inventory as a "wholesaler". He may, however, occasionally acquire foods in order to fill out his own line. He is not permitted to use, for this purpose, points he received for transfers of processed foods which he produced or imported. He may, therefore, apply to the Washington Office on OPA Form R–315, for a "certificate" for the number of points needed to acquire processed foods in order to fill out his own line. The application must show the reason he needs processed foods to fill out his line and the amounts and types he needs. If the Washington Office finds that he needs points to get processed foods to fill out his line and that he does not regularly stock processed foods produced or imported by someone else, it will issue to him a certificate for the number of points needed.

SEC. 3.8 Processors must keep records. (a) Beginning March 1, 1943, every processor must keep, at each of his processor establishments, a record showing, by items and sizes:

(1) All processed foods produced or imported there;

(2) All processed foods sold or transferred to (or reserved for) exempt agencies;

(3) All processed foods used in producing other processed foods.

(b) He must also keep, at his principal business office, a copy of his registration and of his monthly reports on OPA Form R–1305 (if any are required). If he has more than one processor establishment, he must keep at each establishment a copy of the report filed for it. (However, if he has filed a combined report for several processor establishments, he must keep copies of the reports at one of them.)

(c) In addition, at the time of any change in the point value of any item of processed foods, every processor must make a record of the amount and sizes of that item which he has in his inventory. The record must show the point value of the item before and after the change, and the amount by which the point value of his inventory was increased or decreased as a result. If he has more than one processor establishment, he must make and keep such a record at each establishment.

Article IV—Wholesalers

SECTION 4.1 Explanation of the terms wholesaler and wholesale establishment. (a) Any place, including a public warehouse, where a "person" who deals in "processed foods" keeps stocks of those foods for sale or other "transfer" is a "wholesale establishment", if fifty percent or more of those stocks are transferred from there directly to persons other than consumers". However, if he keeps the stocks which are not transferred to consumers, just to supply his own establishments, it is a wholesale establishment only if it supplies:

(1) At least one of his wholesale establishments; or

(2) At least four of his "retail establishments".

(A place where a person regularly keeps for sale or transfer only stocks of processed foods which he himself produced or imported is a "processor establishment" and not a wholesale establishment).

(b) Any person dealing in processed foods who has a wholesale establishment is called a "wholesaler".

SEC. 4.2 Wholesalers must register and file reports—(a) Registration. Every wholesaler must register with the Office of Price Administration by filing OPA Form R–1310, at any time from April 1, 1943, to April 10, 1943, inclusive. The form must be completed and signed by the wholesaler or his authorized agent. If he has more than one wholesale establishment, he must file a combined registration for all of them on a single form.

(b) Reports. Every wholesaler must file a monthly report, also on OPA Form R–1310, covering the operations of his wholesale establishment during the month before. The report must be signed by him or by his authorized agent. If he has more than one wholesale establishment, he must file a separate report for each, except that he may combine in a single report all his wholesale establishments in a single state. The first report which must be filed is for March 1943, and is part of his registration. Reports for subsequent months must be filed within ten days after the end of the month.

(c) Wholesaler must give information called for by form. The wholesaler must give all information called for by OPA Form R–1310.

(d) Registration and reports must be filed in Washington. The wholesaler's registration and monthly reports must be filed by mailing OPA Form R–1310 to the Office of Price Administration, care of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C. The form is considered filed on time if the envelope is postmarked on or before the last day it is due.

SEC. 4.3 Wholesaler may not do business if he does not register and file reports. (a) No wholesaler may transfer or "acquire" processed foods after April 10, 1943, unless he has registered in the manner required.

(b) No wholesaler may transfer or acquire processed foods after any date on which a report is due from him unless he has filed that report.

SEC. 4.4 Wholesalers must report their inventories. (a) As part of his registration, a wholesaler must report, on OPA Form R–1310, the point value of his inventory of processed foods (by items and sizes) at the close of business on March 31, 1943. If he has more than one wholesale establishment, his registration must include a report of the total point value of his inventory at all those establishments. His inventory at the end of each month must then be reported in his report for that month.

(b) A wholesaler's inventory at his wholesale establishment consists of processed foods physically located at that establishment or in transit to it. It includes processed foods which he holds there on consignment. However, the following items are not part of that inventory:

(1) Processed foods stored at the establishment for a person other than his customer or transferee, or held there as security for a loan to someone else (or similar transaction), or in transit to it for either of those purposes;

(2) Processed foods included in the inventory of one of his other establishments.

SEC. 4.5 Wholesalers must report their sales and points on hand. (a) A wholesaler must also report, as part of his registration:

(1) The point value of all processed foods transferred by him during March 1943, not including exchanges of merchandise or transfers from one to another of his wholesale establishments; and

(2) The total number of points which he has available for acquiring processed foods, at the close of business on March 31, 1943. He must include all points which he has on hand, all in his ration bank account and all which he has already given up for processed foods not yet shipped to him. However, he is not to include points he has received for processed foods which he has not yet shipped.

(b) The point value of his transfers during each subsequent month, and the total number of points he has at the end of that month for which he can get processed foods, must then be reported in his report for that month.

SEC. 4.6 A wholesaler is allowed a maximum inventory—(a) General. For each month beginning with April 1943, every wholesaler is entitled to an operating inventory (called a maximum allowable inventory) based on his transfers during the month before. This maximum allowable inventory is stated in terms of points.

(b) Amount of maximum allowable inventory. To get a wholesaler's maximum allowable inventory for any month, beginning with April 1943, the point value of all processed foods transferred from his wholesale establishments during the month before, is multiplied by a factor which the Office of Price Administration will fix for each month. The result is his maximum allowable inventory for the month in question. Exchanges of processed foods, and transfers from one to another of his wholesale establishments, must not be included in this computation. The factor fixed for any month, beginning with April 1943, will be shown in the printed report form used during that month.

(c) Point inventory. (1) In order to determine how large a stock of processed foods, measured in points, a wholesaler has and is in a position to get, it is necessary to find out two things:

(i) The point value of his inventory; and

(ii) The number of points he has available for acquiring processed foods, since he can use those points to get additional stocks. These points include all which he has on hand, all in his ration bank account and all which he has already given up for processed foods not yet shipped to him. However, points he has received for processed foods which he has not yet shipped, are not included.

(2) The sum of the above two figures, at a particular time, shows the amount of processed foods he has and can get at that time. That sum is called his point inventory. The wholesaler must make this computation at the time of filing his monthly report on OPA Form R–1310. (His maximum allowable inventory for the month during which the report is filed is also determined at the same time.)

(d) When a wholesaler is entitled to a certificate. If a wholesaler's maximum allowable inventory for any month is greater than his point inventory at the end of the month before, he is entitled to receive a "certificate", upon request, for the number of points needed to make up the difference. However, after April 1943, he is not entitled to a certificate unless that difference is more than 10% of his maximum allowable inventory. The certificate will be issued by the "Washington Office", after his report has been checked.

(e) Excess inventory for March 1943. If a wholesaler's point inventory at the close of business on March 31, 1943, is greater than his maximum allowable inventory for April 1943, the difference is excess inventory. He must, in that case, give up to the Office of Price Administration, for cancellation, points equal to his excess inventory. The points are to be given up in the form of a certified check drawn on his ration bank account, payable to the Office of Price Administration. That check must be attached to and forwarded with his registration. A wholesaler who does not have enough points at the time of his registration, may accumulate points and forward them later, but he may not buy or acquire processed foods until he has done so.

SEC. 4.7 Wholesaler may not acquire processed foods if actual inventory is greater than maximum allowable inventory. (a) A wholesaler must not acquire processed foods at any time when his actual inventory is larger than his maximum allowable inventory. A wholesaler also must not acquire processed foods if it would bring his actual inventory above his maximum allowable inventory. Even if he has points available, he may not use them to get more stock than is needed to bring his actual inventory up to his maximum allowable inventory. However, if he has already given up points for a transfer of processed foods at a time when he was entitled to acquire them, he may take delivery of those foods.

SEC. 4.8 Wholesalers may apply for emergency inventory adjustments during March 1943. (a) Any wholesaler who finds, during March 1943, that he does not have an adequate stock of processed foods to meet demands under rationing, may apply for an adjustment. The application is to be made, on OPA Form R–315, to the district office for the place where his principal business office is located (or, where there is no district office, to the State office). He must state, in his application, the approximate point value of his stocks, the point value of his sales or other transfers and the size of the inventory which he needs. The district (or State) office may call upon him for any other information which it finds necessary in order to act upon the application.

(b) If the district (or State) office finds that he does not have adequate stocks, it may issue to him a certificate for the number of points needed to bring his stocks up to an adequate working level.

(c) An adjustment may be granted under this Section only during March 1943. As soon as it has passed on the application, the district (or State) office must send the file in the case to the Washington Office.

SEC. 4.9 Wholesalers must keep records. (a) Every wholesaler must keep, at each of his wholesale establishments, a record of the point value of all transfers of processed foods from that establishment during each month. He must also keep, at his principal business office, a copy of his registration and of the reports on OPA Form R–1310 which he filed with it. If he has more than one wholesale establishment, he must keep at each establishment a copy of the reports filed for it. (However, if he has filed a combined report for several wholesale establishments, he must keep copies of the reports at one of them, and must also keep a record of the inventory of each at the close of business on March 31, 1943.)

(b) In addition, at the time of any change in the point value of any item of processed foods, every wholesaler must make a record of the amount and sizes of that item which he has in his inventory. The record must show the point value of the item before and after the change, and the amount by which the point value of his inventory was increased or decreased as a result. If he has more than one wholesale establishment, he must make and keep such a record at each establishment.

Article V—Retailers

SECTION 5.1 Explanation of the terms retailer and retail establishment. (a) Any place, including a public warehouse, where a "person" who deals in "processed foods" keeps stocks of those foods for sale or other transfer is a "retail establishment" if more than fifty per cent of those stocks are sold or transferred from there directly to "consumers". It is also a retail establishment, even if the amount sold or transferred to consumers is fifty per cent or less, in the following case:

(1) If some of those stocks are transferred directly to consumers; and

(2) If the rest of those stocks are kept there just to supply his own establishments of any type; and

(3) If no "wholesale establishments", and not more than three retail establishments, are supplied from there.

(A place where a person regularly keeps for sale or transfer only stocks of processed foods which he himself produced or imported is a "processor establishment" and not a retail establishment.)

(b) Any person dealing in processed foods who has a retail establishment is called a "retailer".

SEC. 5.2 Retailers must get statement of purchases during March 1943. (a) When a retailer buys or "acquires" processed foods during March 1943, he must get from his seller or transferor a statement showing the name of the seller or transferor, the date of the purchase or acquisition, and the number of points given up for the processed foods.

SEC. 5.3 Retailers must register—(a) General. Every retailer must register his retail establishments with the Office of Price Administration, at any time from April 1, 1943, to April 10, 1943, inclusive, on OPA Form R–1302. The registration form must be completed and signed by the retailer or his authorized agent. He must give all information called for by OPA Form R–1302.

(b) Place where registration must be filed. A retailer who has only one retail establishment must file his registration, in person or by mail, with the "board" for the place where that establishment is located. If he has more than one retail establishment, he must file a combined registration for all those establishments, in person or by mail, with the board for the place where his principal business office is located. A person who has a wholesale or a processor establishment, as well as a retail establishment, must file his retailer registration, by mail, with the Office of Price Administration, care of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C.

(c) Filing by mail. Where a registration form is filed by mail, it is considered filed on time if the envelope is postmarked on or before April 10, 1943.

SEC. 5.4 Retailer may not do business unless he has registered. (a) No retailer may transfer or acquire processed foods after April 10, 1943, unless he has registered in the manner required.

SEC. 5.5 Retailers must report their inventories. (a) As part of his registration, every retailer (except those covered in section 5.7) must report the point value of his inventory of processed foods at the close of business on March 31, 1943. If he has more than one retail establishment, a separate inventory report for each establishment must be filed with his registration.

(b) A retailer's inventory at his retail establishment consists of processed foods physically located at that establishment or in transit to it, and also of processed foods stored, or in transit for storage, for that establishment at any other place (including a public warehouse). It includes processed foods held on consignment. However, the following items are not part of that inventory:

(1) Processed foods stored at the establishment for a person other than his customer or transferee, or held there as security for a loan to someone else (or similar transaction), or in transit to it for either of those purposes;

(2) Processed foods still in the possession of his seller or transferor;

(3) Processed foods included in the inventory of one of his other establishments.

SEC. 5.6 Retailers must report their sales and points on hand. (a) Every retailer (except those covered by section 5.7) must also report, as part of his registration:

(1) The point value of all processed foods transferred by him during March 1943, not including exchanges of merchandise or transfers from one to another of his retail establishments; and

(2) The total number of points which he has available for acquiring processed foods, at the close of business on March 31, 1943. He must include all points which he has on hand, all in his ration bank account (if any) and all which he has already given up for processed foods not yet shipped to him. However, he is not to include points he has received for processed foods which he has not yet shipped.

(b) He must attach to and file with his registration, a statement showing each of his purchases or other acquisitions of processed foods during March 1943, the name and address of his seller or transferor, and the points he gave up for each purchase or other acquisition.

SEC. 5.7 Certain retailers need not report inventory and other information. (a) A retailer whose gross sales of all commodities during March 1943 were under $200 must register on OPA Form R–1302, but need not report his inventory, sales or transfers, and points on hand. However, if he elects not to report this information, he will have to operate on the basis of turnover of the stocks he has, and he will not be eligible, when he registers, to receive a certificate enabling him to increase his working stocks.

SEC. 5.8 A retailer is given an allowable inventory—(a) General. Every retailer (except those who elect not to report, as permitted by section 5.7) is entitled to an operating inventory, called an allowable inventory, which is based on his transfers of processed foods during March 1943. This allowable inventory is stated in terms of points.

(b) Amount of allowable inventory. To get a retailer's allowable inventory the point value of all processed foods transferred from his retail establishments during March 1943, is multiplied by a factor fixed by the Office of Price Administration in a supplement to this order. The result is his allowable inventory. Exchanges of processed foods, and transfers from one to another of his retail establishments, must not be included in this computation.

(c) Point inventory. (1) In order to determine how large a stock of processed foods, measured in points, a retailer has and is in a position to get, it is necessary to find out two things:

(i) The point value of his inventory; and

(ii) The number of points which he has available for acquiring processed foods, since he can use those points to get additional stocks. These points include all which he has on hand, all in his ration bank account (if any) and all which he has already given up for processed foods not yet shipped to him. However, points he has received for processed foods which he has not yet shipped, are not included.

(2) The sum of the above two figures, at the close of business on March 31, 1943, shows the amount of processed foods he has and can get at that time. That sum is called his point inventory. The retailer makes this computation at the time of filing his registration on OPA Form R–1302.

(d) When a retailer is entitled to a certificate. If a retailer's point inventory at the close of business on March 31, 1943, is less than his allowable inventory, he is entitled to receive a "certificate" for the number of points needed to make up the difference. The certificate will be issued by the Board with which he registers, or by the "Washington Office", if he is required to register with that office.

(e) What a retailer must do if he has excess inventory. If a retailer's point inventory at the close of business on March 31, 1943, is greater than his allowable inventory, the difference is excess inventory. He must, in that case, give up to the Office of Price Administration, for cancellation, points equal to his excess inventory. Points for that amount must be forwarded with his registration. He must give up the points in the form of "stamps" or certificates, or, if he has a ration bank account, in the form of a certified check drawn on that account made payable to the Office of Price Administration. A retailer who does not have enough points at the time of registration, may accumulate and forward them later, but he may not buy or acquire processed foods until he has done so.

SEC. 5.9 Retailers may apply for emergency inventory adjustments during March 1943. (a) Any retailer who finds, during March 1943, that he does not have an adequate stock of processed foods to meet demands under rationing, may apply for an adjustment. A retailer who has only one retail establishment must apply to the Board for the place where that establishment is located. If he has more than one retail establishment, he must apply to the Board where his principal business office is located. A person who has a processor or wholesale establishment as well as a retail establishment must apply to the district office for the place where his principal business office is located (or, where there is no district office, to the State office). The application is to be made on OPA Form R–315, and must show the approximate point value of his stocks, the point value of his sales or other transfers, and the size of the inventory which he needs. The board (or the district or State office) may call upon him for any other information which it finds necessary in order to act upon the application.

(b) If the board (or the district or State office) finds that he does not have adequate stocks, it may issue to him a certificate for the number of points needed to bring his stocks up to an adequate working level.

(c) An adjustment may be granted under this section only during March 1943. If the district or State office passes on the application, the file in the case must be sent to the Washington Office.

SEC. 5.10 Retailers must keep records. (a) Every retailer must keep a copy of his registration, at his principal business office. If he has more than one retail establishment, he must keep at each establishment a copy of the inventory report filed for it.

(b) He must also keep, at his principal business office, the statements from his suppliers showing their sales or transfers to him during March 1943.

(c) In addition, at the time of any change in the point value of any item of processed foods, every retailer must make a record of the amount and sizes of that item which he has in his inventory. The record must show the point value of the item before and after the change, and the amount by which the point value of his inventory was increased or decreased as a result. If he has more than one retail establishment, he must make and keep such a record at each establishment.

SEC. 5.11 Retailers must post point prices. (a) Beginning March 1, 1943, every retailer must post the Official Table of Point Values (OPA Form R–1313) in his retail establishment in such manner that it can be plainly seen and read by purchasers.

(b) Every retailer who has an establishment at which the processed foods he carries are displayed to consumers must post there the point value of every item of processed foods he carries. The point value must be posted, in such manner that it can be plainly seen and read by consumers, in one or more of the following ways:

(1) On the commodity itself; or

(2) On the shelf or other place where the commodity is kept; or

(3) On a list attached to, or posted next to, the shelf or other place where the commodity is kept.

Article VI—Industrial Users

SECTION 6.1 Explanation of the terms industrial user and industrial user establishment. (a) An "industrial user establishment" is any place at which "processed foods" are used in producing or manufacturing for sale or "transfer" any product which is not a processed food. (For example, a bakery at which canned peaches are used in baking peach pies, for sale or transfer, is an industrial user establishment. Canned peaches are processed foods, but peach pie is not.) A place at which processed foods are used in producing other processed foods is a "processor establishment" and not an industrial user establishment. (An example of this would be the use of canned peaches for making canned fruit salad, since both canned peaches and canned fruit salad are processed foods.) Moreover, a place, such as a restaurant, at which processed foods are used in the preparation for service and the service of meals, would be an "institutional user establishment", and not an industrial user establishment.

(b) Any "person" who operates an industrial user establishment is called an "industrial user".

SEC. 6.2 Industrial users must register—(a) General. Every industrial user must register his industrial user establishment with the Office of Price Administration, at any time from March 1, 1943, to March 10, 1943, inclusive, on OPA Form R–1308, in duplicate. The registration form must be completed and filed by the industrial user or his authorized agent. If he has more than one industrial user establishment, he must file a combined registration for all those establishments.

(b) Place where registration must be filed. The registration form must be filed, in person or by mail, with the "board" for the place where his principal business office is located. He must give all information called for by the form.

SEC. 6.3 Industrial user may not do business unless he has registered. (a) No industrial user may "acquire" or use processed foods at his industrial user establishment, after March 10, 1943, unless he has registered as required.

SEC. 6.4 Industrial users must report their inventories. (a) As part of his registration, an industrial user must report the point value of his inventory of processed foods (by items) at the close of business on February 28, 1943. If he has more than one industrial user establishment, a separate inventory report for each establishment must be filed with his registration.

(b) His industrial user inventory consists of all processed foods included in the inventory of his industrial user establishments. The inventory of an industrial user establishment consists of all processed foods physically located at the establishment or in transit to it. However, the following items are not part of that inventory:

(1) Processed foods stored at the establishment for another person, or held there as security for a loan to someone else (or similar transaction), or in transit to it for either of those purposes;

(2) Processed foods included in the inventory of any of his other establishments of any type.

(c) His industrial user inventory also includes all processed foods which he holds at, or which are in transit to, any other place for his industrial use. However, processed foods included in the inventory of any establishment which is not an industrial user establishment must not be reported as part of his industrial user inventory.

SEC. 6.5 Industrial users must report their base period use. (a) As part of his registration, an industrial user must also report the number of pounds of processed foods he used in his industrial user establishment during 1942. The report must show the amount he used during each of the following four month periods in 1942, called base periods:

(1) January to April, inclusive;

(2) May to August, inclusive;

(3) September to December, inclusive.

If he has more than one industrial user establishment, he must file, as part of his registration, a separate report of his use in each.

(b) The report must show his use, during those periods, of each of the following classes of processed foods:

(1) Canned and bottled;

(2) Dried and dehydrated;

(3) Frozen.

In addition, the report must show his use, during those periods, of the following other foods: frozen fruits and vegetables, in containers over ten pounds; fruit and vegetable juices in containers over one gallon; and jellies and preserves.

(c) If an industrial user's establishment was not in operation for the full base period, his use of processed foods at the establishment during that base period is fixed, for all the purposes of this order, in the following way:

(1) If it was in operation during a part of the base period. (i) The amount of processed foods used there by him during that part of the period is determined; (ii) That amount is divided by the number of days it was in operation during the period; (iii) The result is multiplied by the number of days the establishment would have been operated during the base period, if it had been a normal period of operations; (iv) The resulting figure is treated as the amount used during the base period.

(2) If it was not in operation at all during the base period. (i) The amount of processed foods used there by him during all of 1942 is determined; (ii) That amount is divided by the number of days it was in operation during 1942;

(iii) The result is multiplied by the number of days the establishment would have been operated during the base period, if it had been a normal period of operations;

(iv) The resulting figure is treated as the amount used during the base period.

(3) If it was not in operation at all during 1942, but was in operation at some time between January 1, 1943 and February 28, 1943, inclusive. (i) The amount of processed foods used there by him between January 1, 1943 and February 28, 1943, inclusive, is determined;

(ii) That amount is divided by the number of days it was in operation between January 1, 1943 and February 28, 1943, inclusive;

(iii) The result is multiplied by the number of days the establishment would have been operated during the base period, if it had been a normal period of operations;

(iv) The resulting figure is treated as the amount used during the base period.

(d) The rules set forth under (1) and (2) of the last paragraph do not apply where an industrial user establishment was not in operation during all or part of a base period because of a normal seasonal shutdown or for any similar reason. Where that is so, it is assumed that conditions will be the same during the corresponding period in 1943, and the allotment must depend upon his actual use during the base period.

SEC. 6.6 Industrial users allotments—(a) General. An industrial user is given an allotment to enable him to get and use processed foods at his industrial user establishments. Allotments are given for fixed periods, called allotments periods. The first allotment period is from March 1, 1943, through April 30, 1943. The second period is from May 1, 1943, through August 31, 1943. The third period is from September 1, 1943, through December 31, 1943.

(b) Application for allotments. An industrial user's registration is treated as an application for an allotment for the first allotment period. His application for an allotment for any other allotment period must be made, in person or by mail, to the board with which he is registered. No particular form need be used for such an application. The application must be made not more than fifteen (15) days before, nor more than five (5) days after, the beginning of the period, unless he shows a good reason for applying at another time.

(NOTE: An industrial user is permitted to use processed foods only up to the amount of his allotment. He may therefore need an allotment even if his stocks are sufficient, since his allotment establishes his right to use processed foods—it is not just a method by which he gets them.)

(c) Amount of allotment. An industrial user's allotment is determined on the basis of his total use of processed foods at his industrial user establishments during the four month base period in 1942 corresponding to the allotment period. (The base period corresponding to the first allotment period is January 1, 1942 through April 30, 1942.) The amount of each class of processed foods (canned and bottled, dried, and frozen) used by him during the base period is multiplied by a factor fixed for that class by the Office of Price Administration in a supplement to this order. The numbers which result are added, and the total is his allotment, stated in points. (The factor is fixed in such a way that it gives an allotment which fairly represents both the average point value of the processed foods used and the reduction in use required as a result of the scarcity of processed foods).

(d) Right to a certificate: excess inventory. (1) An industrial user is entitled to get and use processed foods up to the amount of his allotment. He is therefore, given a certificate for the number of points he needs in order to get that amount. However, if he has stocks on hand, he can use them for his allotment and therefore needs fewer points. For that reason, the point value of his inventory at the close of business on February 28, 1943 must be deducted from his allotment. (The method of determining his inventory at the close of business on February 28, 1943, is covered by section 6.4.)

(2) If the point value of an industrial user's inventory is less than his allotment, he is entitled to get, from the board with which he registers, a certificate for the number of points needed to make up the difference.

(3) If the point value of an industrial user's inventory is greater than his allotment, the difference is excess inventory. In that case, he is not entitled to receive a certificate for the first allotment period. He is not entitled to get a certificate until the total of his subsequent allotments exceeds his excess inventory.

(e) Issuance of certificate. Only one certificate will be issued by the board, for the full number of points to which an industrial user is entitled, even if he has more than one industrial user establishment. However, if he is entitled to a certificate for more than 30,000 points for the second allotment period (May 1, 1943 to August 31, 1943, inclusive) the board must first issue a certificate for only one half of the total amount. A certificate for the balance is to be issued to him at any time he requests it after June 26, 1943.

SEC. 6.7 Late registrants lose part of their allotment. (a) If an industrial user was in operation before March 1, 1943, but failed to register at the time required, the board may permit him to register and apply for an allotment at a later date. In his registration, he must report his inventory of processed foods at the close of business on February 28, 1943.

(b) His allotment is computed in the same way as that of an industrial user who registered on time. However, his allotment is reduced in proportion to the part of the allotment period which had elapsed at the time he registered.

SEC. 6.8 Restrictions on use of processed foods by industrial users. (a) No industrial user may use, during an allotment period more processed foods than his allotment for that period plus any unused part of his allotments for earlier periods.

(b) No industrial user may use for any purpose except an industrial use, processed foods which are included in his inventory, or which he acquired with points he received as an industrial user.

SEC. 6.9 Industrial users must keep records. (a) Every industrial user must keep a copy of his registration at his principal business office. He must also keep a record of his inventory at the close of business on February 28, 1943. In addition, if he has more than one industrial user establishment, he must keep, at each establishment, a record of its inventory on that date. He must also preserve his records showing his use of processed foods during the period for which he reported in his registration.

(b) In addition, an industrial user must keep a record of the amount of processed foods he acquires and the date of acquisition, and the amount of processed foods used at each of his industrial user establishments during each allotment period. He must also keep a record of the amount of the following items used by him:

(1) Frozen fruits and vegetables in containers over 10 pounds;

(2) Fruit and vegetable juices in containers over 1 gallon;

(3) Jams, jellies, and preserves.

Article VII—Combined Operations and Combined Establishments

SECTION 7.1 A person who operates different types of establishments is treated as if he were different persons. (a) (1) The same "person" may operate different kinds of establishments. He may have, for example, both a "wholesale establishment" and a "retail establishment". For the purposes of this order, he is both a "wholesaler" and a "retailer", since he has establishments of both kinds. The provisions of this order dealing with retailers apply to him as far as the operation of his retail establishment is concerned. The operation of his wholesale establishment is regarded as separate and is governed by the provisions dealing with wholesalers. Thus, he is treated as if he were two persons.

(2) This rule also applies to the way in which a person who is both a wholesaler and a retailer must handle the points he gets in connection with his wholesale and his retail establishment. The only points he may use as a retailer are those he gets in connection with his retail establishment. If he "transfers" "processed foods" from his wholesale establishment to his retail establishment, points he has as a retailer must be given up. When those points are given up to his wholesale establishment, they become points he has as a wholesaler. Points he has as a retailer must be kept and handled separately from the points he has as a wholesaler.

(3) The same rules apply to a person who has other types of establishments, such as "processor" or "industrial user establishments".

(b) Where a person has establishments of more than one kind, he must operate them as if each separate kind belonged to a separate person, as far as the provisions of this order are concerned. All dealings between establishments of different kinds operated by the same person are treated just as if those establishments were operated by different persons.

SEC. 7.2 The same person may be both a wholesaler or retailer and industrial user at the same place. (a) A person may keep stocks of processed foods at a place for sale or other transfer and may also use processed foods at that place for the production of some commodity other than processed foods. (For example, he may sell canned peaches at a particular place and may also operate a bakery there and use canned peaches in baking pies.) In a case of this type, the place is treated as two establishments. If processed foods are sold or transferred from there, it may be a retail or a wholesale establishment, depending upon the facts. It would also be an industrial user establishment, since processed foods are used there in baking pies for sale.

(b) A place of the type described in the last paragraph must be registered as a retail or wholesale establishment, depending upon which it is. Its sales or transfers of processed foods, and its stocks held for sale or transfer, must be included in that registration. It must also be registered as an industrial user establishment, and its stocks held for such use must be included in the industrial user registration.

SEC. 7.3 The same person may be both a wholesaler or retailer and an institutional user at the same place. (a) If, in the case described in the last section, the person operated a restaurant at that place, as well as (or instead of) a bakery, it would also be an "institutional user establishment". (Restaurants are covered by General Ration Order 5 and are called "institutional users" in that order.) A place of that type must be registered under General Ration Order 5. Its restaurant activities and its stocks of processed foods held for restaurant use must be included in that registration.

SEC. 7.4 The same person may be both a processor and a wholesaler or retailer at the same place. (a) A person may produce or import processed foods at a particular place, for sale or transfer,

He may also regularly keep at that place, for sale or transfer, processed foods which he did not produce or import, but which he acquired from someone else. In such a case, that place is a processor establishment, since he produced or imported processed foods there. It may also be a retail or wholesale establishment, depending upon the facts, since he regularly keeps there, for sale or transfer, processed foods which someone else produced or imported.

(b) A place of the type described in the last paragraph must be registered as a processor establishment. It must also be registered as a wholesale or retail establishment, depending upon which it is. Its production and imports, and its stocks and shipments of processed foods produced or imported there, must be included in the processor report. Stocks which were produced or imported by someone else, and the sales or transfers of those stocks, must be included in the wholesaler or retailer report. (However, stocks of processed foods kept there for producing other processed foods must be included in the processor report.)

SEC. 7.5 The same place may be more than one establishment. (a) The situations described in the last three sections are examples of the rule that the same place may be more than one "establishment," depending upon the type of business or operations carried on there. Wherever the operations at a place are such that it is more than one "establishment," it is treated just as if each of those "establishments" were located at a different place.

(b) No place can, however, be both a retail and a wholesale establishment of the same person. Under the definitions of retail and wholesale establishments, the place may be one or the other, but not both.

Article VIII—Ration Bank Accounts

SECTION 8.1 A ration bank account is an account in which points are deposited. (a) A ration bank account is a bank account very much like an ordinary checking account. A "person" who opens a ration bank account deposits in it points he receives, and issues checks drawn on it for points he uses. These checks are called ration checks. (The general rules for the opening, closing and use of ration bank accounts are covered by General Ration Order 3A.[1])

SEC. 8.2 Who must open a ration bank account. (a) Processors. Every "processor" must open at least one ration bank account for all his "processor establishments". If he has more than one processor establishment he may, if he wishes, open a separate account for each or for any group of them.

(b) Wholesalers. Every "wholesaler" must open at least one ration bank account for all his "wholesale establishments". If he has more than one wholesale establishment, he may, if he wishes, open a separate account for each or for any group of them.

(c) Retailers. Every "retailer" whose gross sales of all foods during December 1942, were over $5,000, and every retailer who has more than one "retail establishment", must open at least one ration bank account for all his retail establishments. If he has more than one retail establishment, he may, if he wishes, open a separate account for each or for any group of them. Also, any retailer who receives stamps and "certificates" from, and makes transfers to, consumers by mail must have a ration bank account. However, a retailer who is not required to open a ration bank account is entitled to open one if he wishes.

(d) Industrial users. An "industrial user" is entitled to open a ration bank account, but is not required to do so. If he opens an account, he must use it for all his "industrial user establishments". However, if he has more than one industrial user establishment, he may open a separate account for each, or for any group of them.

(e) Institutional users. The opening of ration bank accounts by "institutional users" is covered by General Ration Order 5.

SEC. 8.3 All points must be deposited in the account. (a) Every processor, wholesaler, retailer, or industrial user, who has a ration bank account, must deposit in his account all points he receives, whether in the form of "stamps",[1] certificates or ration checks.

SEC. 8.4 When points must be deposited—(a) Stamps. A person who has a ration bank account may not deposit stamps later than 20 days after the last date on which they were good for use by a consumer. (The periods during which particular stamps are good, are fixed in the supplement to this order.)

(b) Certificates. He may not deposit a certificate later than 20 days after the date which appears on it. (The fact that the certificate may have passed through several hands before reaching him does not give him any more time to deposit it.)

(c) Effect of failure to deposit stamps or certificates. A stamp or certificate which was not deposited on time is not good, and may not be used or accepted for any purpose.

(d) Ration checks. Ration checks may be deposited at any time.

Article IX—Sales and Transfers of Processed Foods

SECTION 9.1 No transfers may be made to consumers between February 21, 1943 and February 28, 1943. (a) From February 21, 1943 to February 28, 1943, inclusive, no "person" may sell or "transfer" "processed foods" to a "consumer" regardless of any contract or other agreement. (Certain transactions between consumers, covered in section 2.2 are excepted from this rule.)

SEC. 9.2 Only retailers, wholesalers and processors may transfer processed foods. (a) Beginning March 1, 1943, only "retailers", "wholesalers" and "processors" may sell or transfer processed foods. (Certain transactions between consumers, covered in section 2.3 (b), are excepted from this rule. Certain other exceptions are covered in Article X.)

SEC. 9.3 Transfers after February 28, 1943 may be made only for points. (a) Beginning March 1, 1943, no person may sell or transfer, and no person may buy or "acquire", processed foods, regardless of any contract or other agreement, unless points are given up in the way this order requires. (The word "transfer", as it is defined, means to sell, as well as to transfer in other ways. The word "acquire", means to buy, as well as to get in other ways. Therefore, the only words which will generally be used, in later sections, are "transfer" and "acquire".)

The rules covering various kinds of transactions are set forth in the sections which follow.

SEC. 9.4 How processed foods are transferred to consumers. (a) General. Processed foods may be transferred to a consumer, and may be acquired by him, only if he gives up to the seller, or transferor, points equal to the point value of the processed foods transferred. (Certain transactions between consumers covered in section 2.3 (b), are excepted from this rule. Certain other exceptions are covered in Article X.)

(b) How points are given up. Points may be given up by, and taken from, a consumer only in the form of blue "stamps" from his War Ration Book Two or a "certificate" issued for him.

(c) When points must be given up. The seller or transferor must take the points from the consumer at the time when the processed foods are transferred.

(d) When stamps must be detached. The seller or transferor may accept a stamp only if it is torn out of War Ration Book Two in his presence, and only if the book has a validation stamp on its cover. Loose stamps may not be used by a consumer and they must not be accepted by the seller or transferor.

(e) When stamps are good. Each stamp is good for a limited time and may be accepted for a transfer to a consumer only during that time. The letter printed on the stamp serves to indicate when it may be used by a consumer. Stamps lettered A, B and C may be accepted from a consumer, only during March 1943. Stamps lettered D, E and F may be accepted only from March 25, 1943, to April 30, 1943, inclusive. The periods during which other stamps may be accepted from a consumer are fixed by the Office of Price Administration in a Supplement to this order.

(f) Use of certificates. A certificate may be accepted from a consumer only if it has been signed on the back by the person for whom it was issued (or by someone authorized to act for him, if he cannot write.) A certificate is not valid for a transfer to a consumer after the date shown on its face, and may not be used or accepted for such a transfer after that date.

(g) Mail order sales. (1) Processed foods may be transferred to consumers by mail if a certificate or detached stamps are received with the order.

[1] 8 F.R. 1130, 1449.

[1] For the purposes of General Ration Order 3A, blue "stamps" from the War Ration Book Two, certificates (Form OPA R-1201) and ration checks are to be regarded as "evidences". That term is not, however, actually used in this order.

Stamps or certificates which are received after the last date on which they are good in the hands of the person who sent them may be accepted if the envelope in which they are enclosed is postmarked on or before that date.

(2) If the transferor fails to deliver processed foods equal in point value to the points received, he shall issue and send to the consumer a ration check for the balance.

(3) Before accepting stamps from and making transfers to consumers by mail, any retailer, wholesaler, or processor who wishes to do so must notify, in writing, the district office for the place where his principal business office is located (or, where there is no district office, the State office). The notice must give his name and principal business address, the name and address of each establishment from which he will make transfers to consumers by mail, and must contain an estimate of the dollar volume of his mail order deliveries of processed foods to consumers during 1942. He may not make any such transfers until he has given this notice. Beginning March 1, 1943, he must keep a record of the dollar volume of his transfers of processed foods to consumers by mail.

(4) No retailer may receive stamps or certificates from and make transfers to consumers by mail unless he has a ration bank account.

SEC. 9.5 How processed foods are transferred to persons other than consumers—(a) General. Processed foods may be transferred to and acquired by a retailer, wholesaler, or a processor, or an "industrial user" or "institutional user" only if he gives up to the seller (or transferor) points equal to the point value of the processed foods transferred.[1] (Certain exceptions to this rule are covered in article X.)

(b) Point value. The number of points which must be given up for a transfer of processed foods is determined by their point value at the time of the transfer.

(c) When points must be given up. The transferor must get the points from the transferee, and the transferee must give them up, at or before the time when the transfer is made. However, if the transfer is made through shipment by railroad or any other public carrier, the transferor may arrange to have the carrier get the points for him from the transferee, at the time of actual delivery. If, in this case, where a transfer is made by delivery at a time when the transferee or his authorized agent is not present, the points may be given up later, but not more than seventy-two hours after the delivery.

(d) Form in which transferor must get points. The transferor may take points from the transferee only in the form of stamps, certificates or a ration check drawn on the transferee's ration bank account.

(1) Stamps. No stamp may be accepted from the transferee more than ten days after the last date on which it was good for use by a consumer. The stamps must be pasted on gummed sheets (OPA Form R-120), and the name and address of the transferee must be written on each sheet. Only stamps of the same point value and good during the same period may be pasted on the same sheet.

(2) Certificates. A certificate may not be accepted from the transferee unless the name of the person to whom it was issued has been written on the back. The back of the certificate must also carry the signature of the transferee. The certificate may not be accepted more than ten days after the date shown on its face. However, if it was issued to the transferee, it may not be accepted after the date shown on its face.

(3) Ration checks. A ration check may be accepted by the transferor only if it is made payable to him and if it is drawn by the transferee. If the transferor does not have, and is not required to have, a ration bank account, he must take the check to his "Board" and get a certificate in exchange for it.

(e) Form in which transferee must give up points—(1) Wholesalers and processors. A wholesaler or a processor must give up points only in the form of a ration check drawn on his ration bank account.

(2) Retailers. A retailer who has, or is required to have, a ration bank account must give up points only in the form of a ration check drawn on that account. Other retailers may give up points only in the form of stamps or certificates.

(3) Industrial and institutional users. An industrial or institutional user who has a ration bank account must give up points only in the form of a ration check drawn on that account. Other industrial or institutional users may give up points only in the form of certificates.

(4) General. Points may be transferred freely between establishments of the same type operated by the same person, and points of one of those establishments may be used to get processed foods for another of them. However this rule does not apply to institutional user establishments which are registered separately under General Ration Order 5.

(f) Transfers to retailers during March 1943. A retailer, wholesaler or processor who transfers processed foods to a retailer during March 1943, must prepare and give to the retailer a written statement (in any convenient form) showing the name and address of both the transferor and transferee, the date of the transfer, and the number of points given up by the transferee. The transferor must keep a copy of the statement at his principal business office.

SEC. 9.6 Transfers between establishments of different types operated by the same person. (a) All of the rules set forth above which apply to transfers from one person to another, also apply to transfers between establishments of different types operated by the same person. (For example, a person may have both a wholesale and a retail establishment. He is, therefore, both a wholesaler and a retailer. He is permitted to transfer processed foods from his wholesale to his retail establishment. However, when he does so, he must give up points from the retail to the wholesale establishment just as if those establishments were operated by two different persons.)

SEC. 9.7 Transferor may not use points he receives in advance until processed foods are transferred. (a) A transferor may receive points from his transferee before he actually transfers the processed foods. In that case, he may not use points so received, to get other processed foods, until he has actually transferred to the transferee processed foods worth that number of points.

SEC. 9.8 Points may be returned for underdeliveries of processed foods. (a) If a retailer, wholesaler, or processor receives points in advance for a transfer of processed foods, and is unable to transfer all or any part of the amount ordered, he may return the points in excess. He must return the points in the same form he would use to give up points for a purchase or other acquisition of processed foods. (For example, a wholesaler can give up points only in the form of a ration check. He would, therefore, deposit all the points received by him, and draw a check for any amount to be returned. However, this section does not apply to consumers, except in connection with mail order transactions.)

Article X—Point-Free Transfers

SECTION 10.1 Processed foods in transit on February 28, 1943, may be acquired point-free. (a) No points need be given up for a delivery of "processed foods" to a "person" other than a "consumer", if those processed foods were in transit to him on February 28, 1943.

(NOTE: Processed foods which were in transit to a "processor", or an "industrial" or "institutional user" at the close of business on February 28, 1943, must be included in the inventory which he reports in his registration.)

SEC. 10.2 Processed foods may be exchanged for other processed foods. (a) Any person may exchange processed foods with any other person, for processed foods of equal point value, without giving up or taking points. (This rule applies even if there is a money payment to make up any difference in the money value of the processed foods exchanged.)

SEC. 10.3 Lost or stolen processed foods may be returned, point-free. (a) No points need be given up for a return of lost or stolen processed foods to the person who lost them or from whom they were stolen.

SEC. 10.4 Stocks of processed foods may be moved point-free between establishments of the same person. (a) No points need be given up when a person moves stocks of processed foods from one of his establishments to another of his establishments of the same kind. For example, a person who has two "retail establishments" may move processed foods from one to the other, without exchanging points between them. (However, a record must be kept of the amount of stocks involved in each such movement.) When a person "transfers" processed foods between establishments of different kinds—for example, from his "wholesale establishment" to his retail establishment—points must be given up just as if those establishments were operated by different persons.

[1] For convenience, the retailer, wholesaler, processor, or industrial or institutional user, to whom the transfer is made, will sometimes be called "the transferee", in the paragraphs which follow.

(b) This rule does not apply to the movement of stocks between "institutional user establishments" which are registered separately under General Ration Order 5.

SEC. 10.5 Processed foods may be stored and returned from storage, point-free. (a) No points need be given up for a delivery of processed foods for storage purposes only.

(b) No points need be given up for a delivery of processed foods from the place of storage to the person who stored them, or to a person to whom he has sold or transferred them. (However, that sale or transfer must be made in a way permitted by this order.)

SEC. 10.6 Security interests in processed foods may be created and released, point-free. (a) No points need be given up for a transfer of processed foods, or of any interest in them, for security purposes only. (For example, if processed foods are pledged or mortgaged the person with whom they are pledged or mortgaged need not give up points.)

(b) No points need be given up for a release of a security interest in processed foods, or for a return of those foods to the person who originally transferred them for security purposes. (For example, a person who pledged processed foods may get them back without giving up points. Similarly, a person who gave a chattel mortgage on his processed foods need not give up points when the mortgage is ended.)

SEC. 10.7 Processed foods may be transferred, point-free, for liquidation, by operation of law, or in judicial proceedings—(a) General. No points need be given up for a transfer of processed foods to a person who gets them for liquidation only. Also, no points need be given up for a transfer of processed foods as part of a judicial proceeding, or by operation of law, order of a court, or judicial process.[1] (For example, processed foods may be taken over by a creditor, under a court order, without any surrender of points. If processed foods are assigned for the benefit of creditors, the person to whom they are assigned need not give up points to the person making the assignment. Also, a person need not give up points when he inherits processed foods or "acquires" them by will.)

(b) How transferee may dispose of the processed foods. A person who acquires processed foods in this way must within five days after acquiring them, report to the district office (or, where there is none, to the State office) for the place where his principal business office is located:

(1) The kinds and the point value of the processed foods acquired;

(2) The name and address of the person from whom they were acquired;

(3) The way in which and the date when they were acquired. He may not use the processed foods unless he gives up to the district (or State) office, for cancellation, points equal to their point value. He may, however, sell or transfer them in the same way that a "retailer" is permitted to sell or transfer processed foods. He must immediately after selling or transferring them, account to the district (or State) office for points equal to their point value.

(c) Consumer inheritance. A consumer who gets processed foods from another consumer, by inheritance or by will, may use them without giving up points.

SEC. 10.8 Processed foods may be acquired, point-free, by insurers or for salvage—(a) Acquisition of damaged processed foods. Damaged processed foods, and undamaged processed foods mingled with them, may be transferred to, and acquired by, the following persons, without any surrender of points:

(1) A person who has paid or is liable for a claim for the damage done to the foods, and who is entitled to reimburse himself by taking them over;

(2) A person in the business of adjusting losses or of reconditioning or selling damaged articles.

(b) Disposal of the processed foods. The person acquiring the processed foods must, within five days after acquiring them, report to the district office (or, where there is none, to the State office) for the place where his principal business office is located:

(1) The kinds and point value of the processed foods acquired;

(2) The name and address of the person from whom he acquired them;

(3) The way in which and the date when they were acquired. If he cannot ascertain the kinds and point value immediately, he must describe the approximate amount he received and must give the detailed information as soon as he can. He may dispose of those processed foods only by a sale or transfer in the same way that a retailer is permitted to sell or transfer processed foods. He must, immediately after selling or transferring them, account to the district (or State) office for points equal to their point value. If he cannot dispose of them all, he must report to the district (or State) office the amount which was not salable.

SEC. 10.9 Processors may deliver samples, point-free. (a) A processor may deliver processed foods to prospective buyers (other than consumers) for sampling, without getting points. However, he may not deliver in this way, to any one buyer, more than four pounds of each kind of processed foods from any one pack which he produces or imports.

SEC. 10.10 Processed foods may be delivered to importer by customs official, point-free. (a) No points need be given up for a release or delivery of processed foods by an authorized customs official to the person who imported them.

SEC. 10.11 Processed foods may be transferred, point-free, in connection with transfer of a business. (a) No points need be given up for a sale or transfer of processed foods in the inventory of an establishment, as part of a sale or other transfer of the establishment itself for continued operation. A person who so buys or acquires processed foods may not use them, but may hold them only for sale or transfer. However, a person who acquires an industrial user establishment may use its stocks up to the amount of any allotment he gets. (The procedure which the transferor and transferee must follow, where an establishment is transferred for continued operation, is covered in Art. XI.)

Article XI—Sale of Business

SECTION 11.1 Sale or transfer of retail, wholesale, or processor establishment—(a) General. (1) When any "person" sells or "transfers" to any other person the business and inventory of his "retail", "wholesale" or "processor establishment", for continued operation, they must both notify the "board" at which the establishment is registered, or the "Washington Office", if it is registered there. The notice must be given in writing, within five (5) days after the sale or transfer, and must show:

(i) The name and business address of the establishment and of the persons transferring and "acquiring" it;

(ii) The point value of the inventory transferred; and

(iii) The number of points in the establishment's ration bank account, if any, and the number of points on hand including points sent to a supplier for "processed foods" not yet shipped.

This notice will be treated as the transferee's registration and as a cancellation of the transferor's registration.

(2) If the transferor has a ration bank account, he must notify the district office, in the way required by General Ration Order 3A (the ration banking order).

(b) Purchaser of retail or wholesale establishment may get its points. The purchaser or transferee of a retail or wholesale establishment may get and use all of the establishment's points in the same way that the seller or transferor was entitled to use them. (If it is a wholesale establishment, however, he may not use those points to exceed its maximum allowable inventory.) If the transferor has "stamps" or "certificates", he is to give them to the transferee. If the establishment has a ration bank account, the transferor is to issue a ration check to the transferee, for the number of points in the account less outstanding ration checks. (The transferee must use the check either to open a ration bank account for the establishment, or, if he does not open one, to get a certificate from the Board.)

(c) Seller of processor establishment must give up all points to the Office of Price Administration. A person who sells or transfers a processor establishment must, within five (5) days after the transfer, turn over to the Washington Office, all points on hand at that establishment and all in its ration bank account. He does so by issuing and sending his certified ration check, payable to the Office of Price Administration, along with his notice of the transfer. (If any of the points represent processed foods not yet shipped, he must attach to his notice a statement showing the amount and the person from whom he got them.)

(d) Same rules apply to sale of an entire chain. The rules set forth above also apply to a person who has more than one establishment of a particular kind and who sells or transfers all of them for continued operation. He must give the information, and give up or transfer the points for all the establishments.

(e) Sale of part of a chain. Where the seller or transferor also has other establishments of the same kind which are not sold or transferred, the procedure described in paragraph (a) of this section must be followed. However, while the purchaser or transferee may acquire the processed foods inventory of the transferred establishment, he may not acquire its points. In this case, the seller or transferor keeps the points. If he is a "retailer," or "wholesaler," he may use the points with his other establishment of the same kind as the transferred establishment. If he is a "processor," he must give up to the Washington Office, the points received for sales and transfers of processed foods from that establishment at the time that he is required to give up points received by his other processor establishments.

SEC. 11.2 Sale or transfer of industrial user establishments—(a) General. (1) When an industrial user sells or transfers to any other person the business and inventory of his industrial user establishment, for continued operation, both the transferor and transferee must notify the board at which the establishment is registered. The notice must be in writing, within five (5) days after the sale or transfer, and must show:

(i) The name and business address of the establishment and of the persons transferring and acquiring it;

(ii) The point value of the inventory transferred;

(iii) The number of points in the establishment's ration bank account, if any, and the number of points on hand, including points sent to a supplier for processed foods not yet shipped.

(2) If the transferor has a ration bank account, he must notify the district office, in the way required by General Ration Order 3A.

(b) Transferor must give up unused points. The seller or transferor must give up to the board all unused points he has for the establishment. If the establishment has a ration bank account, he must give up the points in the form of his certified ration check payable to the Office of Price Administration. The notice described in paragraph (a) of this section, and the surrender of unused points, will be treated as a cancellation of the transferor's registration and allotment.

(c) Application for allotment by transferee. The transferee may not use the stocks of processed foods transferred with the establishment unless he receives an allotment. The application for an allotment must be made, on OPA Form R-315, to the board for the place where his principal business office is located, and must state facts showing whether:

(1) The entire establishment, including substantially all the equipment the good will, and the processed foods inventory, has been transferred;

(2) The transferee will continue to serve, from that establishment, the same general class of customers and the same area served by it before the transfer;

(3) The equipment of the transferred establishment will be continued in use after the transfer; and

(4) The transferee will continue to produce, at the establishment, the same product or products, though not necessarily under the same trade name.

The board shall send the application, the notices sent to it by both parties and the transferor's registration to the district office (or, where there is none, to the State office).

(d) Granting of allotment. If the district (or State) office finds that the establishment will continue to be operated in substantially the same manner as before the transfer and that the tests described in paragraph (c) are satisfied, it shall assign to the transferee the transferor's allotment and base period use, for that establishment. It shall also give him a certificate for the number of points that the transferor surrendered to the board, or, if the amount of processed foods transferred to the transferee with the establishment is larger than the unused part of the allotment for the current period, plus any unused part of the transferor's earlier allotments, the difference shall be treated as excess inventory. The transferee may not use any part of the allotment already used by the transferor, but he may use any unused part of any prior allotment the transferor received for that establishment.

(e) Same rules apply to sale of entire chain. The same rules apply where a person who has more than one industrial user establishment sells or transfers all of them, for continued operation.

(f) Sale of part of a chain. (1) When the seller or transferor has other industrial user establishments which are not sold or transferred, the procedure described in paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section must be followed, except that the transferor must also apply to the board with which he registered for a redetermination of his allotment and his base period use. The board shall send the application and notices of both parties, and the transferor's registration, to the district office, or, where there is none, to the State office. If the district (or State) office finds that the tests described in paragraph (c) are satisfied, it shall grant an allotment to the transferee and assign to him a base period use. It shall first determine the amount of the transferor's allotment and base period use allocable to the transferred establishment. That base period use shall be assigned to the transferee. The transferee's allotment shall be the part of the transferor's allotment corresponding to the unexpired part of the allotment period. The base period use and the allotment assigned to the transferee shall be deducted from the base period use and current allotment of the transferor. The district office shall issue a certificate to the transferee (or determine his excess inventory) on the basis of the allotment granted to him and the amount of the inventory he acquired from the transferor. If the amount of processed foods transferred with the establishment is less than the allotment assigned to the transferee, the transferor must give up points to the Office of Price Administration for the difference. If he does not give up points, that difference shall be treated as excess inventory.

(g) Transferee's registration. A transferee is regarded as registered as soon as the district (or State) office assigns an allotment and base period use to him.

(h) Use of allotment by transferee. A transferee may not use an allotment assigned to him under this section if his operation of the transferred establishment ceases to meet the tests described in paragraph (c).

Article XII—New Businesses

SECTION 12.1 New retail establishments may be opened—(a) How stocks are obtained. A "person" who wishes to open a "retail establishment" after February 1943, may apply for a "certificate" to get stocks of "processed foods". The application must be made, on OPA Form R-315, to the "board" for the place where the establishment will be located. (If he also has a "wholesale" or "processor establishment", he must apply to the "Washington Office", and not to the board.) The application must show:

(1) The proposed name and address of the establishment;

(2) The amount he has invested or expects to invest in it;

(3) The size of the establishment;

(4) The number of points he needs in order to get adequate stocks;

(5) The point value of any stocks of processed foods he may have for that establishment.

(b) Issuance of certificate. The board (or the Washington Office) will issue to him a certificate for the number of points he needs to get an adequate working inventory.

(c) Registration. At the end of his first full month of operation, he must register that establishment, on OPA Form R-1302, in the same way that "retailers" register between April 1 and April 10, 1943. He must give all information called for by the form. However, he must show his sales and "transfers" of processed foods from that establishment during his first full month of operation, instead of during March 1943, and must report his point inventory at the end of that month, instead of at the end of March 1943. When he registers, he may get a certificate or, if he has excess inventory, he must give up points to the Office of Price Administration in the same way as retailers who register between April 1 and April 10, 1943. He may not, however, be given a certificate for more than the amount by which his allowable inventory exceeds the amount of the certificate given to him when he applied on OPA Form R-315.

(d) Procedure where no additional stocks are needed. Where the person who wishes to open the retail establishment has enough stocks, he need not apply on OPA Form R-315. He may begin operation with the stocks he has. However, before making any sales or transfers of processed foods from the establishment after April 10, 1943, he must notify the board for the place where the establishment is located. If he also has a wholesale or a processor establishment, he must notify the Washington Office, instead of the board. The notice must be in writing and must give the name and address of the establishment and the point value of its inventory. At the end of his first full month of operation, he must register the establishment and follow the procedure described in the last paragraph.

SEC. 12.2 New wholesale establishments may be opened—(a) How stocks are obtained. A person who wishes to open a wholesale establishment after February 1943, may apply for a certificate to get stocks of processed foods. The application must be made to the Washington Office on OPA Form R–315. The application must show:

(1) The proposed name and address of the establishment;

(2) The amount he has invested or expects to invest in it;

(3) The size of the establishment;

(4) The number of points he needs in order to get adequate stocks;

(5) The point value of any stocks of processed foods he may have for that establishment.

(b) Issuance of a certificate. The Washington Office will issue to him a certificate for the number of points he needs to get an adequate working inventory.

(c) Reports. Beginning for his first full month of operation, he must file reports for that establishment, on OPA Form R–1310, and follow the same procedure as a "wholesaler" who registered between April 1 and April 10, 1943.

(d) Procedure where no additional stocks are needed. Where the person who wishes to open the wholesale establishment has enough stocks, he need not apply on OPA Form R–315. He may begin operations with the stocks he has. However, before making any sales or transfers of processed foods from that establishment after April 10, 1943, he must notify the Washington Office. The notice must be in writing and must give the name and address of the establishment and the point value of its inventory.

SEC. 12.3 New processor establishments may be opened. (a) A person who opens a processor establishment which was not in operation during February 1943 must notify the Washington Office before making any sales or transfers of processed foods from that establishment. The notice must be in writing and must show:

(1) The name and address of the establishment;

(2) The type of processed foods he produces or imports there;

(3) The inventory of that establishment on the date of the notice.

He must file reports for that establishment, on OPA Form R–1305, beginning for the month in which he started operations there.

SEC. 12.4 In special cases, allotments may be granted for new industrial user establishments. (a) A person who has or wishes to open an "industrial user establishment" which he did not operate at any time between January 1, 1942 and February 28, 1943, may apply for an allotment. No such application may be granted in any case, unless it is found that:

(1) The operation of the establishment will make a direct contribution to the war effort or is essential to meet civilian needs in the area it will serve; and

(2) The product it will produce cannot be obtained from any other source in the area to be supplied.

(b) The application must be made on OPA Form R–315, to the board for the place where the establishment is or will be located. The application must show:

(1) The product the applicant will make;

(2) The size of the establishment;

(3) The amount he has invested or intends to invest in it;

(4) The market to be supplied;

(5) The kinds and point value of any processed foods he may have for that establishment;

(6) The amount of the allotment requested.

(c) The board may call for any additional information it finds necessary. It may not pass on the application, but must forward it, together with all information received, to the district office (or, where there is none, to the State office). It may attach its recommendation, if any, as to the action to be taken. The district (or State) office must forward the entire file to the Washington Office, for decision, or take such other action as the Washington Office may authorize or direct.

(d) An industrial user who already has an allotment, may not open another industrial user establishment and use his allotment there, unless he applies under this section and is given permission to do so.

Article XIII—Closing of Business

SECTION 13.1 What a person who closes his establishment must do—(a) General. (1) Any "retailer", "wholesaler", "processor", or "industrial user" who goes out of the business of dealing in or using "processed foods" at his establishment must notify the "board" at which it is registered, or the "Washington Office", if it is registered there. The notice must be given in writing, within five (5) days after he goes out of the business. It must show:

(i) The name and address of the establishment;

(ii) The point value of its inventory at the time he stopped doing business there; and

(iii) The number of points in the establishment's ration bank account, if any, and the number of points on hand, including points in the hands of his suppliers for processed foods not yet shipped. If he has a ration bank account, he must also notify the district office, in the way required by General Ration Order 3A (the ration banking order).

(2) He must account to the Office of Price Administration for all points he has for the establishment at which he ceased doing business. If all his stocks of processed foods have not been disposed of at the time of the notice, he must account for the rest of the points as soon as the stocks have been liquidated. An industrial user who has given the notice called for above, may sell or "transfer" his unused stocks of processed foods in the same way that a retailer is permitted to make sales or transfers.

(b) Closing of entire chain. The rules set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, also apply to a "person" who has more than one establishment of a particular kind and who goes out of business at all of them. He must give the information required, and must give up the points, for all the establishments.

(c) Closing of part of a chain. (1) A person who has several retail, wholesale or processor establishments may go out of business at one or more, but may continue to operate the others. In that case, he need not give up points to the Office of Price Administration at that time but may use them for the operation of the establishments which he continues.

(i) If the establishment closed was a "retail establishment", he must notify the board at which it is registered within five (5) days after he closes it. If it is registered at the Washington Office, he must notify that office instead. The notice must be in writing and must give the name and address of the establishment closed.

(ii) If the establishment closed was a "wholesale" or "processor establishment", he must indicate that fact in his next monthly report.

(2) A person who has several industrial user establishments may go out of business at one or more, but may continue to operate the others. In that case he must notify the board with which he is registered. The notification must be in writing and must state whether and to what extent he will continue to serve, from his other establishments, the same area and the same general class of customers. The board must send the notification and his registration to the district office, or where there is none, to the State office. The district (or State) office shall determine the extent to which he remains entitled to use his entire allotment. He may keep his entire allotment only if his remaining establishments will continue to serve the same general class of customers and the same area as the establishment closed. His allotment and his base period use must be reduced to the extent that he will cease to serve the same class of customers and the same area. If his allotment is reduced, he must give up to the Office of Price Administration points equal to the reduction. If he does not have points to give up, the amount of the reduction shall be treated as excess inventory.

Article XIV—Miscellaneous Adjustments

SECTION 14.1 Retailer may apply for inventory adjustments after March 1943—(a) How to apply. A "retailer" who finds that his allowable inventory is inadequate may apply for an adjustment. The application must be made, on OPA Form R–315, to the "board" with which he registered, or to the "Washington Office", if he registered there. The application must give the following information:

(1) The amount of his allowable inventory;

(2) The reasons why he claims that it is inadequate;

(3) The point value of his sales and "transfers" of "processed foods" during the thirty days before his application, not including exchanges, and transfers from one of his "retail establishments" to another;

(4) The amount of the adjustment which he needs.

He must also give any other information that the board (or the Washington Office) may request.

(b) Application based on increase of business. If he asks for a larger inventory because of an increase in business which is not due to regular seasonal variations, his application is to be acted upon in the following way:

(1) The point value of his sales or transfers upon which his allowable inventory was based is determined;

(2) The point value of his sales and transfers of processed foods, during the thirty days before the application is determined;

(3) If the second figure is more than ten percent larger than the first figure, he is to get a "certificate" for the difference between them multiplied by the factor fixed in the Supplement to this order for determining retailer allowable inventories;

(4) If the second figure is not more than ten percent larger than the first, his application is to be denied.

(c) Other applications. If he asks for a larger inventory for any other reason, a board may not act on the application but must send it, and any other information received, to the district office, or, where there is none, to the State office. The board may attach its recommendation, when it transmits the application. The district (or State) office shall send the file to the Washington Office, for decision, or take such other action as the Washington Office may authorize or direct.

SEC. 14.2 Wholesaler may apply for inventory adjustments after March 1943—(a) How to apply. A "wholesaler" who finds that his maximum allowable inventory is inadequate may apply for an adjustment. The application must be made to the Washington Office, on OPA Form R–315, and must give the following information:

(1) The amount of his maximum allowable inventory for the month in which he applies;

(2) The reasons why he claims that it is inadequate;

(3) The amount of the adjustment which he needs.

He must also give any other information that the Washington Office may request.

(b) Action on application. The Washington Office will act on the application according to the circumstances of the case.

SEC. 14.3 Wholesalers and retailers may apply for point loans—(a) General. A retailer or a wholesaler may have large seasonal variations in the amount of business that he does. He may therefore need an unusually large inventory at certain times. In other cases, due to difficulties of transportation, a retailer or a wholesaler may have a large number of points tied up in the hands of his supplier, for processed foods which he has not yet received. In these situations the retailer or wholesaler may wish to borrow points in order to get enough processed foods to tide himself over. He does not need a permanent adjustment, but simply a loan of points which he can pay back later.

(b) Application for a point loan. A retailer or wholesaler may apply for a point loan when he needs more points to get processed foods for a limited period of time, because of uncertainties or delays in transportation or because of seasonal variations in his business. He must apply on OPA Form R–315, to the board with which he is registered (or to the Washington Office, if he is registered there). The application must show:

(1) His allowable inventory;

(2) The reasons he needs a point loan;

(3) The number of points he needs to borrow;

(4) The length of time for which he needs the loan.

He must give any other information that the board (or the Washington Office) requests.

(c) Action on application. If he needs a point loan for any of the reasons set forth in the last paragraph, he may be given a certificate for the number of points needed. The loan can be for any period up to two months. He must give back that number of points to the Office of Price Administration, for cancellation, not later than the date set at the time the certificate is issued.

(d) When Board may not act upon application. A board may not grant a point loan of more than fifty percent of the applicant's allowable inventory. If more than that is needed, it must send the application, together with all information it received, to the district office or, where there is none, to the State office. It may attach its recommendation as to the action to be taken. The district (or State) office shall send the file to the Washington Office, for decision, or take such other action as the Washington Office may authorize or direct.

SEC. 14.4 Adjustments for lost, destroyed, stolen or spoiled processed foods—(a) Lost, destroyed or stolen processed foods—(1) How to apply. Any "person" whose processed foods were lost, destroyed or stolen, or taken away by legal process or order of a court, may apply for a certificate for the number of points needed to replace them. The application must be made on OPA Form R–315. A "consumer" who wants a certificate must apply to the board for the place where he lives. Any other person must apply to the board with which he is registered (or to the Washington Office, if he is registered there). The application must give:

(i) A description of the processed foods he wishes to replace, showing their point value;

(ii) A description of the way in which they were lost, destroyed, stolen, or taken away.

He must also give any other information that the board (or the Washington Office) may request.

(2) Action on application. If the board (or the Washington Office) finds the statements made in the application to be true, it will issue to him a certificate for the number of points needed to replace the foods.

(3) Recovery of lost or stolen foods. If the applicant gets back any of the processed foods covered by his application, he must give back to the Office of Price Administration, for cancellation, points equal to the point value of the foods he recovered.

(b) Spoiled processed foods. No adjustment is granted for processed foods which spoiled. These may be replaced only by exchanging them for good processed foods of equal point value. However, a "processor" may account, in his monthly report to the Washington Office, for processed foods which spoiled in his hands, or which he took back in an exchange.

(c) Processed foods used for sampling—(1) General. A retailer, wholesaler or industrial user who "acquires" processed foods from a processor may sample some of them in order to check grades and quality. He may not then be able to sell or transfer, or use the foods which he sampled. If he has given up points to the processor for processed foods which he had to sample, he may apply for a certificate for the number of points needed to replace them. The application must be made, on OPA Form R–315, to the board with which he is registered, or to the Washington Office, if he is registered there. The application must contain:

(i) The name and address of the processor from whom he acquired the processed foods;

(ii) A description of the processed foods he used for sampling, showing their point value and the date when he acquired them;

(iii) The reason he had to sample them;

(iv) A statement that he did not and was not able to sell or transfer the foods sampled, or use them for any other purpose;

(v) The number of points needed to replace them.

He also must give any other information that the board (or the Washington Office) may request.

(2) Action on application. If the board (or the Washington Office) finds the statements made in the application to be true, it will issue to him a certificate for the number of points needed to replace the processed foods which he had to sample.

SEC. 14.5 Applications may be made for other adjustments—(a) How to apply. Any retailer, wholesaler, processor or industrial user who needs an adjustment in his inventory or allotments, or other relief, may apply, on OPA Form R–315, to the board with which he is registered, or to the Washington Office, if he is registered there. He must state in his application all facts which he claims show his need for the adjustment, and the nature and amount of the adjustment he requests. He must also give any other information that the board (or the Washington Office) requests.

(b) Action on application. A board may not act upon an application under this section. It must send the application, together with all other information received, to the district office, or, where there is none, to the State office. It may attach its recommendation as to the action to be taken. The district (or State) office shall send the file to the Washington Office, for decision, or take such other action as the Washington Office may authorize or direct.

Article XV—Issuance and Use of Certificates

SECTION 15.1 How certificates are issued—(a) By whom issued. "Certificates" (OPA Form R-1201) may be issued by the "Washington Office", by a "board", by any authorized officer or representative of the Office of Price Administration, or by any person authorized by the Office of Price Administration to issue them. Certificates may be issued only in the cases and for the purposes permitted by this or any other order of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) How certificates are issued. The "person" who issues a certificate must insert, in ink, the words "Processed Foods" in the appropriate space and must sign it and fill in:

(1) The number of points for which it is issued;

(2) The name of the person for whom it is issued; and

(3) The expiration date of the certificate, which is 60 days after the date on which it is issued.

A certificate which is not filled out in this way is not good for the acquisition of processed foods and may not be used or accepted for that purpose.

SEC. 15.2 Certificates are good for a limited time. (a) A certificate may not be used by the person for whom it was issued after the date shown on its face. However, a "retailer" who "transferred" "processed foods" for a certificate may use it to acquire processed foods within ten days after the date shown on its face, if he does not have and is not required to have a ration bank account. Any person who has a ration bank account may deposit a certificate (whether it was issued to him, or received by him for a transfer of processed foods) within twenty days after the date shown on its face. A certificate is thus not valid for any purpose more than twenty days after the date shown on its face.

SEC. 15.3 A certificate must be endorsed. (a) Before it can be used, a certificate must be signed on the back by the person for whom it was issued, or by a person authorized to sign for him, if he cannot write.

(b) Any retailer, "wholesaler" or "processor" who has transferred processed foods for a certificate must sign his name on the back of the certificate before he can deposit or use it.

SEC. 15.4 Board may issue a certificate in exchange for a ration check. (a) A retailer who does not have, and is not required to have a ration bank account may take a ration check from a person to whom he sells or transfers processed foods. He cannot use the check, but he must give it to a board and get, in return, a certificate for the same number of points. The board must give a certificate to such a retailer in exchange for a ration check payable to him. He must endorse the check before exchanging it. (The way in which the board then handles the ration check is covered by General Ration Order 3A.)

(b) A consumer who has received a ration check because his mail order was not filled must exchange that check for a certificate, at any board.

SEC. 15.5 Names of persons who have been given certificates may be posted. (a) A board may post at its office the name of any person to whom it has issued a certificate under this order. However, it shall not do so if it would reveal information of a military character, or information which any public law enforcement or investigating agency wishes to keep confidential.

SEC. 15.6 Certificates are the property of the Office of Price Administration and may be revoked. (a) All certificates are the property of the Office of Price Administration, whether or not they have been issued.

(b) The Office of Price Administration may suspend, cancel, or revoke any certificate issued if it finds it in the public interest to do so.

Article XVI—Records, Reports and Inspections

SECTION 16.1 Records must be kept for two years. (a) Every "person" must hold, for at least two years, all records which this order requires him to keep.

SEC. 16.2 Records may be inspected by Office of Price Administration. (a) All records kept under this order may be inspected by the Office of Price Administration, through any authorized representative. The inspection may be made at a person's place of business during regular business hours. In the case of records kept on forms prepared by the Office of Price Administration, the inspection of those records may be made at any time or place fixed by the Office of Price Administration. Every person required to keep records under this order must keep them available for such inspection.

SEC. 16.3 Places where processed foods are kept may be inspected. (a) The Office of Price Administration, through any authorized representative, may at any reasonable time inspect any place where "processed foods" are produced, imported or kept. Any person who produces, imports, or has processed foods, must permit such inspection of the place where he produces, imports or keeps them.

SEC. 16.4 Records and reports are confidential. (a) Information and documents obtained from any person under this order will not be disclosed, whether in response to a subpoena or in any other way, except to that person, unless the Administrator (or a representative of the Office of Price Administration designated by him) finds that the requested disclosure is not contrary to law and consents to it.

SEC. 16.5 Office of Price Administration may extend time for registration and reports. (a) The "Washington Office" may, for good cause, give any person additional time to file any registration or report which this order requires him to file. Any person who needs more time for filing a registration or report may apply, in writing, to the Washington Office. He must explain, in his application, why he needs more time. The Washington Office may impose any conditions it finds proper, when it grants such an extension of time.

SEC. 16.6 Office of Price Administration may require applicants to give information. (a) The Washington Office, a "board", a district manager, State director or regional administrator may require any person who files an application or an appeal under this order to appear in person, to bring witnesses and to supply any information needed for passing on his case.

SEC. 16.7 Persons who produce certain items similar to processed foods must file reports. (a) Every person who for sale or transfer, (1) packs frozen fruits or vegetables in containers over ten pounds, or (2) produces jams, jellies, preserves, fruit butters, pickles or relishes, or (3) cans or bottles fruit or vegetable juices in hermetically sealed containers containing over one gallon and sterilizes them by the use of heat, or (4) cans condensed or evaporated milk, or meat, or fish or shellfish in hermetically sealed containers sterilized by the use of heat, must file monthly reports on OPA Form R-1305. He must give all information as to those items called for by the form.

(b) The first report is for February 1943 and must be filed, by mail, with the Office of Price Administration, care of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C., not later than March 10, 1943. Reports for subsequent months must be filed not later than ten days after the end of the month.

Article XVII—Additional Records To Be Kept by Chains

SECTION 17.1 Chains must keep records of transfers of stocks and points between establishments. (a) Every person who has more than one "retail", "wholesale", or "processor establishment" must keep at each establishment a record, in any convenient form, which shows:

(1) The amount of "processed foods" "transferred" from and "acquired" at that establishment, the date of each transfer or acquisition, and the name and address of the establishment to which the processed foods were transferred or from which they were acquired. The record must show the amount of processed foods which were transferred or acquired either by items and sizes, or by point value. (However, no such record need be kept for transfers of processed foods to "consumers"); and

(2) The number of points received there for transfers of processed foods from that establishment, the disposition of those points, and the dates of their disposition.

(b) In addition, he must keep for each ration bank account used by him for more than one establishment, a record showing the number of points deposited in that account by and for each such establishment, and the dates of the deposits.

Article XVIII—Appeals

SECTION 18.1 Persons directly affected by action taken under this order can appeal. (a) Any "person" directly affected by the action of a "board", district manager, state director or regional administrator, on any application or other matter, may appeal from that action in the way permitted by Procedural Regulation No. 9 of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) This section shall not apply to action taken on any application made under section 12.4 or section 14.5.

Article XIX—Miscellaneous Rules and Prohibitions

SECTION 19.1 Additional prohibitions. (a) No "person" shall use points unless he has received them in a way permitted by this or any other Order of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) No person shall "transfer", "acquire", use or possess "processed foods" except in a way permitted by this or any other order of the Office of Price Administration.

(c) No person shall give or transfer points, a "stamp" or a certificate to any other person, except in a way permitted by this or any other order of the Office of Price Administration.

(d) No person may transfer processed foods for a stamp, certificate or ration check if he knows or has reason to believe that it is not valid or that the person tendering it is not entitled to use it.

(e) No person shall have a stamp, certificate or ration check in his possession except the person (or agent of the person) to whom it was issued or by whom it was acquired in a way permitted by this or any other order of the Office of Price Administration.

(f) No person shall deface, mutilate, or destroy any stamp, certificate or ration check, except where permitted by this or any other order of the Office of Price Administration. A defaced or mutilated stamp, certificate or ration check is not valid for any purpose.

(g) No person shall counterfeit, forge, or alter a stamp, certificate or ration check, and no person shall transfer, acquire, possess or use a counterfeited, forged or altered stamp, certificate or ration check.

(h) No person shall offer, solicit, attempt or agree to do, or assist in doing, any act in violation of this order.

(i) Paragraphs (b), (c), (e), (f) and (g) of this section do not apply to public officials who do any of those acts in the performance of their public duties.

(j) No person shall, in any registration, report, application, or other statement or record made pursuant to or required by this order, make any untrue statement of fact, or omit to state any fact which is required to be stated or which is necessary to make a statement not misleading.

(k) No person shall, after demand, withhold a stamp, certificate or ration check from the person who is entitled to have it.

(l) No person shall sell or transfer any item of processed foods at a price in excess of the applicable maximum price established for that item by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 19.2 Stamps and certificates may not be taken by legal process or acquired by will. (a) No stamp, certificate or ration check, or any interest in it, may be taken or seized by judicial process or by any court order. However, a person to whom a War Ration Book Two or a certificate has been issued may bring a legal proceeding to recover it from any person who is wrongfully in possession of it. He may, as part of that proceeding, take or seize it by judicial process or court order.

(b) No stamp or certificate, or any interest in it, may be transferred or acquired by inheritance or by will.

SEC. 19.3 Office of Price Administration must be notified of legal proceedings. (a) Any person who has a stamp, certificate or ration check must notify the district office of the Office of Price Administration immediately after the beginning of any legal proceeding involving that stamp, certificate or check.

Article XX—Suspension Orders

SECTION 20.1 Office of Price Administration may issue suspension orders. (a) Any "person" who violates this order may, by administrative suspension order, be prohibited from receiving any "transfer" or delivery of, or from selling or using or otherwise disposing of, any "processed food" or other rationed product or facility. Such suspension order shall be issued for such period as in the judgment of the Administrator, or such person as he may designate for such purpose, is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national security.

Article XXI—Definitions

SECTION 21.1 Definitions. (a) When used in this order:

(1) "Acquire" means to accept a "transfer" or to get possession or title in any other way.

(2) "Board" means a war price and rationing board established by the Office of Price Administration.

(3) "Certificate" means a certificate on OPA Form R-1201.

(4) "Consumer" means any "person" who "acquires" "processed foods" for personal use, or for use at a table at which he eats.

(5) "Industrial user" means any "person" who has an "industrial user establishment".

(6) "Industrial user establishment" means any place where a "person" uses "processed foods" in producing or manufacturing, for sale or "transfer", any product which is not a processed food.

(7) "Institutional user" means any "person" who has an "institutional user establishment".

(8) "Institutional user establishment" means an institutional user establishment as defined in General Ration Order 5. (With certain exceptions, it means any place where a "person" uses a rationed food in the preparation of food which he serves to "consumers", or in the service of food to consumers.)

(9) "Person" means not only an individual, but also a partnership, corporation, association, or business trust. It includes a government, government agency and any other organized group or enterprise.

(10) "Processed foods" means:

(i) All fruits, fruit juices, vegetables, vegetable juices, soups, and baby foods, packed in hermetically sealed containers of any type and sterilized by the use of heat;

(ii) All frozen fruits and vegetables;

(iii) All dried and dehydrated fruits. However, it does not include any of the following items: candied fruits; cereals; chili con carne; frozen fruits and vegetables in containers over ten (10) pounds; fruit and vegetable juices in containers over one (1) gallon; fruit cakes; fruit puddings; jams; jellies; meat stews containing some vegetables; milk; olives; paste products, such as spaghetti, macaroni, or noodles, whether or not they are packed with added vegetable sauces; pickles; potato salad; preserves; relishes; and by-products of fruits or vegetables, such as soya bean oil, soya bean milk, fruit and vegetable dyes, and similar products.

(11) "Processor" means any "person" who has a "processor establishment".

(12) "Processor establishment" means any place where a "person" produces "processed foods" for sale or "transfer". A person is considered to "produce" if he:

(i) Bottles, cans or packs fruits, fruit juices, vegetables, vegetable juices, soups or baby foods, in hermetically sealed containers and sterilizes them by the use of heat; or

(ii) Packs frozen fruits or vegetables in containers of ten pounds or less; or

(iii) Sorts, washes, and processes dried or dehydrated fruits; or

(iv) Repacks frozen fruits or vegetables from containers over ten pounds into containers of ten pounds or less; or

(v) Repacks fruit or vegetable juices from containers over one gallon into containers of one gallon or less; or

(vi) Uses processed foods to make other processed foods.

The term "processor establishment" also means any place to which a person imports processed foods into the United States, from any place outside the United States, for sale or transfer. It also includes a place at which a person does not produce or import processed foods, if he regularly keeps there, for sale or transfer, only processed foods which he himself produced or imported. Finally, there is one case in which a place where a person keeps stocks of processed foods produced or imported by someone else is a processor establishment. If he keeps those stocks at that place just to use them to produce other processed foods, that place is a processor establishment.

(13) "Retail establishment" means any place, (other than a "processor establishment") where a "person" who deals in "processed foods" keeps stocks of those foods for sale or transfer, if more than fifty per cent of those stocks are sold or transferred from there directly to "consumers". Even if the amount sold or transferred from there directly to consumers is fifty per cent or less, it is still a retail establishment in the following case:

(i) If some of those stocks are transferred directly to consumers; and

(ii) If he keeps the rest of the stocks just to supply his own establishments; and

(iii) If no "wholesale establishment" and not more than three retail establishments are supplied from there.

(14) "Retailer" means any "person" who has a "retail establishment."

(15) "Stamp" means a blue stamp in, or taken from War Ration Book Two.

(16) "Transfer" means to sell, give, exchange, lend, deliver, or consign. It includes any transfer of possession or title, however accomplished, and any movement of goods from one establishment to another. The use by any "person" of "processed foods" which he holds for sale or transfer is considered a transfer of those foods to himself. However, delivery to a carrier for shipment is not regarded as a transfer to the carrier; and delivery by the carrier to the consignee is not regarded as a transfer by the carrier.

(17) "Washington Office" means the national headquarters of the Office of Price Administration, in Washington, D. C.

(18) "Wholesale establishment" means any place (other than a "processor establishment") where a "person" who deals in "processed foods" keeps stocks of those foods for sale or transfer, if fifty per cent or more of those stocks are transferred from there directly to persons other than "consumers". However, if he keeps the stocks which are not transferred to consumers, just to supply his own establishments, it is a wholesale establishment only if it supplies:

(i) At least one of his wholesale establishments; or

(ii) At least four of his "retail establishments".

(19) "Wholesaler" means any "person" who has a "wholesale establishment".

From 21% to 40% wool content add 8%.
From 41% to 80% wool content add 6%.
From 81% to 95% wool content add 4%.

Where yarns are spun from blended wool and mohair on the woolen or worsted systems the maximum price shall be a price reduced from the applicable maximum price for yarns spun from wool by the amount thereby saved in raw material costs. 10/1	25% domestic wool, 25% foreign wool, 50% cotton, combed	1.31
10/1	50% foreign wool, 50% cotton, combed	1.28

¼ cent per pound for each count to 20/1s, inclusive.

½ cent per pound for each count from 21/1s to 50/1s, inclusive.

The maximum prices for single merino yarns of one of the above types of counts less than 10/1s shall be the maximum prices set forth from which shall be deducted ¼ cents per pound for each count.

(ii) Maximum prices for other blended yarns spun on a system other than the woolen or worsted system. Except for the types of yarns enumerated in subdivision (i) above the maximum price for yarns spun from blended wool and other fibers on a system other than the woolen or worsted system shall be determined in accordance with the General Maximum Price Regulation[3] or, where applicable, Maximum Price Regulation No. 157.[4]

§ 1418.102 Maximum prices for commodities not actually produced or manufactured in the Virgin Islands of the United States. * * *

(b) Where a seller offered for sale or delivery to a buyer in the Virgin Islands of the United States any commodity for which a maximum price regulation has been issued in the continental United States and which is not actually produced or manufactured in the Virgin Islands of the United States, and the maximum price of such commodity cannot be determined under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the maximum price of such commodity shall be determined in accordance with the following procedure. The seller of such commodity shall file in duplicate with the Territorial Office of the Office of Price Administration, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands of the United States, a sworn petition containing:

(1) A description of the commodity

(2) A statement of the facts which prevent determination of the maximum price under paragraph (a) of § 1418.102.

(5) The price at which the seller intends to offer the commodity for sale.

(6) Such other facts which the seller deems relevant in the determination of a price for such commodity.

C. If a seller objects to a price authorized by the Territorial Director, he must file such objection with the Territorial Office of the Office of Price Administration, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands of the United States within 15 days after the date the notice of price authorization by the Territorial Director was postmarked. If, at the expiration of 30 days from the date the price authorization is signed by the Territorial Director, the Administration for the Ninth Region does not issue an order establishing a maximum price other than the maximum price authorized by the Territorial Director, the seller may thereafter continue to sell such commodity at a price not in excess of the maximum price authorized by the Territorial Director. The Administrator for the Ninth Region may from time to time make such changes in the authorized maximum prices as in his judgment changes in circumstances require. Such increases or decreases in maximum prices shall not have retroactive effect. If a seller objects to a price authorized by the Administrator for the Ninth Region, he may obtain review in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 7.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

[Order 19687]

RESTRICTIONS ON OVERSEAS SHIPMENTS TO ARMY PERSONNEL

JANUARY 7, 1943.

The War Department has informed the Post Office Department that in view of the heavy demands being made on cargo space for military shipments and because of the limited facilities available to commanders of theatres of operations for delivery of mail, the volume of mail dispatched to overseas destinations must be kept to a minimum. Therefore, in accordance with the recommendations of the War Department, the following restrictions on mail for Army personnel addressed to APO's overseas, other than official shipments and shipments to military agencies, shall become effective January 15, 1943.

1. No parcel exceeding 5 pounds in weight, or 15 inches in length, or 36 inches in length and girth combined, shall be accepted for dispatch to APO's overseas for individuals. (It is contemplated that there will be no exceptions to the weight and size limits for parcels to individuals.)

2. Except as hereinafter provided, no parcels shall be accepted for dispatch to APO's outside the continental United States unless they contain such articles only as are being sent at the specific written request of the addressee, approved by the battalion or similar unit commander of the addressee.

3. Individual copies of newspapers or magazines shall be accepted for dispatch to APO's outside the continental United States only where subscriptions are specifically requested in writing by the addressee or for which subscriptions are now in effect. Such copies to individuals shall be accepted only from publishers who shall place on the wrapper, or on the publication when a wrapper is not used, a certificate (which shall be regarded as sufficient to authorize their acceptance) reading as follows:

Mailed in conformity with P. O. D. Order No. 19687.

4. No circular matter of the third class should be presented for mailing to APO's overseas, as the War Department advises that it will not be dispatched from ports of embarkation.

5. V-Mail will be transmitted, either when microfilmed or in its original form, to all APO's overseas and transported by airplane where such facilities are available. Although letters prepaid at the air mail rate of six cents per half ounce will continue to be transported by airplane as far as the ports of embarkation, the War Department advises that no assurance can be given that such letters, other than V-Mail, will be dispatched by airplane from ports of embarkation to localities overseas served by V-Mail.

Referring to Restriction 2 above, the War Department states that individuals serving overseas desiring to request the mailing of parcels to them will be required to include in their request the following:

1. A general description or name of article requested.

2. The grade or rating, the complete address, and the signature of the individual (addressee) making request.

The request will be presented to the battalion or similar unit commander who will approve it when the circumstances justify. Requests of officers not assigned to organizations or separate units will be approved by the next higher or theatre headquarters. In case the individual making the request is a civilian, the request will be approved by the commanding officer of the installation concerned.

Parcels addressed to individuals at APO's overseas must be accompanied with the approved written request from the addressee as above set forth when presented for mailing. The request shall be postmarked by the accepting employee in such manner as to prevent its reuse and then be returned to the sender.

Discontinuance of Insurance and C.O.D. Services and Curtailment of Registry Service for Army Personnel

No matter addressed to members of the armed forces or other persons receiving mail through APO's overseas shall be accepted as insured or C.O.D. mail.

Similarly, letters or packages containing money or other articles of value except valuable papers addressed to members of the armed forces at such overseas APO's, or to other persons receiving mail through such APO's, shall be refused registration. However, letters containing valuable or important papers may be registered. No postal indemnity will be paid in connection with registered letters containing the valuable or important papers. The public should be warned that it is not advisable to inclose currency in ordinary letters and the use of money order service for remittances recommended.

General Instructions

Mail addressed for delivery to APO's outside the continental United States shall embrace all that which is addressed to such APO's in care of the postmaster at New York, New York, San Francisco, California, Seattle, Washington, New Orleans, Louisiana, Miami, Florida, or Presque Isle, Maine.

Mail of any character originally addressed to individuals at Army posts, camps or stations in the continental United States and received at such places after departure of the addressees for an overseas destination will be forwarded.

The restrictions of this order apply only to personnel of the U. S. Army and to contractors and civilians served though APO's outside the continental United States. They do not apply to mail for personnel of the Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard, nor to International mail which will continue until further notice to be subject to the provisions of Order No. 17471 of April 20, 1942, and the general permits thereunder in so far as applicable.

None of the restrictions in this order apply to official shipments and shipments to military agencies overseas nor to any mail from APO's outside the continental United States to points in the United States.

Postmasters shall return to the senders, marked "Dispatch prohibited by Order No. 19687" any prohibited matter obviously accepted for mailing after January 15, 1943.

This action is prompted by military necessity and it is believed that the public will cheerfully comply.

Postmaster General.

KIRKPATRICK COAL CO.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of Kirkpatrick Coal Company, Registered Distributor, Registration No. 5103.

The Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") finds it necessary in the proper administration of the Bituminous Coal Act (the "Act") and the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code") promulgated thereunder, to determine:

A. Whether Kirkpatrick Coal Company, Registered Distributor, Registration No. 5103, (the "Registered Distributor") whose address is Dermon Building, Memphis, Tennessee, has violated any provisions of the Act, and orders, rules and regulations of the Division promulgated thereunder, the Marketing Rules and Regulations and Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors and the Distributor's Agreement (the "Agreement"), dated July 21, 1939 and filed by the Registered Distributor pursuant to an order of the National Bituminous Coal Commission dated March 24, 1939 and adopted as an order of the Bituminous Coal Division by order of the Secretary of the Interior, dated July 1, 1939, and particularly, whether, subsequent to November 14, 1939, the effective date of registration of the Registered Distributor,

1. During the period March 7, 1941 to April 30, 1941, both dates inclusive, while acting as agent for the Kentucky Coal Agency, Madisonville, Kentucky, and as sub-agent for the Beech Creek Coal Company, Code Member, pursuant to a sales agency agreement dated September 28, 1940 and filed with the Division on October 22, 1940 between said Code Member and the Registered Distributor, and a sub-sales agency agreement dated September 13, 1938 between said Code Member, the Registered Distributor and the Kentucky Coal Agency filed with the Division on December 11, 1941, the Registered Distributor sold for railway locomotive fuel use approximately 519.85 net tons of various sizes of double-screened and lump coal produced at the Beech Creek Mine, Mine Index No. 1, to the Louisville-Nashville Railroad Company, Seaboard Airlines Railroad Company and Gulf Mobile and Ohio Railroad Company at prices ranging from $1.49 to $1.65 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, which coal was substituted for mine run coal having a lower minimum price than lump and double-screened coal, and failed to file immediately with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 9 applications for such substitutions. In said transactions the applicable minimum f. o. b. mine price for said lump and double-screened coal was $1.80 per net ton as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9 for All Shipments Except Truck. Each such transaction was a violation of section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code and Rule 1 of section XI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations resulting in a violation by the Registered Distributor of paragraphs (b) and (e) of the Agreement.

2 During the period November 8, 1940 to May 12, 1941, both dates inclusive, while acting as agent for the Kentucky Coal Agency, Madisonville, Kentucky, and as sub-agent for the said Beech Creek Coal Company, pursuant to the said sales agency agreement and said sub-sales agency agreement, the Registered Distributor sold approximately 16233.05 net tons of various sizes of coal produced at the Beech Creek Mine and intentionally misrepresented the sizes thereof by falsely recording on the invoices therefor sizes other than those actually sold and shipped. Each such transaction was a violation of section 4 II (i) 8 of the Act, Part II (i) 8 of the Code, Rule 2 of section XII and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, resulting in a violation by the Registered Distributor of paragraphs (c) and (e) of the Agreement.

3. During the period December 27, 1940 to June 30, 1941, both dates inclusive, while acting as sales agent for the Pine Hill Mining Company, Code Member, pursuant to a sales agency agreement dated September 28, 1940, filed with the Division on October 21, 1940, the Registered Distributor sold for railway locomotive fuel use approximately 698.85 net tons of double-screened coal produced at the Pine Hill Mine, Mine Index No. 320, in District No. 9, to the Illinois Central Railroad Company and Columbus & Greenville Railroad Company at prices ranging from $1.49 to $1.65 per net ton f. o. b. the mine which coal was substituted on order for mine run coal having lower minimum prices than double-screened coal, and failed to file immediately with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 9 application for such substitutions. In said transactions the applicable minimum f. o. b. mine price for double-screened coal was $1.80 per net ton as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9 for All Shipments Except Truck as amended by temporary Supplement "R" annexed to and made a part of the Order of the Director dated November 28, 1940 entered in Docket No. A-257 which Supplement became final by Order of the Director in said docket dated January 10, 1941. Each such transaction was a violation of section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code and Rule 1 of section XI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, resulting in a violation by the Registered Distributor of paragraphs (b) and (e) of the Agreement.

4. During the period February 7, 1941 to March 25, 1941, both dates inclusive, while acting as sales agent for the said Pine Hill Mining Company, pursuant to the said sales agency agreement dated September 28, 1940, the Registered Distributor sold for shipment by rail to various purchasers substantial quantities of various sizes of coal produced at the aforesaid Pine Hill Mine which coal was layer loaded on railroad freight cars and sold at the effective minimum price for the smallest size of coal loaded into each car to the following purchasers: Federal Compress & Whsl Co., Car Nos. IC216888 and IC83817, whereas said coal should have been sold at the effective minimum price for each size of coal loaded into said cars, and intentionally misrepresented the sizes of said coal in that it was falsely recorded on invoices therefor as the smallest size loaded on said car. Each such transaction was a violation of section 4 II (e) and (i) 8 of the Act, Part II (e) and (i) 8 of the Code, Rule 2 of section XII and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, resulting in a violation by the Registered Distributor of paragraphs (b), (c) and (e) of the Agreement.

5. During the period December 3, 1940 to June 24, 1941, both dates inclusive, while acting as sales agent for the said Pine Hill Mining Company, pursuant to the said sales agency agreement dated September 28, 1940, the Registered Distributor sold approximately 11,251 net tons of coal produced at the aforesaid Pine Hill Mine and intentionally misrepresented the sizes of said coal by falsely recording on the invoices therefor sizes other than those actually sold and shipped. Each such transaction was a violation of section 4 II (i) 8 of the Act, Part II (i) 8 of the Code, Rule 2 of section XII and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, resulting in a violation by the Registered Distributor of paragraphs (c) and (e) of the Agreement.

B. Whether or not the registration of said Kirkpatrick Coal Company should be revoked or suspended, or other appropriate penalties should be imposed.

It is, therefore, ordered, That a hearing pursuant to § 304.14 of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors to determine whether or not the aforementioned Kirkpatrick Coal Company has committed violations in the respects heretofore described, or either of them, and whether or not the registration of said distributor should be revoked or suspended or other appropriate penalties be imposed, be held at Room 306, P. O. Bldg., Memphis, Tenn. on March 17, 1943, at 10 a. m.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler, or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division, duly designated for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact, and conclusions and recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises and to perform all other duties therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said Kirkpatrick Coal Company and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding.

Notice is hereby given that answer setting forth the position of the aforementioned Kirkpatrick Coal Company, with reference to the matters hereinbefore described, must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the field offices of the Division within twenty (20) days after date of service hereof on Kirkpatrick Coal Company, and that failure to file an answer herein within such period unless the presiding officer shall otherwise order, shall be deemed to be an admission by Kirkpatrick Coal Company of the commission of the violations hereinbefore described and consent to an entry of an appropriate order thereon.

Notice is also hereby given that any application or applications pursuant to § 301.132 of the rules of practice and procedure before the Division for the disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing must be filed not later than fif-

JOSEPH MEADE

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Joseph Meade, Thirty-fourth and Spring Garden Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on December 2, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Chairman of the Industry Council, It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station located at Thirty-fourth and Spring Garden Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1502) in that between July 22, 1942, and November 4, 1942, at the aforesaid station, respondent transferred and delivered gasoline into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles and accepted in exchange therefor 100 Class A, No. 3 gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in eastern Pennsylvania, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Chairman of the Industry Council that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 209 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly sell, transfer or deliver, any gasoline to any person.

(2) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(3) No person, firm, or corporation shall deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 209 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 209 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. February 19, 1943, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M. March 6, 1943.

WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION.

RECRUITMENT, TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN WORKERS

The increase in our armed forces and the expansion of the war production program necessitate the maximum utilization of our labor resources. The present number of gainfully employed workers, both men and women, is inadequate to fill even the immediate requirements of the war production program. In many areas the lack of adequate housing and transportation facilities compels full use of the local labor supply. These considerations require that substantially increased numbers of women be employed in gainful occupations in war production and essential civilian employment, especially in areas of labor scarcity. The recruitment and training of women workers must be greatly expanded and intensified. In carrying out this program for the utilization of women workers, normal family life should be preserved and maintained to the maximum extent consistent with all-out production. The active cooperation of Government agencies, educational institutions, management, labor, and women able to accept employment is essential.

To promote the rapid and orderly induction of women into the labor market and to insure their subsequent employment and training opportunities, the War Manpower Commission hereby declares as basic national policies for the recruitment, referral, training and employment of women that:

I. Recruitment and referral of women workers. (a) Qualified women who are unemployed and who are registered in local offices of the United States Employment Service be referred to employment and training opportunities on a basis of equality with men, due regard being given to their qualifications for the available work, to the physical requirements of the occupations, and to working conditions;

(b) Women without children under 14 years of age be actively recruited for employment and training, but this principle shall not be construed to mean that women who are responsible for the care of young children and who desire work are to be deprived of an opportunity for training or employment;

(c) Special efforts to secure the employment of women with young children be deferred until all other sources of local labor supply have been exhausted, in order that established family life will not be unnecessarily disrupted;

(d) In those areas in which industrial concentration and lack of housing, transportation, and other community facilities compels the fullest utilization of every labor resource in the locality, every effort be made to utilize fully, women qualified and able to contribute to war production or essential civilian employment before workers are recruited from outside the locality;

(e) Adequate facilities be provided for the care of the children of working mothers, which facilities should be developed as approved community projects and not under the auspices of individual employers or employer groups;

(f) Every effort be made to recruit and refer women, including older women, for employment or training on the basis of their qualification for an occupation without discrimination because of race, national origin, or creed.

II. Training of women workers. (a) Where pre-employment training is desirable and employment opportunities are or will be available, women be referred to war production pre-employment training courses conducted by public vocational schools on a basis of equality with men; that is, on the basis of their qualification for the occupation in which training is offered, due consideration being given to the physical requirements of the occupation;

(b) Women be admitted on a basis of equality with men to enrollment in the Engineering, Science, and Management War Training Program conducted by colleges, universities, and technical schools in cooperation with the United States Office of Education;

(c) Women workers now employed be encouraged to enroll in supplementary war training courses conducted by public vocational schools, in order that a greater number of women may prepare themselves for additional responsibilities and for upgrading within the plant;

(d) Women participate equally with men in plant training programs. Such programs should include adequate induction training, on-the-job training, upgrading, training for women foremen and supervisors, and technical training.

III. Employment of women workers. (a) Management and labor organizations remove all barriers to the employment of women in any occupation for which they are or can be fitted;

(b) Every method available be utilized to assure that women workers be completely accepted as a part of the Nation's manpower needed for all-out production;

(c) In order to provide a basis for efficient selection of women for training and job assignment and to increase the number of women employed, management immediately analyze all occupations within the plant from the unskilled to the technical levels; determine the types of work that women could do; take steps to prepare the plant for the maximum employment of women; consult with its supervisory staff and representatives of its employees' labor organizations in order to promote acceptance of women as co-workers and to help new women employees adjust to their working environment; and periodically review practices and policies and make such additional adjustments as are necessary to obtain full utilization of women;

(d) Wage rates, including the entrance rate, be determined for all workers on the basis of the work performed, irrespective of sex;

(e) The following basic principles whether or not incorporated in State laws and regulations be applied and preserved in order to promote maximum production efficiency and to safeguard the health and welfare of women workers:

(1) One day of rest in seven;

(2) An 8-hour shift and a maximum 48-hour week, except to the extent that temporary exemptions under adequate safeguards are necessary to meet emergencies;

(3) Adequate meal and rest periods or time, and proper facilities therefor; adequate medical care and other safeguards for health and safety;

(f) Every reasonable effort be made to adjust assignments to shifts of women with young children, in such manner as will cause the least disruption in their family life.

IV. Women able to accept employment. (a) Upon advice from a representative of the War Manpower Commission that additional women workers are required in their locality because of existing or imminent labor shortages, all women able to accept employment register for employment or training with the nearest local office of the United States Employment Service;

(b) Women interested in work outside their locality not leave their own community in search of work or training in another community without first:

(1) Registering for employment at the nearest local office of the United States Employment Service; and

(2) Securing advice from such office that such work or training is available.

Chairman.

EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN WITH YOUNG CHILDREN

Amendments to Policy on Employment in Industry of Women with Young Children.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Chairman of the War Manpower Commission by Executive Orders No. 9139 and 9279, the "Policy on Employment in Industry of Women with Young Children" approved by the War Manpower Commission on July 29, 1942, is hereby amended to read as follows:

The expansion of the war production program, as well as the increasing requirements of our armed forces, necessitates the maximum utilization of our labor resources. In many areas the lack of adequate housing and transportation facilities compels full use of the local labor supply. These considerations make it necessary to employ large numbers of women in gainful occupations useful to the war effort. Appropriate measures have been and are being taken to provide for the recruitment and training of additional women. Prospective war production schedules indicate that such measures must be considerably expanded and intensified. In carrying out the Nation's program for the utilization of women workers, it is important that to the maximum extent, normal family life be preserved and maintained.

To promote that end, and to promote the effective mobilization and maximum utilization of the Nation's manpower in the prosecution of the war, the War Manpower Commission hereby declares the following basic policies:

I. The first responsibility of women with young children, in war as in peace is to give suitable care in their own homes to their children.

II. In order that established family life may not be unnecessarily disrupted, special efforts to secure the employment in industry of women with young children should be deferred until full use has been made of all other sources of labor supply.

III. Barriers against the employment of women with young children should not be set up by employers. The decision as to gainful employment should in all cases be an individual decision made by the woman herself in the light of the particular conditions prevailing in her home.

IV. Whenever it is found that women with young children are gainfully employed in essential activities, or that the labor requirements of essential activities have not been met after the exhaustion of all other sources of labor supply and that to meet such requirements, women with young children must be recruited, it is essential that:

(a) Such women be employed at such hours, on such shifts or on such part-time schedules as will cause the least disruption in their family life; and

(b) If any such women are unable to arrange for the satisfactory care of their children at home during their working hours, adequate facilities be provided for the care of their children during working hours. Such facilities should be developed as community projects and not under the auspices of individual employers or employer groups.

PAUL V. MCNUTT,
Chairman.

EMPLOYMENT OF YOUTH UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE

The necessary expansion of our military and industrial personnel requires maximum utilization of all available and potential sources of labor. These potential sources include youth between the ages of 14 and 18 years whose services would not be immediately required in normal times. If employed, however, it should be only under conditions which adequately safeguard their physical and intellectual development.

The first responsibility and obligation of youth under 18 even in war time is to take full advantage of their educational opportunities in order to prepare themselves for war and post-war services and for the duties of citizenship. It is essential that young people have the fullest possible opportunity consistent with the war effort to complete their education. Those with special aptitudes and capacity for further training should continue their education in order to develop their maximum abilities applicable to war and post-war needs.

In most cases youth under 18 can best contribute to the war program by continuing in school and, when their services are required, accepting vacation and part-time employment. However, it is recognized that the demands of the war period will increase the number who in normal times leave school to enter full-time employment before reaching 18. In any case, all forms of employment of such youth, including employment in agriculture, must be specially safeguarded. Their services must be used in such ways as to bring about their maximum contribution to manpower needs consistent with the protection of their health and welfare and the fullest utilization and development of their aptitudes, abilities, and interests. The achievement of those objectives requires the active cooperation of young people, their parents, Government agencies, educational authorities, management and labor.

To promote proper utilization of the labor resources of youth with due regard to the welfare of youth and the future needs of the Nation, the War Manpower Commission hereby declares as basic National policy that:

1. School attendance laws and child-labor standards embodied in State and Federal laws be preserved and enforced, and the minimum standards hereinafter listed not be construed to warrant any relaxation of these laws or lowering of the standards embodied in them;

2. No one under 14 years of age be employed full-time or part-time as a part of the hired labor force;

3. Youth under 18 years of age be employed only:

a. After the employer obtains proof of age in the form of employment or age certificates or, in case such certificates are not legally required, other reliable evidence;

b. In work suited to their age and strength, avoiding all occupations that are hazardous or detrimental to health or welfare;

c. Where provision is made for adequate meal and rest periods of time, and facilities therefor, adequate sanitary facilities; and safeguards for health and safety;

d. For periods suited to their age and strength, and in no case for more than 8 hours a day or 6 consecutive days, except as deviations may be necessary where the worker is engaged in continuing farm work of a non-seasonal character and is domiciled at the place of employment, or except as temporary departures from the above standard under adequate safeguards, where permitted for youth aged 16 and 17 under existing Federal or State laws, rules or regulations, may be necessary to meet a special emergency;

e. During hours of day not detrimental to their health and welfare; and

f. At wages paid adult workers for similar job performance;

4. Youth aged 14 or 15 be employed only when, in addition to the foregoing conditions;

a. Qualified older workers are not available; and

b. The employment is not in manufacturing or mining occupations;

5. In-school youth be employed only to the extent that the combined school and work activities involve no undue strain, and that combined school and work hours, at least for youth under 16, not exceed 8 a day;

6. In-school youth not be employed during school hours unless the Area or Regional Manpower Director has determined that temporary needs of an emergency character cannot be met by full use of other available sources of labor, in which case school programs shall be adjusted under plans that:

a. Provide for the educational progress of those who take employment;

b. Avoid interference with the school attendance of those who do not take employment; and

c. Avoid the closing of any school or grades therein, except to the extent that the hours, terms or curricula are readjusted to preclude the curtailment of educational opportunities;

7. When war-time emergency cooperative arrangements have been entered into with school authorities for the part-time employment of in-school youth as a part of the school program, the employer be responsible for certifying to the school authorities that such employment will be in conformity with State and Federal laws governing the employment of minors and with the standards contained in Sections 3 to 7 above, and the school authorities be responsible for permitting school children to take only those jobs that will contribute definitely to their educational welfare and useful work experience;

8. When it is necessary to transport young people to and from work, safe and adequate means of transportation be provided, and the period of work and transportation not exceed 10 hours a day;

9. Where youth under 18 years of age are recruited in groups for agricultural work requiring them to live away from home, prior to placement, assurances be furnished by appropriate community or other agencies that suitable living conditions, sanitary facilities, health protection, supervision, and leisure-time activities will be provided; and in no case youth aged 14 or 15 be recruited for work requiring them to live away from home except where such work is in connection with programs conducted by recognized youth-serving agencies that provide close supervision;

10. Any youth interested in work in another area not leave his own area in search of work without first:

a. Registering for employment at the nearest local office of the United States Employment Service or such other agency as may be designated by the War Manpower Commission;

b. Presenting evidence of parental consent; and

c. Being referred by such office to a specific job opening where he can be lawfully employed, and where there are suitable arrangements for housing.

TELEPHONE OPERATORS SURPLUS MATERIALS PLAN FOR VOLUNTARY REDISTRIBUTION

The ATTORNEY GENERAL: Pursuant to section 12 of Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), I submit herewith a plan for the voluntary redistribution of surplus materials among telephone operators, which I have requested all telephone operators and manufacturers of telephone communication equipment to place in operation.

Pursuant to the aforesaid section 12, I hereby find and so certify to you that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with such plan, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

DONALD M. NELSON,
Chairman.

FEBRUARY 6, 1943.

Plan for Voluntary Redistribution of Surplus Materials Among Telephone Operators

1. Each telephone operator is to be required to list certain materials in his inventory which he considers to be surplus, on forms established by the War Production Board (amendment to Order P-130 will provide this).

2. The Communications Equipment Division of the War Production Board, upon receipt of the forms from operators, will prepare catalogues of such material (bare copper wire, lead covered cable, station equipment and central office equipment) and forward the same to the manufacturer who manufactured the items.

3. The Communications Equipment Division of the War Production Board will request all operators and manufacturers to follow the following plan:

(a) When a telephone operator places an order with the manufacturer to obtain, let us say, station equipment, the manufacturer will consult the catalogue of surplus station equipment supplied him by the War Production Board. If the manufacturer finds such equipment listed therein, he will so advise the operator and provide him with the name and address of the operator owning that particular item. The operator is asked to satisfy his requirements for such equipment by ordering it from the operator who has listed it as surplus.

(b) To prevent the price factor from prohibiting the workability of the plan, operators are requested to sell, f. o. b., the seller's shipping point, (subject to lower maximum price regulations hereafter established by the Office of Price Administration) at prices not in excess of those established in accordance with the following schedule:

Class of material	Percent of current price new (f. o. b. selling operator's shipping point)
Used unrepaired material (except lead covered paper insulated cable and bare copper line wire)	25
Used and repaired material (except lead covered paper insulated cable and bare copper line wire)	35
Equipment rebuilt and guaranteed by the manufacturer and not used since rebuilding	75
New (unused) material	95
Used unrepaired lead covered paper insulated cable	60
Used and repaired lead covered paper insulated cable	80
Used unrepaired bare copper line wire	80
Used and repaired bare copper line wire	95

(c) If for any reason the material ordered by one operator from the inventory surplus of another operator cannot satisfy the requirements of the buyer (i. e., if it requires extensive repairs and the manufacturer cannot effect such repairs in time to meet the buyer's needs; or if equipment cannot be adapted to use in the buyer's plant; etc.), the buyer may properly place an order with the manufacturer to supply the item new.

For the purpose of the aforesaid section 12, I have approved this plan; and after consultation with you, I hereby find and so certify to you that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in the formulation and execution of such plan is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter VIII—Procurement and Disposal of Equipment and Supplies

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY BY THE WAR DEPARTMENT FROM OTHER AGENCIES OF THE GOVERNMENT

In Circular Letter No. 675, Supplement No. 1, January 15, 1943, the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department announced that its activities relative to transfer of property, which have previously been centralized in its Washington office, would be decentralized, effective February 1, 1943. There will be established regional offices of the Procurement Division which will have jurisdiction over the issuance of catalogs, the appraisal of property, and the issuance of transfer documents and other operations of the so-called Federal Property Utilization Program in the respective regions in which such offices are located. Typewriters have been excepted from the decentralization program.

At the request of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, and in order to conform with the decentralization effected by that Division, it has been determined that the War Department procedure with respect to acquisition of property through the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, will be decentralized. Accordingly, paragraphs (d), (e), (f) and (g) of § 81.613 are rescinded, paragraph (h) is redesignated (j), and, effective immediately, the following amendments are substituted for the rescinded paragraphs:

§ 81.613 Purchases of property of other agencies through the Procurement Division, Treasury Department. * * *

(d) Procedure for acquiring property which is surplus to the needs of another agency. The procedure for the transfer of surplus property has been set forth in Circular Letter No. 675 (November 18, 1942) of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, as amended by Circular Letter No. 675, Supplement No. 1, issued under date of January 15, 1943.

(e) Regional property offices of Procurement Division. Pursuant to Circular Letter No. 675, Supplement No. 1, the operations of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, which had previously been centralized in Washington, D. C. were decentralized. The following regional offices were established:

	Regional office REGION I
Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont.	Regional Property Officer, U. S. Treasury Department, 76th Ninth Ave., New York, N. Y.
REGION II
Metropolitan District of Columbia	Regional Property Officer, U. S. Treasury Department, 7th & D Sts. SW., Washington, D. C.
REGION III
Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia.	Regional Property Officer, U. S. Treasury Department, 10 Forsyth St. Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
REGION IV
Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Wisconsin.	Regional Property Officer, U. S. Treasury Department, 222 West North Bank Dr., Chicago, Ill.
REGION V
Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas.	Regional Property Officer, U. S. Treasury Department, 6th Fl., Porter Building, Kansas City, Mo.
REGION VI
Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming	Regional Property Officer, U. S. Treasury Department, 810 14th St., Denver, Colo.
REGION VII
Arizona, California, Nevada	Regional Property Officer, U. S. Treasury Department, 49 Fourth St., San Francisco, Calif.
REGION VIII
Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington	Regional Property Officer, U. S. Treasury Department, Alaska Building, Seattle, Wash.

(f) Catalog of available property. Once each month, and more frequently if necessary, the Procurement Division through its regional offices, will issue catalogs showing the location, description, and transfer price of property reported to it as surplus within specified areas. It is the responsibility of the chief of each supply service to see that all stations under his command, which would be interested in obtaining equipment surplus to the needs of other agencies, is supplied with the current catalog relating to the region where the station is located. Such catalogs will, if requested, be mailed directly to any station making a request of the appropriate regional office of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department.

(g) Surplus property not as yet reported. When information is obtained as to the existence of property surplus to the needs of another Government agency, a supply service should, if it desires such property, communicate with the holding agency and establish definitely that the property is available. If the property has not yet been reported by the holding agency to the regional office of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, in the region where the property is located, and has not been declared surplus to the needs of the holding agency by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to subparagraph (c) of Executive Order 9235 (see paragraph (a) of this section), the property may be purchased directly from the holding agency pursuant to Public Law No. 670, 77th Congress (see § 81.612). If, however, the holding agency desires to effect the transfer through the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, it should be requested to declare the property as surplus on the forms prescribed by the Procurement Division, Treasury Department. The declaration should be forwarded to the appropriate regional office with a statement that the property is wanted by the station concerned. The property should then be requested by the supply service in accordance with paragraph (h) of this section.

(h) Direct communication with Procurement Division authorized. The chiefs of the supply services are authorized to communicate directly with the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, with reference to any property which has been reported to that Division by other agencies of the Government; and are authorized to make requests for any such property directly to the appropriate regional office of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department. The request will be made on Purchase Authority Form (issued by the Procurement Division, Treasury Department) or on such other document or form as is customarily used for ordinary purchases. Whatever form is used should carry the capitalized heading REQUEST FOR TRANSFER OF PROPERTY. The request should contain the following information:

(1) Complete and specific reference as to date of Catalog of Available Property in which property appeared. If property has not yet been listed in a catalog there should be substituted the present location of the property, the transferring agency's declaration number, and a complete description of the property.

(2) Shipping instructions or information that the property will be picked up.

(3) The symbol and title of the appropriation, appropriations, or fund from which the costs of acquisition and any transportation charges incident to delivery to the supply service will be paid.

The chiefs of the supply services will decentralize to their field agencies the authority to communicate with the regional offices of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, to the greatest extent consistent with efficiency and the proper safeguarding of the public interest.

(i) Surplus Property Officer. Although direct communication by the supply services with the Procurement Division, Treasury Department is authorized, the Surplus Property Officer, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, is still available for consultation when the supply services desire assistance in their negotiations with the Procurement Division, Treasury Department. That officer should be promptly advised whenever it comes to the attention of a supply service that property desired by such service has been requested by an agency of the Government other than the War Department.

(j) Disposition of surplus property to other Government agencies. * * *

Normal rear lights, license plate lights and clearance lights (where required by law) are permitted. Vehicles which are classified as authorized emergency vehicles under the applicable Federal, Territorial or local law, when operated by authorized personnel, and when displaying an illuminated red spotlight, and when responding to a fire alarm, or when in the immediate pursuit of an actual or suspected violator of the law, or when going to or transporting a person who is in apparent need of immediate emergency medical or surgical care, or when responding to some other emergency involving the protection of life or property, shall be excepted from the foregoing provisions.

§ 204.1 Definitions. As used in these regulations:

(a) The term "person" includes a partnership, company, association, or corporation, as well as a natural person or persons.

(b) The terms "produce" or "production" include the planting, cultivation, growth, harvesting, and any other activity which facilitates the growth of the opium poppy.

(c) The term "opium poppy" includes the plant Papaver somniferum, any other plant which is the source of opium or opium products, and any part of any such plant.

(d) The term "opium" includes the inspissated juice of the opium poppy, in crude or refined form.

(e) The term "opium products" includes opium and all substances obtainable from opium or the opium poppy, except the seed thereof.

(f) The term "license" means a license to produce the opium poppy or to manufacture opium or opium products, duly issued by the Commissioner.

(g) The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Narcotics.

(h) The term "Act" means the Opium Poppy Control Act of 1942.

§ 204.2 Policy. It shall be the policy of the Commissioner to administer and enforce the provisions of the Act in such manner as will carry out the obligations of the United States under the treaties and conventions mentioned therein. The Commissioner shall not issue licenses to produce the opium poppy unless such production is essential to supply narcotic drugs for the medical and scientific needs of the United States. If such production becomes necessary, the Commissioner shall exercise sound discretion in the issuance of licenses to the end that there shall be no opportunity for the spread of drug addiction.

§ 204.3 Production. No person who is not the holder of a license shall produce the opium poppy. Licenses shall be issued only for the production of the opium poppy to supply the medical and scientific needs of the United States for narcotic drugs. No licenses shall be issued for the production of the opium poppy solely for poppy seed.

§ 204.4 Application for license to produce. Any person who desires to produce the opium poppy to supply medical and scientific needs of the United States for narcotic drugs shall file an application, in duplicate, for a license with the Commissioner at Washington, D. C. The application shall show the name and address of the applicant, the quantity, in pounds, of opium poppies desired to be produced, the acreage and exact location of the land desired to be devoted to opium poppy production, the type of soil desired to be devoted to opium poppy production, whether such applicant owns, rents, or leases such land and the type of equipment owned by the applicant to be used in cultivating and harvesting opium poppies. The applicant shall also submit proof that he is of good moral character, that his financial standing and farming experience are such as will reasonably insure that he can produce the acreage of opium poppies called for in the application, that there is or will be, at the time of harvesting, a market for the opium poppies desired to be produced and that the land to be devoted to opium poppy production is readily accessible to law enforcement officers at all times.

§ 204.5 Issuance of license to produce. (a) The Commissioner shall issue a license to produce the opium poppy only when, in his opinion, the medical and scientific needs of the United States for narcotic drugs cannot be met by the importation of crude opium. A license to produce the opium poppy shall be issued only to a person whom the Commissioner finds (1) to be of good moral character; (2) to be of suitable financial standing and farming experience to render reasonably probable that such person will produce the quantity of opium poppies specified in the license; (3) to be the owner of or to control suitable farm land to be used as a production area, in such locality, as will, in the judgment of the Commissioner, render reasonably probable efficient and diligent performance of the operations of producing the opium poppy in the quantity specified; (4) to have facilities for safeguarding the opium poppy crop which will reasonably insure that the opium poppies will not be diverted to illicit channels.

(b) Each such license shall be nontransferable and shall be valid only to the extent of the production area and maximum weight of opium poppy yield specified in the license, shall state the locality of the production area, and shall be effective for a period of one year from the date of issue, and may be renewed, at the discretion of the Commissioner, for a like period.

§ 204.6 Production in excess of quantity named in license. If a licensee produces opium poppies in excess of the quantity called for in his license, such excess quantity may be seized and forfeited to the United States, or, the Commissioner may, if he deems it appropriate and finds that such excess opium poppies were produced in good faith, amend the license so as to cover all or part of such excess quantity, and allow them to be disposed of under the Act.

§ 204.7 Application for license to manufacture. Any person who desires to manufacture opium or opium products from opium poppies shall file an application, in duplicate, for a license with the Commissioner at Washington, D. C. The application shall show the name and address of the applicant, the exact location of the applicant's manufacturing facilities desired to be devoted to the manufacture of opium or opium products from opium poppies, the quantity of opium poppies to be processed, and the quantity of opium or opium products expected to be manufactured from such opium poppies. The applicant shall also submit proof that he is of good moral character, possesses a method and facilities deemed satisfactory to the Commissioner for the efficient and economical extraction of opium or opium products from opium poppies, and has such experience in manufacturing and marketing other medicinal drugs as to render reasonably probable the orderly and lawful distribution of opium or opium products of suitable quality to supply medical and scientific needs. The application shall show also that the applicant has such facilities for safeguarding opium poppies and opium and opium products as will insure that none of such opium poppies, opium, or opium products will be diverted to illicit channels, and what experience, if any, the applicant has had in the extraction of opium and opium products from opium poppies.

§ 204.8 Issuance of license to manufacture. (a) No license to manufacture opium or opium products from opium poppies shall be issued by the Commissioner unless he finds that the medical and scientific needs of the United States for narcotic drugs are not being or cannot be supplied from crude opium obtained by importation.

(b) A license to manufacture opium or opium products shall be issued only to a person whom the Commissioner finds (1) to be of good moral character; (2) to be of such financial standing as will reasonably insure the success of the manufacturing operation; (3) to possess a method and facilities deemed satisfactory to the Commissioner for the efficient and economical extraction of opium or opium products from opium poppies; (4) to have such experience in manufacturing and marketing other medicinal drugs as to render reasonably probable the orderly and lawful distribution of opium or opium products of suitable quality to supply medical and scientific needs; and (5) to have such facilities as will insure that the opium poppies and opium and opium products shall be properly safeguarded and not diverted to illicit channels.

(c) No license shall be issued to any person unless the Commissioner finds that existing facilities for the manufacture of opium or opium products from crude opium or opium poppies cannot supply the medical and scientific needs of the United States for narcotic drugs.

§ 204.9 Limitation. All licenses issued by the Commissioner shall be limited to such number, localities, and areas as the Commissioner shall determine to be appropriate to supply the medical and scientific needs of the United States for opium or opium products, with due regard to provision for reasonable reserves. It shall be the policy of the Commissioner, so far as practicable, to confine the production and manufacture of opium poppies and opium and opium products to such areas as will permit efficient and economical enforcement of the narcotic laws and regulations.

§ 204.10 Change of address or other facts shown in application. Any person to whom a license has been issued shall immediately notify the Commissioner of any change of the address or any other fact shown in his application, and of any subsequent change of address or other fact.

§ 204.11 Revocation or renewal of licenses. (a) The Commissioner may revoke or refuse to renew any license issued under the Act if after due notice to the licensee and an opportunity for hearing he finds that the licensee has failed to comply with any of the qualifications found to exist at the time of the issuance of such license, if he finds that such licensee has failed to comply with the Federal or State narcotic laws and regulations, or laws supplementary thereto, or if he finds that the revocation or refusal to renew any license shall be in the public interest.

(b) If it is the intention of the Commissioner to revoke or refuse to renew any license, he shall immediately notify the licensee thereof and his reasons therefor by registered letter addressed to his last address reported by him to the Commissioner. The licensee shall be advised by the Commissioner in such registered letter that he has thirty days from the date of the letter in which to submit his reasons showing cause why the Commissioner should not revoke or refuse to renew the license. The licensee shall be further advised in such registered letter that upon his request, filed with the Commissioner within the same thirty days, a hearing will be granted. If, within such thirty days, the licensee fails to submit reasons showing cause why the Commissioner should not revoke or refuse to renew the license, the Commissioner may revoke or refuse to renew his license without further proceedings. If, within such thirty days, the licensee fails to request a hearing, but submits reasons purporting to show cause, the Commissioner shall consider the reasons and decide the matter and communicate his decision to the licensee within fifteen days from the receipt of the reasons purporting to show cause.

§ 204.12. Hearing. (a) If a hearing is requested, the Commissioner shall notify the licensee of the time and place where such hearing will be conducted and held. The hearing shall be conducted and held at a place deemed by the Commissioner to be reasonably convenient to the licensee. The hearing may be conducted by the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative. The Bureau of Narcotics shall introduce at the hearing the evidence on which reliance is to be had for revocation of or refusal to renew the license. The licensee shall have an opportunity at the hearing to examine the evidence submitted and to confront and cross-examine any witnesses for the Bureau of Narcotics.

(b) The licensee shall be afforded an opportunity to present all his evidence and argument on the matter and shall have the privilege of being represented by counsel of his own choice. The licensee shall be permited fifteen days from the date of the conclusion of the hearing to submit a written brief to the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative.

(c) If the hearing is conducted by a representative of the Commissioner, such representative shall file with the Commissioner a stenographic report of the evidence and the arguments presented and any briefs submitted, together with his findings and recommendation. The Commissioner, after considering this report and the briefs shall render his decision and communicate the same to the licensee within forty-five days from the date of the conclusion of the hearing.

(d) If any person is aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioner or by the failure of the Commissioner to rule upon or decide the matter, he may appeal to the Secretary of the Treasury under the provisions of section 5 of the Act of June 14, 1930, as amended, (U.S.C., Title 5, sec. 282 (c)), and the regulations promulgated thereunder (21 C.F.R., 1939 Supp., (201.1–201.7).

§ 204.13. Commissioner not required to issue or renew license. The Commissioner shall not be required to issue or renew any license or licenses under the provisions of the Act: Provided, however, That the Secretary of the Treasury, on appeal, may require the Commissioner to issue or renew a license.

§ 204.14 Returns required of producers. (a) Every person licensed as a producer of opium poppies shall render an annual return to the Commissioner on or before the 15th day of January, for the annual period ending December 31 of the preceding year, reporting all transfers and dispositions of opium poppies and fully accounting for all opium poppies produced or otherwise obtained. Such returns shall be prepared on forms furnished by the Commissioner, and shall include, for each such period, (1) a complete accounting for all poppy seed received, planted, produced, harvested, or otherwise acquired or disposed of, and the seed on hand at the beginning and end of the period; (2) a complete reporting of the areas planted and harvested and the areas under cultivation at the beginning and end of the period; and (3) a full and complete accounting for all quantities of opium poppies produced, harvested, received, sold, or otherwise acquired or disposed of, and those on hand at the beginning and end of the period.

§ 204.15 Returns required of manufacturers. Every person licensed as a manufacturer of opium or opium products from opium poppies shall render quarterly returns on forms furnished by the Commissioner, reporting and accounting for all such manufacturing operations in the same manner as is required of persons producing such substances from opium imported into the United States. See Articles 123 to 132, inclusive, Narcotic Regulations No. 5: Provided, however, That the Commissioner may, in any instance, specify such changes and modifications in such forms as the variations in manufacturing procedures and other circumstances may require.

§ 204.16 Disposition of forfeited opium poppies. Opium poppies forfeited to the United States under the provisions of the Act shall be destroyed by the Commissioner or his authorized representative or may be delivered to any department, bureau, or other agency of the United States Government upon proper application addressed to the Commissioner. Such application shall show the name, address, and official title and department, bureau, or agency of the person to whom the narcotics are to be delivered, the quantity of opium poppies desired and the purpose for which they are intended. The delivery of such opium poppies may be ordered by the Commissioner if in his opinion the purpose for which they are intended is medical or scientific.

§ 204.17 Penalties. (a) Persons who violate the Act shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $2,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Any person who wilfully makes, aids, or assists in the making of, or procures, counsels, or advises in the preparation or presentation of, a false or fraudulent statement in any application for a license under the provisions of the Act shall (whether or not such false or fraudulent statement is made by or with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized to present the application) be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

PART 3177—MOTOR TRUCK AND TRAILER BODIES

[Limitation Order L-253]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States having created a shortage in the supply of iron, steel and other materials required in the production of motor truck and trailer bodies for defense, for private account and export, the following limitation order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest:

§ 3177.1 Limitation Order L-253—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Truck" means a motor truck chassis designed for use on or off the highway for the transportation of property or materials.

(2) "Trailer" means a semi-trailer chassis or full trailer chassis designed for use on or off the highway for the transportation of property or materials.

(3) "Body" means a superstructure, including built-in parts, produced for mounting on a truck or trailer, or built integrally as a trailer by the attachment of axle and wheel equipment, but does not include concrete and asphalt mixers, crushing plants and similar items of construction and machinery.

(4) "Dump body" means a body designed to transport solid materials in bulk and to unload by tipping, through bottom openings or otherwise by gravity.

(ii) "Tank body" means a body produced to transport liquid or gaseous materials in bulk.

(4) "Built-in parts" means parts which are integral parts of a body, or parts which are not readily detachable from such bodies including but not limited to cabinets, hanger rails, inside wheelhouses, partitions, racks, and shelving.

(5) "Producer" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other organization engaged in the production of bodies.

(6) "Iron and steel" means any material, the principal ingredient of which is ferrous metal not including screws, nails, bolts, rivets, and other joining hardware.

(7) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(b) Limitations on use of iron and steel in bodies. (1) On and after March 1, 1943, no producer shall, unless as authorized in paragraphs (e) and (j) of this order, use any iron or steel in the manufacture of bodies, except in the following:

(i) Parts to reinforce (but not to cover) frames and platforms; body outrails; iron castings; trailer coupling devices; cross and longitudinal frame members (but not body cross bolsters); electrical equipment, including lights, fixtures, or signaling devices; essential body hardware; reflectors; louver or static type ventilators; wheelhouse mudguards and frames.

(ii) Parts necessary in the mounting of bodies, including but not limited to brackets, drive-shaft guards, chassis frame extensions and reinforcements, outriggers, spring leaves and auxiliary springs.

(2) Steel used in any of the parts enumerated in subparagraphs (1) (i) and (ii) above shall in no instance be alloy steel.

(c) Limitations on dimensions and weights of dump bodies. (1) On and after March 1, 1943, no producer shall, except as provided in paragraphs (e) and (j) of this order, produce any dump body which does not conform to the following dimensions and weights:

(i) Light dump bodies: an inside length of not less than seven (7) or more than eight (8) feet and a capacity of not less than two and one-half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) cubic yards, water level, and containing iron and steel of an aggregate weight not in excess of nine hundred and twenty-five (925) pounds, no part of which shall be alloy steel, including all hardware, but excluding the weight of mounting parts as set forth in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of this order.

(ii) Medium dump bodies: an inside length of not less than nine (9) or more than ten (10) feet and a capacity of not less than four (4) cubic yards, water level, and containing iron and steel of an aggregate weight not in excess of one thousand six hundred fifty (1650) pounds, no part of which shall be alloy steel, including all hardware, but excluding the weight of mounting parts as set forth in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of this order.

(d) Prohibition of production of tank bodies. On and after February 10, 1943, no producer shall produce any tank body except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, or as provided for in paragraph (e) of this order.

(e) Army and Navy exemptions. In respect to bodies sold to or produced under contracts or orders for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States:

(e) * * *

(2) Sales of aged or cured Cheddar cheese. All sales of aged or cured Cheddar cheese are exempt from the provisions of this section. Maximum prices for sales of aged or cured Cheddar cheese shall be determined under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280.[1] Aged or cured Cheddar cheese is Cheddar cheese which has been permitted to stand under a controlled temperature for such a length of time that it has acquired a clean, pleasant, mild aroma, a pleasing nutty flavor, a mellow, silky, meaty body, and a close, solid, uniformly colored interior. For purposes of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289, no Cheddar cheese shall be considered aged or cured unless the same has remained in the possession of either an assembler, or a wholesaler under controlled temperature conditions for at least six months: Provided, however, That the maximum price for the sale to the United States Government or any agency thereof of Cheddar cheese which has been subjected to aging or curing by remaining in the possession of an assembler or wholesaler under controlled temperature conditions for two months or longer, shall be governed by the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280. The provisions of this subparagraph shall not be effective after April 1, 1943. After April 1, 1943 Cheddar cheese whether or not aged or cured shall be subject to the specific maximum prices provided in § 1351.1519 of this regulation.

This amendment shall become effective February 10, 1943.

PART 1377—WOODEN CONTAINERS

[MPR 320]

EASTERN AND CENTRAL WOODEN AGRICULTURAL CONTAINERS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

AUTHORITY: §§ 1377.201 to 1377.216, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1377.201 Sales of Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after February 11, 1943, regardless of any contract or obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this Maximum Price Regulation 320, and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged or paid.

§ 1377.202 To what products, transactions and persons this regulation applies—(a) Products covered by the regulation. This regulation, under the term "Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers," covers the following types of containers manufactured in the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio, Oklahoma, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Wisconsin, and West Virginia:

(1) All veneer and combination veneer and sawn lumber agricultural containers; (2) all sawn lumber agricultural containers specifically listed in the price tables in the Appendix (§ 1377.216) of this regulation; and (3) all sawn lumber agricultural containers, whether or not listed in the price tables, manufactured in factories whose 1942 container production was at least 25 per cent in agricultural veneer packages. The term "agricultural container" means any assembled or unassembled box, crate, tray, lug, cup, hamper, basket, carrier, or similar container made principally of wood and customarily used for picking, handling, storing or shipping fresh fruits and vegetables. It includes any constituent part (partial shook) of the kind of containers mentioned, if it is ready to be assembled into the container, and also includes carstrips, riser sticks and tomato stakes.

This regulation does not cover coopered products, veneer and plywood drums, or used containers.

(b) Transactions covered by the regulation. This regulation covers all sales and purchases (in the course of trade and business) of Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers.

(c) Persons covered by the regulation. Any person who sells or purchases (in the course of trade or business) Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers is subject to this regulation. The term "person" includes: an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or their legal successors, or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of its political subdivisions; or any agency of the foregoing.

§ 1377.203 Explanation of basic maximum prices for Eastern and Central agricultural containers—(a) Basic maximum prices. The "basic maximum prices" for Eastern and Central agricultural containers are listed in the price tables of the Appendix (§ 1377.216) of this regulation. These ceiling prices are for direct factory sales of containers

(1) Shipped in any quantity by rail, or

(2) Pick-up at the factory or shipped by truck in amounts of not less than a minimum truckload.

(b) What is a "direct factory sale". A "direct factory sale" is a sale in which the shipment of containers originates at a container manufacturing plant, no matter who the seller is, and no matter whether he is usually known as a factory operator, wholesaler, dealer, distributor, agent, or anything else. A shipment is regarded as originating at a factory if the containers reach the purchaser without ever becoming an integral part of the stock of a warehouse.

(c) Additions to basic maximum price. Additions to the basic maximum price can be made (in accordance with the next four sections) for:

(1) Containers shipped from a warehouse,

(2) Delivery of containers more than 50 miles from the supplying factory or warehouse,

(3) Pick-up sales and truck shipments of less than a minimum truckload of containers,

(4) Resale of certain containers stocked by a factory which did not manufacture them.

§ 1377.204 Addition for warehouse sales—(a) What is a "warehouse sale". A "warehouse sale" is a sale in which containers are shipped to the purchaser out of the stocks of a warehouse that is not located next to, or ordinarily considered as a part of, a factory. A shipment is considered to be made out of the stocks of a warehouse only if the containers were a part of the regular warehouse stock at the time the sale was made.

(b) Addition to basic maximum price. In warehouse sales the following two items can be added to the basic maximum price:

(1) Average inbound freight (on the particular size and type of container) at the carload rail rate (including freight tax) from producing factory to warehouse. The average inbound freight on each size and type of container is to be weighted by the quantity in the warehouse inventory (at the time of sale) that had been received from each different factory. No inbound freight can be added for containers received from factories within 50 miles of the warehouse. The average is to be figured, at least once every two weeks during the normal selling season for the particular container.

(2) A 6 percent mark-up on the sum of the basic maximum price and the average inbound freight.

§ 1377.205 Addition for delivery—(a) Free delivery zone. No charge can be added for delivery of containers anywhere within 50 miles of the factory, in direct factory sales, or within 50 miles of the warehouse, in warehouse sales.

(b) Shipments by common or contract carrier outside the free delivery zone. Where containers are shipped by contract or common carrier beyond the 50 mile free delivery zone, the seller (in either a direct factory sale or a warehouse sale) may add to the basic maximum price the actual transportation charges (including freight tax) paid by seller, or transportation charges based on the actual freight rate and the approximate weights in the price tables in the Appendix (§ 1377.216).

(c) Shipments by private truck outside the free delivery zone. Where containers are shipped by private truck (one that is owned or controlled by the seller) beyond the 50 mile free delivery zone the seller (in either a direct factory sale or a warehouse sale) may add to the basic maximum price the actual cost of transportation. The actual cost shall be figured by the method which the seller used during the year 1942, but each factor of cost may be charged in at its present price or value. In no event shall the charge for transportation be more than 80 per cent of the common carrier truck charge at the truckload rate for a similar shipment. If the seller is unable to figure the actual cost of private truck transportation, the seller may apply by letter to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. for permission to charge for all private truck shipments, beyond the free delivery zone, an amount not greater than 80 percent of the common carrier truck charge at the truckload rate for a similar shipment. Permission can be granted by letter.

§ 1377.206 Addition for pick-up sales and truck shipments of less than minimum truckload amount—(a) What is a "minimum truckload" amount. The minimum truckload amount for many containers is set out in the price tables in the Appendix (§ 1377.216). Where a shipment includes more than one size and type container, it is a minimum truckload amount if the part truckloads of each size and type container total a whole truckload. For example, a shipment of a half truckload of bushel baskets and a half truckload of berry cups is a minimum truckload.

(b) Addition to basic maximum price. In pick-up sales and truck shipments of less than a minimum truckload amount, the following addition may be made to the basic maximum price (in either direct factory sales or warehouse sales):

(1) If the sale involves less than 25 percent of a minimum truckload amount, an addition of 10 percent of the basic maximum price.

(2) If the sale involves more than 25 percent of a minimum truckload amount, but less than a minimum truckload amount, an addition of 5 per cent of the basic maximum price.

(c) Pool truck shipments. A pool truck shipment is one which includes the orders of more than one purchaser.

(1) If the pool truck shipment is to one location, the maximum price for each order included in the shipment is the same as the ceiling price which would apply if all the containers in the shipment were bought by a single purchaser.

(2) If the pool truck shipment is to more than one location, the maximum price for each part of the shipment delivered to a different location is the ceiling price which would apply if that part were sold and delivered alone.

§ 1377.207 Addition where a factory stocks the containers of another factory. Where a factory stocks containers or container parts manufactured by another factory, the maximum resale price is the ceiling price which would apply if the containers were manufactured by the factory making the resale. However, in the case of complete containers or complete bundled shook handled in this manner, the reselling factory may add to the basic maximum price inbound transportation at the carload rail rate if, and only if, each container or bundle of container shook is individually marked with the actual manufacturer's name or number. No inbound transportation may be added if the two factories are 50 miles or less apart.

§ 1377.208 Basic maximum prices for containers not specifically priced. Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers not specifically listed in the price tables in the Appendix (§ 1377.216) are nevertheless subject to this regulation.

The basic maximum price for any of these containers is a price which bears the 1941 shipping season relation to the price of the most similar container (called the "yardstick" container) which is specifically listed in the price tables in the Appendix. The manufacturer of the container being priced should find the difference between the price received for that container and the yardstick container in 1941 shipping season. This difference is then to be added to or subtracted from the basic maximum price for the yardstick container. The result is the basic maximum price for the containers produced by the particular manufacturer (but not by other manufacturers of the same container). This price, with a complete description of the container and the way the price was computed, must be reported to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The price may be ordered reduced if it is found excessive. But if the price is not disapproved within 20 days of the receipt of the report, it is approved.

If the manufacturer cannot figure a maximum price under this section, he should write to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., giving a complete description of the thing to be priced, his requested price, and any facts supporting the request. The Office of Price Administration will then by letter give him either a specific basic maximum price or instructions on how to compute it.

A manufacturer using this pricing provision cannot make deliveries of the container being priced until the basic maximum price has been approved or established by the Office of Price Administration.

Once a basic maximum price for a container has been approved or established by the Office of Price Administration under the pricing provision, the manufacturer must tell the basic maximum price to each warehouse operator, dealer or broker who sells the manufacturer's production of this container.

§ 1377.209 What the invoice must contain—(a) Description of container. All invoices must contain a sufficiently complete description of the containers or parts to show whether the price is proper or not. Any specification or extra which affects the maximum price must be mentioned in the description.

(b) Number of containers. The invoice must show the number of containers or footage of shook involved in the particular sale.

(c) Addition for delivery charges. The invoice must show separately any addition to the basic maximum prices which the seller makes for delivery beyond the 50-mile free delivery zone (in accordance with § 1377.205 Addition for delivery).

(d) Warehouse sales. In warehouse sales the invoice must contain the words "warehouse sale."

§ 1377.210 Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

(b) Specific prohibited practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices or cash discounts from what they were on October 1, 1941. This includes reducing the cash discount period, decreasing credit periods, or making greater charges for extension of credit. In all cases, if the sale is on cash terms, the maximum price must be reduced by the same amount as the sale price would have been reduced for similar cash terms on October 1, 1941. For example, if the maximum price without cash discount is $10.00 and if in sales of this item on October 1, 1941, to purchasers of a certain class the seller reduced sales prices 2 percent for cash within 10 days, the ceiling cash price in sales to purchasers of this class is $9.80. For purposes of this paragraph, no discount over 2 percent is considered a cash discount.

(2) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount, the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(3) Charging a purchasing or selling commission based on quantity or value of containers purchased or sold, if the commission plus the purchase price is higher than the maximum price permitted by this regulation.

(4) Breaking up an order which would normally be a single order into a series of smaller orders in order to evade the maximum price limitations set forth in this regulation.

(5) Making the purchaser buy something he does not want in order to get what he does want.

(c) Adjustable pricing. A price may not be made adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect sometime after delivery of the containers has been completed. The price may be made adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1377.211 Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) The term "government contracts" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the government of any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States." It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(2) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that the maximum price established in this regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers which are essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1377.212 Records and reports—(a) Records. All persons making sales covered by this regulation must keep records which will show a complete description of the containers sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of sale, and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought at least $200 worth of Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers. They must be kept for two years, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration. Any records which the Office of Price Administration later requires must also be kept.

(b) Reports. Any reports that the Office of Price Administration has required in the past, or requires from time to time, must be submitted.

§ 1377.213 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this maximum price regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or of any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, State or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) War Procurement Agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation. Persons who make sales covered by this regulation to War Procurement Agencies are, however, subject to all the liabilities imposed by this regulation. "War Procurement Agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission, and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

§1377.214 Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation.[1] Any sale or delivery covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 320 is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(c) Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[3] The maximum price for export sales of Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers is governed by the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

§ 1377.215 Effective date. (a) This regulation (§§ 1377.201 to 1377.216, inclusive) shall become effective February 11, 1943. However, in the case of 32-quart bean hampers sold for delivery in the State of Florida according to the terms of Order No. 7[4] under section 18 (c), as amended, of the General Maximum Price Regulation, the seller may at his option continue to deliver according to the terms of that order until March 10, 1943.

(b) If Eastern or Central wooden agricultural containers have been received before February 11, 1943, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to a buyer, that shipment is not subject to this regulation. It remains subject to the terms of any regulation, whether the General Maximum Price Regulation or Maximum Price Regulation 160 (Seasonal Wooden Agricultural Containers), which covered it at the time the containers were turned over to the carrier.

[Ration Order 6,[1] Amendment 9]

MEN'S RUBBER BOOTS AND RUBBER WORK SHOES; RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1404.37a, paragraph (b) of § 1404.39 and paragraph (b) of § 1404.43 are amended; new §§ 1404.37b and 1404.37c, new paragraph (c) of § 1404.31 and new paragraph (i) of § 1404.71 are added, as set forth below:

Acquisition and Transfer by Retailer, Distributor, and Manufacturer

(c) A retailer or distributor may get certificates to acquire rubber footwear for an exempt agency. (1) A person owning a registered retail or distributing establishment which has an order from or for the account of one of the agencies enumerated in paragraph (b) may get Parts I of certificates to enable him to get the rubber footwear necessary to fill the order. Application shall be made (on OPA Form R–604) to the Board with which the establishment is registered and shall be accompanied by a copy of the purchase order and, if the rubber footwear is to be acquired for the account of one of the enumerated agencies, the applicant shall display to the Board a copy of the war order or other evidence that title to the rubber footwear will vest in and remain with the agency. (2) If the Board is satisfied that the rubber footwear is to be transferred to or for the account of one of the agencies enumerated in paragraph (b), it may issue to the applicant certificates for such types and in such denominations as will enable the applicant to get the necessary rubber footwear. (3) If the order is cancelled or if, for any reason, the rubber footwear is not transferred to or for the account of one of the agencies enumerated in paragraph (b), the applicant shall surrender to the Board for cancellation certificates equivalent to those issued pursuant to this paragraph.

§ 1404.37a Retailer or distributor may exchange certificates for one type of rubber footwear for certificates of another type—(a) Application is made to the State Director. A person owning a registered retail or distributing establishment may, on approval of the State Director, exchange certificates for one or more types of rubber footwear for certificates for the same number of pairs of rubber footwear of a different type. Application shall be made (on OPA Form R–604) to the State Director of the State in which the establishment is registered and the application shall be accompanied by the Parts I of the certificates which the applicant wants to exchange. An applicant may surrender certificates for exchange only if he may validly use them to order stock. An establishment may not get another exchange within one year after making a similar application unless the State Director, in his discretion, approves the second application because of some unusual condition justifying it.

(b) State Director to exchange certificates. The State Director may issue certificates to the applicant for a number of pairs of rubber footwear, of the types desired, equal to the number of pairs represented by the certificates given up. The newly issued certificates shall be dated as of the date of their issuance.

(c) Applicant to make necessary changes on his copy of his inventory. When certificates are exchanged, the retailer or distributor shall immediately change the copy of his inventory (OPA Form R–601A) in his possession by adding the number of pairs of rubber footwear of each type represented by the newly issued certificates and subtracting the number of pairs of rubber footwear of each type represented by the certificates given up.

§ 1404.37b Retailer or distributor may apply for an increased stock—(a) Application is made to the State Director. A registered retail or distributing establishment whose stock of rubber footwear (including certificates) is not large enough to service its customers, may get certificates for the number of extra pairs of rubber footwear needed. Application shall be made (on OPA Form R–604) to the State Director of the State in which the establishment is registered.

(b) Information to be submitted to the State Director with the application. The applicant shall submit with his application (1) a copy of the latest inventory (OPA Form R–601A) in his file, (2) a statement in writing of the number of pairs of rubber footwear transferred by him during the year ending September 29, 1942, the number of pairs transferred by him since September 29, 1942, and the number of pairs he expects to transfer during the next six months, and (3) information necessary to satisfy the State Director that the applicant's stock of rubber footwear is too low to service his customers.

(c) Basis for State Director's action. If upon all the information submitted to him by the applicant, the State Director decides that certificates should be issued permitting the applicant to add to his stock of rubber footwear, the State Director shall issue Parts I of certificates to allow the applicant to get rubber footwear of such types and in such quantities as the State Director shall, in his discretion, deem proper.

(d) Applicant to make necessary changes on his copy of his inventory. When certificates are issued to allow a retailer or distributor to add to his stock of rubber footwear, he shall immediately change the copy of his inventory (OPA Form R–601A) in his possession by adding the number of pairs of rubber footwear, by types, represented by the certificates issued to him.

§ 1404.37c Opening of new outlets—(a) Application is made to the State Director. Any person wishing to get a stock of rubber footwear for resale is eligible to get certificates to permit him to acquire the rubber footwear needed to service his customers upon application (on OPA Form R–604) to the State Director of the State in which the new outlet is to be located.

(b) Information to be submitted to the State Director with the application. The applicant shall submit with his application a statement of the number of pairs of rubber footwear he expects to transfer from the new outlet during the next six months.

(c) Basis for State Director's action. The State Director may issue Parts I of certificates to allow the applicant to get rubber footwear of such types and in such quantities as the State Director shall, in his discretion, deem necessary to service the customers of the new outlet.

(d) New establishments are required to file an inventory. If the State Director issues certificates for the new establishment, the retailer or distributor shall immediately prepare in duplicate an inventory (on OPA Form R–601A) dated as of the date of issuance of the certificates. The original of the inventory shall be sent to the State Director and the copy shall be kept by the applicant.

(e) State Director to issue certificate of registration. When the State Director receives the original of the applicant's inventory, he shall issue to the applicant a serially numbered certificate of registration (OPA Form R–602).

Exceptions

§ 1404.39 Voluntary or involuntary transfer of an establishment. * * *

(b) A person acquiring rubber footwear on the authority of this section shall be subject to all the provisions of Ration Order No. 6 and must file an inventory and receive a certificate of registration as provided in § 1404.37c. However, if the newly acquired rubber footwear is added to the stock of a registered establishment, the transferee must immediately prepare in duplicate an inventory (on OPA Form R–601A) dated as of the date of acquisition of the added rubber footwear. The original of the inventory shall be sent to the Central Inventory Unit, Office of Price Administration, Empire State Building, New York City and the copy shall be kept by the establishment.

§ 1404.43 Other excepted transfers. * * *

(b) Transfers to exempt persons. (1) Any person may, without the surrender of certificates, transfer rubber footwear to or for the account of any of the agencies enumerated in § 1404.31 (b); or to any persons acquiring such rubber footwear for export to and use in any foreign country, or as slop-chest supplies for the use of crew members aboard any ocean-going vessel operating in foreign, coastwise, or intercoastal trade; or may ship or otherwise send rubber footwear to a Territory, possession, or dependency of the United States (except the District of Columbia).

(2) A person who transfers rubber footwear for the account of any of the agencies enumerated in § 1404.31 (b), on the authority of this paragraph, must first get a copy of the war order or other evidence that the title to the rubber footwear will vest in and remain with the agency.

Executive Order No. 9280 of December 5, 1942 (7 F.R. 10179), directs that the Secretary of Agriculture "assume full responsibility for and control over the nation's food program," that "in exercising such authority, he shall," among other things, "promulgate policies to govern the purchase and procurement of food by all other Federal agencies," and that "existing methods for the purchase and procurement of food by other Federal agencies shall continue until otherwise determined by the Secretary pursuant to this Executive Order." Executive Order No. 9280 further provides that "with respect to the issuance of the directives for the importation of food heretofore issued to the Board of Economic Warfare by the Chairman of the War Production Board under Executive Order No. 9128 of April 13, 1942 (7 F.R. 2809), the Secretary shall issue those directives which relate to the importation of food for human and animal consumption, and the Chairman of the War Production Board and the Secretary shall jointly issue those directives which relate to the importation of food for industrial uses." Executive Order No. 9128 of April 13, 1942, provides that the Board of Economic Warfare "receive and be responsible for executing directives • • • as to quantities, specifications, delivery time schedules, and priorities of materials and commodities • • • required to be imported for the war production effort and the civilian economy," and that the Board "determine the policies, plans, procedures and methods of the several Federal departments, establishments, and agencies with respect to the procurement and production of such commodities, including the financing thereof." Executive Order No. 9280 provides that "any provision of any executive order or proclamation conflicting with this Executive Order is superseded to the extent of such conflict."

In order to clarify the respective functions of the Secretary of Agriculture and the Board of Economic Warfare, to avoid duplication and multiplicity of Government procurement agencies operating in foreign countries, and to insure the effective utilization of the existing foreign procurement organization and facilities of the Board and of the Department of Agriculture, respectively, the following joint order is issued:

1. The Secretary, or whenever so required by Executive Order No. 9280, the Secretary and the Chairman of the War Production Board jointly, shall issue directives to the Board as to the quantities, specifications, delivery time schedules, and priorities of food and food facilities required to be obtained by public purchase in foreign countries for the war effort and the domestic civilian economy.

2. The Board shall receive such directives and be responsible for the initiation, preparation, negotiation, or amendment of any contracts, agreements, or arrangements necessary to fulfill such directives. In addition, the Board shall supervise and administer all food production programs under such contracts and agreements. The officers of the Board shall, insofar as practicable, without duplication of effort, consult with the officers of Commodity Credit Corporation regarding the method of procurement involved prior to the conclusion of any contract, agreement or arrangement establishing the method of procurement.

Commodity Credit Corporation, however, shall be responsible for transacting current spot purchases of food and food facilities abroad offered in the United States. Any spot offerings made abroad to the representatives of the Board shall be communicated by the Board to the Commodity Credit Corporation in the United States. Commodity Credit Corporation shall be authorized to execute purchase contracts with respect to spot offerings of food or food facilities from foreign sources for which no directive for public purchase has been issued by the Secretary, but shall first consult with the Board with respect to such purchases. Upon advice from the Board, Commodity Credit Corporation will suspend spot purchases of any foods or food facilities in specific countries pending the initiation or negotiation of contracts or agreements by the Board relating to such foods or food facilities.

3. Commodity Credit Corporation shall execute such contracts and agreements as may be negotiated by the Board hereunder for the Corporation's account and shall be responsible for the acceptance of delivery and for the disbursement of funds under such contracts and agreements, as well as the necessary accounting with respect to such disbursement, and the inspection, storage, handling, or disposition on and after delivery. The Corporation shall be guided by such policies as the Board may recommend for the coordination in foreign countries of warehousing and transportation plans and procedure.

4. The services of the Board's foreign field personnel shall be made available to the Corporation to such extent as the Corporation may request in the performance of its responsibilities hereunder. In order to avoid duplication of personnel, the Corporation shall, so far as is feasible, avail itself of the Board's staff in foreign countries.

5. All contracts negotiated by the Board for the procurement or development of food or food facilities (as these terms are defined in Executive Order No. 9280) in foreign countries shall be negotiated for the account of Commodity Credit Corporation except, however, the Board may procure food or food facilities for the account of the U. S. Commercial Corporation or other appropriate agency in areas that may be agreed upon or in instances where the primary purpose is not the procurement of food for human, animal, or industrial uses.

6. With respect to any foreign procurement of wool, cotton, sugar, or other food produced in the United States, the Board of Economic Warfare and the Commodity Credit Corporation shall collaborate in determination of all policies and, insofar as practicable, the Board shall consult Commodity Credit Corporation regarding terms of contracts, which policies or terms, if adopted with respect to foreign procurement, might affect the domestic procurement of such commodities.

The Director may, based on the facts presented, direct the Board to amend the assigned quota. The applicant may pursuant to § 1407.3007, apply for an adjustment to the Director at any time after the assignment of the temporary quota.

(8) The quota of each person, other than a consumer, entitled to rice hereunder shall be reduced by an amount equal to the quantity of rice in his possession on February 8, 1943 and acceptance by any person of purchase certificates in the full amount of his quota shall constitute a representation that he had no rice in his possession on such date.

It now appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that said hearing be convened for the aforesaid purpose:

It is ordered, That a hearing be convened in this proceeding for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the retainability of The St. Louis County Gas Company by The North American Company, and that said hearing be held at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at 10:00 A. M. on the 16th day of March, 1943 in such room as may be designated by the hearing room clerk. It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing above ordered. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That all persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate herein, shall notify the Commission to that effect in the manner provided for by Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice, on or before March 13, 1943.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues to be considered at this hearing, as described herein, evidence will be received bearing on the following issues:

And, in particular, as pertinent and relevant to a determination of the issue set forth in paragraph A above, the respondents herein shall produce such evidence as they may have bearing on:

(1) A comparison of the amounts devoted to repairs, maintenance, replacements and improvements of plant and other service facilities as between the electric utility operations of Union Electric Company of Missouri and its subsidiaries, and the gas utility operations of The St. Louis County Gas Company;

(2) A similar comparison with respect to the amounts devoted to and types of promotional activities;

(3) Methods of allocation of costs, expenses, and other accounts as between the said operations;

(4) The feasibility of increasing the extent of natural gas distribution by The St. Louis County Gas Company and the effect, if any, which control of such company by The North American Company may have on the type of gas distributed, the extension of service area, and the cost of gas service to consumers;

(5) The effect of independent operation of the gas business conducted by The St. Louis County Gas Company and free and unrestrained competition between the gas and electric businesses in the area with respect to adequacy of service, rates, proper maintenance and the revenues and income of such gas and electric businesses; and

B. Whether the continued combination of The St. Louis County Gas Company with Union Electric Company of Missouri under common control of The North American Company is so large (considering the state of the art and the area or region affected) as to impair the advantages of localized management, efficient operation, or the effectiveness of regulation.

WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION.

[Directive XVIII]

OCCUPATIONAL DEFERMENT OF ACTIVE OCEAN GOING SEAMEN

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Chairman of the War Manpower Commission by Executive Orders Nos. 9139 and 9279, and having found that the maintenance of our armed forces overseas and the supplying of our allies render it essential that there be continuously available a pool of trained and experienced seamen to man the ships of our rapidly expanding merchant marine; that the number of experienced and available seamen is so limited and the difficulties of recruitment for this hazardous activity so great as to call for the retention in active ocean going service of all persons currently so engaged; that many active ocean going seamen have been inducted into the armed forces on the basis of incomplete and inaccurate information as to their activities or on the basis of a misapprehension as to the normal lack of continuity in their employment; and that an orderly and centralized procedure for acquainting local and appeal boards of the Selective Service System in the War Manpower Commission with current and reliable information upon registrants engaged in active ocean going service will contribute toward assuring the uniform and continued deferment of such registrants by such boards from training and service under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, it is hereby directed:

I. The War Shipping Administration in the Office for Emergency Management shall:

(a) Maintain accurate and current records on the activities of all persons engaged, or becoming engaged, in active ocean going service as defined in paragraph II of this directive, and on the basis of such records make accurate and current reports to local boards of the Selective Service System in the War Manpower Commission upon the activities of each and every such person, and initiate and pursue appeals to appeal boards with respect to such persons, to the end that such persons may be initially and continuously deferred on occupational grounds from training and service under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, for so long as they continue to be engaged in active ocean going service.

(b) Maintain such records and furnish such information and reports as the War Manpower Commission shall from time to time require to insure that the number of persons engaged in active ocean going service does not exceed manpower needs, and that all persons deferred on occupational grounds on the basis of their active ocean going service are being fully utilized in such service; and

(c) Cooperate with the War Manpower Commission in the recruitment for active ocean going service of persons not currently so engaged but experienced in such service and qualified therefor, to the end that the manpower needs of essential coastal and off-shore shipping may eventually be met with the minimum of reliance upon previously inexperienced men and upon manpower otherwise available for immediate training and service under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended.

II. As used in this directive, "active ocean going service" means service as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel engaged in coastal or off-shore shipping which is documented under the laws of the United States or which is owned by, chartered to, or operated by, or for the account or use of, the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration or the United States Transport Service, and shall include in addition to periods while actually at sea, periods during which the seaman is on authorized shore leave, or is remaining ashore temporarily for the express purpose of receiving instruction in a Prospective Licensed Officer or refresher course at a school maintained or approved by the United States Maritime Service.

Acting Chairman.

(a) If any person holding new farm machinery and equipment for sale in any State desires to exchange with another person or other persons the distribution plan, or any part thereof, controlling his distribution of such new farm machinery and equipment, and if such person locates another person or other persons who hold the same type of new farm machinery and equipment for distribution in the same State and who are willing to participate in such exchange, then all such persons may petition the State board for such State for an order authorizing the exchange upon which they have agreed. board and such orders shall be issued only upon the request and consent of the agreeing persons who hold for sale the machinery and equipment involved in the exchange.

(b) If a State board determines that changes in the distribution plans providing for distribution of farm machinery and equipment within such State will result in a more efficient use of farm machinery and equipment and will benefit the food production program within the State, the State board may order that such changes be made. In making such changes, a State board may increase or decrease county quotas of any item of farm machinery and equipment in order to make such quotas conform to the adjusted distribution plans, provided that the sum of all county quotas of any type of farm machinery and equipment shall not be increased above the State quota of such item and provided further that immediate notification must be given to the county farm rationing committee for any county for which a quota is changed.

No order shall be issued by a State board pursuant to the provisions of this subparagraph (6) (i) (b) unless such State board has taken the following factors into consideration and has determined, in light of such consideration, that the order should be issued.

(1) With few exceptions, necessary adjustments should be effected by properly distributing the farm machinery and equipment in excess of the announced county quotas.

(2) Changes in distribution plans for any farm machinery and equipment should be made, if possible, before such farm machinery and equipment reaches the hands of dealers.

(3) Changes in distribution plans should be made only to correct obvious inequities in distribution and to cope with emergency needs.

(4) Careful consideration should be given to the adaptability of farm machinery and equipment to areas in which the redistribution is being made.

(5) There is urgent necessity for efficient use of transportation facilities, both because of the national transportation problem and the increased cost to the farmer brought about by re-shipments.

(6) Service facilities, dealer representation, and other related factors should be considered.

(ii) A State board which issues an order under the authority of this paragraph (c) (6) shall order the changing of tags which accompany the affected farm machinery and equipment pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (c) of this Supplementary Order No. 3. A State board issuing such an order shall designate specifically the changes to be made in such tags, and the person or persons having possession of farm machinery and equipment affected by this order shall promptly make the changes on the tags as ordered and report to the State board as soon as the changes are complete. If the tag on any item of farm machinery and equipment is changed pursuant to an order issued by a State board under the authority of this paragraph (c) (6), such machinery and equipment shall thereafter be treated, for the purposes of this paragraph (c) of this Supplementary Order No. 3, as though the altered tag had been originally affixed to such machinery and equipment.

(iii) Any person who holds new machinery and equipment for sale in any State shall comply with orders issued by the State board for such State under the authority of this paragraph (c) (6): Provided, That, if such person, prior to his receipt of an order issued under the authority of subparagraph (6) (i) (b) of this paragraph (c), has entered into a sales contract for, or has prepared bills of lading covering the shipment of, the new farm machinery and equipment affected by such order, such person, if he does not consent to such order, shall be deemed to have complied with such order if within 48 hours after his receipt of such order he delivers or mails such order to the issuing State board along with an explanatory statement furnishing the name and address of the person to whom each item covered by such order has been designated by such contract or bills of lading and furnishing also the date on which each such item is scheduled for delivery to the transferee. If such person does not deliver or mail such order to the issuing State board along with the statement described above within 48 hours after his receipt thereof, he shall be deemed to have consented to the terms of such order.

(iv) Any State board issuing an order under the authority of this paragraph (c) (6) shall transmit a copy of such order to the Director of Food Production.

Paragraph (e) is amended by adding subparagraph (1) as follows:

(1) This Amendment No. 1 to Supplementary Order No. 3 shall become effective February 15, 1943.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of February 1943. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Director of Food Production.

Chapter XI—Food Distribution Administration

[Food Distribution Order 20]

PART 1410—LIVESTOCK AND MEATS

PACKERS REQUIRED TO SET ASIDE LARD AND RENDERED PORK FAT

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of lard and rendered pork fat to meet war and civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1410.1 Lard and rendered pork fat required to be set aside—(a) Definitions. When used in this regulation unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) "Lard" means lard as defined in the regulations promulgated under the Meat Inspection Act, Amendment 13 to B. A. I. Order 211, Revised, 9 CFR, 1940 Sup. 1.1 (cc).

(2) "Rendered pork fat" means rendered pork fat as defined in the regulations promulgated under the Meat Inspection Act, Amendment 13 to B. A. I. Order 211, Revised, 9 CFR, 1940 Sup. 1.1 (dd).

(3) "Packer" means any person, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity engaged in producing lard or rendered pork fat and operating pursuant to the provisions of the Meat Inspection Act.

(4) "Offer to sell" means to offer lard or rendered pork fat for sale to a governmental agency, on contract forms furnished by and in accordance with specifications furnished by such agency, at prices not exceeding the ceiling prices established by the Office of Price Administration, for delivery within not more than 60 days from the date of offer.

(5) "Governmental agency" means the Food Distribution Administration, the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation, and any other governmental agency designated by the Director.

(6) "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by the Director.

(b) Restrictions on packers. (1) Every packer shall set aside on a calendar week basis and hold for delivery to a governmental agency a quantity of lard and rendered pork fat equal to his total production produced or rendered during the week beginning with the first day of the calendar week following the date of the issuance of this order and each subsequent week thereafter. The lard or rendered pork fat required to be set aside hereunder need not be segregated, but may be mixed, commingled, or stored in common with other lard or rendered pork fat of the same grade and quality.

(2) If no governmental agency has, within 60 days after the close of any weekly period, purchased, contracted to purchase, offered to purchase, or manifested to any packer its intention or desire to purchase the entire amount of lard and rendered pork fat required to be set aside under this order during said weekly period, the amount thereof not sold, contracted for sale, or sought for purchase is released from the restrictions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof and may be disposed of by such packer at his discretion.

(3) Notwithstanding any of the provisions in paragraph (b) (1) hereof, any packer who after the date hereof has made an offer to sell or who has sold or contracted to sell to any governmental agency a quantity of lard or rendered pork fat equivalent to 50 percent of the total amount of lard and rendered pork fat produced during any weekly period or periods may, at his option, sell and dispose of the remainder of the amount produced during such periods.

(4) All lard and rendered pork fat set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be stored in such a manner as to maintain the quality of such lard or rendered pork fat.

(5) The restrictions hereof shall be observed without regard to the rights of creditors, prior contracts, existing contracts, payments made, or to deliveries of lard or rendered pork fat made prior to the date hereof. This order shall not, however, be construed as reducing the amount of lard or rendered pork fat which any packer is required to offer, or to deliver under any existing contract with any governmental agency, but any lard or rendered pork fat required to be delivered after the effective date of this order to any governmental agency pursuant to a preexisting contract may be used in computing the percentage of lard or rendered pork fat offered to a governmental agency pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) (3) hereof.

(c) Records and reports. Every packer subject to this order shall keep an accurate record of the number of pounds of lard and rendered pork fat produced during each weekly period and shall maintain such other records for such periods of time as the Director may designate and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and shall submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe. (Record keeping requirements in this order approved by the Bureau of the Budget.)

(d) Audits and inspections. Every packer subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections at all reasonable times of his stocks of lard and rendered pork fat, and of the premises used in his business, and all his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(e) Territorial scope. The provisions of this order shall apply only to the operations of packers conducted within any of the 48 States or the District of Columbia.

(f) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition, in writing (in triplicate), for relief to the Director, setting forth in said petition all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action by the Director shall be final.

(g) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order, or who willfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the scope of this order, may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(h) Communications to Director. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to Meat Purchase Division, Livestock and Meats Branch, Food Distribution Administration, 5 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, Ref: FD–20.

(i) Delegation of authority. The Director is hereby designated to administer the provisions of this order and is authorized, notwithstanding any of the provisions hereof, to release any or all of the lard and rendered pork fat required to be set aside hereunder.

(j) Effective date. This order shall become effective on the date of its issuance.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179)

[SEAL] CLAUDE R. WICKARD,
Secretary of Agriculture.

SOURCE: These regulations are also contained in W.D. Circular 35, February 2, 1943.

§ 7.31 Service flag, term defined. The term, service flag, refers to any symbol used pursuant to the act for private or public display to represent that a person (or persons) is serving in the armed forces of the United States during the current war.

§ 7.32 Design of approved service flag. Under the authority contained in the act approved October 17, 1942, Public Law 750, 77th Congress, the Secretary of War approved the following design for a service flag which is described as follows:

(a) Flag for immediate family. On a white rectangular field a blue star or stars within a red border.

(1) The number of blue stars will correspondent to the number of individuals from the "immediate family" who are symbolized on the flag.

(2) The flag horizontally displayed will have the stars arranged in a horizontal line or lines with one point of each star up.

(3) The flag vertically displayed will have the stars arranged in a vertical line or lines with one point of each star up.

(4) If the individual symbolized is killed or dies while serving, from causes other than dishonorable, the star (or stars) representing that individual will have superimposed thereon a gold star of smaller size so that the blue forms a border.

(b) Flag for organizations. The flag for organizations will correspond to that described in paragraph (a) above. However, instead of using a separate star for each member, one star may be used with the number of the members indicated by arabic numerals, which will appear below the star. If any members are deceased as determined under the circumstances cited in paragraph (a) (4) above, a gold star will be placed nearest the staff or to the dexter of the blue star in the case of a flag having horizontal display, or will be placed above the blue star in the case of a flag used in a vertical display. Below this star will be the arabic numerals. The gold stars in both cases will be smaller than the blue stars so that the blue will form a border. The numerals in all cases will be in blue.

(c) Size and relative proportions. The size of the service flag will correspond to that used in the flag of the United States, if the display is made with the flag of the United States. In all other instances where the flag is for a display not involving the flag of the United States, the service flag will be made in the size dictated by the circumstances necessitating the display.

§ 7.33 Colors of service flag. The shades of red, white, and blue used in the service flag will correspond to those prescribed for the colors of the flag of the United States as defined by Federal Specification No. TT–C–591.

§ 7.34 Immediate family defined. The "immediate family" referred to in the act includes father, mother, wife, son, daughter, sister, husband, brother.

§ 7.35 Organizations defined. The work "organization" as used in this circular refers to those group organizations, such as places of business, churches, schools, colleges, fraternities, sororities, societies, etc., with which the individual was associated.

§ 7.36 Rules and cautions for display of service flag—(a) Rules. The regulations below for the display of the service flag have been coordinated with the "Flag Code for the display of the Flag of the United States of America" as carried in Joint Resolution (Public Law 623, 77th Cong., Second Session; Bull. 33, W.D., 1942), approved June 22, 1942.

(1) When the service flag is displayed from a staff in a church or public auditorium, if it is displayed in the chancel of a church or on the speaker's platform in a public auditorium, the flag of the United States will occupy the position of honor and be placed at the clergyman's or speaker's right as he faces the congregation or audience with the service flag at the clergyman's or speaker's left. When the service flag is displayed from a staff in a church or public auditorium elsewhere than in the chancel or on the platform, the flag of the United States will be placed in the position of honor at the right of the congregation or the audience as they face the chancel or platform, and the service flag will be placed on the left of the congregation or the audience as they face the chancel or platform.

(2) When displayed against a wall with the flag of the United States, the flag of the United States will be on the right, the flag's own right, and its staff will be in front of the staff of the service flag.

(3) When the service flag is displayed on the same halyard with the flag of the United States, the latter will be at the peak. When the flags are flown from adjacent staffs, the flag of the United States will be hoisted first and lowered last. The service flag will never be displayed above or to the right of the flag of the United States.

(4) When displayed with the flag of the United States, the service flag will be of approximately equal size but never larger than the flag of the United States.

(5) When displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from a window sill, balcony, or front of a building, the flag of the United States will be placed at the peak of the staff if on the same halyard, or to the right, the flag's own right, if displayed on adjacent staffs.

(6) When the service flag is displayed otherwise than by being flown from a staff, it will be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall the flag will be placed so that the one point of the star is uppermost.

(7) When the service flag is displayed in an open area it will be suspended vertically.

(b) Cautions. (1) The service flag will form a distinctive feature of the ceremony of unveiling exercises, but it will never be used as a covering for a statue or monument.

(3) The service flag will never be displayed upside down.

(4) The service flag will never touch anything beneath it, such as the ground, the floor, water, window sill, or merchandise.

(5) The service flag will never be carried flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free.

(6) The service flag will never be used as drapery of any sort whatsoever, never festooned, drawn back, nor up in folds, but always allowed to fall free.

(7) The service flag will never be fastened, displayed, used, or stored in such a manner as will permit it to be easily torn, soiled, or damaged in any way.

(8) The service flag will never be used as a covering for a ceiling.

(9) The service flag will never have placed upon it, nor on part of it, nor attached to it any mark, insignia, letter, word, figure, design, picture, or drawing of any nature except those provided for in the approved design.

(10) The service flag will never be used as a receptacle for receiving, holding, carrying, or delivering anything.

(11) The service flag will never be used for advertising purposes in any manner whatsoever. It will not be embroidered on such articles as cushions or handkerchiefs and the like, printed, or otherwise impressed on paper napkins or boxes or anything that is designed for temporary use and discarded, or used as any portion of a costume or athletic uniform. Advertising signs will not be fastened to a staff or halyard from which the service flag is flown.

(12) The service flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, will be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning.

(c) Changes to rules, who may make. Any rules or custom pertaining to the display of the service flag may be altered, modified, or repealed, or additional rules with respect thereto may be prescribed by the Secretary of War whenever he deems it to be appropriate or desirable, and any such alteration or additional rule will be set forth in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by announcement through the public press.

§ 7.37 Service lapel button, design and use. The design and use of the service lapel button will correspond so far as applicable to the provisions in sections 7.31 to 7.36, inclusive.

§ 7.38 Manufacture and sale of service flag and service lapel button. Under authority contained in the act approved October 17, 1942, Public Law 750, 77th Congress, the Secretary of War under regulations herein prescribed may grant certificates of authority for the manufacture and sale of service flags and service lapel buttons conforming to the approved design recorded herein. A certificate of authority to manufacture and/or sell service flags and service lapel buttons will be granted only upon agreement in writing by the applicant that he will not deviate in the manufacture or sale of the approved official service flag and/or service lapel button in view of the penalty that will be invoked under the law cited above.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

Subchapter A—Income and Excess Profits Taxes

PART 3—INCOME TAX UNDER THE REVENUE ACT OF 1936

PART 9—INCOME TAX UNDER THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938

PART 19—INCOME TAX UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

MUTUAL INVESTMENT COMPANIES AND REGULATED INVESTMENT COMPANIES

In order to conform Regulations 94 [Part 3, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations], Regulations 101 [Part 9, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1939 Supp.], and Regulations 103 [Part 19, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Supp.] to section 170 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress), such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Regulations 103 are amended by inserting the following immediately before § 19.361–1:

SEC. 170. REGULATED INVESTMENT COMPANIES (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Definition and rates of normal tax and surtax. Supplement Q of Chapter 1 is amended to read as follows:

SUPPLEMENT Q—REGULATED INVESTMENT COMPANIES

SEC. 361. DEFINITION.

(a) In general. For the purposes of this chapter, the term "regulated investment company" means any domestic corporation (whether chartered or created as an investment trust, or otherwise), other than a personal holding company as defined in section 501, which at all times during the taxable year is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 789, 15 U.S.C., 1940 ed., secs. 80 a–1 to 80 b–2), or that Act, as amended, either as a management company or as a unit investment trust, or which is a common trust fund or similar fund excluded by section 3 (c) (3) of such Act from the definition of "investment company" and is not included in the definition of "common trust fund" by section 169.

(b) Limitations. Despite the provisions of subsection (a), a corporation shall not be considered a regulated investment company for any taxable year unless—

(1) At least 90 per centum of its gross income is derived from dividends, interest, and gains from the sale or other disposition of stock or securities; and

(2) Less than 30 per centum of its gross income is derived from the sale or other disposition of stock or securities held for less than three months; and

(3) At the close of each quarter of the taxable year (A) at least 50 per centum of the value of its total assets is represented by cash and cash items (including receivables), Government securities, securities of other regulated investment companies, and other securities for the purposes of this calculation limited in respect of any one issuer to an amount not greater in value than 5 per centum of the value of the total assets of the taxpayer and to not more than 10 per centum of the outstanding voting securities of such issuer, and (B) not more than 25 per centum of the value of its total assets is invested in the securities (other than Government securities or the securities of other regulated investment companies) of any one issuer, or of two or more issuers which the taxpayer controls and which are determined, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, to be engaged in the same or similar trades or businesses or related trades or businesses. For the purposes of clause (B), in ascertaining the value of the taxpayer's investment in the securities of an issuer, there shall be included its proper proportion of the investment of any other corporation, a member of a controlled group, in the securities of such issuer, as determined under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner and approved by the Secretary. The term "controls", as used in this paragraph, means the ownership in a corporation of 20 per centum or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote. The term "controlled group", as used in this paragraph, means one or more chains of corporations connected through stock ownership with the taxpayer if (i) 20 per centum or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote of each of the corporations (except the taxpayer) is owned directly by one or more of the other corporations, and (ii) the taxpayer owns directly 20 per centum or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, of at least one of the other corporations. The term "value" as used in this paragraph means, with respect to securities (other than those of majority-owned subsidiaries) for which market quotations are readily available, the market value of such securities; and with respect to other securities and assets, fair value, as determined in good faith by the board of directors, except that in the case of securities of majority-owned subsidiaries which are investment companies such fair value shall not exceed market value or asset value, whichever is higher. All other terms used in the preceding provisions of this paragraph shall have the same meaning as when used in the Investment Company Act of 1940, or that Act as amended. A corporation which meets the foregoing requirements of this paragraph at the close of any quarter shall not lose its status as a regulated investment company because of a discrepancy during a subsequent quarter between the value of its various investments and such requirements unless such discrepancy exists immediately after the acquisition of any security or other property and is wholly or partly the result of such acquisition. A corporation which does not meet such requirements at the close of any quarter by reason of a discrepancy existing immediately after the acquisition of any security or other property which is wholly or partly the result of such acquisition during such quarter shall not lose its status for such quarter as a regulated investment company if such discrepancy is eliminated within thirty days after the close of such quarter and in such cases it shall be considered to have met such requirements at the close of such quarter for the purpose of applying the preceding sentence. A corporation which meets such requirements at the close of its first full quarter after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1942, or eliminates any discrepancy between the value of its investments and such requirements existing at the close of such quarter within thirty days thereafter, shall be deemed to have met such requirements at all previous times; and

(4) It files with its return for the taxable year an election to be a regulated investment company or has made such election for a previous taxable year which began after December 31, 1941.

* * * * *

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942 Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 2. Section 19.361–1 of Regulations 103 is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following sentence: The term "mutual investment company" is not applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 3. Regulations 103 are amended by inserting the following immediately after § 19.361–5:

§ 19.361–6 Definition of a regulated investment company—(a) In general. The provisions of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to regulated investment companies as defined in section 361 (a) as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942 apply only to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941. As to the definition of the term "corporation", see section 3797 (a) (3).

(b) Limitations upon source of income. Section 361 (b) (1) and (2) provides that at least 90 percent of the corporation's gross income for the taxable year shall be derived from dividends, interest, and gains from the sale or other disposition of stock or securities, and less than 30 percent of the corporation's gross income shall have been derived from the sale or other disposition of stock or securities held for less than three months. In determining the percentage of the corporation's gross income which has been derived from such sources, a loss from the sale or other disposition of stock or securities does not enter into the computation. A determination of the period for which stock or securities have been held shall be governed by the provisions of section 117 (h) insofar as applicable.

(c) Limitations requiring diversification of investments. Section 361 (b) (3), with respect to diversification of investments, requires, in clause (A), that at the close of each quarter of the taxable year at least 50 percent of the value of the total assets of the corporation be represented by cash and cash items (including receivables), Government securities, securities of other regulated investment companies, and other securities. For the purpose of this calculation investments in securities other than Government securities or securities of other regulated investment companies shall be limited in respect of any one issuer to an amount not greater than 5 percent of the value of the total assets of the corporation and to not more than 10 percent of the outstanding voting securities of such issuer. Assuming that at least 50 percent of the value of the total assets of the corporation satisfies these requirements, and that the limiting provisions of clause (B) are not violated, the corporation will satisfy the requirements of section 361 (b) (3), notwithstanding that the remaining assets do not satisfy the diversification requirements of clause (A). For example, a corporation may own all the stock of another corporation, provided it otherwise meets the requirements of clauses (A) and (B).

Clause (B) prohibits the investment at the close of each quarter of the taxable year of more than 25 percent of the value of the total assets of the corporation (including the 50 percent or more mentioned in clause (A)) in the securities (other than Government securities or the securities of other regulated investment companies) of any one issuer, or of two or more issuers, which the corporation controls and which are engaged in the same or similar trades or businesses or related trades or businesses, including such issuers that are merely a part of a unit contributing to the completion and sale of a product or the rendering of a particular service. Two or more issuers are not considered as being in the same or similar trades or businesses merely because they are engaged in the broad field of manufacturing or of any other general classification of industry, but issuers shall be construed to be engaged in the same or similar trades or businesses if they are engaged in a distinct branch of business, trade, or manufacture in which they render the same kind of service or produce or deal in the same kind of product, and such service or products fulfill the same economic need. If two or more issuers produce more than one product or render more than one type of service, then the chief product or service of each shall be the basis for determining whether they are in the same trade or business. The term "controls," "controlled group," and "value" are defined for the purposes of this paragraph in section 361 (b) (3), as amended. All other terms used in this section have the same meaning as when used in the Investment Company Act of 1940, or that Act as amended. In determining the value of the investment company's investment in the securities of any one issuer, there shall be included its proper proportion of the investment of any other corporation, a member of a controlled group, in the securities of such issuer. With respect to the effect which certain discrepancies between the value of its various investments and the requirements of section 361 (b) (3) or the elimination of such discrepancies will have on the status of a company as a regulated investment company for the purposes of these sections, see section 361 (b) (3). A company claiming to be a regulated investment company shall keep sufficient records as to investments so as to be able to show that it has complied with the provisions of section 361 (b) (3) during the taxable year. Such records shall be kept at all times available for inspection by any authorized officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, and shall be retained as long as the contents thereof may become material in the administration of any internal-revenue law.

The requirements as to diversification under section 361 (b) (3) are illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Investment Company W at the close of its first quarter of the taxable year has its assets invested as follows: 5 percent in cash, 10 percent in Government securities, 20 percent in securities of regulated investment companies as defined in section 361, 10 percent in the securities of Corporation A, 15 percent in Corporation B, 20 percent in Corporation C, and the balance, 20 percent, in the securities of various corporations, not exceeding 5 percent of its assets in any one company. Investment Company W owns 15 percent of the voting stock of Corporation C and less than 10 percent of the voting stock of the other corporations, except that it owns all of the voting stock of Corporations A and B. None of the corporations is a member of a controlled group. Investment Company W meets the requirements at the end of its first quarter under section 361 (b) (3). It complies with clause (A) since it has 55 percent of its assets invested as provided in clause (A). It complies with clause (B) since it does not have more than 25 percent of its assets invested in the securities of any one issuer, or of two or more issuers which it controls.

Example (2). Investment Company V at the close of a particular quarter of the taxable year has its assets invested as follows: 10 percent in cash, 35 percent in Government securities, 7 percent in the securities of Corporation A, 12 percent in Corporation B, 15 percent in Corporation C, and 21 percent in Corporation D. Investment Company V fails to meet the requirements of clause (A) of section 361 (b) (3) since its assets invested in Corporations A, B, C, and D exceed in each case 5 percent of the value of the total assets of the company at the close of the particular quarter.

Example (3). Investment Company X at the close of the particular quarter of the taxable year has its assets invested as follows: 20 percent in cash and Government securities, 5 percent in Corporation A, 10 percent in Corporation B, 25 percent in Corporation C, and the other 40 percent in the securities of miscellaneous corporations, not exceeding 5 percent in any one issuer. Investment Company X owns less than 10 percent of the voting power of all of the corporations, except it owns more than 20 percent of the voting power of Corporations B and C. Corporation B manufactures radios and Corporation C acts as its distributor and also distributes radios for other companies. Investment Company X fails to meet the requirements of section 361 (b) (3) since it has 35 percent of its assets invested in the securities of two issuers which it controls and which are engaged in related trades or businesses.

Example (4). Investment Company Y at the close of the particular quarter has 15 percent of its assets invested in cash and Government securities, 30 percent in Corporation K, a regulated investment company, 10 percent in Corporation A, 20 percent in Corporation B, and the remaining 25 percent in various corporations in none of which is more than 5 percent of its assets invested. Corporation K has 20 percent of its assets invested in Corporation L, and Corporation L has 40 percent of its assets invested in Corporation B. Corporation A also has 30 percent of its assets invested in Corporation B, and owns more than 20 percent of the voting power in Corporation B. Investment Company Y owns more than 20 percent of the voting power of Corporations A and K. Corporation K owns more than 20 percent of the voting power of Corporation L, and Corporation L owns more than 20 percent of the voting power of Corporation B. Investment Company Y is disqualified under clause (B) since more than 25 percent of its assets is considered invested in Corporation B as shown by the following calculation:

Percentage of assets invested directly in Corporation B, 20.

Percentage invested through the controlled group, Y–K–L–B, 2.4 determined as follows:

40% of 20% of 30% = 2.4.

Percentage invested in the controlled group, Y–A–B, 3, determined by taking 30% of 10%.

Total percentage of assets of Investment Company Y invested in Corporation B—25.4.

Example (5). Investment Company Z at the close of its first full quarter after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1942 meets the requirements of section 361 (b) (3) and has 20 percent of its assets invested in Corporation A. Later during the taxable year it makes distributions to its shareholders and because of such distributions it finds at the close of the taxable year that it has more than 25 percent of its remaining assets invested in Corporation A. Investment Company Z does not lose its status as a regulated investment company because of such distributions.

(d) Requirements as to election. Even if an investment company satisfies the other requirements of section 361 for the taxable year, it will not be considered a regulated investment company for such year within the meaning of Supplement Q unless it elects to be a regulated investment company for such taxable year, or has made such an election for a previous taxable year which began after December 31, 1941. The election shall be made by the taxpayer by computing income as a regulated investment company in its return for the first taxable year to which it desires the election to be applicable. No other method of making such election is permitted. An election once made is irrevocable for the current taxable year and all succeeding taxable years.

PAR. 4. Regulations 103 are amended by inserting the following immediately before section 19.362–1:

* * * * *

SEC. 362. TAX ON REGULATED INVESTMENT COMPANIES.

(a) Earnings and profits. The earnings and profits of a regulated investment company for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 (but not its accumulated earnings and profits) shall not be reduced by any amount which is not allowable as a deduction in computing its net income for such taxable year.

(b) Method of taxation of companies and shareholders. In the case of a regulated investment company which distributes during the taxable year to its shareholders as taxable dividends other than capital gain dividends an amount not less than 90 per centum of its net income for the taxable year computed without regard to net long-term and net short-term capital gains, and complies for such year with all rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual ownership of its outstanding stock:

(1) Its Supplement Q net income shall be its adjusted net income (computed by excluding the excess, if any, of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss, and without the net operating loss deduction provided in section 23 (s)) minus the basic surtax credit (excluding capital gain dividends) computed under section 27 (b) without the application of paragraphs (2) and (3). For the purposes of this paragraph, the net income shall be computed without regard to section 47 (c).

(2) Its Supplement Q surtax net income shall be its net income (computed by excluding the excess, if any, of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss, and without the net operating loss deduction provided in section 23 (s)) minus the dividends (other than capital gain dividends) paid during the taxable year increased by the consent dividends credit provided by section 26. For the purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (5) the amount of dividends paid shall be computed in the same manner as provided in subsections (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), and (l) of section 27 for the purpose of the basic surtax credit provided in section 27. For the purposes of this paragraph the net income shall be computed without regard to section 47 (c).

(3) There shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon its Supplement Q net income a tax equal to 24 per centum of the amount thereof.

(4) There shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon its Supplement Q surtax net income a tax equal to 16 per centum of the amount thereof.

(5) There shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year a tax of 25 per centum of the excess, if any, of the net long-term capital gain over the sum of the net short-term capital loss and the amount of capital gain dividends paid during the year.

(6) A capital gain dividend shall be treated by the shareholders as gains from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than 6 months.

(7) A capital gain dividend means any dividend or part thereof which is designated by the company as a capital gain dividend in a written notice mailed to its shareholders at any time prior to the expiration of thirty days after close of its taxable year. If the aggregate amount so designated with respect to a taxable year of the company is greater than the excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss of the taxable year, the portion of each distribution which shall be a capital gain dividend shall be only that proportion of the amount so designated which such excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss bears to the aggregate amount so designated

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 5. Regulations 103 are amended by inserting the following immediately after § 19.362–1:

§ 19.36–2 Earnings and profits of a regulated investment company. In the determination of the earnings and profits of a regulated investment company for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, such earnings and profits shall not be reduced by any amount which is not allowable as a deduction in computing its net income for such taxable year. See section 362 (a). Thus, if a corporation would have had earnings and profits of $500,000 for the taxable year except for the fact that it had a net capital loss of $100,000, which amount was not deductible in determining its net income, its earnings and profits for that year if it is a regulated investment company would be $500,000. However, in determining its accumulated earnings and profits as of the beginning of the following taxable year, the earnings and profits for the previous year to be considered in such computation would amount to $400,000 assuming that there had been no distribution from such earnings and profits. For the purpose of the earnings-and-profits concept, it is immaterial whether during the taxable year a regulated investment company is taxable under Supplement Q.

§ 19.362–3 Method of taxation of regulated investment companies. If a regulated investment company distributes during the taxable year to its shareholders as taxable dividends other than capital gain dividends an amount not less than 90 percent of its net income for the taxable year computed without regard to net long-term and net short-term capital gains, and complies for such year with the provisions of § 19.362–4 (relating to records required to be kept for the purpose of ascertaining the actual ownership of its outstanding stock), it is taxable upon its Supplement Q net income (as defined in section 362 (b) (1)) at the rate of 24 percent of the amount thereof, upon its Supplement Q surtax net income (as defined in section 362 (b) (2)) at the rate of 16 percent of the amount thereof, and upon the excess of any net long-term capital gain over the sum of the net short-term capital loss and the amount of capital gain dividends (as defined in section 362 (b) (7)) paid during the year, at the rate of 25 percent of such excess. If a regulated investment company does not in a particular year distribute as taxable dividends, other than capital gain dividends, to its stockholders at least 90 percent of its net income computed without regard to net long-term and net short-term capital gains, it will, in spite of being classified as a regulated investment company, be taxed in that year as an ordinary corporation (that is, it will be entitled to the dividends received credit, but will not be entitled to the basic surtax credit). The term "taxable dividends" means dividends (as defined in section 115 after the application of section 362 (a)) which are taxable in the hands of such shareholders as are subject to taxation under chapter 1. A taxable dividend is not distributed to its shareholders during the taxable year within the meaning of section 362 (b), unless the dividend is received by the shareholders during the taxable year of the company. See § 19.27 (b)–2, relating to when dividends are considered paid. Due to the provision in section 362 (a) with respect to the concept of earnings and profits of a regulated investment company, even though such a company has no accumulated earnings and profits if it makes distributions during the taxable year of an amount equal to its net income for that year, regardless of the amount of losses which are not deductible against such net income, it will be allowed a basic surtax credit equal to its net income, and thus not be liable for any income tax for the taxable year provided it otherwise satisfies the requirements of Supplement Q. The terms "Supplement Q net income", "Supplement Q surtax net income", and "capital gain dividends" are defined in section 362 (b) (1), (2), and (7), respectively.

§ 19.362–4 Records to be kept for purpose of determining whether a corporation claiming to be a regulated investment company is a personal holding company. Every regulated investment company shall maintain in the collection district in which it is required to file its income tax return permanent records showing the information relative to the actual owners of its stock contained in the written statements required by these regulations to be demanded from the shareholders. The term "actual owner of stock," as used in these regulations, includes the person who is required to include in gross income in his return the dividends received on the stock. Such records shall be kept at all times available for inspection, by any authorized officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, and shall be retained as long as the contents thereof may become material in the administration of any internal-revenue law. For the purpose of determining whether a domestic corporation claiming to be a regulated investment company is a personal holding company as defined in section 501, the permanent records of the company shall show the maximum number of shares of the corporation (including the number and face value of securities convertible into stock of the corporation) to be considered as actually or constructively owned by each of the actual owners of any of its stock at any time during the last half of the corporation's taxable year, as provided in section 503. Statements giving such information shall be demanded not later than 30 days after the close of the corporation's taxable year, as follows:

(1) In the case of a corporation having 2,000 or more record owners of its stock on any dividend record date, from each record holder of 5 percent or more of its stock; or

(2) In the case of a corporation having less than 2,000 and more than 200 record owners of its stock, on any dividend record date, from each record holder of one percent or more of its stock; or

(3) In the case of a corporation having 200 or less record owners of its stock, on any dividend record date, from each record holder of one-half of one percent or more of its stock.

§ 19.362–5 Additional information required in returns of shareholders. Any person who fails or refuses to comply with the demand of a regulated investment company for the written statements which § 19.362–4 requires the company to demand from its shareholders shall submit as a part of the income tax return required by the Internal Revenue Code of such person a statement showing, to the best of his knowledge and belief:

(1) The number of shares actually owned by him at any and all times during the period for which the return is filed in any company claiming to be a regulated investment company;

(2) The dates of acquisition of any such stock during such period and the names and addresses of persons from whom it was acquired;

(3) The dates of disposition of any such stock during such period and the names and addresses of the transferees thereof;

(4) The names and addresses of the members of his family (as defined in section 503 (a) (2)); the names and addresses of his partners, if any, in any partnership; and the maximum number of shares, if any, actually owned by each in any corporation claiming to be a regulated investment company, at any time during the last half of the taxable year of such company;

(5) The names and addresses of any corporation, partnership, association, or trust in which he had a beneficial interest to the extent of at least 10 percent at any time during the period for which such return is made, and the number of shares of any corporation claiming to be a regulated investment company actually owned by each;

(6) The maximum number of shares (including the number and face value of securities convertible into stock of the corporation) in any domestic corporation claiming to be a regulated investment company to be considered as constructively owned by such individual at any time during the last half of the corporation's taxable year, as provided in section 503 and §§ 19.503 (a)–1 to 19.503 (a)–7, inclusive, and § 19.503 (b)–1; and

(7) The amount and date of receipt of each dividend received during such period from every corporation claiming to be a regulated investment company.

When making demand for the written statements required of each shareholder under these regulations, the company shall inform each of the shareholders of his duty to submit as a part of his income tax return the statements which are required by this section if he fails or refuses to comply with such demand. A list of the persons failing or refusing to comply in whole or in part with a company's demand shall be maintained as a part of its records required by these regulations. A company which fails to keep such records to show the actual ownership of its outstanding stock as are required by these regulations, or which may be required from time to time by any rule or regulation prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, for such purpose, shall not be taxable as a regulated investment company.

Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to relieve regulated investment companies or their shareholders from the duty of filing information returns required by regulations prescribed under sections 147 and 148.

§ 19.362–6 Method of taxation of shareholders of regulated investment companies. Shareholders who receive capital gain dividends from a regulated investment company distributed during a taxable year of the regulated investment company for which it is taxable under section 362 (b), shall treat such dividends as gains from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than six months. A capital gain dividend is defined in section 362 (b) (7) as any dividend or part thereof which is designated by a regulated investment company as a capital gain dividend in a written notice mailed to its shareholders at any time prior to the expiration of 30 days after the close of its taxable year. If the aggregate amount so designated with respect to the taxable year is greater than the excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss of the taxable year, the portion of each distribution which shall be a capital gain dividend shall be only that proportion of the amount so designated which such excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss bears to the aggregate amount so designated. Thus, if a regulated investment company making its return on the calendar year basis advised its shareholders by written notice mailed December 30, 1942, that of a distribution of $500,000 made December 15, 1942, $200,000 constituted a capital gain dividend, amounting to $2 per share, and it was later discovered that an error had been made in determining the excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss of the taxable year and that instead of such excess being $200,000 it was $100,000, then instead of each shareholder having received a capital gain dividend of $2 per share he would have received a capital gain dividend of $1 per share.

PAR. 6. Regulations 94, 101, and 103 are each amended by inserting the following caption and provision of law immediately preceding article 48 (e)–1 of Regulations 94, article 362–1 of Regulations 101, and § 19.361–2 of Regulations 103:

* * * * *

(c) Retroactive provisions relating to earnings and profits.—For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1935, and before January 1, 1942, of a corporation which filed an income tax return as a mutual investment company, the earnings and profits of such corporation for such taxable year (but not its accumulated earnings and profits) shall not be reduced by any amount which is not allowable as a deduction in computing its net income for such taxable year; except that this subsection shall not result in earnings and profits of the taxable year in excess of the aggregate of the distributions made by the corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year exclusive of the amounts, if any, which the corporation advised its shareholders to be nontaxable for Federal income tax purposes.

PAR. 7. Article 48 (e)–1 of Regulations 94, article 362–1 of Regulations 101, and section 19.362–1 of Regulations 103, as amended by Treasury Decision 5066, approved October 10, 1941, are each amended by inserting the following paragraph at the end thereof:

If a corporation filed an income tax return for a taxable year to which these regulations are applicable as a mutual investment company, the earnings and profits of such corporation for such taxable year (but not its accumulated earnings and profits) shall not be reduced by any amount which is not allowable as a deduction in computing its net income for such taxable year, except that this provision shall not result in earnings and profits for the taxable year in excess of the aggregate of the distributions made by the corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year, exclusive of the amounts, if any, which the corporation advised its shareholders to be nontaxable for Federal income tax purposes. Thus, if a corporation made a return for a taxable year showing adjusted net income of $500,000 and a basic surtax credit of $500,000, and subsequently it was discovered that the company had no accumulated earnings and profits at the beginning of the taxable year, and its earnings and profits for the taxable year amounted only to $450,000 instead of $500,000 due to the fact that there were losses of $50,000 which were not deductible against net income, the company will, nevertheless, be allowed a basic surtax credit of $500,000 if it were otherwise entitled to such credit, provided it has not advised its shareholders that $50,000 of the distribution was not taxable as a dividend. If it had advised its shareholders that $30,000 of the distribution was not taxable as a dividend, then the basic surtax credit for such taxable year would amount to $470,000, and the company's Supplement Q net income would amount to $30,000.

(b) General rule, election, and definitions.—The Internal Revenue Code is amended by inserting after section 124 the following new section:

SEC. 125. AMORTIZABLE BOND PREMIUM.

(a) General rule. In the case of any bond, as defined in subsection (d), the following rules shall apply to the amortizable bond premium (determined under subsection (b)) on the bond for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941:

(1) Interest wholly or partially taxable. In the case of a bond (other than a bond the interest on which is excludible from gross income), the amount of the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year shall be allowed as a deduction.

(2) Interest wholly tax-exempt. In the case of any bond the interest on which is excludible from gross income, no deduction shall be allowed for the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year.

(3) Adjustment of credit in case of interest partially tax-exempt. In the case of any bond the interest on which is allowable as a credit against net income, the credit provided in section 25 (a) (1) or (2), or section 26 (a), as the case may be, shall be reduced by the amount of the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year.

(For adjustment to basis on account of amortizable bond premium, see section 113 (b) (1) (H))

(b) Amortizable Bond Premium.

(1) Amount of bond premium. For the purposes of paragraph (2), the amount of bond premium, in the case of the holder of any bond, shall be determined with reference to the amount of the basis (for determining loss on sale or exchange) of such bond, and with reference to the amount payable on maturity or on earlier call date, with adjustments proper to reflect unamortized bond premium with respect to the bond, for the period prior to the date as of which subsection (a) becomes applicable with respect to the taxpayer with respect to such bond.

(2) Amount amortizable. The amortizable bond premium of the taxable year shall be the amount of the bond premium attributable to such year.

(3) Method of determination. The determinations required under paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be made:

(A) In accordance with the method of amortizing bond premium regularly employed by the holder of the bond, if such method is reasonable;

(B) In all other cases, in accordance with regulations prescribing reasonable methods of amortizing bond premium, prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary.

(c) Election on taxable and partially taxable bonds.

(1) Eligibility to elect and bond with respect to which election permitted. This section shall apply with respect to the following classes of taxpayers with respect to the following classes of bonds only if the taxpayer has elected to have this section apply:

(A) Partially tax-exempt. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, bonds with respect to the interest on which the credit provided in section 25 (a) (1) or (2) is allowable; and

(B) Wholly taxable. In the case of any taxpayer, bonds the interest on which is not excludible from gross income but with respect to which the credit provided in section 25 (a) (1) or (2), or section 26 (a), as the case may be, is not allowable.

(2) Manner and effect of election. The election authorized under this subsection shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary shall prescribe. If such election is made with respect to any bond (described in paragraph (1)) of the taxpayer, it shall also apply to all such bonds held by the taxpayer at the beginning of the first taxable year to which the election applies and to all such bonds thereafter acquired by him and shall be binding for all subsequent taxable years with respect to all such bonds of the taxpayer, unless, upon application by the taxpayer, the Commissioner permits him, subject to such conditions as the Commissioner deems necessary, to revoke such election. The election authorized under this subsection in the case of a member of a partnership shall be exercisable with respect to bonds of the partnership only by the partnership. In the case of bonds held by a common trust fund, as defined in section 169, or by a foreign personal holding company, as defined in section 331, the election authorized under this subsection shall be exercisable with respect to such bonds only by the common trust fund or foreign personal holding company.

(d) Definition of bond. As used in this section, the term "bond" means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by any corporation and bearing interest (including any like obligation issued by a government or political subdivision thereof), with interest coupons or in registered form, but does not include any such obligation which constitutes stock in trade of the taxpayer or any such obligation of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or any such obligation held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business.

* * * * *

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

§ 19.125–1 In general—(a) Application. Section 125 makes provision for the amortization of bond premium by the owners of the bonds. It is mandatory with respect to:

(1) Fully tax-exempt bonds (the interest on which is excludible from gross income), whether the owner is a corporation, individual, or other taxpayer; and

(2) Partially tax-exempt bonds (the interest on which is subject only to surtax) owned by a corporation.

It is optional, at the election of the taxpayer, with respect to:

(1) Fully taxable bonds (the interest on which is subject to normal tax and surtax), whether the owner is a corporation, individual, or other taxpayer; and

(2) Partially tax-exempt bonds owned by taxpayers other than corporations.

The term "bond" as used in section 125 means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by any corporation and bearing interest (including any like obligation issued by a government or political subdivision thereof), with interest coupons or in registered form, but does not include any such obligation which constitutes stock in trade of the taxpayer or any such obligation of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or any such obligation held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business. Since bonds owned by dealers in securities are excluded from the foregoing definition, section 125 has no application to such dealers.

(b) Operation. In the case of a fully tax-exempt bond, the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year is simply an adjustment to the basis or adjusted basis of the bonds. Thus, if such premium is $1, the basis or adjusted basis of the bond is reduced by $1. No deduction is allowable on account of such amortizable bond premium. In the case of a fully taxable bond to which section 125 is applicable, the amortizable bond premium is both an adjustment to the basis or adjusted basis of the bond and a deduction. In the case of a partially tax-exempt bond to which such section is applicable, the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year is used for three purposes: (1) As an adjustment to the basis or adjusted basis of the bond; (2) as a deduction; and (3) as a reduction of the credit for the interest on the bond, provided in section 25 (a) (1) or (2), or section 26 (a). Accordingly, if the interest on such a partially tax-exempt bond for the taxable year is $30 and the amortizable bond premium thereon for such taxable year is $5, the $30 is included in gross income, the $5 is allowable as a deduction, an adjustment in the amount of $5 is made to the basis or adjusted basis of the bond, and the credit on account of such interest is $25 ($30 minus $5).

In the case of a trust the income of which is distributable to the beneficiaries in whole or in part, where the trustee elects to amortize bond premium by deducting the amount thereof in the return filed for the trust on Form 1041, the distributable income of the trust determined in accordance with the provisions of section 162 (b) is the full amount otherwise distributable without reduction for amortization of bond premium in all cases where, under the law applicable to the trust or under the provisions of the trust instrument, the income distributable to the beneficiaries shall not be reduced by such reduction for amortization (see section 24 (d)).

§ 19.125–2 Bond premium and amortizable bond premium. Bond premium on any bond to which section 125 applies is the excess of the amount of the basis (for determining loss on sale or exchange) of the bond over the amount payable at maturity or, in the case of a callable bond, earlier call date. (For determination of applicable call date see § 19.125–5.) If the date as of which such basis of the bond was established precedes the first taxable year with respect to which such section applies to the bond, there shall be made adjustments proper to reflect unamortized bond premium on such bond for the period including the holding period (as determined under section 117 (h)) prior to the date as of which section 125 first becomes applicable to the bond in the hands of the taxpayer. The application of the preceding sentence relating to adjustments may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). On January 1, 1942, T, who makes his income tax returns on the calendar year basis, owns a fully taxable $100 bond, maturing on January 1, 1952. T purchased this bond on January 1, 1932, for $120. T elects to have section 125 apply to such bond for 1942 and subsequent taxable years. In determining the amount of bond premium to be amortized over the remaining 10 years of the life of the bond, T is required, but solely for such purpose, to treat the bond as if he had amortized the bond premium thereon during the prior 10 years under this section, and to make the proper adjustment in the original bond premium. Accordingly, T would treat $10 as having been amortized during the first 10 years and would be required to amortize the remaining $10 over the following 10 years. When the bond is redeemed on January 1, 1952, for $100, only the $10 attributable to the second 10 years will actually have been amortized. The $10 attributable to the first 10 years will have been treated as an adjustment to the original bond premium but will not have been amortized. Consequently T will have a capital loss in the year of redemption on account of the $10 attributable to the period 1932–1942.

Example (2). On January 1, 1942, X's father gave him a fully taxable $100 bond maturing on January 1, 1952. X's father had purchased the bond on January 1, 1932, for $120. The fair market value of the bond at the time of the gift was $130. X makes his income tax returns on the calendar year basis and elects to amortize the bond premium on the bond during the period from 1942 to 1952. Under section 113 (a) (2) the cost of the bond to X's father constitutes the basis of the bond in X's hands for determining loss, since such cost is lower than the fair market value of the bond at the time of the gift, and under section 117 (h) (2) X's holding period is deemed to include the 10 years during which his father held the bond. X is required to treat the bond as if the bond premium thereon had been amortized during his father's holding period. Thus, X is required to amortize $10 over the period 1942–1952 and in the year of redemption will have a capital loss on account of the $10 attributable to his father's holding period.

Example (3). On January 1, 1942, Y, who makes his income tax returns on the calendar year basis, owns a tax-exempt $100 bond, maturing on January 1, 1951. He purchased this bond on January 1, 1941, for $110. On December 31, 1944, Y sells the bond for $108 and thus realizes a gain of $1, computed as follows:

(1) Total bond premium ($110 minus $100)	$10
(2) Amount of bond premium amortizable under section 125 (Total bond premium minus unamortized bond premium attributable to 1941, $10 minus $1)	9
(3) Amount of bond premium amortized from January 1, 1942, through December 31, 1944 ($1 for each such year)	3
(4) Adjusted basis of bond at close of 1944 ($110 minus $3)	107
(5) Gain ($108 minus $107)	1

Amortizable bond premium on any bond to which section 125 applies is such part of the bond premium on the bond as is attributable to the taxable year.

§ 19.125–3 Methods of amortization. The determinations of the bond premium and amortizable bond premium on any bond to which section 125 applies shall be made in accordance with:

(a) The method of amortization regularly employed by the taxpayer, if such method is reasonable; or

(b) The method of amortization prescribed by this section.

A method of amortization will be deemed "regularly employed" by a taxpayer if the method was consistently followed in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, or if for taxable years beginning on or after such date the taxpayer (including a taxpayer who followed a different method in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942) initiates in the first taxable year for which the deduction is taken a reasonable method of amortization and consistently follows such method thereafter. A taxpayer who regularly employs a method of amortization may be one, for example, who is subject to the jurisdiction of a State or Federal regulatory agency and who, for the purposes of such agency, amortizes the bond premium on his bonds in accordance with a method prescribed or approved by such agency. However, it is not necessary that the taxpayer be subject to the jurisidiction of such an agency or that the method be prescribed or approved by such agency. It is sufficient if the taxpayer regularly employs a method of amortization and if such method is reasonable.

The method of amortization prescribed by this section is as follows:

(1) The bond premium on any bond to which section 125 applies shall be determined in accordance with § 19.125–2 and shall be computed as of the end of the taxable year (or as of the date of disposition or redemption of the bond, if it was disposed of or redeemed in the taxable year) but without regard to the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year; and

(2) The amortizable bond premium on such bond for the taxable year shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the bond premium on the bond as the number of months in the taxable year during which the bond was owned by the taxpayer bears to the number of months from the beginning of the taxable year (or, if the bond was acquired in the taxable year, from the date of acquisition) to the date of maturity or earlier call date. For the purposes of this section a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month in which case it shall be considered as a month.

§ 19.125–4 Election. In the case of a corporation, the election provided in section 125 may be made only with respect to fully taxable bonds. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the election provided in such section may be made with respect to (a) fully taxable bonds only, or (b) partially tax-exempt bonds only, or (c) both fully taxable bonds and partially tax-exempt bonds. Such election shall be made by the taxpayer by claiming a deduction for the bond premium in his return for the first taxable year to which he desires the election to be applicable. No other method of making such election is permitted. If the election is so made, the taxpayer should attach to his return a statement showing the computation of the deduction. The election shall apply to all bonds in respect of which it was made owned by the taxpayer at the beginning of the first taxable year to which the election applies and also to all bonds of such class (or classes) thereafter acquired by him, and shall be binding for all subsequent taxable years. Upon application by the taxpayer, the Commissioner may permit him to revoke the election, subject to such conditions as the Commissioner deems necessary. In the case of bonds owned by a partnership, common trust fund, or foreign personal holding company, the election shall be exercisable by such partnership, common trust fund, or foreign personal holding company.

§ 19.125–5 Callable and convertible bonds. The fact that a bond is callable or convertible into stock does not, in itself, prevent the application of section 125. For the purposes of such section, in the case of a callable bond the earlier call date will be considered as the maturity date and the amount due on such date will be considered as the amount payable on maturity, unless the taxpayer regularly employs a different method of amortization which is reasonable. Hence, the bond premium on such a bond is required to be spread over the period from the date as of which the basis for loss of the bond is established down to the earlier call date, rather than the maturity date. The earlier call date may be the earliest call date specified in the bond as a day certain, the earliest interest payment date if the bond is callable at such date, the earliest date at which the bond is callable at par, or such other call date, prior to maturity, specified in the bond as may be selected by the taxpayer. A taxpayer who deducts amortizable bond premium with reference to a particular call date may not thereafter use a different call date in the calculation of amortization deductions with respect to such premium. A convertible bond is within the scope of section 125 if the option to convert on a certain date specified in the bond rests with the holder thereof.

§ 19.125–6 Capitalized expenses. In the case of a bond on which there is no bond premium exclusive of capitalized expenses, such as buying commissions), but to which section 125 otherwise applies a taxpayer who is required by these regulations to use the method of amortization prescribed by § 19.125–3, a taxpayer who regularly employs a reasonable method of amortization under which such capitalized expenses are amortized, or a taxpayer who regularly employs a reasonable method of amortization under which such capitalized expenses are not amortized, is permitted but not required, to amortize such capitalized expenses in accordance with such method.

In the case of a bond to which section 125 applies and on which there is bond premium exclusive of capitalized expenses, a taxpayer who is required by these regulations to use the method of amortization prescribed by § 19.125–3, must treat capitalized expenses as being part of the bond premium for the purposes of section 125, or if the taxpayer regularly employs a reasonable method of amortization under which such capitalized expenses are treated as being part of the bond premium for the purposes of amortization, such capitalized expenses must be treated as being part of the bond premium for the purposes of section 125, but if under such regularly employed method such capitalized expenses are not treated as being part of the bond premium for the purposes of amortization, the taxpayer may, but is not required to treat such capitalized expenses as being part of the bond premium for the purposes of section 125.

§ 19.125–7 Taxable years in which interest not received or accruable. In the case of a taxpayer who makes his income returns on the cash receipts and disbursements basis or one who makes his returns on the accrual basis and who owns a bond to which section 125 applies and in respect of which no interest is received or accrued by the taxpayer during the taxable year, if the taxpayer is required by these regulations to use the method of amortization prescribed by § 19.125–3, or if the taxpayer regularly employs a reasonable method of amortization under which the bond premium on such bond for such taxable year is amortized, or if the taxpayer regularly employs a reasonable method of amortization under which the bond premium on such bond for such taxable year is not amortized, amortization of bond premium on such bond for such taxable year is not required, but will be permitted in accordance with such method.

§ 19.125–8 Bonds owned by decedents—(a) Cash basis decedents. If a decedent on the cash receipts and disbursements basis owned fully taxable bonds and partially tax-exempt bonds to which section 125 applies:

(1) In the case of a fully taxable bond, the interest accruing thereon during the period ending with his death is, by reason of section 126, included upon its receipt in the gross income of the estate or legatee, whichever acquires the right to receive such interest, while the deduction on account of amortizable bond premium for such period is properly allowable as a deduction for such period under the decedent's method of accounting and is not allowable as a deduction for the estate or legatee; and

(2) In the case of a partially tax-exempt bond:

(i) The interest accruing thereon for such period is similarly included upon its receipt in the gross income of the estate or legatee, as the case may be;

(ii) The estate's or legatee's credit for such interest is not reduced on account of the amortizable bond premium for such period; and

(iii) The deduction on account of the amortizable bond premium for such period is allowable as a deduction in the return for the decedent as in the case of a fully taxable bond.

The application of the foregoing provisions relating to a partially tax-exempt bond may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. At the time of his death in 1942, D owns a partially tax-exempt bond to which section 125 applies. For the period beginning January 1, 1942, and ending with his death, the accrued interest on such bond is $25 and the amortizable bond premium is $2. D's estate has the right to receive such interest. D's executor, in making the income tax return for such period, may take into account a deduction in the amount of $2 on account of the amortizable bond premium for such period. D's estate includes the interest ($25) in its gross income upon receipt and, for the purposes of the normal tax, receives a credit for $25, which is not reduced on account of the amortizable bond premium which was a deduction allowable for the last taxable period of the decedent.

(b) Accrual basis decedents. If a decedent on the accrual basis owns fully taxable bonds and partially tax-exempt bonds to which section 125 applies:

(1) In the case of a fully taxable bond both the interest accruing thereon during the period ending with his death and the deduction on account of the amortizable bond premium for such period is allowable as a deduction in the return for the decedent; and

(2) In the case of a partially tax-exempt bond, the rule as to the accrued interest and the amortization deduction is the same as in (1) above, and his credit for such interest is required to be reduced by the amount of the amortizable bond premium for the period ending with the decedent's death.

§ 19.125–9 Partially tax-exempt bond owned by estates, trusts, partnerships, etc. If a trust owning partially tax-exempt bonds elects to amortize the bond premium thereon under section 125, the credits of the trust and the beneficiaries on account of such interest are required to be reduced by the portion of the amortization deduction attributable to their shares of such interest. A similar rule is applied in the case of partially tax-exempt bonds owned by estates, common trust funds, partnerships, foreign personal holding companies, and personal service corporations.

(1) For the purposes of subsection (a) (2) the credits allowed by section 25 (a) shall be reduced as provided in section 125 (a) (3),

(2) For the purposes of subsection (b) the proportionate share of the legatee, heir or beneficiary of such interest shall be his proportionate share of such interest (determined without regard to this paragraph) reduced by so much of the deduction under section 23 (v) as is attributable to such share. The remainder of such deduction, for the purposes of the last sentence of subsection (b), shall be applied in reduction of such credits of the estate or trust.

§ 19.123–3 Retroactive election to include loans in income. Even though the taxpayer has not previously elected to treat any loans received by him from the Commodity Credit Corporation as income, he may exercise such election with respect to any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1942, at, or at any time prior to, the time prescribed for the filing of the taxpayer's return for the taxable year of the taxpayer beginning in 1942, or if there is more than one taxable year of the taxpayer beginning in 1942, for the last taxable year beginning in 1942. If the taxpayer makes such a retroactive election, then for all taxable years subsequent to the one for which the election was made he shall include in his gross income all amounts received by him during those years as loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation, unless he secures the permission of the Commissioner to change to a different method of accounting. The taxpayer must, in addition, meet two other conditions before he will be allowed to make an election with regard to any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1942, to include any loans received from the Commodity Credit Corporation in his gross income.

1. The records of the taxpayer must be sufficient to permit an accurate computation of income for the taxable year in question and for all subsequent taxable years.

2. The taxpayer must consent in writing to the assessment, within such period as may be agreed upon, of any deficiency for the taxable year in question and for all subsequent taxable years which began before January 1, 1942, even though the statutory period for the assessment of any such deficiency has expired prior to the filing of such consent, and even though the deficiency does not result from the inclusion in gross income of amounts received as loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation.

PAR. 5. There is inserted immediately before the heading "Credits Against Tax" which precedes section 131 the following:

SEC. 157. RECOVERY OF UNCONSTITUTIONAL FEDERAL TAXES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) In general. Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code is amended by inserting after section 127 the following new section:

SEC. 128. RECOVERY OF UNCONSTITUTIONAL FEDERAL TAXES.

Income (excluding interest) attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of a tax imposed by the United States which has been held unconstitutional, and in respect of which a deduction was allowed in a prior taxable year may be excluded from gross income for the taxable year, and the deduction allowed in respect thereof in such prior taxable year treated as not having been allowable, if

(a) The taxpayer elects in writing (at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary) to treat such deduction as not having been allowable for such prior taxable year, and

(b) The taxpayer consents in writing to the assessment, within such period as may be agreed upon, of any deficiencies resulting from such treatment, even though the statutory period for the assessment of any such deficiency had expired prior to the filing of such consent.

(b) Taxable years to which applicable. The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940.

§ 19.128–1 Recovery of unconstitutional taxes.—(a) In general. With respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940, and subject to the limitations herein, a taxpayer who recovers unconstitutional Federal taxes, such as taxes imposed by the Agricultural Adjustment Act, which were paid or accrued and for which a deduction was allowed in a prior taxable year is entitled at his election (see paragraph (b) of this section) to exclude the income (exclusive of interest) attributable to such recovery from his gross income in the taxable year of recovery.

In the event a taxpayer elects to receive the benefits of section 128 the income (exclusive of interest) attributable to the recovery of the unconstitutional Federal tax will be treated as an offset to the deduction allowed therefor in prior taxable years. The taxpayer's return for the prior taxable year or years with respect to which the statutory period for the assessment of a deficiency has expired will be opened only for the purpose of reducing the deduction allowed for the unconstitutional Federal tax and assessing the resulting deficiency or deficiencies, if any, and only if the taxpayer consents in writing to the assessment (see paragraph (b) of this section). No other adjustment will be allowed.

In the event the disallowance of the deduction allowed in respect of a prior taxable year results in a deficiency for that year, the deficiency will be assessed within the period agreed upon between the taxpayer and the Commissioner, in respect of the taxable year of the prior deduction, against the taxpayer (who must file a written consent to the assessment as provided in paragraph (b)) even though the statutory period for the assessment may have expired prior to the filing of the consent.

If a taxpayer does not elect under the provisions of section 128 to exclude the tax recovered from gross income in the taxable year of recovery, the tax recovered shall from the standpoint of its inclusion in or exclusion from gross income be governed by the provisions of section 22 (b) (12).

Where a taxpayer's liability for income tax with respect to the deduction or the recovery or with respect to the tax liability for the year of the deduction or recovery has been finally determined by a written agreement or by a decision of the Board of Tax Appeals or of any Court, the taxpayer will not be entitled to the benefits of section 128 or of this section. As to taxability of refund of taxes generally, see section 22 (b) (12) as added by section 116 of the Revenue Act of 1942.

(b) Manner of making election. The election provided for in paragraph (a) of this section shall be made by the taxpayer filing with the Commissioner a statement in writing that he elects to treat the deduction allowed in a prior taxable year for the unconstitutional tax as not having been allowable for such taxable year. Such a statement must be filed with the taxpayer's return for the taxable year in which the recovery of the unconstitutional tax or taxes occurs. Where the recovery antedates the date of approval of this Treasury decision the statement of election must be filed within 90 days after February 10, 1943, the date of approval of this Treasury decision. No other method of making the election is permitted. The statement of election must contain a description of the tax recovered, the date of recovery, the taxable year in which paid or accrued and the taxable year for which the deduction was allowed. The statement of election must also contain a statement signifying the taxpayer's consent (1) to the Commissioner's treating the deduction or portion thereof allowed in a prior year with respect to the unconstitutional tax as not allowable for that year and (2) to the Commissioner's assessing, in respect of the taxable year for which the deduction was allowed, any deficiency, together with interest thereon as provided by law, resulting from disallowance of the deduction, or portion thereof even though the statutory period for the assessment of any such deficiency may have expired prior to the filing of such consent.

As used in this section the term "recovery" includes not only refund or credit of taxes previously paid, but includes also the cancellation of a purported tax liability which was accrued and deducted for a prior taxable year but never actually paid.

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately preceding section 19.131–1 the following:

SEC. 158. FOREIGN TAX CREDIT. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Choice of credit. Section 131 (a) (relating to allowance of credit for taxes of foreign countries and possessions of the United States) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Allowance of credit. If the taxpayer chooses to have the benefits of this section, the tax imposed by this chapter, except the tax imposed under section 102 or section 450, shall be credited with:

(1) Citizens and domestic corporations. In the case of a citizen of the United States and of a domestic corporation, the amount of any income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States; and

(2) Resident of United States. In the case of a resident of the United States, the amount of any such taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to any possession of the United States; and

(3) Alien resident of United States. In the case of an alien resident of the United States, the amount of any such taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to any foreign country, if the foreign country of which such alien resident is a citizen or subject, in imposing such taxes, allows a similar credit to citizens of the United States residing in such country; and

(4) Partnerships and estates. In the case of any such individual who is a member of a partnership or a beneficiary of an estate or trust, his proportionate share of such taxes of the partnership or the estate or trust paid or accrued during the taxable year to a foreign country or to any possession of the United States, as the case may be.

Such choice may be made or changed at any time prior to the expiration of the period prescribed for making a claim for credit or refund of the tax imposed by this chapter.

* * * * *

(c) The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940.

(d) Limit on credit in case of corporations. Section 131 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Limit on credit. The amount of the credit taken under this section shall be subject to each of the following limitations:

(1) The amount of the credit in respect of the tax paid or accrued to any country shall not exceed the same proportion of the tax against which such credit is taken, which the taxpayer's net income from sources within such country bears to his entire net income, in the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, or to the sum of the normal-tax net income and the amount of the credit for adjusted excess profits net income provided in section 26 (e), in the case of a corporation, for the same taxable year; and

(2) The total amount of the credit shall not exceed the same proportion of the tax against which such credit is taken, which the taxpayer's net income from sources without the United States bears to his entire net income, in the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, or to the sum of the normal-tax net income and the amount of the credit for adjusted excess profits net income provided in section 26 (e), in the case of a corporation, for the same taxable year.

(e) Credit on account of subsidiary of foreign subsidiary. Section 131 (f) (relating to credit for taxes of a foreign subsidiary) is amended to read as follows:

(f) Taxes of Foreign Subsidiary.

(1) Foreign subsidiary of domestic corporation. For the purposes of this section, a domestic corporation which owns a majority of the voting stock of a foreign corporation from which it receives dividends in any taxable year shall be deemed to have paid the same proportion of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes paid or deemed to be paid by such foreign corporation to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States, upon or with respect to the accumulated profits of such foreign corporation from which such dividends were paid, which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of such accumulated profits; Provided, That the amount of tax deemed to have been paid by such domestic corporation under this subsection shall in no case exceed the same proportion of the tax against which credit is taken which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of the normal-tax net income of the domestic corporation in which such dividends are included. The term "accumulated profits" when used in this subsection in reference to a foreign corporation, means the amount of its gains, profits, or income in excess of the income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes imposed upon or with respect to such profits or income; and the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary shall have full power to determine from the accumulated profits of what year or years such dividends were paid; treating dividends paid in the first sixty days of any year as having been paid from the accumulated profits of the preceding year or years (unless to his satisfaction shown otherwise), and in other respects treating dividends as having been paid from the most recently accumulated gains, profits, or earnings. In the case of a foreign corporation, the income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes of which are determined on the basis of an accounting period of less than one year, the word "year" as used in this subsection shall be construed to mean such accounting period.

(2) Foreign subsidiary of foreign corporation. If such foreign corporation owns all the voting stock (except qualifying shares) of another foreign corporation from which it receives dividends in any taxable year it shall be deemed to have paid the same proportion of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes paid by such other foreign corporation to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States, upon or with respect to the accumulated profits of the corporation from which such dividends were paid, which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of such accumulated profits.

(f) Credit for taxes in lieu of income, etc., taxes. Section 131 (relating to credit for taxes of foreign countries and possessions of the United States) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(h) Credit for taxes in lieu of income, etc., taxes. For the purposes of this section and section 23 (c) (1), the term "income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes" shall include a tax paid in lieu of a tax upon income, war-profits, or excess-profits otherwise generally imposed by any foreign country or by any possession of the United States.

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 7. Section 19.131–1 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking from the first and third paragraphs the words "signifies in his return his desire" wherever occurring therein, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "chooses (or, for years beginning before January 1, 1941, if the taxpayer signifies in his return his desire)".

(B) By striking from the second paragraph the words "signifies in his return his desire" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "chooses (or, for years beginning before January 1, 1941, who signifies in his return his desire)".

(C) By inserting as the fourth paragraph thereof the following:

The choice available to the taxpayer with respect to claiming such credit for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940, may be exercised (or changed if previously exercised) by the taxpayer at any time prior to the expiration of the period prescribed by statute for the making of a claim for credit or refund for such taxable year. For disallowance as a deduction of foreign income, war-profits or excess-profits taxes in the event such choice is made, see § 19.23 (c)–1.

(D) By amending the fourth paragraph (as that paragraph existed prior to this Treasury decision) to read as follows:

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1939, and before January 1, 1943, no credit for taxes shall be allowed against the tax imposed under section 102, relating to surtax on corporations improperly accumulating surplus, and for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942, credit for taxes shall be allowed neither against the tax imposed under section 102, relating to surtax on corporations improperly accumulating surplus, nor against the Victory tax imposed under section 450.

PAR. 8. Section 19.131–2 is amended by adding immediately after the first sentence thereof the following:

* * * For the purposes of section 131, and section 23 (c) (1) the term "income, war-profits and excess-profits taxes" includes, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, a tax imposed by statute or decree by a foreign country or by a possession of the United States if (a) such country or possession has in force a general income tax law, (b) the taxpayer claiming the credit would, in the absence of a specific provision applicable to such taxpayer, be subject to such general income tax, and (c) such general income tax is not imposed upon the taxpayer thus subject to such substituted tax. For example, the A Corporation does business in the X Country which imposes an income tax upon substantially a net income base. The ascertainment of net income, though not the determination of gross income, from sources in X Country is found administratively difficult. The X Country, by decree, provides that corporations circumstanced as was the A Corporation would, in lieu of the income tax at the rate of 20 percent otherwise payable, be subject to tax at the rate of 10 percent upon the amount of gross income from X Country. In accordance with such decree, the A Corporation paid X Country the sum of $25,000 in 1943 with respect to its tax liability to the X Country for the year 1942. Such amount, subject to the applicable limitations, is available as a credit to the A Corporation as foreign income, war-profits or excess-profits taxes against the United States tax liability for the year 1942.

PAR. 9. Section 19.131–3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5056, approved June 28, 1941, is further amended as follows:

(A) By adding after the word "If" in the first sentence thereof the following: ", for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1941,".

(B) By adding as the second sentence thereof the following:

* * * For taxable years begining after December 31, 1940 if the taxpayer does not so signify in his return his desire to claim such credit but subsequent to the filing of such return he chooses to claim such credit, he must so notify the Commissioner and attach to such notification Form 1116 or Form 1118, as the case may be.

(C) By amending the last paragraph thereof as follows:

(1) By inserting after the word "If" the following: ", for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1941,".

(2) By inserting after the word "cannot" the following: ", for such taxable years,".

(3) By adding at the end of such paragraph the following sentence: "For years beginning after December 31, 1940, however, the taxpayer may claim the benefits of section 131 at any time prior to the expiration of the period prescribed for the making of claim for credit or refund of the tax imposed under chapter 1 of the Code for such taxable year."

PAR. 10. Section 19.131–7 is amended as follows:

(A) By amending the heading thereof to read as follows:

§ 19.131–7 Taxes of subsidiary corporation—(a) Domestic corporation owning a majority of the stock of a foreign corporation.

(B) By inserting as the third sentence thereof the following:

* * * See, however, the limitations provided in section 131 (b) and § 19.131–8.

(C) By adding at the end thereof the following:

(b) Foreign subsidiary of foreign subsidiary of a domestic parent corporation. In the case of any foreign corporation coming within the scope of section 131 (f) (1) and subsection (a) of this section in which such foreign corporation (hereinafter referred to as the foreign parent) owns all of the stock, except qualifying shares, of another foreign corporation (hereinafter referred to as the foreign subsidiary), the foreign parent, receiving a dividend from the foreign subsidiary, shall be deemed to have paid that proportion of the income, war-profits and excess-profits taxes actually paid by the foreign subsidiary upon or with respect to the accumulated profits of such foreign subsidiary which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of such accumulated profits. Such tax is then taken into consideration in the determination of the amount of income, war-profits and excess-profits taxes paid or deemed to have been paid by the foreign parent upon or with respect to its own accumulated profits from which dividends were paid by such foreign parent to its domestic parent corporation.

The application of these principles in the determination of the amount of the foreign tax available as a basis for a credit to the domestic parent corporation may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. The A Company, a domestic corporation, owns a majority of the voting stock of the B Company, Ltd., a foreign corporation, which in turn owns all of the stock except qualifying shares of the C Company, Ltd., another foreign corporation. The accumulated profits of the B Company amount to $200,000 (including $25,000 dividend derived from the C Company) and the foreign income tax paid by the B Company with respect to such accumulated profits amounts to $60,000. The C Company has accumulated profits of $150,000 upon or with respect to which the foreign income, war-profits and excess-profits taxes are $45,000. A dividend of $50,000 is paid in 1942 by the B Company to the A Company and in the same year a dividend of $25,000 is paid by the C Company to the B Company. The amount of the foreign income, war-profits, and excess-profits tax of the C Company deemed to have been paid by the B Company is $\frac{$25,000}{150,000} \times $45,000$, or $7,500. The proportion of the foreign income tax deemed to have been paid by the A Company with respect to the accumulated profits of the B Company from which the dividend of $50,000 was paid by the B Company to the A Company equals $\frac{$50,000}{200,000} \times ($60,000 \text{ plus } $7,500)$ equals $16,875.

PAR. 11. Section 19.131–8, as amended by Treasury Decision 5122, approved March 2, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(B) By striking out the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

The sum of these tentative credits, limited under section 131 (b) (2) so as not to exceed the same proportion of the tax against which credit is taken which the taxpayer's net income from sources without the United States bears to (a) his entire net income, or (b) (for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1939 and prior to January 1, 1942) the normal-tax net income in the case of a corporation, or (c) (for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941) the normal-tax net income computed without the credit for adjusted excess profits net income provided in section 26 (e) in the case of a corporation, for the same taxable year, is the amount allowable as a credit against the income tax under chapter 1 for income or profits taxes paid or accrued to foreign countries or possessions of the United States.
